His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter {granddaughter} of Omri.^c (3) He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: because his mother was his counselor to do wickedly. (4) Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD {Jehovah} like the house of Ahab: because they were his counselors after the death of his father to his destruction. (5) He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramothgilead: and the Syrians struck Joram.
22:2b – II Ki. 8:26 says that Ahaziah was twenty-two and II Chr. 22:2 says that he was forty-two. So which is it? The correct answer of course is that both scriptures are true! Ahaziah co-reigned with his father Jehoram at age twenty-two during the last year of Jehoram's reign because Jehoram was very sick. [II Chr. 21:19]. This means that Jehoram was 17 when he fathered Ahaziah [39-22=17]. II Chr. 21:16-17 tells us that the Philistines and Arabians came and took everything from the king's house including his sons and wives and everything in it, so for a period of about twenty years there was no reigning king over Judah since the Philistines and Arabians were in control. II Chr. 22:1-4 tells us that when Ahaziah was forty-two [20 years after his co-reign with his father] the people of Jerusalem made him king once again. Again, because of his wickedness [II Chr. 22:4] he only reigned one year. - See Supposed Errors In The Bible at www.TheWordNotes.com 22:2c – daughter of Omri – II Chr. 21:6 tells us she was the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel so she was actually the granddaughter of Omri. Grandchildren are often referred to as sons or daughters [descendants]

{14} II Chronicles

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David. (4) This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors; (5) And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. (6) But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. (7) And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out. (8) So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.	(3) And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house {temple} of God. And he said to them, Indeed, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD {Jehovah} has said of the sons of David. (4) This is what you shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath {Saturday}, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be doorkeepers of the doors; (5) And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house {temple} of the LORD {Jehovah}. (6) But let no one come into the house of the LORD {Jehovah}, except the priests, and those who minister of the Levites; they shall go in, because they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD {Jehovah}. (7) And the Levites shall encircle the king all around, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever else comes into the house {temple}, he shall be put to death: but be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out. (8) So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and every man took his men who were to come in on the sabbath {Saturday}, with them those who were to go out on the sabbath {Saturday}: because Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the courses.

(9) Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God. (10) And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about. (11) Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king. (12) Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: (13) And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, Treason. (14) Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.	(9) Furthermore Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and armor, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house {temple} of God. (10) And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king all around. (11) Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. {14} II Chronicles

(13) But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Bethhoron, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil. (14) Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. (15) Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand? (16) And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel. (17) Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.	(13) But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Bethhoron, and struck three thousand of them, and took much spoil. (14) Now it came to pass, after Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. (15) Therefore the anger of the LORD {Jehovah} was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of your hand? (16) And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, Have you been made a counsel of the king? Counsel me no more; why should you be stricken? Then the prophet counseled him no more but said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel. (17) Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another face to face.^e

{14} II Chronicles

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. (19) Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldst thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? (20) But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. (21) So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which belongeth to Judah. (22) And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. (23) And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.	(18) And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son to be his wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trampled down the thistle. (19) You say, Look, you have stricken the Edomites; and your heart lifted you up to boast: stay now at home; why should you meddle to your hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you? (20) But Amaziah would not listen; because it came from God, that He might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. (21) So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another face to face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which belongs to Judah. (22) And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and every man fled to his tent. (23) And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem,^f and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits {about 600 ft.; 183 m.}.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. (15) And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. (16) And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. (17) Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only. (18) Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. (19) His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.	(14) Now after this he built a wall outside the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate, and encircled Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. (15) And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house {temple} of the LORD {Jehovah}, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house {temple} of the LORD {Jehovah}, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. (16) And he repaired the altar of the LORD {Jehovah}, and sacrificed on it peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD {Jehovah} God of Israel. (17) Nevertheless the people still sacrificed in the high places, but only to the LORD {Jehovah} their God. (18) Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the prophets who spoke to him in the Name of the LORD {Jehovah} God of Israel, indeed, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. (19) His prayer also, and how God listened to him, and all his sin, and his evil deeds, and the places in which he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: indeed, they are written among the sayings of the prophets.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. (3) For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. (4) And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. (5) And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. (6) And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about. (7) And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.	(2) And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD {Jehovah}, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. (3) Because in the eighth year of his reign {3495 A.H./C-547 B.C.}, while he was yet young {16 years old}, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year {3499 A.H./C-543 B.C.} he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. (4) And they broke down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and scattered it upon the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. (5) And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. (6) And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even to Naphtali, with their tools all around. (7) And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

