

Proverbs

Chapter 1

The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

To know wisdom and instruction;
to perceive the words of understanding;

To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity {fairness};

To give wisdom to the simple minded, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

A wise man will hear, and will increase in learning;
and a man of understanding will attain to wise counsels:

To understand a proverb, and the interpretation;
the words of the wise, and their hidden meanings.

The fear
{reverence}
of the LORD {Jehovah} is the beginning of knowledge:
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, hear the instruction of your father, and do not forsake the law of your mother:

Because they will be an ornament of grace to your head, and chains {of jewelry} about your neck.

My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

If they say,
Come with us, let us lay in wait for blood, let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause:

Let us swallow them up alive as the grave;
and whole, as those who go down into the pit:

We will find all precious possessions, we will fill our houses with spoil:

Cast in your lot among us;
let us all have one purse:

My son, do not walk in the way with them;
refrain your foot from their path:

Because their feet run to evil, and go quickly to shed blood.

Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

And they lay wait for their own blood;
they lurk secretly for their own lives.

So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain;
who takes away the life of its owners.

Wisdom cries outside; she speaks her voice in the streets:

She cries in the chief market place, in the openings of the gates:
in the city she speaks her words, saying,

How long, you simple minded ones, will you love simplicity?
and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

Turn yourself at my reproof:
indeed, I will pour out my spirit to you, I will make known my words to you.

Because I have called, and you refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

But you have set at nothing all my counsel, and would have none of my reproof:

I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when your fear comes;

When your fear comes as desolation, and your destruction comes as a whirlwind;
when distress and anguish comes upon you.

Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer;
they will seek me early, but they will not find me:

Because they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah}:

They would have none of my counsel:
they despised all my reproof.

Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

Because the turning away of the simple minded will kill them, and the prosperity of fools will destroy them.

But whoever listens to me will live safely, and will be quiet from fear of evil.

Proverbs Chapter 2

My son, if you will receive my words, and hide my commandments within you;

So that you incline your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding;

Yes, if you cry after knowledge, and lift up your voice for understanding;

If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures;

Then you will understand the fear of the LORD {Jehovah}, and find the knowledge of God.

{reverence}

Because the LORD {Jehovah} gives wisdom:

out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding.

He lays up sound wisdom for the righteous:

He is a shield to those who walk uprightly.

He keeps the paths of justice, and preserves the way of His saints.

Then you will understand righteousness, and justice, and equity {fairness};

yes, every good path.

When wisdom enters into your heart, and knowledge is pleasant to your soul;

Discretion will preserve you, understanding will keep you:

To deliver you from the way of the evil man, from the man who speaks perverse things;

Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of the wicked;

Whose ways are crooked, and they are perverse in their paths:

To deliver you from the strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever}, even from the stranger who flatters with her words;

Who forsakes the guide of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God.

Because her house inclines to death, and her paths to the dead.

None that go to her return again, neither do they take hold of the paths of life.

That you may walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

Because the upright will live in the land, and the perfect will remain in it.

But the wicked will be cut off from the earth, and the sinners will be rooted out of it.

Proverbs Chapter 3

My son, do not forget my law;
but let your heart keep my commandments:

Because they will add to you length of days, and long life, and peace.

Do not let mercy and truth forsake you:
bind them about your neck;
write them upon the tablet of your heart:

So you will find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Trust in the LORD {Jehovah} with all your heart;
and do not lean upon your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths.

Do not be wise in your own eyes:
fear {revere}
the LORD {Jehovah}, and depart from evil.

It will be health to your belly, and marrow to your bones.

Honor the LORD {Jehovah} with your substance {possessions}, and with the first fruits of all your increase:

So your barns will be filled with plenty, and your wine presses will burst out with new wine.

My son, do not despise the discipline of the LORD {Jehovah};
neither be weary of His correction:

For those whom the LORD {Jehovah} loves He corrects;
even as a father the son in whom he delights.

Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who obtains understanding.

Because its merchandise is better than the merchandise of silver, and its gain better than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies:
and all the things you can desire are not to be compared to her.

Length of days is in her right hand;
and in her left hand riches and honor.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to those who lay hold upon her:
and happy is everyone who keeps her.

The LORD {Jehovah} by wisdom has founded the earth;
by understanding He has established the heavens.

