

{43} John

(11) He answered and said, A man Who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

(12) Then they said to him, Where is He? He said, I do not know.

(13) They brought him who was before blind to the Pharisees.

(14) And it was the sabbath day {Saturday} when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

(15) Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and now I see.

(16) Therefore some of the Pharisees said, This man is not of God, because He does not keep the sabbath {Saturday}. Others said, How can a man Who is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

(17) They said to the blind man again, What do you say of Him, Who has opened your eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

(18) But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called his parents who had received his sight.

(19) And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who you say was born blind? how then does he now see?

(20) His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

(21) But by what means he now sees, we do not know; or Who has opened his eyes, we do not know: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

(22) These words his parents spoke, because they feared the Jews: because the Jews had agreed already, that if any man confessed that He was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

(23) Therefore his parents said, He is of age; ask him.

(24) Then again they called the man who was blind, and said to him, Give God the praise: we know that this Man is a sinner.

(25) He answered and said, Whether He is a sinner or not, I do not know: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

(26) Then said they to him again, What did He do to you? how did He open your eyes?

(27) He answered them, I have told you already, and you did not listen: why would you want to hear it again? Do you also want to be His disciples?

(28) Then they reviled him, and said, You are His disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

{43} John

(29) We know that God spoke to Moses: as for this fellow, we do not know where He is from.

(30) The man answered and said to them, Why this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He has opened my eyes.

(31) Now we know that God does not hear sinners: but if any man is a worshiper of God, and does His will, He hears him.

(32) Since the world began it has not been heard of that any man opened the eyes of one who was born blind.

(33) If this man were not of God, He could do nothing.

(34) They answered and said to him, You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us? And they cast him out.

(35) Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when He had found him, He said to him, Do you believe on the Son of God?

(36) He answered and said, Who is He, Lord, that I might believe on Him?

(37) And Jesus said to him, You have both seen Him, and it is He Who talks with you.

(38) And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshiped Him.

(39) And Jesus said, For judgment I have come into this world, that those who do not see might see; and that those who see might be made blind.

(40) And some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, Are we blind also?

(41) Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you would have no sin: but now you say, We see; therefore your sin remains.

Chapter 10

(1) Truly, truly, I say to you, He who does not enter in by the door {gate} into the sheep pen, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

(2) But he who enters in by the door {gate} is the shepherd of the sheep.

(3) To him the porter {gate keeper} opens; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out.

(4) And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him: because they know his voice.

(5) And a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him: because they do not know the voice of strangers.

(6) This parable Jesus spoke to them: but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

(7) Then Jesus said to them again, Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

(8) All who ever came before Me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not listen to them.