(23) And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. (24) His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. (25) And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations. (26) Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, (27) And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.	(23) And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Take me away; because I am greatly wounded. (24) His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. (25) And Jeremiah cried greatly for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spoke of Josiah in their cries to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, look, they are written in the lamentations. (26) Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD {Jehovah}, (27) And his deeds, first and last, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
Chapter 36 (1) Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. (2) Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.	Chapter 36 (1) Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place {3517 A.H./C- 525 B.C.}^{a*} in Jerusalem. (2) Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

2:63d - Urim and with Thummim - Urim {אֹרֶךְ} - flame, or light; Thummim {תַּמִּימִים} - perfections - See note on Ex. 28:30; Lev. 8:8; Num. 27:21 - used to determine God's will - there is no description in the Scripture that tells for sure what they were or what they looked like. Possibly, something like dice to answer yes or no, true or false type questions. Josephus and other Jewish writers state they were the twelve stones on the high priest's breastplate.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. (13) But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. (14) And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; (15) And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place. (16) Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.	(12) But after our forefathers had provoked the God of heaven to anger, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house {temple}, and carried the people away into Babylon. (13) But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house {temple} of God. (14) And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house {temple} of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; (15) And said to him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house {temple} of God be rebuilt in its place. (16) Then this same Sheshbazzar came, and laid the foundation of the house {temple} of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now it has been in process of being built, and yet it is not finished.

{16} Nehemiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(31) After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner. (32) And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants. Chapter 4 (1) But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. (2) And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? (3) Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. (4) Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: (5) And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.	(31) After him Malchiah the goldsmith's son repaired to the place of the Nethinims {temple servants}, and of the merchants, opposite the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner. (32) And between the going up of the corner to the sheep gate the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired. Chapter 4 (1) But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we built the wall, he was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. (2) And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? (3) Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox goes up, he shall even break down their stone wall. (4) Hear, O our God; because we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: (5) And do not cover their sin, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You: because they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work. (7) But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, (8) And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. (9) Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. (10) And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. (11) And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. (12) And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you. (13) Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.	(6) So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height: because the people had a mind to work. (7) But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very angry, (8) And all of them conspired together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. (9) Nevertheless we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. (10) And Judah said, The strength of those who carry burdens has decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. (11) And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, until we come in the midst among them, and kill them, and cause the work to cease. (12) And it came to pass, that when the Jews who lived by them came, they said to us ten times, From all places where you shall return to us they will be upon you. (13) Therefore I set in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

{16} Nehemiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. (15) And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. (16) And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. (17) They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. (18) For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. (19) And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. (20) In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.	(14) And I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Do not be afraid of them: remember the Lord, Who is great and terrible, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. (15) And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we all returned to the wall, everyone to his work. (16) And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants did the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the armor; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. (17) Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, with those who lifted the materials, everyone with one of his hands did the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. (18) Because the builders, everyone had his sword fastened by his side, and so built. And he who sounded the trumpet was by me. (19) And I said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. (20) Therefore in whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, come there to us: our God shall fight for us.

{16} Nehemiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. (22) Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. (23) So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.	(21) So we labored in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. (22) Likewise at the same time I said to the people, Let everyone with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labor in the day. (23) So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes, except every one put them off for washing.
Chapter 5 (1) And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. (2) For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live. (3) Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth. (4) There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards. (5) Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.	Chapter 5 (1) And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. (2) Because there were those who said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live. (3) There were some also who said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the drought. (4) There were also those who said, We have borrowed money for the king's taxes, and that upon our lands and vineyards. (5) Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children: and, look, we bring our sons and our daughters into bondage to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought to bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; because other men have our lands and vineyards.

