(18) Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place this way: When His mother Mary was espoused {engaged} to Joseph, before they came together {sexually}, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. (19) Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, decided to divorce her privately. (20) But while he thought about these things, The Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, descendant of David, do not be afraid to take Mary to be your wife; because that which is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. <ul> <li>2:6c -Micah 5:2 According to tradition the wise men came to Jesus when He was twelve days old, hence the "twelve days of Christmas", and "epiphany". This fits with Luke's account Luke 2:22, 39 – but not with modern "pop" theology. The "star" probably first appeared at Jesus' conception so the wise men had 9 months to prepare and make their journey from the Babylonian area to Jerusalem and then to Bethlehem. Note: modern "pop" theology rejects Luke 2:22 and 2:39 and states the wise men came two years after Jesus' birth. <ul> <li>(18) Now when Jesus saw great multitudes around Him, He gave commandment to depart to the other side.</li> <li>(19) And a certain scribe came, and said to Him, Master, I will follow You wherever You go.</li> <li>(20) And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay His head.</li> <li>(21) And another of His disciples said to Him, Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.</li> <li>(22) But Jesus said to him, Follow Me; and let the dead bury their dead.</li> <li>(23) And when He had entered into a ship, His disciples followed Him,</li> <li>(24) And, there arose a great storm on the sea {of Galilee}, so much so that the ship was covered with the waves: but He was asleep.<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(25) And His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, saying, Lord, save us: we are about to perish.</li> <li>(26) And He said to them, Why are you fearful, O you of little faith? Then He arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.</li> <li>(27) But the men marveled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him!</li> <li>(28) And when He had come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two possessed with demons, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.<sup>f</sup></li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(29) And, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with You, Jesus, You Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?</li> <li>(30) And there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine feeding.</li> <li>(31) So the demons begged Him, saying, If You cast us out, allow us to go away into the herd of swine.</li> <li>(32) And He said to them, Go. And when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea {of Galilee}, and perished in the waters.<sup>g</sup></li> <li>(33) And those who kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told everything, and what had happened to those possessed of the demons.</li> <li>(34) And, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw Him, they begged Him that He would depart out of their coasts.</li> <li>Chapter 9</li> <li>(1) And He entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into His own city.</li> <li>(2) And, they brought to Him a man paralyzed, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralyzed one; Son, be of good cheer; your sins are forgiven you.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(19) And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed, and broke, and gave the loaves to His disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.</li> <li>(20) And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that were left; twelve baskets<sup>d</sup> full.</li> <li>(21) And those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.</li> <li>(22) And immediately Jesus commanded His disciples to get into a ship, and to go before Him to the other side, while He sent the multitudes away.</li> <li>(23) And when He had sent the multitudes away.</li> <li>(24) But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: because the wind was rough.</li> <li>(25) And in the fourth watch of the night {between 3 a.m. and 6 a.m.}<sup>e</sup> Jesus went to them, walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.</li> <li>(27) But Jesus quickly spoke to them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; do not be afraid.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(28) And Peter answered Him and said, Lord, if it is You, call me to come to You on the water.</li> <li>(29) And He said, Come. <ul> <li>(2) Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? Because they do not wash their hands<sup>a</sup> when they eat bread.</li> <li>(3) But He answered and said to them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?</li> <li>(4) Because God commanded, saying, Honor your father and mother: and, He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.</li> <li>(5) But you say, Whoever shall say to his father or his mother, by whatever you might have profited from me, It is a gift to the temple;<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(6) And does not honor his father or his mother, he shall be free. So you have made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition.</li> <li>(7) You hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,</li> <li>(8) This people draws near to Me with their mouth, and honors Me with their lips; but their heart is far from Me.</li> <li>(9) But in vain they do worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(10) And He called the multitude, and said to them, Hear, and understand:</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(11) It is not that which goes into the mouth that defiles a man; but that which comes out of the mouth, this is what defiles a man.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(12) Then His disciples came, and said to Him, Do You know that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?</li> <li>(13) But He answered and said, Every plant, which My heavenly Father has not planted, shall be rooted up.</li> <li>(14) Let them alone: they are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.</li> <li>(15) Then Peter answered and said to Him, Explain to us this parable.</li> <li>(16) And Jesus said, Are you still also without understanding?</li> <li>(17) Do you still not understand, that whatever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the waste?</li> <li>(18) But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.</li> <li>(19) Because out of the heart proceeds evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications,<sup>c</sup> thefts, false witness, blasphemies:</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(20) These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man.</li> <li>(21) Then Jesus went from there, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.</li> <li>(22) And, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried to Him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, You Descendant of David;<sup>f</sup> my daughter is in great pain with a demon.</li> <li>(23) But He did not answer her not a word. And His disciples came and sought Him, saying, Send her away; because she cries after us.</li> <li>(24) But He answered and said, I am not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.</li> <li>(25) Then she came and worshiped Him, saying, Lord, help me.</li> <li>(26) But He answered and said, It is not right to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.<sup>g</sup></li> <li>(27) And she said, That is true, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.</li> <li>(28) Then Jesus answered and said to her, O woman, great is your faith: it shall be for as you want it. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.</li> <li>(29) And Jesus departed from there, and came near to the Sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(30) And great multitudes came to Him, having with them those who were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and He healed them:</li> <li>(31) So much so that the multitude marveled, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel.</li> <li>(32) Then Jesus called His disciples to Himself, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with Me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint along the road.<sup>h</sup></li> <li>(33) But His disciples said to Him, Where could we have so much food in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?</li> <li>(34) And Jesus said to them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven, and a few little fish.</li> <li>(35) And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.</li> <li>(36) And He took the seven loaves and the disciples to the multitude.</li> <li>(37) And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up of the broken food that was left seven baskets<sup>i</sup> full.</li> <li>(38) And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.</li> <li>(39) And He sent away the multitude, and took a ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(20) Then the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons came to Him, worshiping Him, and desiring something of Him.</li> <li>(21) And He said to her, What is it you want? She said to Him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on Your right hand, and the other on the left, in Your kingdom.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(22) But Jesus answered and said, You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? <ul> <li>(3) And if any man says anything to you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them; and immediately he will send them.</li> <li>(4) All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,</li> <li>(5) Tell the daughter of Zion, Look, your king comes to you, humble, and sitting upon a donkey; a colt the foal of a donkey.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(6) And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,</li> <li>(7) And brought the donkey, and the colt, and put their clothes upon them, and they set Him on the clothes.</li> <li>(8) And a very great multitude spread their coats in the road; others cut down branches from the trees, and spread them in the road.</li> <li>(9) And the multitudes who went before, and those who followed, cried, saying, Hosanna {Save us now} to the son of David: Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna {Save us now} in the highest.</li> <li>(10) And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?</li> <li>(11) And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(12) And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves,</li> <li>(13) And said to them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer;<sup>c</sup> but you have made it a den of thieves.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(14) And the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple; and He healed them.</li> <li>(15) And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna {Save us now} to the son of David; they were greatly displeased,</li> <li>(16) And said to Him, Do You not hear what these say? And Jesus said to them, Yes; have you never read,</li> <li>Out of the mouths of babes and nursing children You have perfected praise<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(17) And He left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and He lodged there.</li> <li>(18) Now in the morning as He returned into the city, He was hungry.</li> <li>(19) And when He saw a fig tree by the road, He came to it, and found nothing upon it,<sup>f</sup> but leaves only, and said to it, Let no fruit grow on you from this time forward forever. <ul> <li>{40} Then two will be in the field; the one will be taken, and the other left.</li> <li>(41) Two women will be grinding at the mill; the one will be taken, and the other left.</li> <li>(42) Watch therefore: because you do not know what hour your Lord comes.</li> <li>(43) But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken up.</li> <li>(44) Therefore you also be ready: because in such an hour as you do not think the Son of Man comes.</li> <li>(45) Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season?</li> <li>(46) Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he comes will find so doing.</li> <li>(47) Truly I say to you, That he will make him ruler over all his goods.</li> <li>(48) But if that evil servant says in his heart, My lord delays his coming;</li> <li>(49) And begins to strike his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;</li> <li>(50) The lord of that servant will come in a day when he is not looking for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,</li> <li>(51) And will cut him apart, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(1) Then the kingdom of heaven will be compared to ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.</li> <li>(2) And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.</li> <li>(3) Those who were foolish took their lamps, but took no oil with them:</li> <li>(4) But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.</li> <li>(5) While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.</li> <li>(6) And at midnight there was a cry made, Look, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him.</li> <li>(7) Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.</li> <li>(8) And the foolish said to the wise, Give us of your oil; because our lamps have gone out.</li> <li>(9) But the wise answered, saying, Not so; in case there is not enough for us and you: but you go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.</li> <li>(10) And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.</li> <li>(11) Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.</li> <li>(12) But he answered and said, Truly I say to you, I do not know you.</li> <li>(13) Watch therefore, because you do not know either the day or the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(47) And while He yet spoke, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people.</li> <li>(48) Now he who betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, that same one is He: hold Him tightly.</li> <li>(49) And immediately he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed Him.</li> <li>(50) And Jesus said to him, Friend, why have you come? Then they came, and laid hands on Jesus, and took Him.</li> <li>(51) And, one of those who was with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and cut off his ear.<sup>h</sup></li> <li>(52) Then Jesus said to him, Put up away your sword in its place: because all who take the sword shall perish with the sword.</li> <li>(53) Do you not think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He shall immediately give Me more than twelve legions of angels?<sup>i</sup></li> <li>(54) But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be this way?</li> <li>(55) In that same hour Jesus said to the multitudes, Have you come out as against a thief with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(56) But all this was done, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.<sup>j</sup> Then all the disciples forsook {left} Him, and fled.</li> <li>(57) And those who had laid hold on Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest,<sup>k</sup> where the scribes and the elders were assembled.</li> <li>(58) But Peter followed Him from a distance to the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.</li> <li>(59) Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put Him to death;</li> <li>(60) But found none: yes, though many false witnesses came, yet they found none. At the last two false witnesses came,</li> <li>(61) And said, this fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.</li> <li>(62) And the high priest arose, and said to Him, Do You answer nothing? what is it which these witness against You?</li> <li>(63) But Jesus held His peace. And the high priest answered and said to Him, I command You by the living God, that You tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God.</li> <li>(64) Jesus said to him, You have said so: nevertheless I say to you, Hereafter you shall see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.<sup>1</sup></li> </ul>

But Jesus answered again, and said to them, Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!</li> <li>(25) It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.</li> <li>(26) And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?</li> <li>(27) And Jesus looking upon them said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: because with God all things are possible.</li> <li>(28) Then Peter began to say to Him, Look, we have left all, and have followed You.</li> <li>(29) And Jesus answered and said, Truly I say to you, There is no man who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and the gospel's,</li> <li>(30) But that he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(21) But we trusted that it was He Who would redeem Israel: and besides all this, today is the third day since these things have happened.</li> <li>(22) Yes, and certain women also of our company, who were early at the tomb, astonished us;</li> <li>(23) And when they did not find His body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that He was alive.</li> <li>(24) And certain of them who were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but Him they did not see.</li> <li>(25) Then He said to them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:</li> <li>(26) Did not Christ have to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory?</li> <li>(27) And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.</li> <li>(28) And they drew near to the village, where they were going: and He acted as though He would have gone further.</li> <li>(29) But they constrained Him, saying, Stay with us: because it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And He went in to stay with them.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(30) And it came to pass, as He sat at meal with them, He took bread, and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to them.</li> <li>(31) And their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him; and He vanished out of their sight.</li> <li>(32) And they said one to another, Did not our hearts burn within us, while He talked with us by the way, and while He opened to us the Scriptures?</li> <li>(33) And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,</li> <li>(34) Saying, The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon.</li> <li>(35) And they told what things had happened on the road, and how He was known by them in breaking of bread.</li> <li>(36) And as they spoke, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, Peace be to you.</li> <li>(37) But they were terrified and afraid, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.</li> <li>(38) But He said to them, Why are you troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?</li> <li>(39) See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself: touch Me, and see; because a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.</li> </ul>

(62) What and if you shall see the Son of Man ascend up where He was before? (63) It is the Spirit Who gives life; the flesh profits nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are spirit, and they are life. (64) But there are some of you who do not believe. Because Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who would betray Him. (65) And He said, Therefore I said to you, that no man can come to Me, unless it were given to him of My Father. (66) From that time many of His disciples left, and no longer walked with Him. (67) Then Jesus said to the twelve, Will you also leave? (68) Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. (69) And we believe and are sure that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. (70) Jesus answered them, Have I not chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? (71) He spoke of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: because it was he who would betray Him, being one of the twelve.	<ul> <li>John <ul> <li>(2) Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles<sup>a</sup> was at hand.</li> <li>(3) His brothers therefore said to Him, Depart from here, and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You do.</li> <li>(4) Because there is no man who does anything in secret, if he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world.</li> <li>(5) Because neither did His brothers believe in Him.</li> <li>(6) Then Jesus said to them, My time has not yet come: but your time is always ready.</li> <li>(7) The world cannot hate you; but Me it hates, because I testify of it, that its works are evil.</li> <li>(8) You go up to this feast: I am not yet<sup>b</sup> going up to this feast; because My time has not yet fully come.</li> <li>(9) When He had said these words to them, He remained still in Galilee.</li> <li>(10) But when His brothers had left, then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.</li> <li>(11) Then the Jews sought Him at the feast, and said, Where is He?</li> <li>(12) And there was much murmuring among the people concerning Him: because some said, He is a good man: others said, No; but He deceives the people.</li> <li>(13) Nevertheless no man spoke openly about Him for fear of the Jews.</li> <li>(14) Now about the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.</li> </ul></li></ul>

