{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird. (18) And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives. (19) So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof. (20) Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets: (21) She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying, (22) How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge? (23) Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you. (24) Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; (25) But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: (26) I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; (27) When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. (28) Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: (29) For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD: (30) They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. (31) Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.	(17) Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird. (18) And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk secretly for their own lives. (19) So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain; who takes away the life of its owners. (20) Wisdom cries outside; she speaks her voice in the streets: (21) She cries in the chief market place, in the openings of the gates: in the city she speaks her words, saying, (22) How long, you simple minded ones, will you love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge? (23) Turn yourself at my reproof: indeed, I will pour out my spirit to you, I will make known my words to you. (24) Because I have called, and you refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; (25) But you have set at nothing all my counsel, and would have none of my reproof: (26) I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear comes; (27) When your fear comes as desolation, and your destruction comes as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish comes upon you. (28) Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me early, but they will not find me: (29) Because they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah}: (30) They would have none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. (31) Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(32) For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. (33) But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil. Chapter 2 (1) My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee; (2) So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding; (3) Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; (4) If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; (5) Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God. (6) For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding. (7) He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly. (8) He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints. (9) Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path. (10) When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul; (11) Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee: (12) To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things; (13) Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; (14) Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;	(32) Because the turning away of the simple minded will kill them, and the prosperity of fools will destroy them. (33) But whoever listens to me will live safely, and will be quiet from fear of evil. Chapter 2 (1) My son, if you will receive my words, and hide my commandments within you; (2) So that you incline your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding; (3) Yes, if you cry after knowledge, and lift up your voice for understanding; (4) If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures; (5) Then you will understand the fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah}, and find the knowledge of God. (6) Because the LORD {Jehovah} gives wisdom: out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding. (7) He lays up sound wisdom for the righteous: He is a shield to those who walk uprightly. (8) He keeps the paths of justice, and preserves the way of His saints. (9) Then you will understand righteousness, and justice, and equity {fairness}; yes, every good path. (10) When wisdom enters into your heart, and knowledge is pleasant to your soul; (11) Discretion will preserve you, understanding will keep you: (12) To deliver you from the way of the evil man, from the man who speaks perverse things; (13) Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; (14) Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of the wicked;

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:  (16) To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;  (17) Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.  (18) For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.  (19) None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.  (20) That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.  (21) For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.  (22) But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it. Chapter 3  (1) My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:  (2) For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.  (3) Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:  (4) So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.  (5) Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.  (6) In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.  (7) Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.  (8) It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.	(15) Whose ways are crooked, and they are perverse in their paths:  (16) To deliver you from the strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever},<sup>a</sup> even from the stranger who flatters with her words;  (17) Who forsakes the guide of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God.  (18) Because her house inclines to death, and her paths to the dead.  (19) None that go to her return again, neither do they take hold of the paths of life.  (20) That you may walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.  (21) Because the upright will live in the land, and the perfect will remain in it.  (22) But the wicked will be cut off from the earth, and the sinners will be rooted out of it. Chapter 3  (1) My son, do not forget my law; but let your heart keep my commandments:  (2) Because they will add to you length of days, and long life, and peace.  (3) Do not let mercy and truth forsake you: bind them about your neck; write them upon the tablet of your heart:  (4) So you will find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.  (5) Trust in the LORD {Jehovah} with all your heart; and do not lean upon your own understanding.  (6) In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths.  (7) Do not be wise in your own eyes: fear {revere} the LORD {Jehovah}, and depart from evil.  (8) It will be health to your belly, and marrow to your bones.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(25) Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh. (26) For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken. (27) Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it. (28) Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee. (29) Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee. (30) Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm. (31) Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. (32) For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous. (33) The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just. (34) Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly. (35) The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools. Chapter 4 (1) Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding. (2) For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law. (3) For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. (4) He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.	