{16} Nehemiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. (7) Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. (8) And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer. (9) Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? (10) I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury. (11) Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them. (12) Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.	(6) And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. (7) Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said to them, You all charge usury {interest},^a to your brothers. And I set a great assembly against them. (8) And I said to them, We after our ability have redeemed our brothers the Jews, which were sold to the heathen {ungodly nations}; and will you even sell your brothers? or shall they be sold to us? Then they held their peace, and found nothing to answer. (9) Also I said, It is not good what you do: shouldn't you walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen {ungodly nations} our enemies? (10) I likewise, and my brothers, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I beg you, let us leave off this usury. (11) I ask you to restore, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part^a of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that you exact of them. (12) Then they said, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so we will do as you have said. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.
5:7,11a - some argue that usury is an exorbitant interest rate -- here it is clear that 1 percent is unacceptable to the Lord – the law of Moses was very specific in forbidding the charging of interest to fellow Jews [Deut. 23:19-20]; but they were allowed to charge whatever interest they could get to non-Jews {unbelievers}.

(13) Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. (18) Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. (19) Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people. Chapter 6 (1) Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) (2) That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. (7) And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. (8) Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. (9) For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands. (10) Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. (11) And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.	(6) In which was written, It is reported among the heathen {ungodly nations}, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews think to rebel: which is the reason that you build the wall, that you may be their king, according to these words. (7) And you have also appointed prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. (12) And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. (13) Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. (14) My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear. (15) So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. (16) And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. (17) Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. (18) For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. (19) Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.	(12) And, indeed, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. (13) Therefore he was hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have a reason for an evil report, that they might reproach me. (14) My God, consider Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, who would have put me in fear. (15) So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul {[Aug./Sep.]; 6/25}, in fifty-two days.^a (16) And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard of it, and all the heathen {ungodly nations} who were around us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: because they perceived that this work was done of our God. (17) Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them. (18) Because there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. (19) Also they reported his good deeds before me, and repeated my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

(17) And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. (18) Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; (19) Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. (20) Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. (21) Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. (22) Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.	(17) And refused to obey, neither were {they} mindful of Your wonders that You did among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but You are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and did not forsake them. (18) Yes, when they had made for themselves a molten calf, and said, This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt, and had greatly provoked {You}; (19) Yet You in Your great mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. (20) You gave also Your good Spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold Your manna from their mouths, and gave them water for their thirst. (21) Yes, forty years You sustained them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes did not grow old, and their feet did not swell. (22) Moreover You gave them kingdoms and nations, and divided them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

(28) But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies; (29) And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. (30) Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. (31) Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God. (32) Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.	(28) But after they had rest, they did evil again before You: therefore You left them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the rule over them: yet when they returned, and cried to You, You heard them from heaven; and many times You delivered them according to Your mercies; (29) And testified against them, that You might bring them again to Your law: yet they dealt proudly, and did not listen to Your commandments, but sinned against Your judgments, (which if a man does them, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their hearts, and would not listen. (30) Yet many years You bore with them, and testified against them by Your Spirit in Your prophets: yet they would not listen: therefore You gave them into the hand of the people of the lands. (31) Nevertheless because of Your great mercies' sake You did not completely consume them, nor forsake them; because you are a gracious and merciful God. (32) Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, Who keeps covenant and mercy, do not let all the trouble seem little before You, that has come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all Your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day.

(12) Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries. (13) And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren. (14) Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof. (15) In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals. (16) There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. (17) Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? (18) Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.	(12) Then all Judah brought the tithe {10%} of the corn and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. (13) And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: because they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute to their brothers. (14) Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house {temple} of my God, and for its offices. (15) In those days I saw in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath {Saturday}, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day {Saturday}: and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. (16) There lived men of Tyre also in there, who brought fish, and all manner of goods, and sold on the sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. (17) Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the sabbath day {Saturday}? (18) Did not your fathers do this, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet you bring more anger upon Israel by profaning the sabbath {Saturday}.

