

Daniel

Chapter 1

In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah
{three thousand five hundred twenty A.H./five hundred twenty-two B.C.}
Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and besieged it.

And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house {temple} of God:
which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god;
and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

And the king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's offspring, and of the princes;

Children in whom there was no blemish, but well favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the language of the Chaldeans.

And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank:
so nourishing them three years, that at the end of which they might stand before the king.

Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel {God is my judge},
Hananiah
{whom Jehovah has favored},
Mishael
{who is comparable to God},
and Azariah {whom God helps}:

To whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names:
because he gave to Daniel the name of Belteshazzar {keeper of hidden treasures of Bel};
and to Hananiah, Shadrach {inspired by the sun god};
and to Mishael, Meshach {of the goddess Shach};
and to Azariah, Abed-nego
{the servant of the shining fire}.

But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank:
therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

Now God had brought Daniel into favor and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

And the prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel,
I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your meat and your drink:
because why should he see your faces worse in appearance than the children who are of your kind?
then you will cause me to endanger my own head to the king.

Then Daniel said to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,

I urge {ask; plead with} you, test your servants, ten days;
and let them give us only vegetables to eat, and water to drink.

Then let our appearances be looked upon before you, and the appearance of the children who eat of the portion of the king's meat:
and as you see, deal with your servants.

So he consented to them in this matter, and tested them ten days.

And at the end of ten days their appearances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children who ate the portion of the king's meat.

So Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink;
and gave them vegetables only.

As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom:
and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

Now at the end of the days that the king had said he would bring them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

And the king communed with them;
and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:
therefore they stood before the king.

And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm.

And Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

Daniel Chapter 2

And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar
{three thousand five hundred twenty A.H./five hundred twenty-two B.C.} Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, his spirit was troubled because of them, and his sleep left him.

Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to explain to the king his dreams.
So they came and stood before the king.

And the king said to them,
I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Syriac,
O king, live forever:
tell your servants the dream, and we will explain the interpretation.

The king answered and said to the Chaldeans,
The thing has gone from me:
if you will not make known to me the dream, with its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces,
and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

But if you show me the dream, and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor:
therefore show me the dream, and its interpretation.

They answered again and said,
Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show its interpretation.

The king answered and said,
I know of certainty that you would gain the time, because you see the thing has gone from me.

But if you will not make known to me the dream, there is but one decree for you:
because you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time is changed:
therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can show me its interpretation.

The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said,
There is not a man upon the earth who can show the king's matter:
because there is no king, lord, nor ruler, who asks such things of any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

And it is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no one else who can show it to the king, except the gods, who do not live with flesh.

Because of this the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed.

And the decree went forth that the wise men should be killed;
and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be killed.

Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon:

He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain,
Why is the decree so hasty from the king?
Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

Then Daniel went in, and requested of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation.

Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

That they would seek the mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret;
that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision.
Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

Daniel answered and said,
Blessed is the Name of God forever and ever:
because wisdom and might are His:

And He changes the times and the seasons:
He removes kings, and sets up kings:
He gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who know understanding:

He reveals the deep and secret things:
He knows what is in the darkness, and the light lives with Him.

I thank You, and praise You, O God of my fathers, Who has given me wisdom and might, and has made known to me now what we desired of You:
because You have now made known to us the king's matter.

Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon:
he went and said these things to him;
Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon:
bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation.

Then Arioch quickly brought in Daniel before the king, and said these things to him,
I have found a man of the captives of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation.

The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar,
Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?

Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said,
The secret which the king has demanded the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, cannot show to the king;

But there is a God in heaven Who reveals secrets, and makes known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days.
Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, are these;

As for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind upon your bed, what should come to pass hereafter:
and He who reveals secrets makes known to you what will come to pass.

But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me because of any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes the interpretation will be made known to the king, and that you might know the thoughts of your heart.

You, O king, saw, a great image.
This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before you;
and its form was terrible.

This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass,

His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

You watched until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces.

Then the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, were broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors;
and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them:
and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

This is the dream;
and we will tell its interpretation to the king.