(25) Do not be afraid of sudden fear, nor of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes. (26) Because the LORD {Jehovah} will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being taken. (27) Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it. (28) Do not say to your neighbor, Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give; when you have it with you now. (29) Do not devise {plan} evil against your neighbor, since he lives securely by you. (30) Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm. (31) Do not envy the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. (32) Because the perverse is abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}: but His secret is with the righteous. (33) The curse of the LORD {Jehovah} is in the house of the wicked: but He blesses the house of the just. (34) Surely He scorns the scorners: but He gives grace to the humble. (35) The wise will inherit glory: but shame will be the promotion of fools. Chapter 4 (1) Listen, you children, to the instruction of a father, and attend {pay attention} to know understanding. (2) Because I give you good instruction, do not forsake my law. (3) Because I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. (4) He taught me also, and said to me, Let your heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth. (6) Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. (7) Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. (8) Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. (9) She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee. (10) Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many. (11) I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths. (12) When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble. (13) Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life. (14) Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. (15) Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away. (16) For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. (17) For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. (18) But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. (19) The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.	(5) Obtain wisdom, get understanding: do not forget it; nor decline from the words of my mouth. (6) Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you: love her, and she will keep you. (7) Wisdom is the principal {most important} thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all you obtain get understanding. (8) Exalt her, and she will promote you: she will bring you to honor, when you embrace her. (9) She will give to your head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory she will deliver to you. (10) Listen, my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of your life will be many. (11) I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in right paths. (12) When you go, your steps will not be restrained; and when you run, you will not stumble. (13) Take fast hold of instruction; do not let her go: keep her; because she is your life. (14) Do not enter into the path of the wicked, and do not go in the way of evil men. (15) Avoid it, do not pass by it, turn from it, and pass away. (16) Because they do not sleep, unless they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. (17) Because they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. (18) But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shines more and more until the perfect day. (19) The way of the wicked is as darkness: they do not know why they stumble.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.  (21) Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.  (22) For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.  (23) Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.  (24) Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.  (25) Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.  (26) Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.  (27) Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil. Chapter 5  (1) My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:  (2) That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.  (3) For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:  (4) But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a twoedged sword.  (5) Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.  (6) Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.  (7) Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.  (8) Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:  (9) Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:  (10) Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;	(20) My son, pay attention to my words; incline your ear to my sayings. Chapter 6            (1) My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,            (2) Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.            (3) Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.            (4) Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.            (5) Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.            (6) Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:            (7) Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,            (8) Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.            (9) How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?            (10) Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:            (11) So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.            (12) A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.            (13) He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;            (14) Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.            (15) Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.            (16) These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him:	Chapter 6            (1) My son, if you are surety {made a promise; cosigner} for your friend, if you have shook hands in a pledge with a stranger,            (2) You become snared with the words of your mouth, you are taken with the words of your mouth.            (3) Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, when you have come into the hand of your friend; go, humble yourself, and make sure your friend.            (4) Do not give sleep to your eyes, nor rest to your eyelids.            (5) Deliver yourself as a doe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler {bird catcher}.            (6) Consider the ant, you who are lazy;<sup>a</sup> consider her ways, and be wise:            (7) Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,            (8) Provides her food in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest.            (9) How long will you sleep, lazy one? when will you arise out of your sleep?            (10) Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:            (11) So your poverty will come as one that travels, and your want as an armed man.            (12) A naughty person, a wicked man, walks with a perverse mouth.            (13) He winks with his eyes, he speaks with his feet, he teaches with his fingers;            (14) Perverseness is in his heart, he devises {plans} mischief continually; he sows discord.            (15) Therefore his calamity will come suddenly; suddenly he will be broken without remedy.            (16) These six things the LORD {Jehovah} hates: yes, seven are an abomination to Him:
6:6a - sluggard - lazy person - person who could work, but won't