<ul> <li>(15) And the Jews marveled, saying, How does this Man know letters, having never been educated?</li> <li>(16) Jesus answered them, and said, My teaching is not Mine, but His Who sent Me.</li> <li>(17) If any man will do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak of Myself.</li> <li>(18) He who speaks of himself seeks his own glory: but He who seeks the glory of Him Who sent Him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him.</li> <li>(19) Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you go about to kill Me?</li> <li>(20) The people answered and said, You have a demon: Who seeks to kill You?</li> <li>(21) Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and you all marvel.</li> <li>(22) Moses therefore gave to you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the forefathers;) and you on the sabbath day {Saturday} circumcise a man.</li> <li>(23) If a man on the sabbath {Saturday} receives circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are you angry at Me, because I have made a man in every way whole on the sabbath {Saturday}?</li> <li>(24) Do not judge according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(25) Then some of those from Jerusalem said, Is not this He, Whom they seek to kill?</li> <li>(26) But, look, He speaks boldly, and they say nothing to Him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?</li> <li>(27) How is it we know where this man is from: but when Christ comes, no man knows where He is from.</li> <li>(28) Then Jesus cried out in the temple as He taught, saying, You both know Me, and you know where I am from: and I have not come on My own, but He Who sent Me is true, Whom you do not know.</li> <li>(29) But I know Him: because I am from Him, and He has sent Me.</li> <li>(30) Then they sought to take Him: but no man laid hands on Him, because His hour had not yet come.</li> <li>(31) And many of the people believed on Him, and said, When Christ comes, will He do more miracles than these which this Man has done?</li> <li>(32) The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning Him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take Him.</li> <li>(33) Then Jesus said to them, Yet for a little while I am with you, and then I go to Him Who sent Me.</li> <li>(34) You shall seek Me, and shall not find Me: and where I am, there you cannot come.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(35) Then the Jews said among themselves, Where will He go, that we shall not find Him? will He go to the dispersed among the Gentiles {non-Jews}, and teach the Gentiles {non-Jews}?</li> <li>(36) What manner of saying is this that He said, You shall seek Me, and shall not find Me: and where I am, there you cannot come?</li> <li>(37) In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come to Me, and drink.</li> <li>(38) He who believes on Me, as the scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(39) (But this He spoke of the Spirit, which those who believe on Him would receive: because the Holy Spirit had not yet been given; because Jesus was not yet glorified.)</li> <li>(40) Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Truly this is the Prophet.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(41) Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?</li> <li>(42) Has not the scripture said, That Christ comes of the descent of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?</li> <li>(43) So there was a division among the people because of Him.</li> <li>(44) And some of them would have taken Him; but no man laid hands on Him.</li> <li>7:38c - living water - see Jn. 4:14</li> <li>7:40d - the Prophet - Deut, 18:18; Jn. 1</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(45) Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said to them, Why have you not brought Him?</li> <li>(46) The officers answered, No man has ever spoke like this Man.</li> <li>(47) Then the Pharisees answered them, Are you also deceived?</li> <li>(48) Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on Him?</li> <li>(49) But these people who do not know the law are cursed.</li> <li>(50) Nicodemus<sup>e</sup> (who came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) said to them,</li> <li>(51) Does our law judge any man, before it hears him, and knows what he does?</li> <li>(52) They answered and said to him, Are you also of Galilee? (4) They said to Him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. (5) Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: <sup>a</sup> but what do You say? (6) This they said, tempting Him, that they might have reason to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground, as though He did not hear them. (7) So when they continued asking Him, He rose up, and said to them, He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her. (8) And again He stooped down, and wrote on the ground. <sup>b</sup> (9) And those who heard it , being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. (10) When Jesus had lifted Himself up, and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, Woman, where are your accusers? has no man condemned you? (11) She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world: he who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the Light of life. (13) The Pharisees therefore said to Him, You bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not true.	<ul> <li>(14) Jesus answered and said to them, Though I bear witness of Myself, yet My witness is true: because I know from where I came, and where I go; but you cannot tell from where I come, or where I go.</li> <li>(15) You judge after the flesh; I judge no man.</li> <li>(16) And yet if I judge, My judgment is true: because I am not alone, but I and the Father Who sent Me.</li> <li>(17) It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(18) I am one Who bear witness of Myself, and the Father Who sent Me bears witness of Me.</li> <li>(19) Then they said to Him, Where is Your Father? Jesus answered, You neither know Me, nor My Father: if you had known Me, you would have known My Father also.</li> <li>(20) These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as He taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on Him; because His hour had not yet come.</li> <li>(21) Then Jesus said again to them, I go My way, and you shall seek Me, and shall die in your sins: where I go, you cannot come.</li> <li>(22) Then the Jews said, Will He kill Himself? because He said, Where I go, you cannot come.</li> <li>(23) And He said to them, You are from beneath; I am from above: you are of this world; I am not of this world.</li> <li>(24) I therefore said to you, that you shall die in your sins: because if you do not believe that I am He, you shall die in your sins.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(25) Then they said to Him, Who are You? And Jesus said to them, Even the same Whom I said to you from the beginning.</li> <li>(26) I have many things to say and to judge of you: but He Who sent Me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of Him.</li> <li>(27) They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.</li> <li>(28) Then Jesus said to them, When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you shall know that I am He, and that I do nothing of Myself; but as My Father has taught Me, I speak these things.</li> <li>(29) And He Who sent Me is with Me: the Father has not left Me alone; because I always do those things that please Him.</li> <li>(30) As He spoke these words, many believed on Him.</li> <li>(31) Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed on Him, If you continue in My word, then you are My disciples indeed;</li> <li>(32) And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.</li> <li>(33) They answered Him, We are Abraham's descendants, and were never in bondage to any man: how do You say, You shall be made free?</li> <li>(34) Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever commits sin is the servant of sin.</li> <li>(35) And the servant does not live in the house forever: but the Son lives ever.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>John <ul> <li>(37) I know that you are Abraham's descendants; but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you.</li> <li>(38) I speak that which I have seen with My Father: and you do that which you have seen with your father {the devil}.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(39) They answered and said to Him, Abraham is our father. Then they said to Him, We are not born of fornication;<sup>e</sup> we have one Father, even God.</li> <li>(42) Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love Me: because I proceeded forth and came from God; neither did I come of Myself, but He sent Me.</li> <li>(43) Why do you not understand My speech? even because you cannot hear My word.</li> <li>(44) You are of your father the devil, and you will do the lusts of your father. Then there came a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it , and will glorify it again. (29) The people therefore, who stood by, and heard it , said that it thundered: others said, An angel spoke to Him. (30) Jesus answered and said, This voice did not come for My sake, but for yours. (31) Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. (32) And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself. (33) This He said, signifying by what manner of death He would die. (34) The people answered Him, We have heard out of the law that Christ lives forever: and how do You say, The Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man? (35) Then Jesus said to them, For yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness comes upon you: because he who walks in darkness does not know where he goes.

<ul> <li>(8) Jesus answered, I have told you that I Am He: if therefore you seek Me, let these go their way:</li> <li>(9) That the saying might be fulfilled, which He spoke, Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none.</li> <li>(10) Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear.<sup>b</sup> The servant's name was Malchus.</li> <li>(11) Then Jesus said to Peter, Put up your sword into the sheath: shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?</li> <li>(12) Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound Him,</li> <li>(13) And led Him away to Annas first; because he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(14) Now Caiaphas was he, who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(15) And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(16) But Peter stood outside the door. Then that other disciple went out, who was known to the high priest, and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(17) Then the young woman who kept the door said to Peter, Are you not also one of this Man's disciples? He said, I am not.</li> <li>(18) And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; because it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.</li> <li>(19) The high priest then asked Jesus of His disciples, and of His teaching.</li> <li>(20) Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I continually taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always resort; and I have said nothing in secret.</li> <li>(21) Why do you ask Me? ask those who heard Me, what I have said to them: see, they know what I said.</li> <li>(22) And when He had said this, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Do You answer the high priest<sup>f</sup> in this way?</li> <li>(23) Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why do you strike Me?</li> <li>(24) Now Annas had sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.</li> <li>(25) And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. Lk. 23:18	<ul> <li>(36) Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now My kingdom is not from here.</li> <li>(37) Pilate therefore said to Him, Are You a king then? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. To this end I was born, and for this cause I came into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Every one that is of the truth hears My voice.</li> <li>(38) Pilate said to Him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, I find no fault in Him at all.</li> <li>(39) But you have a custom, that I should release to you one at the Passover: therefore do you want that I release to you the King of the Jews?</li> <li>(40) Then they all cried again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas {Son of the Father}.</li> <li>Chapter 19</li> <li>(1) Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged Him.</li> <li>(2) And the soldiers braided a crown of thorns, and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe,</li> <li>(3) And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck Him with their hands.</li> <li>(4) Pilate therefore went forth again, asid to them, Look, I bring Him forth to you, that you may know that I find no fault in Him.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(5) Then Jesus came forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, Look, the Man!</li> <li>(6) Therefore when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, Crucify Him, crucify Him. Pilate said to them, You take Him, and crucify Him: because I find no fault in Him.</li> <li>(7) The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God.</li> <li>(8) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;</li> <li>(9) And went again into the judgment hall, and said to Jesus, Where are You from? But Jesus gave him no answer.</li> <li>(10) Then Pilate said to Him, Do You not speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to crucify You, and have power to release You?</li> <li>(11) Jesus answered, You could have no power at all against Me, except it were given you from above: therefore he who delivered Me to you has the greater sin.</li> <li>(12) And from that time forth Pilate sought to release Him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend: whoever makes Himself a king speaks against Caesar.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(13) When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement {mosaic},<sup>a</sup> but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.</li> <li>(14) And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour at night {midnigh}:<sup>b</sup> and he said to the Jews, See your King!</li> <li>(15) But they cried out, Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him. Pilate said to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.</li> <li>(16) Therefore he then delivered Him to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led Him away.</li> <li>(17) And He carrying His cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:</li> <li>(18) Where they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the middle.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(19) And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(20) This title then was read by many of the Jews: because the place where Jesus was crucified was near to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.</li> <li>(21) Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write, The King of the Jews; but that He said, I am King of the Jews.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(50) Has not My hand made all these things?<sup>w</sup></li> <li>(51) You stubborn and uncircumcised in heart and ears,<sup>x</sup> you always resist the Holy Spirit: as your forefathers did, so do you.</li> <li>(52) Which of the prophets have your forefathers not persecuted? and they have killed those who showed beforehand the coming of the Just One; of Whom you have now been the betrayers and murderers:</li> <li>(53) Who have received the law delivered by angels, and have not kept it.</li> <li>(54) When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.</li> <li>(55) But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up intently into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing<sup>y</sup> on the right hand of God.</li> <li>(56) And said, Look, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God.</li> <li>(57) Then they cried out with a loud voice, and covered their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,</li> <li>(58) And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their coats at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.<sup>z</sup></li> <li>(59) And they stoned Stephen, even as he was calling upon God, and</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(1) And Saul was consenting to his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.</li> <li>(2) And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and cried greatly over him.</li> <li>(3) As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and taking men and women putting them into prison.</li> <li>(4) Therefore those who were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word.</li> <li>(5) Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ to them.</li> <li>(6) And the people with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.</li> <li>(7) Because unclean spirits, crying with loud voices, came out of many who were possessed with them: and many taken with paralysis, and who were lame, were healed.</li> <li>(8) And there was great joy in that city.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(9) But there was a certain man, called Simon, who previously in the same city used sorcery {magic; fake miracles},<sup>a</sup> and deceived the people of Samaria, pretending that he himself was some great one:</li> <li>(10) To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man has the great power of God.</li> <li>(11) And to him they had regard, because for a long time he had deceived them with sorceries {magic; fake miracles}.</li> <li>(12) But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.</li> <li>(13) Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, seeing the miracles and signs which were done.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(14) Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John:</li> <li>(15) Who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit:</li> <li>(16) (Because as yet He had not fallen upon any of them: but they were only baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus.)<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(17) Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(18) And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money,</li> <li>(19) Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.</li> <li>(20) But Peter said to him, Your money perish with you, because you have thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.</li> <li>(21) You have neither part nor lot in this matter: because your heart is not right in the sight of God.</li> <li>(22) Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray to God, if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.</li> <li>(23) Because I perceive that you are caught up with bitterness, and in the bonds of sin.</li> <li>(24) Then Simon answered, and said, You pray to the Lord for me, that none of these things which you have spoken come upon me.</li> <li>(25) And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.</li> <li>(26) And the Angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go towards the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza, which is desert.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>8:9a - sorcery - literally: magic {μαγευων}</li> <li>8:13b - Simon who previously practiced magic (which is fake) now saw true power and recognized that it was real</li> <li>8:16c - They had been baptized in the Name of Jesus, but had not received the Holy Spirit - it was necessary for the Jewish apostles to see for themselves that the Samaritans believed and the laying on of hands was an identification both to the Jews and to the Samaritans that Jesus was Savior for all and they were one body in Christ Jesus.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(27) And he arose and went: and, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch<sup>d</sup> of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem to worship,</li> <li>(28) Was returning, and sitting in his chariot reading Isaiah the prophet.</li> <li>(29) Then the Spirit said to Philip, Go near, and join yourself to this chariot.</li> <li>(30) And Philip ran there to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, Do you understand what you read?</li> <li>(31) And he said, How can I, unless some man should guide me?<sup>e</sup> And he desired that Philip would come up and sit with him.</li> <li>(32) The place of the scripture which he read was this,</li> <li>He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb who is dumb before his shearer, so He did not open His mouth:</li> <li>(33) In His humiliation His judgment was taken away: and who shall declare His generation? Because His life is taken from the earth.<sup>f</sup></li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(34) And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I ask you, of whom does the prophet speak these things? of himself, or of some other man?</li> <li>(35) Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached to him Jesus.</li> <li>(36) And as they went on their way, they came to a certain body of water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what hinders me to be baptized?</li> <li>(37) And Philip said, If you believe with all your heart, you may be. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.<sup>g</sup></li> <li>(38) And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.</li> <li>(39) And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.</li> <li>(40) But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>8:27d - eunuch - a man who has been castrated or for some other reason is unable to perform sex - eunuchs were often put in charge of harems since there was no possibility of them having sex with the women – being a eunuch, he would not be allowed to enter the temple [Lev. 21:17-23] so he would not have access to learning from the teachers of the law – see Deut. 23:1; Acts 8:31; Mat. 19:12</li> <li>8:31e - See Acts 8:27</li> <li>8:32-33f - Is. 53:7-8</li> <li>8:37g – modern translations leave out this verse all together because the authors don't believe it - See Appendix I: Examples of Missing Words and Verses in Modern Translations</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(4) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to sixteen soldiers<sup>c</sup> to keep him; intending after Easter<sup>d</sup> to bring him forth to the people.</li> <li>(5) Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing by the church to God for him.</li> <li>(6) And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.</li> <li>(7) And the Angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shone in the prison: and He struck Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Get up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.</li> <li>(8) And the Angel said to him, Put your belt on, and tie your sandals. And he did so. And He said to him, Put your coat on and follow Me.</li> <li>(9) And he went out, and followed Him; and did not know that what the Angel was doing was real; but he thought he was seeing a vision.</li> <li>(10) When they were past the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that lead to the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and immediately the Angel left him.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(11) And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know of a certainty, that the Lord had sent His Angel, and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.</li> <li>(12) And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.</li> <li>(13) And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a young girl came to answer the door, named Rhoda.</li> <li>(14) And when she recognized Peter's voice, she did not open the gate because of gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.</li> <li>(15) And they said to her, You are mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was so. Then they said, It is his angel.</li> <li>(16) But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(17) But he, motioning to them with the hand to hold their peace, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go tell these things to James, and to the brothers. And he departed, and went into another place.</li> <li>(18) Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what had become of Peter.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>12:4c - quaternions - four soldiers, so 4 quaternions = 16 soldiers</li> <li>12:4d - Easter - modern translations incorrectly say Passover, but if it is the days of Unleavened Bread [v. 3], Passover has already passed. – this is one of the places where the King James version varies from the Greek Received Text which also says "Passover" rather than "Easter" – the verse could read: "after the Passover holidays" but the King James version solves this problem by using the word "Easter." The Bishops Bible published in 1568 also uses Easter.</li> <li>12:16e – they had been praying for him for days, but were astonished at how God had answered their prayers</li> </ul>