You, O king, are a king of kings:
because the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

And wherever the children of men live, the beasts of the field and the birds of the heaven He has given into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all.
You are this head of gold.

And after you will arise another kingdom inferior to you, and another third kingdom of brass, which will bear rule over all the earth.

And the fourth kingdom will be strong as iron:
just as iron breaks into pieces and subdues all things:

and as iron that breaks all these, it will break in pieces and bruise.

And as you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom will be divided;
but there will be in it of the strength of the iron, just as you saw the iron mixed with miry {muddy} clay.

And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong, and partly broken.

And as you saw iron mixed with miry {muddy} clay, they will mingle themselves with the offspring of men:
but they will not cling to one another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom, which will never be destroyed:
and the kingdom will not be left to other people, but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever.

Just as you saw the stone that was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold;
the great God has made known to the king what will come to pass hereafter:
and the dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure.

Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer a sacrifice and sweet aromas to him.

The king answered Daniel, and said,
Most certainly your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret.

Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon:
but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

Daniel Chapter 3

Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits {about ninety feet; twenty-seven point four meters}, and its width was six cubits {about nine feet; two point seventy-four meters}: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Then a herald cried aloud,
To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

That when you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up:

And whoever does not fall down and worship shall that same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

They spoke and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar,
O king, live forever.

You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

And whoever does not fall down and worship, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded you: they do not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought.

Then they brought these men before the king.

Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them,
Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that you do not serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

Now if you are ready that when you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the image which I have made;
well:
but if you do not worship, you shall be cast that same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace;
and Who is this God Who will deliver you out of my hands?

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king,
O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer you in this matter.

If it is to be, our God Whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king.

But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and his appearance was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego:
therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times hotter than it was normally to be heated.

And he commanded the strongest men who were in his army bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

Then these men were bound in their coats, their shoes, and their hats, and their other clothing, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed the men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in quickly, and spoke, and said to his counselors,
Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?
They answered and said to the king,
True, O king.

He answered and said,
Look,
I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no harm;

and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spoke, and said,
Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, you servants of the most high God, come forth, and come here.

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth from the midst of the fire.

And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor did they have the smell of smoke upon them.

Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke, and said,

Blessed is the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, Who has sent His Angel, and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

Therefore I make a decree,

That every people, nation, and language, which speaks anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill:

because there is no other God Who can deliver in this way.

Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

Daniel Chapter 4

Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all people, nations, and languages, who live in all the earth;
May peace be multiplied to you.

I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God has performed towards me.

How great are His signs! and how mighty
are His wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and He rules from generation to generation.

I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace:

I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in:
and I told the dream before them;
but they did not make known to me its interpretation.

But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods:
and before him I told the dream, saying,

O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

These were the visions of my head in my bed;
I saw, and there was a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great.

The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to heaven, and its sight to the ends of all the earth:

Its leaves were fair, and it produced much fruit, and in it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the heaven lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed by it.

I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, there was, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven;

He cried aloud, and said this,
Cut down the tree, and cut off his branches,
shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit:
let the beasts get away from under it, and the birds from his branches:

Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field;
and let it be wet with the dew of heaven,
and let his portion be with the beasts in
the grass of the earth:

Let his heart be changed from man's,
and let a beast's heart be given to him;
and let seven times {years} pass over him.

This matter is by the decree of the watchers,
and the demand by the word of the holy ones:
to the intent that the living may know that
the most High rules in the kingdom of men,
and gives it to whomever He wills, and sets up over it the basest of men.

This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen.
Now you, O Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me its interpretation:
but you are able;
because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.

Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him.
The king spoke, and said, Belteshazzar,
do not let the dream, or its interpretation,
trouble you.
Belteshazzar answered and said,
My lord, may the dream be upon those who hate you, and its interpretation against your enemies.

The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the heaven, and its sight to all the earth;

Whose leaves were fair, and its fruit
much, and in it was food for all;
under which the beasts of the field lived, and upon whose branches the birds of the heaven had their home:

It is you, O king, who have grown and
become strong:
because your greatness has grown,
and reaches to heaven, and your rule to the ends of the earth.