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(33) A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.  (34) For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.  (35) He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts. Chapter 7  (1) My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.  (2) Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.  (3) Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.  (4) Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:  (5) That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.  (6) For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,  (7) And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,  (8) Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,  (9) In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:  (10) And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.  (11) (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:  (12) Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)  (13) So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him,  (14) I have peace offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows.	(33) A wound and dishonor he will receive; and his reproach will not be wiped away. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(24) The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. (25) As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. (26) As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him. (27) The fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah} prolongs days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened. (28) The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish. (29) The way of the LORD {Jehovah} is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to those who do works of sin. (30) The righteous will never be removed: but the wicked will not live in the earth. (31) The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom: but the perverse tongue will be cut out. (32) The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaks perverseness. Chapter 11 (1) A false balance<sup>a</sup> is abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}: but a just weight is His delight. (2) When pride comes, then shame comes: but with the humble is wisdom. (3) The integrity of the upright will guide them: but the perverseness of sinners will destroy them. (4) Riches do not profit in the day of wrath {anger; judgment}: but righteousness delivers from death. (5) The righteousness of the perfect will direct his way: but the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.	(24) That which the wicked fear shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. (25) As the whirlwind passes, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. (26) As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the lazy one to those who send him. (27) The fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah} prolongs days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened. (28) The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish. (29) The way of the LORD {Jehovah} is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to those who do works of sin. (30) The righteous will never be removed: but the wicked will not live in the earth. (31) The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom: but the perverse tongue will be cut out. (32) The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaks perverseness. Chapter 11 (1) A false balance<sup>a</sup> is abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}: but a just weight is His delight. (2) When pride comes, then shame comes: but with the humble is wisdom. (3) The integrity of the upright will guide them: but the perverseness of sinners will destroy them. (4) Riches do not profit in the day of wrath {anger; judgment}: but righteousness delivers from death. (5) The righteousness of the perfect will direct his way: but the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.
11:1a – false balance – weighing things using wrong weights to cheat someone of their fair share - see Prov. 20:10,23

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness. (7) When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth. (8) The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead. (9) An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered. (10) When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting. (11) By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. (12) He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace. (13) A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter. (14) Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety. (15) He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretyship is sure. (16) A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches. (17) The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh. (18) The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward. (19) As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that persueth evil pursueth it to his own death.	(6) The righteousness of the upright will deliver them: but sinners will be taken in their own naughtiness. (7) When a wicked man dies, his hope will perish: and the hope of unjust men perishes. (8) The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked comes in his place. (9) A hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbor: but through knowledge the just will be delivered. (10) When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting. (11) By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. (12) He who is void of wisdom despises his neighbor: but a man of understanding holds his peace. (13) A gossip reveals secrets: but he who is of a faithful spirit conceals the matter. (14) Where there is no counsel, the people fall: but in the multitude of counselors there is safety. (15) He who is a security for a stranger will suffer for it: and he who hates loans is sure.<sup>b</sup> (16) A gracious woman retains honor: and strong men retain riches. (17) The merciful man does good to his own soul: but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh. (18) The wicked works a deceitful work: but to him who sows righteousness there will be a sure reward. (19) As righteousness tends to life: so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death.
11:15b - surety, suretyship - i.e. if you co-sign a note [or mortgage] for a stranger, you will suffer for it, but if you do not sign notes or mortgages for others you will be secure.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight. (21) Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered. (22) As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion. (23) The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath. (24) There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. (25) The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself. (26) He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it. (27) He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him. (28) He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch. (29) He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart. (30) The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise. (31) Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.	(20) Those who are of a perverse heart are abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}: but those who are upright in their ways are His delight. (21) Though hand joins in hand, the wicked will not be unpunished: but the offspring of the righteous will be delivered. (22) As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair {beautiful} woman who has no discretion. (23) The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath {anger; judgment}. (24) There are those who share what they have, and yet increase; and there are those who withhold more than is right, but it tends to poverty. (25) The generous soul will be made fat: and he who waters will also be watered himself. (26) He who withholds corn, the people will curse: but blessings will be upon the head of him who sells it. (27) He who diligently seeks good obtains favor: but he who seeks mischief, it will come to him. (28) He who trusts in his riches will fall: but the righteous will flourish as a branch. (29) He who troubles his own house will inherit the wind: and the fool will be servant to the wise of heart. (30) The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he who wins souls is wise. (31) Indeed, the righteous will be rewarded in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 15 (1) A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger. (2) The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness. (3) The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. (4) A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit. (5) A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent. (6) In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble. (7) The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so. (8) The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight. (9) The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness. (10) Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die. (11) Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men? (12) A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise. (13) A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken. (14) The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.	