(19) And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. (20) So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. (21) Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. 1:12e - the queen Vashti refused to come - there is some question as to whether the king actually wanted her to strip before his princes and officials (Since the only thing the king told her to bring was her crown [v. 11]). I am not completely convinced that this was the case, however, it is quite apparent that she did not want to be put on "display" in front of a group of men under the influence of alcohol.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day. (5) My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome. (6) My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope. (7) O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good. (8) The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not. (9) As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more. (10) He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more. (11) Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. (12) Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me? (13) When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint; (14) Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions: (15) So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life. (16) I loathe it; I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity. (17) What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?	(4) When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossing back and forth until the dawning of the day. (5) My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and has become despised. (6) My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope. (7) O remember that my life is wind: my eye shall no more see good. (8) The eye of him who has seen me shall see me no more: your eyes are upon me, and I am not. (9) As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away: so he who goes down to the grave shall come up no more. (10) He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him anymore. (11) Therefore I will not hold my peace; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. (12) Am I a sea, or a whale, that You set a watch over me? (13) When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint; (14) Then You scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions: (15) So that my soul chooses strangling, and death rather than my life. (16) I despise it; I do not want to live forever: let me alone; because my days are vanity. (17) What is man, that You should magnify him? and that You should set Your heart upon him?

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment? (19) How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle? (20) I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself? (21) And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be. Chapter 8 (1) Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, (2) How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind? (3) Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice? (4) If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression; (5) If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty; (6) If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous. (7) Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.	(18) And that You should visit him every morning, and try him every moment? (19) How long will You not depart from me, nor let me alone until I swallow down my spittle? (20) I have sinned; what shall I do to You, O You Who preserves men? why have You set me as a mark against You, so that I am a burden to myself? (21) And why do You not pardon my wicked deeds, and take away my sin? because now I shall sleep in the dust; and You shall seek me in the morning, but I shall not be. Chapter 8 (1) Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, and said, (2) How long will you speak these things? and how long shall the words of your mouth be like a strong wind? (3) Does God pervert judgment? or does the Almighty pervert justice? (4) If your children have sinned against Him, and He has cast them away for their wicked deeds; (5) If you would seek God quickly, and make your plea to the Almighty; (6) If you were pure and upright; surely now He would awake for you, and make the house of your righteousness prosperous. (7) Though your beginning were small, yet your latter end should greatly increase.

{18} Job
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers: (9) (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:) (10) Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart? (11) Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water? (12) Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb. (13) So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish: (14) Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web. (15) He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure. (16) He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden. (17) His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones. (18) If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee. (19) Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow. (20) Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers: (21) Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.	(8) Because inquire, I ask you, of the former age, and prepare yourself to the search of their forefathers: (9) (Because we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:) (10) Shall they not teach you, and tell you, and speak words out of their heart? (11) Can the bulrush grow up without mire {mud}? can the flag-stalk grow without water? (12) While it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down, it withers before any other herb. (13) So are the paths of all who forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish: (14) Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web. (15) He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure. (16) He is green before the sun, and his branch shoots forth in his garden. (17) His roots are wrapped about the heap, and sees the place of stones. (18) If he destroys him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen you. (19) Indeed, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow. (20) Indeed, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will He help the evildoers: (21) Until He fills your mouth with laughing, and your lips with rejoicing.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(22) They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought. Chapter 9 (1) Then Job answered and said, (2) I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God? (3) If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand. (4) He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered? (5) Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger. (6) Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble. (7) Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars. (8) Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea. (9) Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south. (10) Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number. (11) Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.	(22) Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame; and the house of the wicked shall come to nothing. Chapter 9 (1) Then Job answered and said, (2) I know it is true: but how can a man be just before God? King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(25) Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good. (26) They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey. (27) If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself: (28) I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent. Chapter 12 (1) And Job answered and said, (2) No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you. (3) But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these? (4) I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn. (5) He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease. (6) The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly. (7) But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: (8) Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee. (9) Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this? (10) In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. (11) Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat? (12) With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding. (13) With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.	Chapter 12 (1) And Job answered and said, (2) No doubt but you are the people, and wisdom shall die with you. (3) But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yes, who does not know such things as these? (4) I am as one mocked by his neighbor, who calls upon God, and He answers him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn. (5) He who is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him who is at ease. (6) The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and those who provoke God are secure; into whose hand God brings abundantly. (7) But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach you; and the birds of the air, and they shall tell you: (8) Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you: and the fish of the sea shall declare to you. (9) Who does not know in all these that the hand of the LORD {Jehovah} has done this? (10) In Whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. (11) Does not the ear try words? and the mouth taste its meat? (12) With the Ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding. (13) With Him is wisdom and strength, He has counsel and understanding.