[44] (16) After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again its ruins, and I will set it up: (17) That the remnant of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles {non-Jews}, upon whom My Name is called, says the Lord, Who does all these things. <sup>c</sup> (18) God knows all His works from the beginning of the world. (19) Therefore my advice is, that we not trouble them, who from among the Gentiles have turned to God: (20) But that we write to them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, <sup>d</sup> and from things strangled, and from blood. <sup>e</sup> (21) Because Moses from old times has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day {Saturday}. <sup>f</sup> (23) And they wrote letters for them after this manner; "The apostles and elders and brothers send greeting to the brothers who are of the Gentiles {non-Jews} in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:	<ul> <li>Acts <ul> <li>(24) Since we have heard, that certain ones who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, You must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:</li> <li>(25) It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,</li> <li>(26) Men who have risked their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.</li> <li>(28) Because it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;</li> <li>(29) That you abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if you keep yourselves, you shall do well. <ul> <li>(26) Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that offering should be offered for every one of them.</li> <li>(27) And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews who were of Asia {Minor}, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,</li> <li>(28) Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and has polluted this holy place.</li> <li>(29) (Because they had seen Trophimus an Ephesian<sup>d</sup> with him earlier in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(30) And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and immediately the doors were shut.</li> <li>(31) And as they went about to kill him, news came to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(32) Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they quit beating Paul.</li> <li>(33) Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.</li> <li>(34) And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty because the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.</li> <li>(35) And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was carried by the soldiers because the violence of the people.</li> <li>(36) Because the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.</li> <li>(37) And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said to the chief captain, May I speak to you? Who said, Can you speak Greek?</li> <li>(38) Are you not that Egyptian, who before these days made an uproar, and led out into the wilderness four thousand men who were murderers?</li> <li>(39) But Paul said, I am a man who is a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no small city: and, I urge you, to allow me to speak to the people.</li> </ul>
21:29d – Acts 20:4 21:29e – note that Luke has been with Paul the whole time [see Acts 21:1-18] but Luke points out that the Jews thought Paul had brought Trophimus an Ephesian into the temple [although Luke tells us that was not the case] If Luke was a Gentile as many speculate, since Luke was with Paul the whole time, it would seem that the Jews would have been concerned that Luke may have been brought to the temple. But since Luke was in fact a Jew, the possibility that Luke had entered the temple was not an issue! See note on Luke 1. See Was Luke a Gentile? at www.TheWordNotes.com

<ul> <li>(14) And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause to the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:</li> <li>(15) About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.</li> <li>(16) To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before he who is accused has the accusers face to face, and has the right to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.</li> <li>(17) Therefore, when they had come here, without any delay in the morning I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.</li> <li>(18) Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed:</li> <li>(19) But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, Who was dead, Whom Paul affirmed to be alive.</li> <li>(20) And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.</li> <li>(21) But when Paul had appealed to be reserved to the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar.</li> <li>(22) Then Agrippa said to Festus, I would also hear the man myself. Tomorrow, he said, you shall hear him.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(23) And in the morning, when Agrippa had come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and had entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.</li> <li>(24) And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.</li> <li>(25) But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself has appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.</li> <li>(26) Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before you, O king Agrippa, that, after examination, I might have somewhat to write.</li> <li>(27) Because it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not with him describe the crimes laid against him</li> <li>.</li> <li>Chapter 26</li> <li>(1) Then Agrippa said to Paul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. ### {46} I Corinthians

(18) Because the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who perish; but to us who are saved it is the power of God.

(19) Because it is written,

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent {wise},<sup>e</sup>

(20) Where are the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

(21) Because in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe.

(22) Because the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

(23) But we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block, and to the Greeks foolishness;

(24) But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

(25) Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

(26) Because you see your calling, brothers, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

(27) But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; (28) And base things of the world, and things which are despised, God has chosen, yes, and things which are not, to bring to nothing things that are:

(29) That no flesh should glory in His presence.

(30) But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, Who of God is made to us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

(31) That, accordingly as it is written, Let him who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.<sup>f</sup>

Chapter 2

(1) And I, brothers, when I came to you, did not come with eloquence of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God.

(2) Because I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.

(3) And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

(4) And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

(5) That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

(6) However we speak wisdom among those who are perfect {mature}: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nothing:

Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.</li> <li>(13) Do you not know that those who minister about holy things live off the things of the temple? and those who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(14) Even so has the Lord ordained that those who preach the gospel should live of the gospel.</li> <li>(15) But I have used none of these things; neither have I written these things, that it should be so done to me: because it would be better for me to die, than that any man should make my boasting void.</li> <li>(16) Because though I preach the gospel!</li> <li>(17) Because if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a stewardship of the gospel is committed to me.</li> <li>(18) What is my reward then? Truly that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I do not abuse my power in the gospel.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(19) Because though I am free from all men, yet I have made myself servant to all, that I might gain the more.</li> <li>(20) And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law;</li> <li>(21) To those who are without law, as without law, (being not without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain those who are without law.</li> <li>(22) To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.</li> <li>(23) And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker with you.</li> <li>(24) Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain.</li> <li>(25) And every man who strives for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible (crown).</li> <li>(26) I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so I fight, not as one who beats the air:</li> <li>(27) But I keep control over my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(10) Because for this reason the woman ought to have power on her head<sup>a</sup> as a witness to the angels.</li> <li>(11) Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.</li> <li>(12) Because as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.</li> <li>(13) Judge in yourselves: is it becoming that a woman pray to God uncovered?</li> <li>(14) Does not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him?</li> <li>(15) But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her: because her hair is given to her for a covering.</li> <li>(16) But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.</li> <li>(17) Now in this that I declare to you I do not praise you, that you come together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it.</li> <li>(19) Because there must be also heresies among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(20) When you come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.</li> <li>(21) Because in eating everyone takes his own supper before the other: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.</li> <li>(22) What? have you not houses to eat and to drink in? or do you despise the church of God, and shame those who do not have? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.</li> <li>(23) Because I have received of the Lord that which I also delivered to you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed took bread:</li> <li>(24) And when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: do this in memory of Me.</li> <li>(25) After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had eaten, saying, This cup is the new testament in My blood: do this, as often as you drink it, in memory of Me.</li> <li>(26) Because as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you show the Lord's death until He comes.</li> <li>(27) Therefore whoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(28) But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>11:10a - power on her head - literally a covering over her head as a sign of submission as a witness to the angels in 11:16 Paul makes it clear that this was the custom of the day.</li> <li>11:27b - see 11:21 - eat and drink "unworthily" - the issue here is not whether any of us are "worthy" to take of the Lord's supper, but that the Lord's supper should be taken in reverence and respect - apparently from verse 21 some were gorging themselves on the bread and getting drunk on the wine and as a result others did not get to participate in the Lord's supper. See verse 34. The instruction in verse 34 is for people to eat their meals at home and not gorge themselves on the Lord's supper.</li> </ul>

{47} II C (17) When I was therefore so minded, did I make this decision lightly? or the things that I decide, do I decide according to the flesh, that with me there should be yes yes, and no no? (18) But as God is true, our word towards you was not yes and no. (19) Because the Son of God, Jesus Christ, Who was preached among you by us, even by myself and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yes and no, but in Him was yes. (20) Because all the promises of God in Him are yes, and in Him Amen {let it be}, to the glory of God by us. (21) Now He Who established us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God; (22) Who has also sealed us, and given the guarantee <sup>e</sup> of the Spirit in our hearts. Chapter 1 (1) Paul, an apostle, (not of men,	alatians (11) But I certify to you, brothers, that
<ul> <li>neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, Who raised Him from the dead;)</li> <li>(2) And all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia:</li> <li>(3) Grace be to you and peace<sup>a</sup> from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,</li> <li>(4) Who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:</li> <li>(5) To Whom be glory forever and ever. Amen {let it be}.</li> <li>(6) I marvel that you are so soon removed from Him Who called you into the grace of Christ to another gospel:</li> <li>(7) Which is not another; but there are some who trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.</li> <li>(8) But though we, or an angel from heaven, preaches any other gospel to you than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed.</li> <li>(9) As we said before, so I say now again, If any man preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed.</li> <li>(10) Because do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? Because if I yet pleased men, I would not be the servant of Christ.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>the gospel which was preached by me is not after man.</li> <li>(12) Because I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.</li> <li>(13) Because you have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:</li> <li>(14) And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my forefathers.</li> <li>(15) But when it pleased God, Who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by His grace,</li> <li>(16) To reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the heathen {ungodly}; I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood:</li> <li>(17) Neither did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.</li> <li>(18) Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(19) But I saw none of the other apostles, except James the Lord's brother.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(20) Now the things which I write to you, indeed, before God, I do not lie.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(9) So then those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.</li> <li>(10) Because as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: because it is written,</li> <li>Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(11) But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: because,</li> <li>The just shall live by faith.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(12) And the law is not of faith: but, The man who does them shall live in them.</li> <li>(13) Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: because it is written,</li> <li>Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree:<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(14) That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles {non-Jews} through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(15) Brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Though it is but a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man can disannul it, or add to it.</li> <li>(16) Now to Abraham and his Descendant were the promises made. He did not say, And to descendants, as of many; but as of one, And to your Descendant,<sup>e</sup></li> <li>Who is Christ.</li> <li>(17) And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years later,<sup>f</sup> cannot void the promise, that it should make the promise of no effect.</li> <li>(18) Because if the inheritance is by the law, it is no more by promise.</li> <li>(19) herefore then what purpose does the law serve? It was added because of sins, until the Descendant should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.</li> <li>(20) Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.</li> </ul>

Abraham lived to be 175 years old [Gen. 25:7]</li> <li>The Israelites came out of Egypt 430 years to the very day from the day the promise was given to Abraham. Every Jew knows this is true, but many Christians who do not understand King James English don't and many modern translations totally corrupt the scripture See notes on Genesis 12:1-4; 15:13; 50:26. <ul> <li>(21) Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: because if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness would have been by the law.</li> <li>(22) But the scripture has concluded that all are under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.</li> <li>(23) But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up to the faith which would afterwards be revealed.</li> <li>(24) Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.</li> <li>(25) But after that faith has come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.</li> <li>(26) Because you are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.</li> <li>(27) Because as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.</li> <li>(28) There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female: because you are all one in Christ Jesus.</li> <li>(29) And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's descendants, and heirs according to the promise.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Chapter 4 <ol> <li>Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ in any way from a servant, though he is lord of all;</li> <li>But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the father.</li> <li>Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:</li> <li>But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law,</li> <li>To redeem those who were under the adoption of sons.</li> <li>And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, Abba,<sup>a</sup> Father.</li> <li>Therefore you are no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.</li> <li>How is it then, when you did not know God, you did service to those who by nature are not gods.</li> <li>But now, after you have known God, or rather are known by God, how is it that you turn again to the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage?</li> <li>You observe days, and months, and times, and years.<sup>b</sup></li> </ol></li></ul>
<ul> <li>4:6a - abba - [αββα] Greek transliterated from Hebrew 'av' [ℑκ] for "father" see Mark 14:36</li> <li>4:10b - observe days, and months observing days and months, etc. throughout scripture deals with astrology and horoscopes which along with other occult practices are always forbidden to God's children - see Lev. 19:26; II Ki. 21:6; II Chr. 33: 6 - Paul himself continued to observe</li> </ul>

God's holy days [Lev. 23:2] – see Acts 20:16; I Cor. 16:8. However, here the issue is that certain Jews were trying to get the Gentiles to follow the all the Levitical laws including circumcision, monthly and holy day sacrifices, etc. Jesus has already made the ultimate sacrifice for all who believe.