By His knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

My son, do not let them depart from your eyes:
keep sound wisdom and discretion:

So they will be life to your soul, and grace to your neck.

Then you will walk in your way safely, and your foot will not stumble.

When you lie down, you will not be afraid:
yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.

Do not be afraid of sudden fear, nor of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes.

Because the LORD {Jehovah} will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being taken.

Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it.

Do not say to your neighbor,
Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give;
when you have it with you now.

Do not devise {plan} evil against your neighbor, since he lives securely by you.

Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm.

Do not envy the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

Because the perverse is abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}:
but His secret is with the righteous.

The curse of the LORD {Jehovah} is in the house of the wicked:
but He blesses the house of the just.

Surely He scorns the scorners:
but He gives grace to the humble.

The wise will inherit glory:
but shame will be the promotion of fools.

Proverbs Chapter 4

Listen, you children, to the instruction of a father, and attend {pay attention} to know understanding.

Because I give you good instruction, do not forsake my law.

Because I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

He taught me also, and said to me,
Let your heart retain my words:
keep my commandments, and live.

Obtain wisdom, get understanding:
do not forget it;
nor decline from the words of my mouth.

Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you:
love her, and she will keep you.

Wisdom is the principal {most important} thing;
therefore get wisdom:
and with all you obtain get understanding.

Exalt her, and she will promote you:
she will bring you to honor, when you embrace her.

She will give to your head an ornament of grace:
a crown of glory she will deliver to you.

Listen, my son, and receive my sayings;
and the years of your life will be many.

I have taught you in the way of wisdom;
I have led you in right paths.

When you go, your steps will not be restrained;
and when you run, you will not stumble.

Take fast hold of instruction;
do not let her go:
keep her;
because she is your life.

Do not enter into the path of the wicked, and do not go in the way of evil men.

Avoid it, do not pass by it, turn from it, and pass away.

Because they do not sleep, unless they have done mischief;
and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

Because they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shines more and more until the perfect day.

The way of the wicked is as darkness:
they do not know why they stumble.

My son, pay attention to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.

Do not let them depart from your eyes;
keep them in the midst of your heart.

Because they are life to those who find them, and health to all their flesh.

Keep your heart with all diligence;
because out of it are the issues of life.

Put away from yourself a perverse mouth, and put perverse lips far from you.

Let your eyes look right on, and let your eyelids look straight before you.

Consider the path of your feet, and let all your ways be established.

Do not turn to the right hand nor to the left:
remove your foot from evil.

Proverbs Chapter 5

My son, pay attention to my wisdom, and bow your ear to my understanding:

That you may regard discretion, and that your lips may keep knowledge.

Because the lips of a strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever} drop as a honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

Her feet go down to death;
her steps take hold on hell.

Lest you should ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that you cannot know them.

Listen to me now therefore, you children, and do not depart from the words of my mouth.

Remove your way far from her, and do not come near to the door of her house:

Lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel:

Lest strangers be filled with your wealth;
and your labors be in the house of a stranger;

And you mourn at the last, when your flesh and your body are consumed,

And say,
How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;

And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!

I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

Drink waters out of your own cistern {water tank}, and running waters out of your own well.

Let your fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

Let them be only your own, and not strangers' with you.

Let your fountain be blessed:
and rejoice with the wife of your youth.

Let her be as the loving deer and pleasant doe;
let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
and be ravished always with her love.

And why will you, my son, be ravished with a strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever}, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

Because the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD {Jehovah}, and He considers all he does.

His own sins will take the wicked himself, and he will be held with the cords of his sins.

He will die without instruction;
and in the greatness of his folly he will go astray.

Proverbs Chapter 6

My son, if you are surety {made a promise; cosigner} for your friend, if you have shook hands in a pledge with a stranger,

You become snared with the words of your mouth, you are taken with the words of your mouth.

Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, when you have come into the hand of your friend; go, humble yourself, and make sure your friend.

Do not give sleep to your eyes, nor rest to your eyelids.

Deliver yourself as a doe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler {bird catcher}.

Consider the ant, you who are lazy;
consider her ways, and be wise:

Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

Provides her food in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest.

How long will you sleep, lazy one?
when will you arise out of your sleep?

Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

So will your poverty come as one that travels, and your want as an armed man.

A naughty person, a wicked man, walks with a perverse mouth.