And as the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying,
Cut the tree down, and destroy it;
yet leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass,
in the tender grass of the field;
and let it be wet with the dew of heaven,
and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, until seven times {years} pass over him;

This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which has come upon my lord the king:

That they shall drive you from men, and
you shall live with the beasts of the field,
and they shall cause you to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet you with the dew
of heaven, and seven times {years} shall pass over you, until you know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He wills.

And as they were commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots;
your kingdom will be sure to you, after you have come to know that the heavens rule.

Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor;
that there may be a lengthening of your peace.

All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

The king spoke, and said,
Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honor of my majesty?

While the word was in the king's mouth,
there came a voice from heaven, saying,
O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken;
The kingdom has departed from you.

And they shall drive you from men, and
you shall live with the beasts of the field:
they shall cause you to eat grass as oxen,
and seven times
{years}
shall pass over you, until you know that
the most High rules in the kingdom of men,
and gives it to whomever He wills.

That very same hour the thing was fulfilled
upon Nebuchadnezzar:
and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails
like birds' claws.

And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honored Him Who lives forever, Whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His kingdom is from generation to generation:

And all those who live in the earth are reputed as nothing:
and He does according to His will in the army of heaven, and among those who live in the earth:
and no one can stop Him, or say to Him, What are You doing?

At the same time my reason returned to me;
and because the glory of my kingdom,
my honor and brightness returned to me;
and my counselors and my lords sought me;
and I was established in my kingdom,
and excellent majesty was added to me.

Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all Whose works are truth, and His ways judgment:
and those who walk in pride He is able to bring low.

Daniel Chapter 5

Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father {grandfather}
Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem;
that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink from them.

Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem;
and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank from them.

They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

In the same hour there came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace opposite the candlestick:
and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

Then the king's appearance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his body were loosed, and his knees knocked against each other.

The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers.
And the king spoke, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whoever will read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with scarlet,
and have a chain of gold around his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Then in all the king's wise men came:
but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king its interpretation.

Then king Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his appearance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished.

Now the queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house:
and the queen spoke and said,
O king, may you live forever:
do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your appearance be changed:

There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods;
and in the days of your father {grandfather}
light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him;
whom the king Nebuchadnezzar your father {grandfather},
the king, I say, your father

{grandfather},
made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

Because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in this same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar:
now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

Then Daniel was brought in before the king.
And the king spoke and said to Daniel,
Are you that Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father {grandfather} brought out of Jewry?

I have even heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in you.

And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation:
but they could not show the interpretation of the thing:

And I have heard of you, that you can make interpretations, and dissolve doubts:
now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Then Daniel answered and said before the king,
Keep your gifts to yourself, and give your rewards to another;
yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

O king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father {grandfather} a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honor:

And because of the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him:
whom he wanted he killed;
and whom he wanted he kept alive;
and whom he wanted he set up;
and whom he wanted he put down.

But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

And he was driven from the sons of men;
and his heart was made like the beasts, and he lived with the wild donkeys:
they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven;
until he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that He appoints over it whomever He chooses.

And you his son
{grandson},
O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this;

But have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven;
and they have brought the vessels of His house {temple} before you, and you, and your lords, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine in them;
and you have praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which cannot see, nor hear, nor know:
and the God in Whose hand your breath and all your ways are, you have not glorified:

Then the part of the hand was sent from Him;
and this writing was written.

And this is the writing that was written,
MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

This is the interpretation of the thing:
MENE;
God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it.

TEKEL;
You are weighed in the balances, and are found lacking.

PERES;
Your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

In that night Belshazzar
{three thousand five hundred eighty-seven A.H./four hundred fifty-five B.C.}
the king of the Chaldeans was killed.

And Darius the Median, being about sixty-two years old took the kingdom.

Daniel Chapter 6

It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty princes, who should be over the whole kingdom;

And over these three presidents;
of whom Daniel was first:
that the princes might give accounts to them, and the king should have no loss.

Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him;
and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom;
but they could find no occasion nor fault;
because he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

Then these men said,
We will not find any occasion against this Daniel, unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said this to him,
King Darius, may you live forever.

All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counselors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, except from you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter.

Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house;
and his windows being open in his chamber towards Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he had always done.

Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making requests before his God.

Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree;
Have you not signed a decree, that every man who shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, except of you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?
The king answered and said,
This thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter.

Then they answered and said before the king,

That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, does not regard you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.

Then the king, when he heard these words, was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him:
and he labored until the going down of the sun to deliver him.

Then these men assembled to the king, and said to the king,
You know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is,
That no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed.

Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions.
Now the king spoke and said to Daniel,
Your God whom you serve continually, He will deliver you.

And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den;
and the king sealed it with his own signet {ring}, and with the signet {rings} of his lords;
that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting:
neither were instruments of music brought before him:
and his sleep went from him.

Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions.

And when he came to the den, he cried with a despairing voice to Daniel:
and the king spoke and said to Daniel,
O Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, Whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?

Then Daniel said to the king,
O king, may you live forever.

My God has sent His Angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me:
because before Him I was found innocent;
and also before you, O king, I have done no harm.

Then the king was exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den.
So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of harm was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives;
and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they came to the bottom of the den.

Then king Darius wrote to all people, nations, and languages, who live in all the earth;
May peace be multiplied to you.

I make a decree, That in every part of my kingdom men tremble and fear
before the God of Daniel:
because He is the living God, and steadfast forever, and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and His dominion shall be even to the end.

He delivers and rescues, and He works signs Who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel Chapter 7

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon
{three thousand five hundred eighty-four A.H./four hundred fifty-eight B.C.}
Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed:
then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

Daniel spoke and said,
I saw in my vision by night, and, indeed, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great {Mediterranean} sea.

And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another.

The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings:
I watched until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

And look another beast, a second, like a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth:
and they said this to it,
Arise, devour much flesh.

After this I saw, and another, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird;
the beast also had four heads;
and authority to rule was given to it.

After this I saw in the night visions, and look a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong;
and it had great iron teeth:
it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet:
and it was different from all the beasts that were before it;
and it had ten horns.

I considered the horns, and, indeed, there came up among them another little horn, before whom three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots:
and, indeed, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

I watched until the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days sat, Whose robe was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool:
His throne was like the fiery flame, and His wheels as burning fire.

A fiery stream issued and came forth from before Him:
thousand thousands ministered to Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him:
the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

I watched then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke:
I watched even until the beast was killed, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their authority to rule taken away:
yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

I saw in the night visions, and, indeed, one like the Son of Man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought Him near before Him.

And there was given to Him authority to rule, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve Him:
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, which will not pass away, and His kingdom that which will not be destroyed.

I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this.
So he told me, and caused me know the interpretation of these things.

These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, who will arise out of the earth.

But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.

Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass;
who devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell;
even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

I watched, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High;
and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

This he said,

The fourth beast will be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which will be different from all kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, and will tread it down, and break it in pieces.

And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings who will arise:
and another will rise after them;
and he will be different from the first, and he will subdue three kings.

And he will speak great words against the most High, and will wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws:
and they will be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

But the judgment will sit, and they will take away his authority to rule, to consume and to destroy it to the end.

And the kingdom and authority to rule, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, will be given to the people of the saints of the most High, Whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all nations shall serve and obey Him.

This is the end of the matter.

As for me Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

Daniel Chapter 8

In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar
{three thousand five hundred eighty-seven A.H./four hundred fifty-five B.C.}
a vision appeared to me, even to me Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first.

And I saw in a vision;
and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam;
and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, indeed, there stood before the river a ram which had
two horns:
and the two horns were high;
but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward;
so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand;
but he did according to his will, and became great.

And as I was considering, indeed, a male goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground:
and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran towards him in the fury of his power.

And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns:
and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground,
and stamped upon him:
and there was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand.

Therefore the male goat became very great:
and when he was strong, the great horn was broken;
and in its place came up four notable ones towards the four winds of heaven.