Chapter 15 (1) A soft answer turns away anger: but grievous words stir up anger. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster. (10) The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe. (11) The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit. (12) Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility. (13) He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him. (14) The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear? (15) The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge. (16) A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men. (17) He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him. (18) The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty. (19) A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. (20) A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled. (21) Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. (22) Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD. (23) The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly. (24) A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.	(9) He also who is lazy in his work is brother to him who is a great waster. (10) The Name of the LORD {Jehovah} is a strong tower: the righteous runs into it, and is safe. (11) The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own conceit. (12) Before destruction the heart of man is arrogant, and before honor is humility. (13) He who answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly and shame to him. (14) The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity {weakness; illness}; but a wounded spirit who can bear? (15) The heart of the prudent obtains knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge. (16) A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men. (17) He who is first in his own cause seems just; but his neighbor comes and searches him. (18) The lot {die; dice}<sup>a</sup> causes contentions to cease, and parts between the mighty. (19) A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. (20) A man's belly will be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips he will be filled. (21) Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and those who love it will eat its fruit. (22) Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor of the LORD {Jehovah}. (23) The poor uses humble words; but the rich answer roughly. (24) A man who has friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
18:18a – the lot causes contentions to cease – Biblically, nothing happens by pure chance – even the casting of lots {throwing of dice} is controlled by the Lord.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 19 (1) Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. (2) Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth. (3) The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD. (4) Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour. (5) A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape. (6) Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts. (7) All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him. (8) He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good. (9) A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish. (10) Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes. (11) The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression. (12) The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass. (13) A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping. (14) House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD. (15) Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.	Chapter 19 (1) Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. (2) Also, if the soul is without knowledge, it is not good; and he who hurries with his feet sins. (3) The foolishness of man perverts his way: and his heart frets against the LORD {Jehovah}. (4) Wealth makes many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor. (5) A false witness will not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies will not escape. (6) Many will seek the favor of the prince: and every man is a friend to him who gives gifts. (7) All the brothers of the poor hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursues them with words, yet they leave him. (8) He who obtains wisdom loves his own soul: he who keeps understanding will find good. (9) A false witness will not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies will perish. (10) Luxury is not becoming for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes. (11) The discretion of a man defers his anger; and it is his glory to overlook a sin. (12) The king's wrath {anger; judgment} is as the roaring of a lion; but his favor is as dew upon the grass. (13) A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping. (14) House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: but a prudent wife is from the LORD {Jehovah}. (15) Laziness casts into a deep sleep; and an idle soul will suffer hunger.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die. (17) He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again. (18) Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying. (19) A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again. (20) Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end. (21) There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand. (22) The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar. (23) The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil. (24) A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again. (25) Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge. (26) He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach. (27) Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge. (28) An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity. (29) Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.	(16) He who keeps the commandment keeps his own soul; but he who despises His ways will die. (17) He who has pity upon the poor lends to the LORD {Jehovah}; and that which he has given He will repay. (18) Discipline your son while there is hope, and do not let your soul spare discipline because of his crying. (19) A man of great anger will suffer punishment: because if you deliver him, yet you must do it again. (20) Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that you may be wise in your latter life. (21) There are many devices {plans} in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD {Jehovah}, will stand. (22) The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar. (23) The fear {reverence} of the LORD leads to life: and he who has it will live satisfied; he will not be visited with evil. (24) A lazy man hides his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again. (25) Strike a scorner, and the simple minded will beware: and reprove one who has understanding, and he will understand knowledge. (26) He who wastes his father, and chases away his mother, is a son who causes shame, and brings reproach. (27) Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causes to err from the words of knowledge. (28) An ungodly witness scorns judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devours sin. (29) Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 20            (1) Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.            (2) The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.            (3) It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.            (4) The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.            (5) Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.            (6) Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?            (7) The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.            (8) A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.            (9) Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?            (10) Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.            (11) Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.            (12) The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.            (13) Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread. {20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(27) If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?  (28) Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.  (29) Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men. Chapter 23  (1) When thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:  (2) And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.  (3) Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.  (4) Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom.  (5) Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.  (6) Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:  (7) For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.  (8) The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.  (9) Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.  (10) Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:  (11) For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.  (12) Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.  (13) Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.  (14) Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.	(27) If you have nothing to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you? {20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine. (16) Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things. (17) Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long. (18) For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off. (19) Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way. (20) Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh: (21) For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags. (22) Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old. (23) Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. (24) The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him. (25) Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice. (26) My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways. (27) For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit. (28) She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men. (29) Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? (30) They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.	(15) My son, if your heart is wise, my heart will rejoice, even mine. (16) Yes, my reins {heart} will rejoice, when your lips speak right things. (17) Do not let your heart envy sinners: but be in the fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah} all the day long. (18) Because surely there is an end; and your hope will not be cut off. (19) Listen, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the way. (20) Do not be among drunkards; among riotous eaters of food {gluttons}: (21) Because the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty: and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags. (22) Listen to your father who fathered you, and do not despise your mother when she is old. (23) Buy the truth, and do not sell it; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. (24) The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice: and he who fathers a wise child will have his joy . (25) Your father and your mother will be glad, and she who bore you will rejoice. (26) My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways. (27) Because a prostitute is a deep ditch; and a strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever} is a narrow pit. (28) She also lies in wait as for a prey, and increases the sinners among men. (29) Who has woe? who has sorrow? who has contentions? who has babbling? who has wounds without cause? who has redness of eyes? (30) Those who tarry long at the wine; those who go to seek mixed wine.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(31) Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. (32) At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. (33) Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things. (34) Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. (35) They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again. Chapter 24 (1) Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them. (2) For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. (3) Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established: (4) And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. (5) A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength. (6) For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety. (7) Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate. (8) He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. (9) The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. (10) If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.	(31) Do not look upon the wine when it is red, when it gives its color in the cup, when it goes down smoothly. (32) At the last it bites like a snake, and strikes like a viper. (33) Your eyes will see strange women, and your heart will speak perverse things. (34) Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea, or as he who lies upon the top of a mast. (35) They have stricken me, you will say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I did not feel it: when will I awake? I will seek it yet again. Chapter 24 (1) Do not be envious of evil men, and have no desire to be with them. (2) Because their heart studies destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. (3) Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established: (4) And by knowledge the chambers will be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. (5) A wise man is strong; yes, a man of knowledge increases strength. (6) Because by wise counsel you will make your war: and in multitude of counselors there is safety. (7) Wisdom is too high for a fool: he does not open his mouth in the gate. (8) He who devises {plans} to do evil will be called a mischievous person. (9) The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. (10) If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain; (12) If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? (13) My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste: (14) So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off. (15) Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place: (16) For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief. (17) Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth: (18) Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him. (19) Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked; (20) For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out. (21) My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change: (22) For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?	(11) If you forbear to deliver those who are drawn to death, and those that are ready to be killed; (12) If you say, Surely, we did not know it; does He Who ponders the heart not consider it? and He who keeps your soul, does He not know it? and will He not render to every man according to his works? (13) My son, eat honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste: (14) So will the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul: when you have found it, then there will be a reward, and your hope will not be cut off. (15) Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the house of the righteous; do not spoil his resting place: (16) Because a just man falls seven times, and rises up again: but the wicked will fall into mischief. (17) Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles: (18) Lest the LORD {Jehovah} see it, and it displeases Him, and He turns away His wrath {anger; judgment} from him. (19) Do not fret yourself because of evil men, neither be envious of the wicked; (20) Because there will be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked will be put out. (21) My son, fear {revere} the LORD {Jehovah} and the king: and do not meddle with them who are given to change: (22) Because their calamity will rise suddenly; and who knows the ruin of them both?