<ul> <li>(12) Brothers, I urge you, be as I am; because I am as you are: you have not injured me at all.</li> <li>(13) You know how through weakness of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at the first.</li> <li>(14) And my temptation which was in my flesh you did not despise, nor reject; but received me as an angel {messenger}<sup>c</sup> of God, even as Christ Jesus.</li> <li>(15) Where then is the blessedness you spoke of? Because I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(16) Have I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?</li> <li>(17) They zealously affect you, but not well; yes, they would exclude you, that you might affect them.</li> <li>(18) But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.</li> <li>(19) My little children, of whom I labor in birth pains again until Christ is formed in you,</li> <li>(20) I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice {how I am speaking to you}; because I stand in doubt of your faith.</li> <li>(21) Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law?</li> <li>(22) Because it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a slave maid, the other by a free woman.<sup>e</sup></li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(23) But he who was of the slave woman was born after the flesh; but he of the free woman was by promise.</li> <li>(24) These things are an allegory: because these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which leads to slavery, which is Hagar.</li> <li>(25) Because this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in slavery with her children.</li> <li>(26) But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.</li> <li>(27) Because it is written,</li> <li>Rejoice, you barren who do not give birth; break forth and cry, you who do not go into labor because the desolate has many more children than she who has a husband.<sup>f</sup></li> <li>(28) Now we, brothers are the children of promise, as Isaac was.</li> <li>(29) But as then he who was born after the flesh persecuted him who was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.</li> <li>(30) Nevertheless what does the scripture say?</li> <li>Cast out the slave woman and her son of the slave woman.<sup>g</sup></li> <li>(31) So then, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>4:14c - angel -{αγγελω} (messenger from God) - John the Baptist was called an angel by Jesus - Matt. 11:10; Lk. 7:27 - See Rev. 2:1 and Rev. 16</li> <li>4:15d - As Paul grew older his eyesight grew worse - see Gal. 6:11</li> <li>4:22e - Gen. 16:1 - 17:16</li> <li>4:27f - Is. 54:1</li> <li>4:30g - Gen. 21:10</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(1) Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy,<sup>a</sup> to the church of the Thessalonians<sup>b</sup> which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace,<sup>c</sup> from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.</li> <li>(2) We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(9) Decause they memserves show how we came to you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;</li> <li>(10) And to wait for His Son from heaven, Whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus, Who delivered us from the wrath {anger; judgment} to come.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>(3) Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;</li> <li>(4) Knowing, beloved brothers, your election of God.</li> <li>(5) Because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.</li> <li>(6) And you became our followers, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit:</li> <li>(7) So that you were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia.</li> <li>(8) Because from you the word of the Lord was proclaimed not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith towards God is spread abroad; so that we do not need to say anything.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Chapter 2 <ul> <li>Because you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you, was not in vain:</li> <li>But even after we had suffered before, and were shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi,<sup>a</sup> we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God even amid much controversy.</li> <li>Because our encouragement was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in trickery:</li> <li>But as we were allowed by God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, Who tries our hearts.</li> <li>Because never at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness {greed};<sup>b</sup> God is witness:</li> <li>Nor did we seek praise of men, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been a burden to you, as the apostles of Christ.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(5) For this reason, when I could no longer wait, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor was in vain.</li> <li>(6) But now when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good news of your faith and charity {love},<sup>a</sup> and that you have fond memories of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:</li> <li>(7) Therefore, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:</li> <li>(8) Because now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.</li> <li>(9) Because what thanks can we render to God again for you, because all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God;</li> <li>(10) Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?</li> <li>(11) Now may God Himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you.</li> <li>(12) And may the Lord cause you to grow and abound in love towards one another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(13) To the end He may establish your hearts without blame in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming<sup>b</sup> of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.</li> <li>Chapter 4 <ul> <li>(1) Furthermore then we urge you, brothers, and encourage you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have received from us how you ought to live and to please God, so you would grow more and more.</li> <li>(2) Because you know the commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.</li> <li>(3) Because this is the will of God, even your growing in sanctification {spiritual maturity},<sup>a</sup> that you should abstain from fornication {sex outside of marriage}:<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(4) That every one of you should know how to possess his body in purity and honor;</li> <li>(5) Not in the passions of lust, as the Gentiles {non-Jews} who do not know God:</li> <li>(6) That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the One Who takes vengeance on all such, as we also have warned you and told you ahead of time.<sup>c</sup></li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>3:6a - charity - agape {αγαπην}- godly love - this love is not merely an emotion, but true godly love is love of action; therefore it is often translated as "charity" in the King James - see I Cor. 13:1</li> <li>3:13b - coming - parousia {παρουσια} - coming with the saints - the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ - Armageddon - see note on I Cor. 1:8</li> <li>4:3a - sanctification - purification - growing in spiritual maturity</li> <li>4:3b - fornication - having sex with someone you are not married to - see notes on Mat. 5:32; 15:19; Acts 15:20</li> <li>4:6c - The Lord avenges His children when they are wronged</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(7) Because God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness.</li> <li>(8) He therefore who despises {these commandments}, does not despise man, but God, Who has also given to us His Holy Spirit.</li> <li>(9) But concerning brotherly love you do not need that I write to you: because you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.</li> <li>(10) And indeed you do it towards all the brothers who are in all Macedonia: but we urge you, brothers, that you increase more and more;</li> <li>(11) And that you study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;</li> <li>(12) That you may walk honestly towards those who are outside, and that you may not lack anything.</li> <li>(13) But I would not have you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, that you not sorrow, even as others who have no hope.</li> <li>(14) Because if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those also who sleep in Jesus God will bring with Him.</li> <li>(15) Because this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not precede those who are asleep.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(16) Because the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(17) Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up<sup>e</sup> together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.</li> <li>(18) Therefore comfort one another with these words.</li> <li>Chapter 5 <ul> <li>(1) But of the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I write to you.</li> <li>(2) Because you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord<sup>a</sup> so comes as a thief in the night.</li> <li>(3) Because when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction will come upon them, as birth pains upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.</li> <li>(4) But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(5) You are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.</li> <li>(6) Therefore let us not sleep, as others do; but let us watch and be sober.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(7) Because those who sleep, sleep in the night; and those who get drunk get drunk in the night.</li> <li>(8) But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.</li> <li>(9) Because God has not appointed us to wrath {anger; judgment}, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,</li> <li>(10) Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.</li> <li>(11) Therefore comfort yourselves together, and encourage one another, even as you also do.</li> <li>(12) And we urge you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;</li> <li>(13) And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. <ul> <li>(3) Let no man deceive you by any means: because that day shall not come, except there comes a falling away first, and that man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition;</li> <li>(4) Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, displaying himself as God.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(5) Do you not remember, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?</li> <li>(6) And now you know who restrains him that he might be revealed in his time.</li> <li>(7) Because the mystery of sin is already at work: only he who now restrains will restrain,<sup>c</sup> until he is taken out of the way.</li> <li>(8) And then that Wicked {one} shall be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of His mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming:</li> <li>(9) Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(10) And with all deceit of unrighteousness in those who perish; because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.</li> <li>(11) And for this reason God shall send upon them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(12) That they all might be damned who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(13) But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, beloved brothers of the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through purification<sup>f</sup> of the Spirit and belief of the truth:</li> <li>(14) To which He called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.</li> <li>(15) Therefore, brothers, stand fast, and hold on to the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word, or our letter.</li> <li>(16) Now our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God, even our Father, Who has loved us, and has given us everlasting comfort and good hope</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>2:4b - Dan. 7:2; 8:12-25; Mat. 24:15; Mark 13:14 - note the man of sin will be revealed before the Rapture – Note that the end of the verse and the next verse describes who this man is. We are not told that we will see him in the temple.</li> <li>2:7c - "he who now restrains until he is taken out of the way" - there is some question as to who this individual is who is restraining the man of sin [i.e. the antichrist] It could be the Holy Spirit Who may be removed in the present sense from the earth at the time of the Rapture. It is also possible that Michael or another angel is preventing the antichrist from his reign until his time has come to reign. Traditionally many have believed that it was some governing official or the pope. Whoever it is, will cease to restrain the antichrist when it is the proper time.</li> <li>2:11d - believe a lie - Rev. 12:9; 13:14; 16:14</li> <li>2:12e - Rom. 1:18-32</li> <li>2:13f - sanctification - purification, growing in spiritual maturity</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>Chapter 1 <ol> <li>Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, Who is our hope;</li> <li>To Timothy,<sup>a</sup> my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace,<sup>b</sup> from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.</li> <li>As I urged you to remain at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that you might command some that they teach no other teaching,</li> <li>Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which bring doubts, rather than godly encouragement which is in faith: so do.</li> <li>Now the end of the commandment is charity<sup>c</sup> out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of un-pretended faith:</li> <li>From which some have turned aside to vain words;</li> <li>Desiring to be teachers of the law; neither understanding what they say, nor what they affirm.</li> </ol> </li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(9) Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for mankillers,</li> <li>(10) For fornicators {those who have sex outside of marriage}, for homosexuals, for men-stealers,<sup>d</sup> for liars, for persons willfully making false statements, and if there are any other things that are contrary to sound teaching;</li> <li>(11) According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.</li> <li>(12) And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, Who has enabled me, in that He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;</li> <li>(13) Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and a physical-abuser {of Christians}: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.</li> <li>(14) And the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.</li> <li>(15) This is a faithful saying, and worthy of everyone's acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(16) Nevertheless for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me Jesus Christ might first show forth all patience, for an example to those who should later believe on Him for everlasting life.</li> <li>(17) Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever and ever. <ul> <li>Chapter 3 <ol> <li>This is a true saying, If a man desires the office of a bishop {pastor},<sup>a</sup> he desires a good work.</li> <li>A bishop {pastor} then must be blameless, {presently be} the husband of one wife,<sup>b</sup> vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach;</li> <li>Not given to wine, no bully, not greedy for filthy worldly riches; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;</li> <li>One who rules his own household well, having his children in subjection with all honor;</li> <li>(5) (Because if a man does not know how to rule his own household, how shall he take care of the church of God?)</li> <li>Not a new convert, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.</li> </ol> </li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(7) Furthermore he must have a good report of those who are outside; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.</li> <li>(8) Likewise the deacons<sup>c</sup> must be honorable, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy worldly riches;</li> <li>(9) Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.</li> <li>(10) And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.</li> <li>(11) Even so their wives must be honorable, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.</li> <li>(12) Let the deacons {presently} be the husbands of one wife,<sup>d</sup> ruling their children and their own households well.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>3:1a - bishop - episkopē {επισκοπή} - overseer [pastor]</li> <li>3:2b - notice the verb "be" is present tense - {είναι} [present infinitive in the Greek] the man must presently be the husband of one wife. To translate as "must have been" the husband of one wife would be a mistranslation and a distortion of God's word. The command here is that the man must currently have only one wife [ i.e. he cannot be a bishop {pastor} in the church if he currently has multiple wives, i.e. polygamist] I Tim 3:12 gives the same requirement for deacons. See Acts 6:3 {first deacons?} - qualifications always have to do with a person's present submission to the Holy Spirit - qualifications never have to do with past sin see also Titus 1:5f - see note on I Tim. 3:12 below.</li> <li>3:8c - deacon - diakonos {διάκονος} - servant - attendant - someone who waits on another - see Acts 6</li> <li>3:12d - {διακονοι [deacons] εστωσαν [must be] μιας [one] γυναικος [wife] ανδρες [husbands]} - estoesan {εστωσαν} is present tense imperative - To translate as "must have been" the husband of one wife would be a mistranslation and a distortion of God's word. Qualifications for deacons, elders, or bishops [overseers] are always based on a person's present relationship with the Lord, never on their past {See Acts 6:3} - see note on 3:2 above and Titus 1:5f. [If the qualifications were based on a person's past - Paul himself would be disqualified!]</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(6) But without faith it is impossible to please Him: because he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.</li> <li>(7) By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by which he condemned the world,<sup>d</sup> and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.</li> <li>(8) By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should afterward receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(9) By faith he lived in the land of promise, as in a strange country, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:</li> <li>(10) Because he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.</li> <li>(11) Through faith also Sarah herself received strength to conceive a child, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged Him faithful Who had promised.<sup>f</sup></li> <li>(12) Therefore there sprang even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(13) These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them from afar, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.</li> <li>(14) Because those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.</li> <li>(15) And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.</li> <li>(16) But now they desire a better country, that is heavenly: therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: because He has prepared for them a city.</li> <li>(17) By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac:<sup>g</sup> and he who had received the promises offered up his only fathered son,</li> <li>(18) Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall your descendants be called:</li> <li>(19) Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from where also he received him as a symbol.</li> <li>(20) By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.<sup>h</sup></li> <li>(21) By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph;<sup>i</sup> and worshiped, leaning upon the top of his staff.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>Chapter 1 <ol> <li>From Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained the same precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ:</li> <li>Grace and peace<sup>a</sup> be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,</li> <li>According to His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him Who has called us to glory and virtue:</li> <li>Through Whom is given to us exceedingly great and precious promises: that by these you might share in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.</li> <li>And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;</li> <li>And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity {love}.<sup>b</sup></li> </ol> </li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(9) But he who lacks these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.</li> <li>(10) Therefore, brothers, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: because if you do these things, you shall never fall:</li> <li>(11) So that an entrance shall be abundantly ministered to you into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.</li> <li>(12) Therefore I will not be negligent to always remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth.</li> <li>(13) Yes, I think it appropriate, as long as I am in this tabernacle {body}, to stir you up by reminding you;</li> <li>(14) Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle {body}, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(15) Furthermore I will seek to have you always remember these things after my death.</li> <li>(16) Because we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(17) Because He received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to Him from the excellent glory saying, This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(18) And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with Him on the holy mount.</li> <li>(19) We have also a more sure word of prophecy; to which you would do well to take heed, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the Day Star arises in your hearts:</li> <li>(20) Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.</li> <li>(21) Because the prophecy did not come in old times by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.</li> <li>Chapter 2</li> <li>(1) But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord Who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.</li> <li>(2) And many shall follow their destructive ways; because of whom the way of truth shall be spoken of in an evil way.</li> <li>(3) And because of their coveting<sup>a</sup> they shall with deceitful words take advantage of you: their judgment does not linger for long, and their damnation does not sleep.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(4) Because if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment;</li> <li>(5) And did not spare the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the great flood upon the world of the ungodly;<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(6) And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those who afterwards should live ungodly;<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(7) And delivered just Lot, who was tormented with the filthy conversation of the wicked:</li> <li>(8) (Because that righteous man living among them, in seeing and hearing, tormented his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)</li> <li>(9) The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust for the day of judgment to be punished:</li> <li>(10) But chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. <ul> <li>3:6a - Gen. 6 - 8</li> <li>3:9b - this verse gives us the reason why the Lord has not already come back! He is patient and is giving people of the world time to repent because it is not His will that any should perish. {66} Revelation
<ul> <li>(3) And they sing the song of Moses<sup>a</sup> the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are Your ways, You King of saints.</li> <li>(4) Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your Name because You only are holy: because all nations will come and worship before You; because Your judgments are revealed.</li> <li>(5) And after that I looked, and, saw, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:</li> <li>(6) And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts clothed with golden vests.</li> <li>(7) And one of the four beasts gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath {anger; judgment} of God, Who lives forever and ever.</li> <li>(8) And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from His power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.</li> <li>Chapter 16 <ul> <li>(1) And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials {bowls} of the wrath {anger; judgment} of God upon the earth. a</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(2) And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a horrible and painful sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon those who worshiped his image.</li> <li>(3) And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul<sup>b</sup> died in the sea.</li> <li>(4) And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.</li> <li>(5) And I heard the angel of the waters say, You are righteous, O Lord, Who is, and was, and will be,<sup>c</sup> because You have judged so.</li> <li>(6) Because they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink; because they are worthy.</li> <li>(7) And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments.</li> <li>(8) And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.</li> <li>(9) And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the Name of God, Who has power over these plagues: and they did not repent to give Him glory.</li> <li>(10) And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(11) And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.</li> <li>(12) And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and its water was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.<sup>d</sup></li> <li>(13) And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.<sup>f</sup></li> <li>(15) Look, I come as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothing, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.<sup>g</sup></li> <li>(16) And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.<sup>h</sup></li> <li>(17) And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.<sup>i</sup></li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(18) And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.</li> <li>(19) And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath {anger; judgment}.</li> <li>(20) And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.</li> <li>(21) And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone weighed about a talent {about 75 lbs.; 33 kg.}: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; because the plague was exceedingly great.</li> <li>Chapter 17</li> <li>(1) And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying to me, Come here; I will show to you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits upon many waters:</li> </ul>