He winks with his eyes, he speaks with his feet, he teaches with his fingers;

Perverseness is in his heart, he devises {plans} mischief continually;
he sows discord.

Therefore his calamity will come suddenly;
suddenly he will be broken without remedy.

These six things the LORD {Jehovah} hates:
yes, seven are an abomination to Him:

A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

A heart that devises {plans} wicked imaginations, feet that are swift in running to mischief,

A false witness who speaks lies, and he who sows discord among brothers.

My son, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake the law of your mother:

Bind them continually upon your heart, and tie them around your neck.

When you go, it will lead you;
when you sleep, it will keep you;
and when you awake, it will talk with you.

Because the commandment is a lamp;
and the law is light;
and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

To keep you from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman {unbeliever; prostitute}.

Do not lust after her beauty in your heart;
neither let her take you with her eyelids.

Because by means of a prostitute a man is brought to a piece of bread:
and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

So he who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
whoever touches her will not be innocent.

Men do not despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

But if he is found, he will restore sevenfold;
he will give all the substance of his house.

But whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding:
he who does it destroys his own soul.

A wound and dishonor he will receive;
and his reproach will not be wiped away.

Because jealousy is the rage of a man:
therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

He will not regard any ransom;
neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

Proverbs Chapter 7

My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments within you.

Keep my commandments, and live;
and my law as the apple of your eye.

Bind them upon your fingers, write them upon the tablet of your heart.

Say to wisdom,
You are my sister;
and call understanding your kinswoman:

That they may keep you from the strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever}, from the stranger who flatters with her words.

Because at the window of my house I looked through my lattice,

And saw among the simple minded ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

Passing through the street near her corner;
and he went the way to her house,

In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

And, there a woman with the attire of a prostitute and subtle of heart met him.

(She is loud and stubborn;
her feet do not stay in her house:

Now she is outside, now in the streets, and lies in wait at every corner.)

So she caught him, and kissed him, and with a hardened face said to him,

I have peace offerings with me;
today I have paid my vows.

Therefore I came forth to meet you, diligently to seek your face, and I have found you.

I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning:
let us console ourselves with loves.

Because my husband is not at home, he has gone on a long journey:

He has taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

He goes after her straightway, as an ox goes to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

Until a dart strikes through his liver;
as a bird hurries to the snare, and does not know that it is for his life.

Listen to me now therefore, O you children, and pay attention to the words of my mouth.

Do not let your heart fall to her ways, do not go astray in her paths.

Because she has cast down many wounded:
yes, many strong men have been killed by her.

Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

Proverbs Chapter 8

Does not wisdom cry?
and understanding put forth her voice?

She stands in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

She cries at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

To you, O men, I call;
and my voice is to the sons of man.

O you simple minded, understand wisdom:
and, you fools, be of an understanding heart.

Listen;
because I will speak of excellent things;
and the opening of my lips will be right things.

Because my mouth will speak truth;
and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;
there is nothing perverse or evil in them.

They are all plain to him who understands, and right to those who find knowledge.

Receive my instruction, and not silver;
and knowledge rather than choice gold.

Because wisdom is better than rubies;
and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

I, wisdom, live with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

The fear
{reverence}
of the LORD {Jehovah} is to hate evil:
pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the perverse mouth, I hate.

Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom:
I am understanding;
I have strength.

By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

I love those who love me;
and those who seek me early will find me.

Riches and honor are with me; yes, durable riches and righteousness.

My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold;
and my revenue {reward} than choice silver.

I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

That I may cause those who love me to inherit substance;
and I will fill their treasures.

The LORD {Jehovah} possessed me in the beginning of His way, before His works of old.

I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, before the earth ever was.

When there were no depths, I was brought forth;
when there were no fountains abounding with water.

Before the mountains were settled, before the hills I was brought forth:

While as yet He had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

When He prepared the heavens, I was there:
when He set a compass upon the face of the depth:

When He established the clouds above:
when He strengthened the fountains of the deep:

When He gave to the sea His decree, that the waters should not pass His commandment:
when He appointed the foundations of the earth:

Then I was by Him, as one brought up with Him:
and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him;

Rejoicing in the livable part of His earth;
and my delights were with the sons of men.

Now therefore listen to me, you children:
because blessed are those who keep my ways.