And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceedingly great, towards the south, and towards the east, and towards the pleasant land.

And it grew great, even to the host of heaven;
and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

Yes, he magnified himself even to the Prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of His sanctuary {temple}
was cast down.

And a host {multitude} was given to him against the daily sacrifice because of sin, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered.

Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said to that certain saint {Palmonee [wonderful numberer]} who spoke,
How long shall the vision concerning the daily sacrifice be, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary {temple} and the host {multitudes} to be trodden under foot?

And he said to me,
For two thousand-three hundred days;
then the sanctuary {temple} shall be cleansed.

And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel {man of God},
cause this man to understand the vision.

So he came near where I stood:
and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face:
but he said to me,
Understand, O son of man:
because the vision will be at the time of the end.

Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face towards the ground:
but he touched me, and set me upright.

And he said,
Indeed,
I will cause you to know what will be in the last end of the indignation:
because the end shall be at the appointed time.

The ram which you saw having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

And the rough goat is the king of Greece:
and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

Now when that one has been broken, four stood up in its place, four kingdoms will stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, will stand up.

And his power will be mighty, but not by his own power:
and he will destroy wonderfully, and will prosper, and practice, and will destroy the mighty and the holy people.

And through his policy also he will cause craft {craftiness; deceit} to prosper in his hand;
and he will magnify himself in his heart, and by peace will destroy many:
he will also stand up against the Prince of princes;
but he shall be broken without hand.

And the vision of the evenings and the mornings which was told is true:
therefore you shut up the vision;
because it will be for many days.

And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days;
afterward I rose up, and did the king's business;
and I was astonished at the vision, but no one understood it.

Daniel Chapter 9

In the first year of Darius
{three thousand five hundred eighty-seven A.H./four hundred fifty-five B.C.}
the son of Ahasuerus, of the descent of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, of which the word of the LORD {Jehovah} came to Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

And I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and requests, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

And I prayed to the LORD {Jehovah} my God, and made my confession, and said,
O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commandments;

We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and from Your judgments:

Neither have we listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your Name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

O Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but to us confusion of faces {minds}, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to those who live in Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where You have driven them, because of their sin that they have sinned against You.

O Lord, to us belongs confusion of face {mind}, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You.

To the Lord our God belongs mercies and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him;

Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD {Jehovah} our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets.

Yes, all Israel has sinned against Your law, even by departing, that they might not obey Your voice;
therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him.

And He has confirmed His words, which He spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil:
because under the whole heaven there has not been done as has been done upon Jerusalem.

As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come upon us:

yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD {Jehovah} our God, that we might turn from our sins, and understand Your truth.

Therefore the LORD {Jehovah} has looked upon the evil, and brought it upon us:
because the LORD {Jehovah} our God is righteous in all His works which He does:
because we did not obey His voice.

And now, O Lord our God, Who has brought Your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and has been made known to all, as at this day;
we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

O Lord, according to all Your righteousness, I beg of You, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain:
because for our sins, and for the sins of our forefathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become a reproach to all who are around us.

Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his requests, and cause Your face to shine upon Your sanctuary {temple} that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

O my God, incline Your ear, and hear;
open Your eyes, and see our desolation, and the city which is called by Your Name:
because we do not present our requests before You due to our own righteousness, but because of Your great mercies.

O Lord, hear;
O Lord, forgive;
O Lord, listen and act;
do not delay, for Your own sake, O my God:
for Your city and Your people are called by Your Name.

And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my request before the LORD {Jehovah} my God for the holy mountain of my God;

Yes, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening sacrifice.

And he informed me, and talked with me, and said,
O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you skill and understanding.

At the beginning of your requests the commandment came forth, and I have come to show you;
because you are greatly beloved:
therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

Seventy weeks
{sevens}
[four hundred ninety years]
are determined upon your people

{Israel}
and upon your holy city {Jerusalem}, to finish the sin, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for sin, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy {One}.

Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Messiah the Prince there will be seven sevens and sixty-two
sevens
{four hundred eighty-three years}:
the street will be built again, and the wall, even in troublesome times.