(23) And the light of a candle will no longer shine at all in you; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will not be heard any more at all in you: because your merchants were the great men of the earth; because by your sorceries all nations were deceived. (24) And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all who were killed upon the earth. Chapter 19 (1) And after these things I heard a great voice of many people in heaven, saying, Alleluia {praise the Lord}; <sup>a</sup> Salvation, and glory, and honor, and power, to the Lord our God: (2) Because true and righteous are His judgments: because He has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and has avenged the blood of His servants at her hand. (3) And again they said, Alleluia {praise the Lord}. And her smoke rose up forever and ever. (4) And the twenty-four elders and the four beasts fell down and worshiped God Who sat on the throne, saying, Amen {let it be}; Alleluia {praise the Lord}. (5) And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all you His servants, and you who fear Him, both small and great.	<ul> <li>(6) And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia {praise the Lord}: because the Lord God all powerful<sup>b</sup> reigns.</li> <li>(7) Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to Him: because the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.</li> <li>(8) And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: because the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.</li> <li>(9) And he said to me, Write, Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he said to me, These are the true sayings of God.</li> <li>(10) And I fell at his feet to worship him.<sup>c</sup> But he said to me, See that you do not: I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers who have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: because the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.</li> <li>(11) And I saw heaven opened, and look a white horse; and He Who sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.</li> <li>(12) His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns;<sup>d</sup> and He had a Name written, that no man knew, except He Himself.</li> </ul>

<ul> <li>(4) And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them: and I saw the souls of those who were beheaded because of the witness of Jesus, and because of the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.</li> <li>(5) But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. {66} Revelation
<ul> <li>Chapter 22 <ul> <li>(1) And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.</li> <li>(2) In the midst of its street, and on either side of the river, there was the tree of life,<sup>a</sup> which bore twelve kinds of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.</li> <li>(3) And there will be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it; and His servants will serve Him:</li> <li>(4) And they will see His face; and His Name will be in their foreheads.</li> <li>(5) And there will be no night there; and they will need no candle, neither light of the sun; because the Lord God gives them light: and they will reign forever and ever.</li> <li>(6) And he said to me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show to His servants the things which must shortly be done.</li> <li>(7) Indeed, I come quickly: blessed is he who keeps the saying of the prophecy of this book.</li> <li>(8) And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship<sup>b</sup> before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.</li> </ul></li></ul>	<ul> <li>(9) Then he said to me, See that you not do so: because I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who keep the sayings of this book: worship God.</li> <li>(10) And he said to me, Do not seal the sayings of the prophecy of this book: because the time is at hand.</li> <li>(11) He who is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he who is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he who is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he who is row the reward is with Me, to give to every man {his reward} according to his work.</li> <li>(13) I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.<sup>c</sup></li> <li>(14) Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.</li> <li>(15) Because outside are dogs {unbelievers}, and drug users, and those who go after prostitutes, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loves and makes a lie.</li> <li>(16) I Jesus have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the churches. Appendix C: Genealogy of Jesus – 1 Page 1955

I Chr. 1-3 – Ahaziah, Joash, Amaziah, and Jehoiakim – are omitted by Matthew. The first three: Ahaziah, Joash, and Amaziah were descendants of Athaliah who reigned as a wicked queen following the death of her husband King Jehoram and her son Ahaziah who were assassinated [II Ki. 11:1-20]. See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

Ahaziah [evil] born 3210 AH – began reign 3232 AH – assassinated 3233 AH Joash [good] born 3232 AH – began reign 3239 [age 7] – reigned 40 years died 3279 AH

Amaziah [good] born 3254 AH – began reign 3279 AH [age 25]

Josiah [good] born 3478 AH - began reign 3487 AH [age 8] – reigned 31 years died 3517 AH

Jehoiakim [evil] born 3493 AH - begins reign 3518 AH [age 25] under taxation of Egypt – taken captive to Babylon in 3520 AH - 3 years after death of Josiah.

Matthew gives the physical descent of Joseph rather than the legal descent.

In Matthew's birth narrative (chapters 1-2) which includes Jesus' genealogy through Joseph (Jesus' legal genealogy): Joseph's name occurs exactly 7 times: Mat. 1:16,18,19,20,24; Mat. 2:13,19 --- Mary's name occurs exactly 4 times: Mat. 1:16,18,20; 2:11 --- Matthew's genealogy starts with Abraham {patriarch of the Jews} and goes forward to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of the promises made to Abraham for a savior Who would reign forever. In Luke's birth narrative (chapters 1-3) which includes Jesus' genealogy through Mary (Jesus' blood genealogy): Joseph's name occurs exactly 4 times: Lu. 1:26; 2:4,16; 3:23 --- Mary's name occurs exactly 12 times: Lu. 1:27,30,34,38,39,41,46,56; 2:5,16,19,34 --- Luke's genealogy starts with Jesus and goes backward to Adam to show that Jesus is the savior of all people promised to Adam and Eve in the garden. David had 4 sons by Bathesheba {I Chr. 3:5} - Mary and Joseph are both descended from David by Bathesheba. Joseph through Bathesheba's son

Solomon; Mary through Bathesheba's son Nathan.

Interestingly, Bathesheba isn't called by name in Matthew's account but is referred to as having been the wife of Uriah. This suggests the possibility that Bathesheba deliberately seduced King David – nevertheless, Jesus is descended from her rather than any of David's other wives.

Appendix D HOW TO BECOME A CHRISTIAN

All the knowledge in the world is unimportant unless you know where you are going to spend eternity. The question is never whether the Lord is on your side; the question is -- are YOU on the Lord's side? If you don't know that you are on the Lord's side, that issue needs to be settled once and for all.

The Lord our God and our Creator has given us commandments to follow. Disobedience to these commandments is sin. According to scripture, even thoughts that are contrary to the Lord's commandments are sin. Also, according to scripture no one has kept every commandment except Jesus Christ God's only Son. God the Father sent His only Son Jesus {God-in-the-flesh} to pay the price for the sins of the world. The promise has been given that anyone who accepts Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior will be saved. To be "saved" means that our sins are forgiven and we have the right as "adopted" children of God to enter the kingdom of heaven when we die, or when Jesus comes to take us home at the rapture of the church. It also means we have a special relationship with our heavenly Father now because once we've accepted His Son, His Holy Spirit lives in us to teach us, convict us when we sin, and to give us a glimpse of "heaven on earth."

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (John 14:6)	(6) Jesus said to him, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no man can come to the Father, except by Me.
	({43} John 14:6 )

To those who are lost, this seems very narrow minded, but consider this: Suppose someone owed you a lot of money and had no hope of ever having the ability to repay you. Suppose you told that person, "If you will just love and respect my only son, I will cancel all of your debt." Then suppose that person told you, "I will never love or respect your son. I despise Him and all He represents." How would you feel. This is a very good example of how God the Father views those who reject His Son. The Roman Road to salvation: {From the book of Romans}

A. All have sinned -- We must all acknowledge that we are sinners and have not lived in accordance with the Lord's commands.

C. The price of sin was paid for, for all who believe -- Believe that if you accept God's only Son, Jesus, as your personal Lord and Savior, He has paid the price for your salvation. {To accept Jesus as your personal Lord means that you are sincere in your desire to live in accordance with His commands; to allow Him to be Lord of your life; but also knowing that you can never repay Jesus for the love and mercy He has shone towards you. -- Jesus said,

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) If ye love me, keep my commandments. (John 14:15)	<ul><li>(15) If you love Me, keep My commandments.</li><li>({43} John 14:15)</li></ul>

Salvation means to not have your sins counted against you and the right to spend eternity in heaven -- not because of what you've done, but because of what Jesus has done for you. It is a free gift, totally undeserved, given to everyone who accepts God's Son Jesus as his/her Lord and Savior.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase

{Believing also means that you believe that Jesus was truly born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross for the sins of the world, arose from the dead, and will soon return to take us to be home with Him. If any of these things were not true, then He could not be our savior.}

made manifest, that they are wrought in God. (John 3:13-21)	(21) But he who does what's right comes to the light, that his deeds may be revealed, that they are done in God. ({43} John 3:13-21)

Do not think to yourself that when you "get your act together" you'll ask the Lord into your life. You can't live a life that is pleasing to Him without His help. Ask for forgiveness and ask Jesus to come into your life. If there is anything in your life that shouldn't be there, He'll take care of it AFTER you've made a commitment to Him.

None of us knows when our life will end and we will stand in the presence of the Lord. It may be years from now; it may be 5 minutes from now. This life is only a testing grounds. It is here your life must count for the Lord. The scriptures state: "Now is the time for decision." [II Cor. 6:2] When this life ends, there will not be another chance!

Suggested prayer:

Father, I know that I have sinned against You and I have not lived the kind of life I know You want me to live. Please, forgive me for the ways I have failed You. I know that You sent Your Son, Jesus, to pay the price for my salvation and I believe You raised Him from the dead to become King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I believe that one day soon He is coming back again to reign forever and ever. I accept Your Son, Jesus, as my personal Lord and Savior. With Your help, I will strive to live for You and to be the person You want me to be. Father, let Your Holy Spirit come into my heart and cleanse me from all unrighteousness. I know I do not deserve what Jesus has done for me, but forgive me and help me to live for You every moment of my life. In Jesus' Name I pray. Amen.

If you are sincere and believe the things in this prayer you have the promise of God that your salvation is assured. Your salvation is based on His faithfulness, and He is always faithful.

For those who do not already have an established daily Bible study routine, I would recommend reading {01} Genesis (to get some historical background) followed by {42} Luke. Luke gives Jesus' ministry in chronological order, explains some of the Jewish customs, and shows Jesus as the Savior for all who will accept Him as their Lord. For those with a Jewish background, I would recommend reading {40} Matthew before reading Luke, since Matthew shows Jesus as fulfilling Bible prophecy for the Jews' long awaited Messiah. {40} Matthew chapters 5 through 7 gives Jesus' sermon on the mount explaining how God wants us to live. The book of {59} James gives us practical applications of the sermon on the mount.

(18) For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:(1	18) Because Christ also has once uffered for sins, the just for the njust, that He might bring us to od, being put to death in the esh, but made alive by the Spirit: {60} I Peter 3:18)

Our salvation is not based on our faithfulness; if it were we would all loose our salvation. Our salvation is based on the promise of God. He is always faithful even when we are unfaithful to Him. As long as we are in these mortal bodies we will continue to make mistakes, and even at times rebel against God. If we have accepted Jesus Christ as our personal Lord and Savior, He has promised to discipline us to whatever extent is necessary to bring us back into His will. I John 1:8-9 {quoted above} was written to Christians, not unbelievers.

Appendix F Holiness of Living {Evidences of Salvation}

I, myself, am acutely aware of how far below God's standard of holiness that I am, that I would never consider passing judgment on someone else -- so anything that you may read here and interpret as judgmental on my part, I apologize for at the very beginning and assure you that is not the case at all. Only by God's grace is there hope for any of us.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(14) Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:</li> <li>(15) Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; (Heb. 12:14-15)</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(14) Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:</li> <li>(15) Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up troubles you, and thereby many are defiled; ({58} Heb. 12:14-15)</li> </ul>

Christianity is the only religion which states that God so loved the world that He came to earth in human form to teach us how He wants us to live, paid the price for our salvation, and rose from the dead as proof of His power over sin and death. The leaders of all other religions, are in their tombs, but the tomb of Jesus is empty! It has been said that Christianity is not a religion, but a way of life.

(35) By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. (John 13:35)	<ul><li>(35) By this all men shall know that you are My disciples, if you have love one to another.</li><li>({43} John 13:35)</li></ul>

Jesus said,"If you love Me, you will keep My commandments." And "a tree is known by the fruits it bears. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit." Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount" {Matthew chapters 5 and 6} teaches us the attitudes that we must show towards our heavenly Father and those around us.

After accepting Jesus as our Lord and Savior He has given the commandment that we make a public profession of faith in Him by submitting to baptism and by attending Christian services where we can learn how He wants us to live.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(38) Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. (Mark 8:38)	<ul> <li>(38) Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.</li> <li>({41} Mark 8:38)</li> </ul>

Appendix F: Holiness Of Living {Evidences of Salvation} - 2 (Page 1970)

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(24) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:</li> <li>(25) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.</li> <li>(Heb. 10:24-25 )</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(24) And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and to good works:</li> <li>(25) Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting {encouraging} one another: and so much the more, as you see the day approaching.</li> <li>({58} Heb. 10:24-25)</li> </ul>

It is by worshiping and studying God's word together with other Christians that we are strengthened, receive the proper nourishment, and are encouraged in living the life He has called us to.

Christianity is personal, but it is not private. Love and joy in the Lord that are not shared with others, do not exist! There is no such thing as having love and not sharing it. How much we show our love towards other children of God, and towards unbelievers, is a good indication of just how much we really love Him. I John 4:20 says,

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(20) If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?</li> <li>(21) And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.</li> <li>(I John 4:20-21)</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(20) If a man says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar: because he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God Whom he has not seen?</li> <li>(21) And this commandment we have from Him, That he who loves God love his brother also.</li> <li>({62} I John 4:20-21)</li> </ul>

-- A single coal of fire left to itself will soon die out, but coals put together become a blaze of fire.

Does this mean that a person who does not regularly attend church is not a Christian? No, but it does mean that if he/she is able and has opportunity to attend church and doesn't, he/she is in rebellion against the Lord as Hebrew 10:25 indicates an is in need of repentance.