Hear instruction, and be wise, and do not refuse it.

Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

Because whoever finds me finds life, and will obtain favor of the LORD {Jehovah}.

But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul:
all those who hate me love death.

Proverbs Chapter 9

Wisdom has built her house, she has carved out her seven pillars:

She has killed her beasts;
she has mingled her wine;
she has also furnished her table.

She has sent forth her maidens:
she cries upon the highest places of the city,

Whoever is simple minded, let him turn in here:
as for him who wants understanding, she says to him,

Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mixed.

Forsake the foolish, and live;
and go in the way of understanding.

He who reproves a scorner receives to himself shame:
and he who rebukes a wicked man receives himself a blot.

Do not reprove a scorner, lest he hate you:
rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.

Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be wiser still:
teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

The fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah} is the beginning of wisdom:
and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

Because by me your days will be multiplied, and the years of your life will be increased.

If you are wise, you will be wise for yourself:
but if you scorn, you alone will bear it.

A foolish woman talks too much:
she is simple minded, and knows nothing.

Because she sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

To call those who pass by who continue on their ways:

Whoever is simple minded, let him turn in here:
and as for him who wants understanding, she says to him,

Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

But he does not know that the dead are there;
and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

Proverbs Chapter 10

The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son makes a glad father:
but a foolish son is the sorrow of his mother.

Treasures of wickedness profit nothing:
but righteousness delivers from death.

The LORD {Jehovah} will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry:
but He casts away the substance of the wicked.

He becomes poor who deals with a lazy hand:
but the hand of the diligent makes rich.

He who gathers in summer is a wise son:
but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

Blessings are upon the head of the just:
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

The memory of the just is blessed:
but the name of the wicked will rot.

The wise in heart will receive commandments:
but a babbling fool will fall.

He who walks uprightly walks surely:
but he who perverts his ways will be known.

He who winks with the eye causes sorrow:
but a babbling fool will fall.

The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life:
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

Hatred stirs up strife:
but love covers all sins.

In the lips of him who has understanding wisdom is found:
but a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding.

Wise men lay up knowledge:
but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

The rich man's wealth is his strong city:
the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

The labor of the righteous tends to life:
the fruit of the wicked to sin.

He is in the way of life who keeps instruction:
but he who refuses reproof errs.

He who hides hatred with lying lips, and he who speaks a slander, is a fool.

In the multitude of words there is no lack of sin:
but he who refrains his lips is wise.

The tongue of the just is as choice silver:
the heart of the wicked is of little worth.

The lips of the righteous feed many:
but fools die for lack of wisdom.

The blessing of the LORD {Jehovah}, it makes rich, and He adds no sorrow with it.

It is as sport to a fool to do mischief:
but a man of understanding has wisdom.

That which the wicked fear will come upon him:
but the desire of the righteous will be granted.

As the whirlwind passes, so is the wicked no more:
but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the lazy one to those who send him.

The fear
{reverence}
of the LORD {Jehovah} prolongs days:
but the years of the wicked will be shortened.

The hope of the righteous will be gladness:
but the expectation of the wicked will perish.

The way of the LORD {Jehovah} is strength to the upright:
but destruction shall be to those who do works of sin.

The righteous will never be removed:
but the wicked will not live in the earth.

The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom:
but the perverse tongue will be cut out.

The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable:
but the mouth of the wicked speaks perverseness.

Proverbs Chapter 11

A false balance is abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}:
but a just weight is His delight.

When pride comes, then shame comes:
but with the humble is wisdom.

The integrity of the upright will guide them:
but the perverseness of sinners will destroy them.

Riches do not profit in the day of wrath {anger; judgment}:
but righteousness delivers from death.

The righteousness of the perfect will direct his way:
but the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.

The righteousness of the upright will deliver them:
but sinners will be taken in their own naughtiness.

When a wicked man dies, his hope will perish:
and the hope of unjust men perishes.

The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked comes in his place.

A hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbor:
but through knowledge the just will be delivered.

When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices:
and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted:
but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

He who is void of wisdom despises his neighbor:
but a man of understanding holds his peace.

A gossip reveals secrets:
but he who is of a faithful spirit conceals the matter.

Where there is no counsel, the people fall:
but in the multitude of counselors there is safety.

He who is a security for a stranger will suffer for it:
and he who hates loans is sure.

