

Obadiah

Chapter 1

The vision of Obadiah {serving Jehovah}.

This is what the Lord God {Jehovah} says concerning Edom:

We have heard a message from the LORD {Jehovah}, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen

{ungodly nations}:

Rise up, even let us rise up against her for battle.

Look and consider, I have given you to be small among the heathen {ungodly nations}; you are greatly despised.

The pride of your heart has deceived you, living in the clefts of the rock, his home is lofty; saying in his heart,
Who shall bring me down to the ground?

Though you exalt yourself as the eagle, and though you set your nest among the stars, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD {Jehovah}.

If thieves came to you, if robbers by night
(how you have been cut off!), would they not have stolen until they had enough?
If the grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?

How Esau {Edom} is searched out!
His hidden things are sought out!

All the men of your confederacy have brought you to the border;
the men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and have overcome you.
Those who eat your bread have set a snare under you;
there is no understanding in him

Shall I not in that day even destroy the wise out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau, says Jehovah?

And your mighty ones, O Teman, shall be afraid, so that each man from the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

Shame shall cover you because of the violence against your brother Jacob, and you shall be cut off forever.

On the day of your standing on the other side, on the day that the strangers were capturing his force, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them.

But you should not have looked on the day of your brother on the day of his alienation; nor should you have rejoiced over the sons of Judah in the day of their ruin; nor should you have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

You should not have entered into the gate of My people in the day of their calamity; also, you should not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity. Nor should you have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.

Nor should you have stood on the crossroads to cut off those of him who escaped; nor should you have shut up his survivors in the day of distress.

Because the day of the LORD {Jehovah} is near on all the heathen {ungodly nations}; as you have done, it shall be done to you. Your reward shall return upon your head.

Because as you have drunk upon My holy mountain, so all the heathen {ungodly nations} shall drink forever. Yes, they shall drink, and they shall swallow, and they shall be as though they had not been.

But upon Mount Zion shall be deliverance; and there shall be holiness. And the house of Jacob will possess their own possessions.

And the house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame. And the house of Esau will be for stubble. And they will kindle in them and burn them up. And there will be no survivor for the house of Esau; because Jehovah has spoken it.

And those of the south will possess the mountain of Esau and the low country of the Philistines. And they will possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria; and Benjamin will possess Gilead.

And the exiles of this army will go to the sons of Israel who will possess the land of the Canaanites to Zarephath; even the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will possess the cities of the south.

And deliverers will go up into the mountain of Zion to judge the mountain of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD {Jehovah's}.