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment. (24) He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him: (25) But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them. (26) Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer. (27) Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house. (28) Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips. (29) Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. (30) I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; (31) And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down. (32) Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction. (33) Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: (34) So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man. Chapter 25 (1) These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. (2) It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.	(23) These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment. (24) He who says to the wicked, you are righteous; him the people will curse, nations will despise him: (25) But to those who rebuke him will be delight, and a good blessing will come upon them. (26) Every man will kiss his lips who gives a right answer. (27) Prepare your work outside, and make it fit for yourself in the field; and afterward build your house. (28) Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause; and do not deceive with your lips. (29) Do not say, I will do so to him as he has done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. (30) I went by the field of the lazy, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; (31) And, indeed, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered its face, and its stone wall was broken down. (32) Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction. (33) Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: (34) So your poverty will come as one who travels; and your want as an armed man. Chapter 25 (1) These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. (2) It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honor of kings is to search out a matter.

Chapter 26 (1) As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool. (2) As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come. (3) A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back. (4) Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. (5) Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. (6) He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage. (7) The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (8) As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool. (9) As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (10) The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors. (11) As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly. (12) Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him. (13) The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. (14) As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed. (15) The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth. (16) The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason. (17) He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.	Chapter 26 (1) As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not becoming for a fool. (2) As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse without cause will not come. (3) A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the fool's back. (4) Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him. (5) Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. (6) He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off the feet, and drinks damage. (7) The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (8) As he who binds a stone in a sling, so is he that gives honor to a fool. (9) As a thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (10) The great God Who formed all things both rewards the fool, and rewards sinners. (11) As a dog returns to his vomit, so a fool returns to his folly. (12) Do you see a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope for a fool than of him. (13) The lazy man says, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. (14) As the door turns upon its hinges, so does the lazy one upon his bed. (15) The lazy hides his hand in his bosom; it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth. (16) The lazy one is wiser in his own conceit than seven men who can render a reason. (17) He who passes by, and meddles with strife that does not belong to him, is like one who takes a dog by the ears.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death,  (19) So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?  (20) Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.  (21) As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.  (22) The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.  (23) Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.  (24) He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;  (25) When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.  (26) Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.  (27) Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.  (28) A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin. Chapter 27  (1) Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.  (2) Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.  (3) A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.  (4) Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?	(18) As a mad man who casts firebrands, arrows, and death,  (19) So is the man who deceives his neighbor, and says, Am I not joking? {20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) Open rebuke is better than secret love. (6) Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. (7) The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. (8) As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place. (9) Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. (10) Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off. (11) My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me. (12) A prudent man foreseeeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished. (13) Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman. (14) He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him. (15) A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike. (16) Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself. (17) Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend. (18) Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured. (19) As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man. (20) Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.	(5) Open rebuke is better than secret love. (6) Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. (7) The full soul hates honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. (8) As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his place. (9) Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so does the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. (10) Your own friend, and your father's friend, do not forsake; neither go into your brother's house in the day of your calamity: because better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far off. (11) My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me. (12) A prudent man foresees the evil, and hides himself; but the simple minded pass on, and are punished. (13) Take his clothing that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever}. (14) He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it will be counted a curse to him. (15) A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike. (16) Whoever hides her hides the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which proclaims itself. (17) Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens the countenance {smile; facial expression} of his friend. (18) Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit: so he who waits on his master will be honored. (19) As in water a face reflects face, so the heart of man reflects man. (20) Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. (22) Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him. (23) Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds. (24) For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation? (25) The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered. (26) The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field. (27) And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens. Chapter 28 (1) The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion. (2) For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged. (3) A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food. (4) They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them. (5) Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD understand all things. (6) Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.	(21) As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. (22) Though you should beat a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet his foolishness will not depart from him. (23) Be diligent to know the state of your flocks, and look well to your herds. (24) Because riches are not forever: and does the crown endure to every generation? (25) The hay appears, and the tender grass shows itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered. (26) The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of the field. (27) And you will have goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household, and for the maintenance for your maidens. Chapter 28 (1) The wicked flee when no man pursues: but the righteous are bold as a lion. (2) Because of the sin of a land many are its princes: but by a man of understanding and knowledge its state will be prolonged. (3) A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food. (4) Those who forsake the law praise the wicked: but those who keep the law contend with them. (5) Evil men do not understand judgment: but those who seek the LORD {Jehovah} understand all things. (6) Better is the poor who walks in his uprightness, than he who is perverse in his ways, though he is rich.