A gracious woman retains honor:
and strong men retain riches.

The merciful man does good to his own soul:
but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.

The wicked works a deceitful work:
but to him who sows righteousness there will be a sure reward.

As righteousness tends to life:
so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death.

Those who are of a perverse heart are abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}:
but those who are upright in their ways are His delight.

Though hand joins in hand, the wicked will not be unpunished:
but the offspring of the righteous will be delivered.

As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair {beautiful} woman who has no discretion.

The desire of the righteous is only good:
but the expectation of the wicked is wrath {anger; judgment}.

There are those who share what they have, and yet increase;
and there are those who withhold more than is right, but it tends to poverty.

The generous soul will be made fat:
and he who waters will also be watered himself.

He who withholds corn, the people will curse:
but blessings will be upon the head of him who sells it.

He who diligently seeks good obtains favor:
but he who seeks mischief, it will come to him.

He who trusts in his riches will fall:
but the righteous will flourish as a branch.

He who troubles his own house will inherit the wind:
and the fool will be servant to the wise of heart.

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life;
and he who wins souls is wise.

Indeed, the righteous will be rewarded in the earth:
much more the wicked and the sinner.

Proverbs Chapter 12

Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge:
but he who hates reproof is brutish {ungodly}.

A good man obtains favor of the LORD {Jehovah}:
but a man of wicked devices {plans} He will condemn.

A man will not be established by wickedness:
but the root of the righteous will not be moved.

A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband:
but she who makes ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

The thoughts of the righteous are right:
but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood:
but the mouth of the upright will deliver them.

The wicked are overthrown, and are no more:
but the house of the righteous will stand.

A man will be commended according to his wisdom:
but he who is of a perverse heart will be despised.

He who is despised, and has a servant, is better than he who honors himself, and lacks bread.

A righteous man regards the life of his beast:
but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

He who tills his land will be satisfied with bread:
but he who follows vain persons is void of understanding.

The wicked desire the net of evil men:
but the root of the righteous yields fruit.

The wicked is snared by the sin of his lips:
but the just will come out of trouble.

A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth:
and the reward of a man's hands will be rendered to him.

The way of a fool is right in his own eyes:
but he who listens to counsel is wise.

A fool's wrath {anger} is presently known:

but a prudent man covers shame.

He who speaks truth shows forth righteousness:
but a false witness deceit.

There is one whose words are like the piercings of a sword:
but the tongue of the wise is health.

The lip of truth will be established forever:
but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

Deceit is in the heart of those who imagine evil:
but to the counselors of peace is joy.

No evil will happen to the just:

Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.

Do not withhold correction from the child:
because if you beat him with the rod, he will not die.

You will beat him with the rod, and will deliver his soul from hell.

My son, if your heart is wise, my heart will rejoice, even mine.

Yes, my reins {heart} will rejoice, when your lips speak right things.

Do not let your heart envy sinners:
but be in the fear {reverence}

of the LORD {Jehovah} all the day long.

Because surely there is an end; and your hope will not be cut off.

Listen, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the way.

Do not be among drunkards;
among riotous eaters of food {gluttons}:

Because the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty:
and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.

Listen to your father who fathered you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

Buy the truth, and do not sell it;
also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice:
and he who fathers a wise child will have his joy .

Your father and your mother will be glad, and she who bore you will rejoice.

My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways.

Because a prostitute is a deep ditch;
and a strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever}
is a narrow pit.

She also lies in wait as for a prey, and increases the sinners among men.

Who has woe?
who has sorrow?
who has contentions?
who has babbling?
who has wounds without cause?
who has redness of eyes?

Those who tarry long at the wine;
those who go to seek mixed wine.

Do not look upon the wine when it is red, when it gives its color in the cup, when it goes down smoothly.

At the last it bites like a snake, and strikes like a viper.

Your eyes will see strange women, and your heart will speak perverse things.

Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea, or as he who lies upon the top of a mast.

They have stricken me,
you will say, and
I was not sick;
they have beaten me, and I did not feel it:
when will I awake?
I will seek it yet again.

Proverbs Chapter 24

Do not be envious of evil men, and have no desire to be with them.

Because their heart studies destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established:

And by knowledge the chambers will be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

A wise man is strong;
yes, a man of knowledge increases strength.