Appendix F: Holiness Of Living {Evidences of Salvation} - 3 (Page 1971)

Those outside the church often point at the church and say, "That church is full of hypocrites." And in one sense they are right -- none of us fully live up the life we profess. In fact I John 1:8-9 says:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.</li> <li>(9) If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.</li> <li>(10) If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (I John 1:8-10)</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(8) If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.</li> <li>(9) If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us of our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.</li> <li>(10) If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.</li> <li>({62} I John 1:8-10)</li> </ul>

In the Biblical sense, however, a hypocrite is not one who fails to live up to the commands of the Lord. The Biblical definition of a hypocrite is a person who claims to believe in God, but refuses to make any attempt to live the life He has called us to.

As someone once said: "I'd rather go to church with hypocrites bound for heaven than to not go to church and to be with the other hypocrites bound for hell."

The following are evidences given in the Bible which are "fruits" or indicators of our relationship with the Lord. The evidences of being saved are the goals we as Christians strive for. The evidences of not being saved are hindrances we strive to permanently remove from our lives.

If we are missing some of the evidences of being saved, we should pray that the Lord will help us obtain them. If we have some of the evidences of not being saved, we should admit to the Lord that we have sinned against Him and pray for forgiveness. Having evidences of not being saved does not necessarily mean we aren't saved any more than having some of the evidences of being saved means that we are saved. If we truly have accepted Jesus as our Lord and savior, we have His promise that He will discipline us to whatever extent it it necessary to bring us back into His will. "Those whom the Lord loves, He reproves and disciplines." According to I John it is possible for a child of God to get so far out of the Father's will that He must call that child home to be with Him before he/she does too much damage to His kingdom down here.

Appendix F: Holiness Of Living {Evidences of Salvation} - 4 (Page 1972)

We must also be on guard that we do not pass judgment on a fellow believer's salvation. We are commanded to not judge lest we be judged. We are not called to be judges, but we are called to be "fruit inspectors." "We are to hate sin, but love the sinner." For the unbeliever, this is not possible, because he has no understanding of what true love is all about. {This is one reason why the Lord has specifically forbidden believers to intermarry with unbelievers.} [I Cor. 7:39; II Cor. 6:14-15] For the believer, it is sometimes difficult, but we are reminded that the Lord loved us even when we had no love for Him.

Bad things do happen to good people. And often bad people are not punished in this lifetime. But ultimately as Jesus said, we will reap what we sow. We may not understand many things that happen down here in this lifetime. And many things we will not understand until we stand in His presence.

Never be ashamed to admit that you don't know the answers to something. There is only One Who knows the answers to everything. Beware of anyone who claims to have all the answers.

Note: A tree cannot decide what kind of fruit it will bear. But, the abundance and quality of its fruit is determined to a large extent by whether it receives the proper nourishment. If a person is a Christian, the above fruits will be evidenced. How much they are evidenced is determined both by the individual's willingness to be submissive to the will of the Lord and how much of the proper nourishment he receives. Unlike the tree, a Christian can determine whether he/she will receive the proper nourishment. That nourishment comes through Bible study and fellowship with other believers.

The sermon on the mount: {40} Matthew chapters 5, 6, and 7 is a good starting point to see how the Lord wants us to live. The book of {59} James gives us practical ways to put that life style into practice.

Appendix G WORLD TIME LINE OF BIBLICAL HISTORY

{With notes and Scriptural references by Sonny Stephens

available at: http://www.TheWordNotes.com}

The chronology used in most Bibles is from Archbishop Ussher published in 1650 A.D.. He puts Adam's creation at 4004 B.C. and the exodus at 1491 B.C. The chronology compiled here is based on the Scriptures and the outstanding work of Dr. David L. Cooper, president of the Biblical Research Society. For more information on this subject see his book: Messiah: His First Coming Scheduled, published by the Biblical Research Society, Los Angelos, Ca. {1939} [See www.biblicalresearch.info] I have personally verified all counts, added Scriptural references, and have both noted and given explanations for the departures from the traditional chronology. B.C. dates given here have been corrected in accordance with Dr. Cooper's findings, except for the 4 year error dating the birth of Christ at 4 B.C. which has been retained in order to keep our present Gregorian calendar intact. Any errors which may be discovered in the B.C. calendar or in our modern Gregorian calendar do not in any way affect the accuracy of the A.H. calendar prior to the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. There is some question even among historians as to the exact year of Jesus' birth. Some say as early as 5 B.C.; others as late as 1 A.D. The commonly accepted 4 B.C. has been accepted here until more evidence proves otherwise.

There are two Biblical events which are subject to at least some degree of interpretation: (1) The first question is whether the Ammonite rule over the eastern bank of the Jordan (2852 A.H.) and the Philistine rule over the rest of Israel (2923 A.H.) were actually concurrent. {At least for the present I am standing by Dr. Cooper's analysis which indicates these events were not concurrent even though this is not commonly accepted.} (2) The second question is whether the reign of Abimelech (2826 A.H.) should be counted as part of the oppression years, since he had no legitimate claim to the judgeship. {Again, I am going with Dr. Cooper's position, that because Abimelech usurped the judgeship, his reign should be counted as part of the oppression years.} I remain open on all of these issues until it can be clearly demonstrated otherwise. Since the oppression years were not counted in the 480 years from the Exodus to Solomon's fourth year (I Ki. 6:1,38), either of these events would affect the over all chronology after Abimelech's judgeship began in 2826 A.H. All dates given unless indicated otherwise are Scripturally accurate to within a year. (Dates in parenthesis are from secular history sources but in no way affect the Biblical chronology.)

A.H. - Anno Hominis -- Year of Man -- figured from the creation of Adam and Eve. This calendar does not correspond to the Jewish C.E. (Creation Event or Common Era) calendar due to the halting of the Jewish calendar during periods of oppression which has created a number of discrepancies. See notes at end of this document. See also: How Long Was Israel In Egypt? in Appendix M.

B.C. - Before Christ - dates can be obtained by subtracting the A.H. date from 4042. {or 4039 if Jesus was born 1 A.D.} The question of the possible concurrent rule of the Ammonites and Philistines [2852 A.H. and 2923 A.H. respectively] would reduce the difference between the traditional 4004 B.C. and 4042 B.C. by 31 years giving a difference of only 7 years. See note at end concerning the 83 year error with modern chronologies.

A.D. - Anno Domini – Year of our Lord – Year of Jesus' birth.

The A.H. dating can be verified Biblically through the year 3589 A.H. when king Cyrus issued the decree to restore Jerusalem [Is. 44:28]; together with the prophecy of Daniel the date of Jesus' crucifixion can be accurately and Biblically determined. {With the three above noted question marks.} By adding the year 1948 A.D. and the four year error in the dating of the birth of Christ (4 B.C.) to the year of Christ's birth 4038 A.H. we can place the re-birth of Israel as a nation in the year 5990 A.H.. I am not completely convinced that the 4 year error at the birth of Jesus is the only error in the Gregorian calendar. Also, it should be noted that because of the overlapping chronologies given for the Northern and Southern kingdoms given in scripture, the dating of the reigns of the kings gives us a chronology during the divided kingdoms of plus or minus half a year. However, after the fall of the Northern kingdom, there is no longer an overlapping chronology for checking. Thus there may be a half-year error for each king's reign from Hezekiah to Jehoiakim {5 kingships} for a total of 2 1/2 years in possible question. An additional note on the A.H. calendar. The A.H. calendar is believed to be a lunar/solar calendar which was adjusted to be kept in line with the solar year. For more information on this subject see the section: "How Long Was a Day In Genesis" at www.TheWordNotes.com.

Additional Notes on chronology of the Old Testament:

The time period from the promise given to Abraham until the Law was given was 430 years. {Galatians 3:16-17} But Genesis 15:13 implies {in English} that Abraham's descendants would be enslaved for 400 years {four generations}. The Jews know that Gen. 15:13 does not mean Israel would be enslaved for 400 years and they correctly note in their teachings that the actual bondage was not 400 years but a couple of hundred years. {They don't know the correct time period because they don't accept the

New Testament. Galations 3:17 tells us there were 430 years from the time the promise was given to Abraham until the law was given to Moses.} By subtraction we can determine that Joseph who died at the age of 110 – died 286 years after the covenant was given to Abraham. This means there was only 144 years from the death of Joseph until the Law was given to Moses who was 80 at the time. – Moses parents could well have known Joseph while he was still alive!!

If Genesis 15:13 does not mean the Israelites would be in bondage for 400 years, what is the correct translation? The literal translation goes something like this: Your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs for four hundred years and will also be afflicted. --- Every Jew knows this is correct, but many Christians, especially Protestants get hung up on English translations which by the way they are worded imply 400 years of bondage. The KingJames version is one of the few versions that gives a correct translation, but it is often misunderstood by those who do not understand 16th century English grammar.

Paul tells us that there were 430 years from the promise to the Law {Galatians 3:16-17}, so where did the 400 year count begin? It began on Isaac's 5th birthday! The promise was given to Abraham when he was 75. Isaac was born 25 years later {Gen. 21:5}. 400 subtracted from 430 leaves 30 years -- 30 years after the promise was given, Isaac was 5 years old. {Note: Ishmael was never counted as a descendant of Abraham.} Why did the count begin when Isaac was 5 years old? - it is commonly believed that the Israelite women nursed their young until about the age of 5 during that time period [Abraham lived to 175 years of age (Gen. 25:7)] – this is commonly believed to be the reason why the 400 years is counted from Isaac's 5 th birthday. Isaac was in a land that did not belong to him!! It became Israel's land when Israel left Egypt. {Although they did not claim it for forty years!} The four hundred years is a literal time period, but is counted from Isaac's 5th birthday, not from when Israel entered Egypt, nor when Israel became enslaved. There were literally four generations from Isaac to Moses {five counted in the actual ancestral line of Amram {Moses' father}, four for Jochebed {Moses' mother} (Ex. 6:16-20) and others.

The Genesis passage also indicates that a generation is 100 literal years!

Second note on Old Testament Chronology

Daniel 9:25-26 Tells us that from the issuing of the decree by Cyrus {as foretold by Isaiah 44:28} until the Messiah is "cut off" -- literally "executed" will be 69 - sevens – i.e. 483 years. This means that from the decree by Cyrus to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the crucifixion of Jesus was 483 years [If Jesus was 33 as we believe when he was crucified, this means the decree would actually be issued in the year 450 B.C. -- if the calendars were all correct. If you review my chronology I show the year 453 B.C. for the year of the decree because 1) historically there is no year zero B.C. and 2) the common belief is that Jesus was actually born in 4 B.C. rather than 1 A.D. I would not presume that the secular calendars are correct in either case, but I will stand by Daniel's prophecy that 483 years of unfulfilled prophecy concerning the nation of Israel and Daniel chapter nine gives the reason for those years. {The Revelation and other prophecies give details of those last seven years which are specifically decreed upon the nation of Israel, NOT the church!} It is Daniel's prophecy that allows us to link the secular calendar to the Biblical calendar, and that link is only as good as the accuracy of the secular calendar from the crucifixion of Jesus forward. I'm personally convinced that there are other errors we're not aware of in the secular calendar and possibly some questions about a couple of passages mentioned in my "World Time Line Chart" that gives us a time of over 6000 years from the creation to this date. There are no reliable calendars in existence today, so we probably won't know details until the Lord reveals them to us in His kingdom. It is interesting to note from my chronology that not only were the children of Israel in bondage for 70 years to the nation of the Babylonians, but the temple which was destroyed 19 years after the captivity began, was not completely rebuilt until 19 years after the captivity ended and thus the temple was non-existent for 70 years. Thus the 70 years foretold by Jeremiah 25:12 were doubly fulfilled.

The A.D. [Anno Domini – year of the Lord] calendar was created by Dionysius Exiguus around 525 A.D. which originally set the birth of Jesus at 1 A.D.. Most modern chronologies are based on Archbishop Ussher's chronology which incorporates calculations by Claudis Ptolemy (90 A.D. - 168 A.D.) which has known errors on the reigns of Persian kings. Consequently they have an 83 year error dating the decree of Cyrus to restore and rebuild Jerusalem and ending the Babylonian exile. Due to the 83 year error most modern theologians try to claim that the decree to restore Jerusalem was actually issued by Ahasuerus later to force the traditional chronology to fit with the crucifixion of Jesus. However, Isaiah 44:28 makes it clear that Cyrus is the one who issued the decree. The chronology given here does not acknowledge secular chronologies, but relies 100% upon scripture with the three question marks given in the introduction.

Our own Gregorian calendar was modified in 1582 A.D. By decree of Pope Gregory XIII in 1582 A.D., Thursday, Oct. 4, 1582 A.D. {Julian day -- 2299159} was followed by Friday, Oct. 15, 1582 A.D. {Julian day -- 2299160} to re-align the calendar to the vernal {spring} equinox. He also changed century years to not be leap years unless divisible by 400 {1900 was not a leap year; 2000 was}. These changes were not adopted by England or the colonies until 1752 A.D.

The construction of the modern Jewish calendar during the second temple {around 430 B.C. to 70 A.D.} was done secretly by a handful of men on the Sanhedrin {which in my opinion was modified following Jesus' resurrection to not call attention to His fulfillment of Biblical prophecy} and the calendar construction was made public in the fourth century A.D. out of fears the calendar information might be lost due to the dispersion of the Jews. See: The Jewish Calendar at www.TheWordNotes.com.

Reckoning Jacob's age:

Jacob was 147 when he died, he had lived 17 years in Egypt [Gen 47:28]

He came to Egypt in the 2nd year of the famine at the age of 130 [147-17] [Gen. 45:6]

-- Joseph was 39 [30 + 7 +2]

Jacob was 91 when Joseph was born [130 - 39]

Jacob had been in the east 14 years when Joseph was born [Gen. 45:6; 47:28; 30:26; 31:41]

Jacob was 77 when he fled from Esau [91 - 14]

Isaac was 60 when Jacob was born [Gen 25:26]

Abraham was 100 when Isaac was born [Gen. 21:15]

Abraham was 175 when he died -- Jacob and Esau would have been 15 at the time.

Appendix H: Does Isaiah 7:14 refer to a virgin? -- Yes!!!