And after {seven-sevens and} sixty-two sevens
{four hundred eighty-three years}
the Messiah will be cut off {executed}
but not for Himself:
and the people of the prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary {temple};
and its end will be with a flood, and to the end of the war desolations are determined.

And he will confirm the covenant with many for one seven {seven years}:
and in the midst of the week {seven} he will cause the sacrifice and the offerings to cease, and by the overspreading of abominations he will make it desolate, even until the end, and that determined will be poured upon the desolate.

Daniel Chapter 10

In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia
{three thousand five hundred ninety-one A.H./four hundred fifty-one B.C.} a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar;
and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long:
and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

I ate no pleasant bread, neither meat nor wine entered in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

And in the twenty-fourth day of the first month {Nisan [March-April]},
as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw a certain man clothed in linen, whose waist had a belt with fine gold of Uphaz:

His body also was like the beryl {light blue},
and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in color to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

And I Daniel alone saw the vision:
because the men who were with me did not see the vision;
but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me:
because my beauty was turned into corruption, and I retained no strength.

Yet I heard the voice of his words:
and when I heard the voice of his words, then I was in a deep sleep on my face, with my face towards the ground.

And, indeed, a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

And he said to me,
[O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright:
because I have now been sent to you.](#)
And when he had spoken these words to me, I stood trembling.

Then he said to me,
[Do not be afraid, Daniel:
because from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to discipline yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words.](#)

But the prince of the kingdom of Persia hindered me twenty-one days:
but, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me;
and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

Now I have come to cause you to understand what will come upon your people in the latter days:
because the vision is yet for many days in the future.

And when he had spoken such words to me, I set my face towards the ground, and I became dumb {unable to speak}.

And, indeed, one like the appearance of the sons of men touched my lips:
then I opened my mouth, and spoke, and said to him who stood before me,
O my lord, because of the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

How can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord?
Because as for me, all at once there is no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

Then there came one like the appearance of a man again and touched me, and he strengthened me,

And said,
O man greatly beloved, do not be afraid:
peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong.
And when he had spoken to me, I was strengthened, and said,
Let my lord speak;
because you have strengthened me.

Then he said,
Do you know from where I have come to you?
and now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia:
and when I have gone forth, the prince of Greece will come.

But I will show you that which is noted in the Scripture of truth:
and there is no one who stands with me in these things, except Michael your prince.

Daniel Chapter 11

Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede
{three thousand five hundred eighty-seven A.H./four hundred fifty-five B.C.},
even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

And now I will show you the truth.
Indeed, there will stand up yet three kings in Persia;
and the fourth will be far richer than all of them:
and by his strength through his riches he will stir up all against the realm of Greece.

And a mighty king will stand up, who will rule with great authority, and do according to his will.

And when he stands up, his kingdom will be broken, and will be divided towards the four winds of heaven;
and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled:
because his kingdom will be plucked up, even for others besides those.

And the king of the south
{Egypt}
will be strong, and one of his princes;
and he will be strong above him, and have authority to rule;
his kingdom will be a great kingdom.

And in the end of year they will join themselves together;
because the king's daughter of the south
{Egypt}
will come to the king of the north {Syria}
to make an agreement:
but she will not retain the power of the arm;
neither will he stand, nor his arm:
but she will be given up, and those who brought her, and he who fathered her, and he who strengthened her in these times.

But out of a branch of her roots one will stand up in his place, who will come with an army, and will enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and will deal against them, and will prevail:

And will also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he will continue more years than the king of the north {Syria}.

So the king of the south
{Egypt}
will come into his kingdom, and will return into his own land.

But his sons will be stirred up, and will assemble a multitude of great forces:
and one will certainly come, and overflow, and pass through:
then he will return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

And the king of the south

{Egypt}

will be moved with anger, and will come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north

{Syria}:

and he will set forth a great multitude;

but the multitude will be given into his hand.

And when he has taken away the multitude, his heart will be lifted up;

and he will cast down many ten thousands:

but he will not be strengthened by it.