Because by wise counsel you will make your war:
and in multitude of counselors there is safety.

Wisdom is too high for a fool:
he does not open his mouth in the gate.

He who devises
{plans}
to do evil will be called a mischievous person.

The thought of foolishness is sin:
and the scorner is an abomination to men.

If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

If you forbear to deliver those who are drawn to death, and those that are ready to be killed;

If you say,
Surely, we did not know it;
does He Who ponders the heart not consider it?
and He who keeps your soul, does He not know it?
and will He not render to every man according to his works?

My son, eat honey, because it is good;
and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste:

So will the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul:
when you have found it, then there will be a reward, and your hope will not be cut off.

Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the house of the righteous;
do not spoil his resting place:

Because a just man falls seven times, and rises up again:
but the wicked will fall into mischief.

Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles:

Lest the LORD {Jehovah} see it, and it displeases Him, and He turns away His wrath {anger; judgment} from him.

Do not fret yourself because of evil men, neither be envious of the wicked;

Because there will be no reward to the evil man;
the candle of the wicked will be put out.

My son, fear {revere} the LORD {Jehovah} and the king:
and do not meddle with them who are given to change:

Because their calamity will rise suddenly;
and who knows the ruin of them both?

These things also belong to the wise.
It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

He who says to the wicked, you are righteous;
him the people will curse, nations will despise him:

But to those who rebuke him will be delight, and a good blessing will come upon them.

Every man will kiss his lips who gives a right answer.

Prepare your work outside, and make it fit for yourself in the field;
and afterward build your house.

Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause;
and do not deceive with your lips.

Do not say,
I will do so to him as he has done to me:
I will render to the man according to his work.

I went by the field of the lazy, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

And, indeed, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered its face, and its stone wall was broken down.

Then I saw, and considered it well:
I looked upon it, and received instruction.

Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

So your poverty will come as one who travels;
and your want as an armed man.

Proverbs Chapter 25

These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

It is the glory of God to conceal a thing;
but the honor of kings is to search out a matter.

The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

Take away the dross from the silver, and there will come forth a vessel for the finer.

Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

Do not put forth yourself in the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of great men:

Because it is better that it be said to you,
Come up here;
than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince whom your eyes have seen.

Do not go quickly to strive, lest you not know what to do in its end, when your neighbor has put you to shame.

Debate your cause with your neighbor himself;
and do not disclose a secret to another:

Lest he who hears it puts you to shame, and your infamy not turn away.

A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise person who reproves an obedient ear.

As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him:
because he refreshes the soul of his masters.

Whoever boasts himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaks the bone.

Have you found honey?
eat so much as is sufficient for you, lest you be filled with it, and vomit it.

Withdraw your foot from your neighbor's house;
lest he be weary of you, and so hate you.

A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is a maul {sledge hammer}, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

As he who takes away clothes in cold weather, and as vinegar upon potash, so is he who sings songs to a sorrowful heart.

If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink:

Because you will heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD {Jehovah} will reward you.

The north wind drives away rain:
so does an angry countenance {face} a backbiting {back talking} tongue.

It is better to live in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

It is not good to eat much honey:
so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

He who has no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

Proverbs Chapter 26

As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not becoming for a fool.

As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse without cause will not come.

A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the fool's back.

Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him.

Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off the feet, and drinks damage.

The legs of the lame are not equal:
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

As he who binds a stone in a sling, so is he that gives honor to a fool.

As a thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

The great God Who formed all things both rewards the fool, and rewards sinners.

As a dog returns to his vomit, so a fool returns to his folly.

Do you see a man wise in his own conceit?
there is more hope for a fool than of him.

The lazy man says,
There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

As the door turns upon its hinges, so does the lazy one upon his bed.

The lazy hides his hand in his bosom;
it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth.

The lazy one is wiser in his own conceit than seven men who can render a reason.

He who passes by, and meddles with strife that does not belong to him, is like one who takes a dog by the ears.

As a mad man who casts firebrands, arrows, and death,

So is the man who deceives his neighbor, and says,
Am I not joking?

Where no wood is, there the fire goes out:
so where there is no gossip, the strife ceases.

As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire;
so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

The words of a gossip are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a pot covered with silver dross.

He who hates pretends with his lips, and lays up deceit within him;

When he speaks fair, do not believe him:
because there are seven abominations in his heart.

Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness will be shown before the whole congregation.

Whoever digs a pit will fall into it:
and he who rolls a stone, it will return upon him.

A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it;
and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Proverbs Chapter 27

Do not boast of tomorrow;
because you do not know what a day may bring forth.

Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own lips.

A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty;
but a fool's anger is heavier than them both.

Wrath {anger; judgment} is cruel, and anger is outrageous;
but who is able to stand before envy?

Open rebuke is better than secret love.

Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

The full soul hates honeycomb;
but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his place.

Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart:
so does the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

Your own friend, and your father's friend, do not forsake;
neither go into your brother's house in the day of your calamity:
because better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far off.

My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me.

A prudent man foresees the evil, and hides himself;
but the simple minded pass on, and are punished.

Take his clothing that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever}.

He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it will be counted a curse to him.

A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

Whoever hides her hides the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which proclaims itself.

Iron sharpens iron;
so a man sharpens the countenance

{smile; facial expression} of his friend.

Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit:
so he who waits on his master will be honored.

As in water a face reflects face, so the heart of man reflects man.

Hell and destruction are never full;
so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold;
so is a man to his praise.

Though you should beat a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

Be diligent to know the state of your flocks, and look well to your herds.

Because riches are not forever:
and does the crown endure to every generation?

The hay appears, and the tender grass shows itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

And you will have goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household, and for the maintenance for your maidens.

Proverbs Chapter 28

The wicked flee when no man pursues:
but the righteous are bold as a lion.

Because of the sin of a land many are its princes:
but by a man of understanding and knowledge its state will be prolonged.

A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food.

Those who forsake the law praise the wicked:
but those who keep the law contend with them.

Evil men do not understand judgment:
but those who seek the LORD {Jehovah} understand all things.

Better is the poor who walks in his uprightness, than he who is perverse in his ways, though he is rich.

Whoever keeps the law is a wise son:
but he who is a companion of riotous men shames his father.

He who by usury {interest} and unjust gain increases his substance {possessions}, he will gather it for him who will pity the poor.

He who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer will be an abomination.

Whoever causes the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he will fall himself into his own pit:
but the upright will have good things in possession.

The rich man is wise in his own conceit;
but the poor who has understanding searches him out.

When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory:
but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

He who covers his sins will not prosper:
but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.

Happy is the man who always fears:
but he who hardens his heart will fall into mischief.

As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear;
so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

The prince who wants understanding is also a great oppressor:
but he who hates covetousness {greed}

will prolong his days.

A man who does violence to the blood of any person will flee to the pit;
let no man hold him.

Whoever walks uprightly will be saved:
but he who is perverse in his ways will fall at once.

He who plows his land will have plenty of bread:
but he who follows after vain persons will have poverty enough.

A faithful man will abound with blessings:
but he who hurries to be rich will not be innocent.

To have respect of persons is not good:
because for a piece of bread that man will sin.

He who hurries to be rich has an evil eye, and does not consider that poverty will come upon him.

He who rebukes a man afterward will find more favor than he who flatters with the tongue.

Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says,
It is no sin;
the same is the companion of a destroyer.

He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife:
but he who puts his trust in the LORD {Jehovah} will be made fat.

He who trusts in his own heart is a fool:
but whoever walks wisely, he will be delivered.

He who gives to the poor will not lack:
but he who hides his eyes will have many a curse.

When the wicked rise, men hide themselves:
but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs Chapter 29

He, who hardens his neck when he is often reproved, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice:
but when the wicked rule, the people mourn.

Whoever loves wisdom causes his father to rejoice:
but he who keeps company with prostitutes spends his substance.

The king by judgment establishes the land:
but he who receives gifts overthrows it.

A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

In the sin of an evil man there is a snare:
but the righteous sings and rejoices.

The righteous considers the cause of the poor:
but the wicked does not regard to know it.

Scornful men bring a city into a snare:
but wise men turn away wrath {anger; judgment}.

If a wise man contends with a foolish man, whether he rages or laughs, there is no rest.

The bloodthirsty hate the upright:
but the just seek his soul.

A fool speaks all his mind: but a wise man keeps it in until later.

If a ruler listens to lies, all his servants are wicked.

The poor and the deceitful man meet together:
the LORD {Jehovah} enlightens both their eyes.