Concerning the use of the Hebrew word "alma" {העלמה} - literally 'the virgin'

First let me say that I believe that Jesus truly was born of a virgin and truly God. If He wasn't, then He was not 'without sin' and He could not be our Savior. I strongly disagree that the Hebrew word 'alma { كَرْحَتَه} does not specifically mean virgin. Modern 'pop' theology has too long quoted misled, unscholarly men without taking the time to actually examine the Biblical text. I am quoting the following quote verbatim from the Hebrew-Greek Key Word Study Bible, copyright 1991 by AMG International, Inc, and edited by Spiros Zodhrates which gives probably the most concise arguments I have seen related to this issue. Please note section (1) concerning the Hebrew. At the end of the quote, I am including the verses cited in King James Version, my own King James Paraphrase, and the Hebrew [with an inter-linear translation to assist those who know some Hebrew to examine the text for themselves]. I have also added the Hebrew and Greek words referenced in the quote in {}.

"Is. 7:14 The famous prophecy of Christ's virgin birth is contained in this verse. The events of chapter seven occurred about 734 B.C. Isaiah was sent to King Ahaz with a reassuring word (Is. 7:4-9), but Isaiah's word also challenged him to exercise faith in God during this crisis (cf Hezekiah's response in Is. 36-38). The Lord generously offered to grant a sign to Ahaz to bolster his faith (Is. 7:11) However in this crisis, Ahaz was not trusting in God, but in his alliance with Assyria (2 Kgs. 16:7-9). His reply, "I will not ask ..." was pure hypocrisy (v. 14) Few passages have provoked such controversy as this verse, even among those who hold to a conservative viewpoint. Recent studies have a uniform tendency to downplay the miraculous aspects, and rationalize that this verse is a prophecy that some young woman would shortly bear a child in the normal way, and the brief time of his youth would see the downfall of those countries now threatening Judah and King Ahaz. It is believed that these approaches do not do justice to the text, and some reasons are summarized below.

(1) The meaning of the Hebrew word {העלמה} 'almah (5959 [Strong's Concordance number]). It has become commonplace to suggest that 'almah {עלמה} does not mean virgin, and that in fact, had Isaiah meant "virgin," he would have used the Hebrew word bethula {עלמה} (1330).
 The facts of the language are otherwise. {emphasis added}
 'Almah {עלמה} } is the clearest word Isaiah could have chosen to convey the idea of virginity. There is no appearance of 'almah {עלמה} , on the

Appendix H: Does Isaiah 7:14 refer to a virgin? -- Yes!!!- Page 1 (Page 1995) other hand often needs qualification to clarify whether or not "virgin" is intended (e.g., Gen. 24:16, where Rebekah is described as a "virgin" [bethulah{בתלה}], "neither had any man known her." Note that 'almah, אלמה} }which occurs later in the same context [Gen. 24:43], needs no such qualification. The qualification is doubtless needed because bethulah{ בתולה }, unlike 'almah { עלמה }, can sometimes refer to a married woman [Deut. 22:23-24; Joel 1:8].)

It is evident that 'almah {עלמה} ought indeed be translated "virgin" on the basis of Hebrew usage. But this is not the extent of the argument. The Greeks, who translated the OT into their language hundreds of years before Christ, had no question; they translated Isaiah 7:14 in the Septuagint, with the Greek word parthenos { $\eta \pi \alpha \rho \theta \epsilon vog$ }, the word for "virgin." Finally, the Holy Spirit affirmed this as the meaning when He guided Matthew to use parthenos { $\pi \alpha \rho \theta \epsilon vog$ } when quoting Isaiah 7:14 in Matthew 1:23.

(2) The meaning of the word {אות} 'oth (224), "sign." Those who suggest that the birth mentioned in Isaiah 7:14 would be a normal birth contradict the significance of 'oth. This word never refers to ordinary events, but always to special or distinctive actions or things. With reference to God. it is commonly translated as, or understood to refer to, "miracle." This is particularly true of its uses in Isaiah, which, aside from this context, are concentrated with reference to God's miraculous sign of the sundial (chaps. 37:38), and with God's miraculous millennial dealings with Israel (chaps. 55;56). Therefore, the "sign" would need to be something extraordinary, not merely the normal birth of a male child who would live to see the downfall of Syria. It certainly would not be the defeat of Svria and Israel by Assvria! That was the very thing Ahaz was scheming to do without God's involvement! (3) The specific reference of the prophecy. One must note that after Ahaz refuses a sign, God does not address him again. Verse fourteen is addressed to the whole "house of David." This immediately takes us beyond a rigid focus on the current scene. Moreover, the language of the announcement "Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bring forth ..." is reminiscent of pagan phraseology used to announce the birth of "gods." It is not suggested that Isaiah is likening Christ's birth to that of some pagan idol, merely that the idol-worshiping Ahaz would recognize the significance of the prophecy. Note also that both 'virgin' in verse fourteen and "child" in verse sixteen have the definite article. It is agreed that these articles of general reference, and that "a virgin" is the proper translation in verse fourteen. But note what happens if we translate "a child" in verse sixteen. The prophetic verse makes excellent sense on its own as a statement about the length of the crisis, with no reference to verse fourteen. One must also observe that the Hebrew

Appendix H: Does Isaiah 7:14 refer to a virgin? -- Yes!!!- Page 2 (Page 1996) word { ben (1121), which means "son," is used in verse fourteen, while a completely different Hebrew word, {הנער} "na'ar" (5288), meaning "young man," appears in verse sixteen.

(4) The child born. The name is "Immanuel," or "God with us." He cannot be just any child for in Isaiah 8:8 (and probably 8:10),
"Immanuel" is presented as the true owner of the land (cf. the implications of Lev. 25:23), and the one who will vanquish Assyria. Further, the "son" to be born is mentioned again in Isaiah 9:6 and 11:1-5, and is clearly seen there to be a divine Person, No child of normal parentage could be so understood; certainly not the child of Isaiah or Ahaz, as some commentators have suggested.
(5) The nature of messianic prophecy. Throughout the OT, passages of messianic importance are presented without chronological separation or distinction. Peter explicitly states that the prophets were ignorant regarding when the messianic prophecies would be fulfilled (I Peter 1:10-12). It was indeed this prophecy of Isaiah 7:14 itself which was to be a sign. Its mysterious reference to a virgin birth would remain (as it did) to challenge students of God's word until the proper time came for it to be fulfilled."

Note: The group of men who made changes in the Hebrew and Greek texts in the late 1800's rejected the deity of Jesus. See New Age Versions and Hazardous Materials by Dr. G.A. Riplinger. One further note: Matthew was a tax collector. As such he had to be proficient in both the Hebrew and Greek languages as well as having a thorough knowledge of both systems of weights and measures and how they related to each other. There are passages which suggest that Matthew may have actually originally written his gospel in Hebrew and then translated it into Greek. Certainly the genealogy of Joseph was in all probability in Hebrew and although it is primarily a list of names, still required translating into Greek.

To say that Isaiah 7:14 does not refer specifically to a virgin accuses Matthew {Mat. 1:23} of not being led by the Holy Spirit and suggests that his gospel is not inspired by God and that Matthew himself was ignorant of his own native language and also the New Testament Greek language his gospel was written in. If Matthew was wrong, we have to throw out the entire Bible as being inspired by God and there is no longer any basis of salvation. -- I believe that Matthew knew exactly what he was saying and that he was led by the Holy Spirit and ALL scripture is inspired by God and without error in any form.

For more information see my article: Holy Bible vs New Age Bible at: http://www.TheWordNotes.com And these books: New Age Bible Versions and Hazardous Material by Dr. G.A. Riplinger {www.avpublications.com} and Look What's Missing by David Daniels Note: These books cannot be purchased in most book {www.chick.com}. stores, but must be purchased online at the websites given. {Too much money is at stake for most book stores to carry the books!}

Here I am comparing the KJV with the NIV, [simply because I personally used the NIV for many years] however, you can check any modern version (HCSB, NIV,CEV, ESV, NASB, NKJV, TLB, etc.) and the results will be the same because they are all based on the same corrupted Hebrew and Greek texts which were mutilated in the late 1800's. Both Daniels and Riplinger have put verses in parallel, side-by-side, as I have done here to demonstrate literally hundreds of changes that have been made to our Bibles. I've been told, but have not personally verified that new publications of the King James Version are also being mutilated by some publishers. Riplinger in her book points out the individuals involved in many of the changes and how the changes reflect the new age movement and Satan's attempts to attribute God's attributes to himself.

Note that in modern translations Acts 8:37 is missing altogether Look at the above scriptures and notice what has been left out of the modern translations. Then ask yourself these questions:

Is Philip's answer to the Ethiopian eunuch important? Is the eunuch's reply to Philip important?

If your answer to any of the above questions is: yes, you owe it to yourself, your loved ones, your friends, and your church to investigate what is happening to our Bibles. Bible teachers and ministers all over the world today are encouraging people to spend time reading their Bibles not realizing that the Bibles they may be reading may be leading them away from a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and towards a "universal" religion.

Notice that part of Jesus' words are omitted. Satan doesn't want to draw attention to his opposition to Jesus.

Notice that in verse 8 Jesus said: "I go not up yet unto this feast." – The most modern translations leave out the word "yet" implying that Jesus lied because in verse 10 it clearly says He went up to the feast. The NIV does put the word "yet" in the text, but footnotes: "Some early manuscripts do not have yet."

Note that the phrase: "art to come" has been omitted in the modern translations – also note that this occurs also in Revelation 16:5

Note that modern translations insert the name "Isaiah" in verse 2 creating an "intentional" error. The quote is actually from two verses Malachi 3:1 and Is. 40:3. Interestingly, the New King James version puts "Isaiah" as a footnote.

Appendix K: What Day of the Week Was Jesus Crucified?

There has been much controversy through the years as to what day of the week Jesus was actually crucified. The fact is that the gospels clearly tell us what day it was, but the problem is that most English speaking Christians have forgotten how the Jewish calendar works. For the Jews the new day begins at evening [not midnight]. This goes back to the first chapter of Genesis: "there was evening and there was morning the first day..." [Gen. 1:5]; "there was evening and there was morning the second day..." [Gen. 1:8], etc.

Matthew and Mark both plainly tell us that Jesus was taken off the cross at evening – this means that the new day had begun. The only question remaining is whether this "new day" was the "sabbath" or "the day of preparation" and Mark, Luke, and John answer that question.

If Jesus was crucified on Friday, as most traditions say that He was, then the evening {of the new day} that Jesus was taken down off the cross was the sabbath which begins Friday evening. If Jesus was crucified on Thursday then the evening {of the new day} that He was taken down off the cross was the "day of preparation" [which began the Thursday evening] which was the day before the sabbath. The scriptures speak for themselves.

Jesus was crucified on Thursday; Thursday evening began "the day of preparation". Jesus lay in the tomb Thursday night, Friday night, and Saturday night and on the third day He arose just as He said He would. The "day of preparation" was to prepare for Sunday the day of the "First Fruits Offering" according to Leviticus 23 – later to be called "Easter." The Jews could not "prepare" on the sabbath so a special day was set aside for that purpose the day before the sabbath. {For calendar purposes the new day for the Jews begins at 6:00 p.m. - for prophetic purposes 6 p.m. Jerusalem time.}

This means Jesus hung on the cross the day of the Passover which began Wednesday evening and extended to Thursday evening. The Modern Jewish calendar was changed after Jesus lifetime to not allow modern Jewish Passover to be on Wednesday!! Note: the new day begins at evening – see Genesis 1 – so the Passover began at 6 p.m. Wednesday {Jesus celebrated the Passover meal with His disciples Wednesday evening}; the day of Preparation began at 6 p.m. Thursday {Jesus was taken off the cross Thursday evening}; the Sabbath began at 6 p.m. Friday {Jesus could not be touched or taken off the cross on the Sabbath}. If you say Jesus was buried on Jewish Friday {which begins 6 p.m. Thursday) you are correct. If you say He was buried on English {Gregorian} Friday, you are accusing Jesus of lying.

Note: On the modern Jewish calendar, Nisan can never begin on a Friday and Passover has been moved to Nisan 15. {It is the opinion of this author that the calendar was changed by the Sanhedrin following Jesus' resurrection.} See note on The Jewish Calendar at www.TheWordNotes.com

Note: Jonathan Cahn a Messianic Jewish Rabbi in his book: Book of Mysteries called my attention to the fact that Palm Sunday was on Nisan 10 {see Exodus chapter 12}. After looking at the calendar presented above, I realized that my calendar and his were an exact match for that date.

The modern Jewish calendar can have 353 days, 354 days, or 355 days on a regular year or 383 days, 384 days, or 385 days on a leap year and follows the 19 year Golden (lunar/solar) Cycle. For more information concerning the technical details of the Jewish calendar construction see: The Jewish Calendar at www.TheWordNotes.com See also: The Modern Jewish Calendar (5708 C.E.- 5810 C.E.) Rosh Hashanah- The Jewish New Year on their modern calendar. The first day of the month of Tishri. The seventh month of the Jewish calendar. The required time for the blowing of the trumpets. (Lev. 23:20) Rosh Hashanah will always occur in September or October of the year. 100 trumpet blasts will be sounded. 3 tones; three times - for a total of 9 will be sounded 11 times for a total of 99; followed by a pause - only the one blowing the trumpet will know when the "last trumpet" will sound for 100.

Yom Kippur- The Day of Atonement, the tenth day of the seventh month (Tishri) (Lev.23:27)

Succoth- Feast of Tabernacles- begins the 15th day of the seventh month (Lev. 23:34)

Hanukah- Beginning of the Jewish Feast of Lights (not an Old Testament Holy Day, but included here because it is considered holy to modern Jews. Also referred to as the Feast of Dedication [Jn. 10:22]

Christmas- a holy day to Christians, although the exact day of Jesus' birth is questionable

New Year (Gregorian -- January 1) added for reference purposes only Purim (Adar 14 or Adar II 14) – Esther 9:21-27

Easter {Modern}- The first Sunday, after the fourteenth day of the ecclesiastical moon {nearly full moon} which occurs on or after the vernal equinox. Easter is computed according to the Gregorian method after 1582 A.D. [Easter can occur any time from March 22 to April 25.]

Israel's Birth-Jewish - Israel's re-birth on the Jewish Calendar {Iyar 5}

Israel's Birth-Gregorian - Israel's re-birth on the Gregorian Calendar {May 14}

Shavouth- 50 days from Modern Passover - Jewish Pentecost

Pentecost- 50 days from Modern Easter - Biblical Pentecost

Ab 9- the 9th of the month of Ab, the day which according to Jewish tradition is the exact day that both temples were destroyed.

The Gregorian Date is our modern Gregorian calendar. The Julian Star Date used by observatories and for space flights is computed from the arbitrary date of Jan. 1, 4713 B.C., at noon Greenwich mean time. The Reference Date can be computed by subtracting 2432685 from the astronomical Julian Star Date.