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father. (8) He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor. (9) He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination. (10) Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession. (11) The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out. (12) When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. (13) He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. (14) Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief. (15) As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. (16) The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days. (17) A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him. (18) Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once. (19) He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.	(7) Whoever keeps the law is a wise son: but he who is a companion of riotous men shames his father. (8) He who by usury {interest} and unjust gain increases his substance {possessions}, he will gather it for him who will pity the poor. (9) He who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer will be an abomination. (10) Whoever causes the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he will fall himself into his own pit: but the upright will have good things in possession. (11) The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor who has understanding searches him out. (12) When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. (13) He who covers his sins will not prosper: but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy. (14) Happy is the man who always fears: but he who hardens his heart will fall into mischief. (15) As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. (16) The prince who wants understanding is also a great oppressor: but he who hates covetousness {greed} will prolong his days. (17) A man who does violence to the blood of any person will flee to the pit; let no man hold him. (18) Whoever walks uprightly will be saved: but he who is perverse in his ways will fall at once. (19) He who plows his land will have plenty of bread: but he who follows after vain persons will have poverty enough.

(20) Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him. (21) He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length. (22) An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression. (23) A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. (24) Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not. (25) The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe. (26) Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD. (27) An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked. Chapter 30 (1) The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal, (2) Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man. (3) I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy. (4) Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell? (5) Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.	(20) Do you see a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope for a fool than for him. (21) He who delicately brings up his servant from a child will have him become his son at the length. (22) An angry man stirs up strife, and a furious man abounds in sin. (23) A man's pride will bring him low: but honor will uphold the humble in spirit. (24) Whoever is partner with a thief hates his own soul: he hears cursing, and does not proclaim it. (25) The fear of man brings a snare: but whoever puts his trust in the LORD {Jehovah} will be safe. (26) Many seek the ruler's favor; but every man's judgment comes from the LORD {Jehovah}. (27) An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he who is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked. Chapter 30 (1) The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spoke to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal, (2) Surely I am more brutish {ungodly}<sup>a</sup> than any man, and do not have the understanding of a man. (3) I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy. (4) Who has ascended up into heaven, or descended? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in clothes? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His Name, and what is His Son's Name, if you can tell? (5) Every word of God is pure: He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.
30:2a - brutish - beastly, animal-like, crude - ungodly

{20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. (7) Two things have I required of thee; deny me them not before I die: (8) Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me: (9) Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain. (10) Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty. (11) There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother. (12) There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness. (13) There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up. (14) There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men. (15) The horseleech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough: (16) The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough. (17) The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.	(6) Do not add to His words, lest He reprove you, and you are found to be a liar. (7) Two things I have required of you; do not deny them to me before I die: (8) Remove vanity and lies far from me: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me: (9) Lest I be full, and deny you, and say, Who is the LORD {Jehovah}? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the Name of my God in vain. (10) Do not accuse a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you are found to be guilty. (11) There is a generation that curses their father, and does not bless their mother. (12) There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness. (13) There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up. (14) There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men. (15) The horseleech has two daughters, crying, Give, give. {20} Proverbs
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not: (19) The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid. (20) Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness. (21) For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear: (22) For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat; (23) For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress. (24) There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise: (25) The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer; (26) The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks; (27) The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands; (28) The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces. (29) There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going: (30) A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any; (31) A greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up. (32) If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth. (33) Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.	(18) There are three things which are too wonderful for me, yes, four which I do not know: (19) The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a snake upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid. (20) Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, I have done no wickedness. (21) For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear: (22) For a servant when he reigns; and a fool when he is filled with meat; (23) For a hateful woman when she is married; and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress. (24) There are four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceedingly wise: (25) The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their food in the summer; (26) The rock badgers are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks; (27) The locusts have no king, yet they go forth all of them by bands; (28) The spider takes hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces. (29) There are three things which go well, yes, four are beautiful in going: (30) A lion which is strongest among beasts, and does not turn away for any; (31) A greyhound; a male goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up. (32) If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil, lay your hand upon your mouth. (33) Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood: so the forcing of wrath {anger; judgment} brings forth strife.