The king who faithfully judges the poor, his throne will be established forever.

The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame.

When the wicked are multiplied, sin increases:
but the righteous will see their fall.

Correct your son, and he will give you rest;
yes, he will give delight to your soul.

Where there is no vision, the people perish:

but he who keeps the law, is happy.

A servant will not be corrected by words:
because though he understands he will not answer.

Do you see a man that is hasty in his words?
there is more hope for a fool than for him.

He who delicately brings up his servant from a child will have him become his son at the length.

An angry man stirs up strife, and a furious man abounds in sin.

A man's pride will bring him low:
but honor will uphold the humble in spirit.

Whoever is partner with a thief hates his own soul:
he hears cursing, and does not proclaim it.

The fear of man brings a snare:
but whoever puts his trust in the LORD {Jehovah} will be safe.

Many seek the ruler's favor;
but every man's judgment comes from the LORD {Jehovah}.

An unjust man is an abomination to the just:
and he who is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

Proverbs Chapter 30

The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy:
the man spoke to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal,

Surely I am more brutish {ungodly} than any man, and do not have the understanding of a man.

I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

Who has ascended up into heaven, or descended?
Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in clothes?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His Name, and what is His Son's Name, if you can tell?

Every word of God is pure:
He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.

Do not add to His words, lest He reprove you, and you are found to be a liar.

Two things I have required of you;
do not deny them to me before I die:

Remove vanity and lies far from me:
give me neither poverty nor riches;
feed me with food convenient for me:

Lest I be full, and deny you, and say,
Who is the LORD {Jehovah}?
or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the Name of my God in vain.

Do not accuse a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you are found to be guilty.

There is a generation that curses their father, and does not bless their mother.

There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes!
and their eyelids are lifted up.

There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

The horseleech has two daughters, crying, Give, give.
There are three things that are never satisfied, yes, four things do not say,

It is enough:

The grave;
and the barren womb;
the earth that is not filled with water;
and the fire that does not say,
It is enough.

The eye that mocks at his father, and despises to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley will pick it out, and the young eagles will eat it.

There are three things which are too wonderful for me, yes, four which I do not know:

The way of an eagle in the air;
the way of a snake upon a rock;
the way of a ship in the midst of the sea;
and the way of a man with a maid.

Such is the way of an adulterous woman;
she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says,
I have done no wickedness.

For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

For a servant when he reigns;
and a fool when he is filled with meat;

For a hateful woman when she is married;
and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

There are four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceedingly wise:

The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their food in the summer;

The rock badgers are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

The locusts have no king, yet they go forth all of them by bands;

The spider takes hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

There are three things which go well, yes, four are beautiful in going:

A lion which is strongest among beasts, and does not turn away for any;

A greyhound;
a male goat also;
and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil, lay your hand upon your mouth.

Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood:
so the forcing of wrath {anger; judgment} brings forth strife.

Proverbs Chapter 31

The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

What, my son?
and what, the son of my womb?
and what, the son of my vows?

Do not give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

*It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine;
nor for princes strong drink:*

Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish, and wine to those who are full of sorrow.

Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

Open your mouth for the dumb
{those who cannot speak}
in the cause of all who are appointed to destruction.

Open your mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Who can find a virtuous woman?
because her price is far above rubies.

The heart of her husband safely trusts in her, so that he will have no need of spoil.

She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

She seeks wool, and flax, and works willingly with her hands.

She is like the merchants' ships;
she brings her food from afar.

She rises also while it is yet night, and gives food to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

She considers a field, and buys it:
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

She ties her belt with strength, and strengthens her arms.

She perceives that her merchandise is good:
her candle does not go out by night.

She lays her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

She stretches out her hand to the poor;
yes, she reaches forth her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow for her household:
because all of her household are clothed with scarlet.

She makes herself coverings of tapestry;
her clothing is silk and purple.

Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land.

She makes fine linen, and sells it;
and delivers belts to the merchant.

Strength and honor are her clothing;
and she will rejoice in time to come.

She opens her mouth with wisdom;
and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children arise up, and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her.

Many daughters have done virtuously, but you excel them all.

Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain:
but a woman who fears {reverences}
the LORD {Jehovah}, she will be praised.

Give her of the fruit of her hands;
and let her own works praise her in the gates.