The tables that follow come from the Reference Day Calendar Day Data at www.TheWordNotes.com. The data is available for 1947 A.D. to 2100 A.D. at www.TheWordNotes.com. #### Appendix M: How Long Was Israel in Egypt?

Chronology according to Jewish tradition {from The Comprehensive Hebrew Calendar, by Arthur Spier, Feldheim Publishers, Jerusalem/New York, 1981, page 21}

Year {A.H. - Anno Hominis - "Year of Man"}

1 Adam

- 1057 Noah 1056 years from the creation of man to Noah
- 1949 Abraham 892 years from Noah to Abraham *
- 2049 Isaac 100 years from Abraham to Isaac
- 2239 Entrance 190 years from Isaac to the Entrance to Egypt
- 2449 The Exodus 210 years from Egypt to Exodus**

_____

The above chronology demonstrates that the Jews know and understand that Israel was only in Egypt a little over 200 years. This chronology has two errors in it because the Jews do not accept the New Testament which we will discuss in these notes. The first error is dating the birth of Abraham at 1949 A.H. {Anno Hominis – "Year of Man" counted from creation of Adam}- which was actually 2008 A.H. This error comes from the assumption that Abraham was born when Terah was 70 years old and is based on Gen 11:26. Abraham is named first in Gen. 11:26 because of his importance {a similar listing is in Gen. 5:32 with Shem, Ham, and Japheth where Shem is listed first even though the scriptures plainly tell us that Japheth was the oldest Gen.10:2, 21}, [the genealogy in Genesis chapter 10 demonstrates that Shem was in fact the youngest.] but Abraham wasn't born until Terah was 130 years old. We know this because Stephen in Acts 7:4 tells us that Abraham left Haran after his father Terah's death and Terah was 205 {205 – 75 = 130} when he died and Abraham was 75 at the time.

{01} Genesis
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Gen. 11:26 KJV	(26) And Terah lived seventy years, and fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran. {1948 A.H./C-2094 B.C.}. <sup>f</sup> {01} Gen. 11:26 KJP
11:26f - Terah at age 70 fathered Nahor, Abram was born when Terah was 130 (Gen. 11:31-32; Gen. 12:4; Acts 7:4) Abram is named first because of His importance See note on Gen. 5:32. We know this because Acts 7:4 tells us that Abram went to Canaan at age 75 after his father's death and Terah died at the age of 205 [see Gen. 11:32]. See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History

{44} Acts
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(2) And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,</li> <li>(3) And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.</li> <li>(4) Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. Acts 7:2-4 KJV</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(2) And he {Stephen} answered, Men, brothers, and fathers, listen; The God of glory appeared to our forefather Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran<sup>a</sup>,</li> <li>(3) And said to him, Get out of your country, and away from your kindred, and come into the land which I shall show you.<sup>b</sup></li> <li>(4) Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran: and from there, when his father was dead,<sup>c</sup> he removed himself into this land, in which you now live. {44} Acts 7:2-4 KJP</li> </ul>
7:4c – when his father was dead – by this we know that Abraham came to Canaan following the death of his father who was 205 at the time
{Gen. 11:31-32} and Abraham was 75 years old at the time
{Gen. 11:32 – 12:5} See Appendix G: WorldTime Line of Biblcal History
See Appendix G. World Hille Eli	ne or biblear mistory

Notice that the Jews believe Israel was in Egypt 210 years. They are actually off by 5 years. We know this by doing the chronology and using Paul's statement in Gal. 3:15-19. The Jews do not know the exact year because they do not believe the New Testament and Paul, so they are rounding the time off to 210 years when in actuality is was 215 years {see math below}.

{48} Galatians
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(15) Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.</li> <li>(16) Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.</li> <li>(17) And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.</li> <li>(18) For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. Gal. 3:15-18 KJV</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(15) Brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Though it is but a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man can disannul it, or add to it.</li> <li>(16) Now to Abraham and his Descendant were the promises made. He did not say, And to descendants, as of many; but as of one,</li> <li>And to your Descendant,<sup>e</sup> Who is Christ.</li> <li>(17) And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years later,<sup>f</sup> cannot void the promise, that it should make the promise of no effect.</li> <li>(18) Because if the inheritance is by the law, it is no more by promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.</li> <li>{48} Gal. 3:15-18 KJP</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>3:17e - The Law was given on Mount Sinai 430 years after the promise was given to Abraham who was 75 years old at the time. Abraham lived to be 175 years old [Gen. 25:7] The Israelites came out of Egypt 430 years to the very day from the day the promise was given to Abraham. [Ex. 12:41] The promise given to Abraham 1/14/2083 A.H. The Jews came out of Egypt 1/14/2513 A.H See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History</li> <li>Note: this proves conclusively that the Jews were not slaves 400 years as so</li> </ul> many misquote scripture. Every Jew knows this is true, but many Christians who do not understand King James English don't and many modern translations totally corrupt the scripture See notes on

Genesis 12:1-4; 15:13; 50:26

Moses was 80 years old when he received the law {50 days after the Passover in 2513 A.H.}

Appendix M: How Long Was Israel in Egypt? - 3 (Page 2055)

Reckoning Jacob's age:

Jacob was 147 when he died, he had lived in Egypt 17 years {Gen. 47:28} {2315 A.H.}

He came to Egypt in the  $2^{nd}$  year of the famine at the age of 130 {147-17=130} {Gen. 45:6}

Joseph was 39 when Jacob came to Egypt {30+7+2=39} {2298 A.H.}

Jacob was 91 when Joseph was born {130-39=91} {2259 A.H.}

Jacob had been in the east 14 years when Joseph was born {Gen. 45:6; 47:28; 30:26; 31:41}

Jacob was 77 when he fled from Esau {91-14=77} {2245 A.H.}

Isaac was 60 when Jacob was born {Gen. 25:26} {2168 A.H.}

Abraham was 100 when Isaac was born {Gen. 21:15}{25 years after the promise was given}

By doing the math we know that Jacob entered Egypt 215 years after the promise was given to Abraham  $\{25+60+130=215\}$  By subtraction 430 -215 = 215 we know that there was only 215 years from the time Israel entered into Egypt until the Law was given to Moses.

Moses was 80 years old when he received the law. $\{2513 \text{ A.H.}\}$ Joseph died at the age of 110 {Gen. 50:26} – which means he lived 71 years  $\{110-39=71\}$  after Israel came into Egypt. By subtraction  $\{215-71-80 = 64\}$ Moses was born only 64 years after Joseph's death which means that Moses' parents could well have known Joseph. This also means that there was only 144 years  $\{215-71=144\}$  years from the death of Joseph until Israel left Egypt. So the total number of years of actual slavery was at most 144 years.

If all this is true, where did the idea come from that Israel was in slavery for 400 years? It comes from a misunderstanding of two passages of scripture which we will now deal with.

{01}	Genesis
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(13) And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years;</li> <li>(14) And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.</li> <li>(15) And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.</li> <li>(16) But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full. Gen. 15:13-16 KJV</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(13) And He said to Abram, Know for certain that your descendants shall be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years;<sup>e</sup></li> <li>(14) And also that nation, whom they shall serve, I will judge: and afterward they shall come out with great substance.</li> <li>(15) And you shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried in a good old age.</li> <li>(16) But in the fourth generation<sup>d</sup> they shall come here again: because the sin of the Amorites is not yet full.</li> <li>{01} Gen. 15:13-16 KJP</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>15:13c - Note: Abraham's descendants would live in land that would not be theirs and would be afflicted, but they were only in Egypt a total of 215 years. The 400 years is counted from Isaac's 5th birthday – it is believed that women of that time period nursed their young and then weaned them at age 5 – see Gen. 21:9. Moses was born only 64 years after Joseph's death. The law of Moses was given 430 years after the promise was given to Abraham who was 75 at the time. [Gal.3:15-19] Abraham lived 100 years after the promise was given to him. [Gen. 25:7] See Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History</li> <li>15:16d - fourth generation - see note on 15:13 - four hundred years - See Ex. 6:20 Moses is actually the 5th generation through his father Amram, but 4th generation through his mother Jochebed see Ex. 2:1 and Ex. 6:20</li> </ul>

The King James Version correctly translates the passage, but people don't understand or pay attention to the wording. Throughout their lifetimes, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob referred to themselves as strangers in the land in which they lived. Notice the passage says they will be strangers in the land and they will be afflicted 400 years {most of their lifetimes there were problems with the locals over wells that Abraham had dug}, and the land in which they will serve {namely Egypt}, God will judge. It does not say they will serve 400 years. Isaac was born 25 years after the promise was given to Abraham who was 100 when Isaac was born.

Appendix M: How Long Was Israel in Egypt? - 5 Page 2057

This means that the 400 year count began when Isaac was 5 years old. We are told that a great feast was held when Isaac was weaned in Gen. 21:8. We believe that is when the 400 year count began.

{02} Exodus
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
<ul> <li>(40) Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.</li> <li>(41) And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.</li> <li>Ex. 12:40-41 KJV</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>(40) Now the history of the children of Israel, who lived in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years {from the time the promise was given to Abraham [Gal. 3:15-19]}.<sup>f</sup></li> <li>(41) And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred thirty years, even to the very day {1/14/2513 A.H./C-1529 B.C.}<sup>g*</sup> it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD {Jehovah} went out from the land of Egypt. {02} Ex. 12:40-41 KJP</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>12:40f -the sojourning (history) of the children of Israel - note the phrase "who lived in Egypt" identifies the descendants of Abraham as the ones being spoken of - they were NOT in Egypt 400 years since there was only 430 years from the promise given to Abraham to the Exodus {Gal. 3:15-19} - see following note</li> <li>12:41g - 430 years "to the selfsame day" - lit. to the very day the covenant was made with Abraham [2083 A.H.] See also Gal. 3:15-19 - 400 years from Isaac's 5th birthday, 215 years after Israel entered Egypt, 330 years after the death of Abraham, 144 years after the death of Joseph. Moses is 80 years old, Aaron is 83 years old. See: Appendix G: World Time Line of Biblical History</li> </ul>

Since there was only 430 years from the time the promise was given to Abraham until the Law was given  $\{50 \text{ days after the Passover}\}$   $\{Gal. 3:15-19\}$  – for the descendants of Abraham to have been in slavery for 400 years, Abraham himself would have had to been in slavery for 70 years  $\{100-30=70\}$  since he lived 100 years after the promise was given  $\{Gen. 25:7\}$ . We know of course that was not the case.

Notice that Israel came out of Egypt exactly 430 years to the very day that the promise was given to Abraham. They came out of Egypt on the day of the Passover {which began at 6:00 p.m. the previous evening} which was the first month {Nisan [March-April]} the 14th day of the month {See Lev. 23:5}.

Next holy day to be fulfilled: Feast of Trumpets {modern Rosh Hashanah} 7/1/???? ({03} Lev. 23:24)

Trumpets are sounded 100 times – three different tones three times for 9 soundings – this is done eleven times for a total of 99. Then there is a pause. Only the trumpeter knows when the last trumpet will sound for number 100. ["In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: because the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." I Cor. 15:52]

The following holy days were added later by the Jews: Purim {lots} [Adar 14 and 15 {February-March} based on Esther chapter 9

Hanukah {dedication} - Feast of Dedication [Jn. 10:22] also called the Feast of Lights based on when the Lord miraculously provided oil for the temple lamps during the time of the Maccabees [around 168 B.C.] before Jesus' birth. The Maccabees led a successful revolt against the Syrian king Antiochus IV who had sacrificed a pig on the temple altar and banned Judaism. Hanukah can and often does occur on Christmas. It last occurred on Christmas in 2016 and it will occur on Christmas again in 2027. [This holy day is recorded in the Apocrypha in the books of first and second Maccabees but is also mentioned in John 10:22 when Jesus came to the temple at the Feast of Dedication.]

Appendix O: The Herods of Scripture

Herod I (Herod the Great) {75 B.C. To 4 B.C.} [Reigned from 37 B.C. To 4 B.C.]

Had seven sons: Antipater II, Alexander, Aristobulus IV, and Herod II (also referred to as Herod Philip I). Of these, he executed the first three for various reasons. He wrote the fourth, Herod Philip I, out of his will. The next three sons were Antipas, Archelaus, and Philip (Herod Philip II) He executed his favorite son. Antipater, only five days before his death for plotting against him? Herod's first wife Miriamne had two sons whom he had drowned in the palace swimming pool next door due his suspicions of them. According to tradition Herod died from a combination of chronic kidney disease, intense itching, painful intestinal problems and a rare infection that causes gangrene of the genitalia. Started rebuilding the temple known as Herod's temple around 13 B.C. [see John 20:23] which was completed about the time of Jesus' crucifixion [See Mat. 24:1; Lk. 21:5; Jn. 2:20; Jn, 20:23]. Herod's kingdom was divided by the Romans between Herod's three living sons: Herod Antipas, Archelaus, and Philip and were referred to as tetrachs [meaning four] [Mat. 14:1] but as far as we know the provinces were only divided into three sections with Archelaus receiving the largest portion and the rest divided between Antipas and Philip.

Herod Antipas {21 B.C. - 39 A.D.} [According to tradition was executed during the reign of Nero (54 A.D. - 68 A.D.) Ruled over the province of Galilee during Jesus' lifetime. Executed John the Baptist. Herodias divorced her husband Herod Philip [probably for political reasons] and became Herod Antipas' wife which John the Baptist denounced as being against the law. Herod Antipas was referred to by Jesus as "that old fox" [Lk. 13:32] Pilate sent Jesus to him because Pilot heard that Jesus was from Galilee which Herod ruled over.

Herod Archelaus {22 B.C. - 18 A.D.} reigned following his father's death [Mat. 2:22] over the largest portion of Judea and Samaria. Was deposed by Rome around 18 A.D. due to his unpopularity.

Herod Agrippa I {11 B.C. - 44 A.D.} Son of Herod Antipas and grandson of Herod the Great. Reigned over Judea from around 41 A.D. To 44 A.D. Had John the brother of James executed [Acts 12:2] and put Peter in prison [Acts 12:3]. Died of worms [Acts 12:23].

Herod Agrippa II {27 A.D. - 93 A.D.} Son of Herod Agrippa I, grandson of Herod

Antipas, great grandson of Herod the Great. Heard Paul's testimony before Festus {Acts 25:13 – 26:32}