Because the king of the north

{Syria}

will return, and will set forth a multitude greater than the former, and will certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

And in those times many will stand up against the king of the south

{Egypt}:

also the robbers of your people will exalt themselves to establish the vision;

but they will fall.

So the king of the north

{Syria}

will come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south {Egypt} will not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither will there be any strength to withstand.

But he who comes against him will do according to his own will, and no one will stand before him:

and he will stand in the glorious land, which by his hand will be consumed.

He will also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him;

so he will do:

and he will give him the daughter of women, corrupting her:

but she will not stand on his side, neither be for him.

After this he will turn his face towards the islands, and will take many:

but a prince for his own behalf will cause the reproach offered by him to cease;

without his own reproach he will cause it to turn upon him.

Then he will turn his face towards the fort of his own land:

but he will stumble and fall, and not be found.

Then there will stand up in his place a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom:
but within few days he will be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

And in his place a vile person will stand up, to whom they will not give the honor of the kingdom:
but he will come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

And with the arms of a flood they will be overflowed from before him, and will be broken;
yes, also the prince of the covenant.

And after the league is made with him he will work deceitfully:
because he will come up, and will become strong with a small people.

He will enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province;
and he will do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers;
he will scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches:
yes, and he will forecast his devices against the strongholds, even for a time.

And he will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army;
and the king of the south will be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army;
but he will not stand:
because they will forecast devices against him.

Yes, those who feed of the portion of his food will destroy him, and his army will overflow:
and many will fall down killed.

And both these kings' hearts will be to do mischief, and they will speak lies at one table;
but it will not prosper:
because the end will be yet at the time appointed.

Then he will return into his land with great riches;
and his heart will be against the holy covenant;
and he will do exploits, and return to his own land.

At the time appointed he will return, and come toward the south;
but it will not be as the former, or as the latter.

Because the ships of Chittim will come against him:
therefore he will be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant:
so he will do;
he will even return, and have intelligence with those who forsake the holy covenant.

And arms will stand on his part, and they will pollute the sanctuary of strength, and will take away the daily sacrifice, and they will place the abomination that makes desolate.

And he will corrupt by flatteries those who act wickedly against the covenant:
but the people who know their God will be strong, and do exploits.

And those who understand among the people will instruct many:

yet they will fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

Now when they fall, they will be helped with a little help:
but many will cling to them with flatteries.

And some of those of understanding will fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end:
because it is yet for a time appointed.

And the king will do according to his will;
and he will exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and will speak marvelous things against the God of gods, and will prosper until the indignation is accomplished:
because that which is determined will be done.

Neither will he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god:
because he will magnify himself above all.

But in his place he will honor the god of forces:
and a god whom his forefathers did not know he will honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

So he will do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he will acknowledge and increase with glory:
and he will cause them to rule over many, and will divide the land for gain.

And at the time of the end the king of the south will push at him:
and the king of the north will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships;
and he will enter into the countries, and will overflow and pass over.

He will enter also into the glorious land, and many countries will be overthrown:
but these will escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

He will stretch forth his hand also upon the countries:
and the land of Egypt will not escape.

But he will have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt:
and the Libyans and the Ethiopians will be at his steps.

But news out of the east and out of the north will trouble him:
therefore he will go forth with great fury to destroy, and to completely do away with many.

And he will plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain;
yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

Daniel Chapter 12

And at that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people:

and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time:

and at that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book.

And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

And those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the firmament {sky; crystal dome};

and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever.

But you, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

Then I Daniel looked, and there stood two others, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by Him Who lives forever that it shall be for a time, two times, and a half time

{three and a half years};

and when he has accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things will be finished.

And I heard, but I did not understand:

then I said, O my Lord, what will be the end of these things?

And He said,

Go your way, Daniel:

because the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end.

Many will be purified, and made white, and tried;

but the wicked will do wickedly:

and none of the wicked will understand;

but the wise will understand.

And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there will be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.

But you go your way until the end:
because you will rest, and stand in your lot at the end of the days.