(14) Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening. (15) Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth. (16) With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his. (17) He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools. (18) He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle. (19) He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty. (20) He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged. (21) He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty. (22) He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death. (23) He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again. (24) He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. (25) They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.	(14) He breaks down, and it cannot be built again: He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening. (15) He withholds the waters, and they dry up: also He sends them out, and they overflow the earth. (16) With Him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are His. (17) He leads counselors away spoiled, and makes the judges fools. (18) He loosens the bond of kings, and ties their waist with a belt. (19) He leads princes away spoiled, and overthrows the mighty. (20) He removes away the speech of the trusty, and takes away the understanding of the aged. (21) He pours contempt upon princes, and weakens the strength of the mighty. (22) He reveals deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death. (23) He increases the nations, and destroys them: He enlarges the nations, and brings them down again. (24) He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. (25) They grope in the dark without light, and He causes them to stagger like a drunken man.

Chapter 13 (1) Lo, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it. (2) What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you. (3) Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God. (4) But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value. (5) O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom. (6) Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips. (7) Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him? (8) Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God? (9) Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him? (10) He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons. (11) Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you? (12) Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay. (13) Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will. (14) Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand? (15) Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.	Chapter 13 (1) Indeed, my eye has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it. (2) What you know, the same I know also: I am not inferior to you. (3) Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God. (4) But you are forgers of lies, you are all physicians of no value. (5) O that you would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom. (6) Hear now my reasoning, and listen to the pleadings of my lips. (7) Will you speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for Him? (8) Will you accept His person? will you contend for God? (9) Is it good that He should search you out? or as one man mocks another, do you so mock Him? (10) He will surely reprove you, if you secretly show partiality. (11) Shall not His excellency make you afraid? and His dread fall upon you? (12) Your remembrances are like ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay. (13) Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will. (14) Why do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand? (15) Though He kill me, yet I will trust in Him: but I will maintain my own ways before Him.

(16) He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him. (17) Listen diligently to my speech, and to my declaration with your ears. (18) Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified. (19) Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost. (20) Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee. (21) Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid. (22) Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me. (23) How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin. (24) Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy? (25) Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble? (26) For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth. (27) Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet. (28) And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.	(16) He also will be my salvation: because a hypocrite will not come before Him. (17) Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears. (18) Indeed now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified. (19) Who is he who will plead with me? because now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the spirit. (20) Only do not do two things to me: then I will not hide myself from You. (21) Withdraw Your hand far from me: and do not let Your dread make me afraid. (22) Then call, and I will answer: or let me speak, and You answer me. (23) How many are my wicked deeds and sins? cause me to know what evil and sin I have committed. (24) Why do You hide Your face, and hold me for Your enemy? (25) Will You break a leaf driven back and forth? and will You pursue the dry stubble? (26) Because You write bitter things against me, and cause me to possess the sins of my youth. (27) You put my feet also in the stocks, and look narrowly to all my paths; You set a print upon the heels of my feet. (28) And He, as a rotten thing, consumes, as clothes that are moth eaten.

Chapter 14 (1) Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. (2) He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not. (3) And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee? (4) Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. (5) Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass; (6) Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day. (7) For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease. (8) Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground; (9) Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant. (10) But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he? (11) As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up: (12) So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.	Chapter 14 (1) Man who is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. (2) He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down: he flees also as a shadow, and does not continue. (3) And You open Your eyes upon such a one, and bring me into judgment with You? (4) Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. (5) Since his days are determined, the number of his months are with You, You have appointed his bounds that he cannot pass; (6) Turn from him, that he may rest, until he has completed his days as a hired hand. (7) Because there is hope of a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its tender branch will not cease. (8) Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stock dies in the ground; (9) Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth branches like a plant. (10) But man dies, and wastes away: yes, man gives up the spirit, and where is he? (11) As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decays and dries up: (12) So man lies down, and does not rise: until the heavens are no more, they shall not awaken, nor be raised out of their sleep.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me! (14) If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. (15) Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands. (16) For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin? (17) My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity. (18) And surely the mountain falling cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place. (19) The waters wear the stones: thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man. (20) Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away. (21) His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them. (22) But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.	(13) O that You would hide me in the grave, that You would keep me secret, until Your anger is past, that You would appoint me a set time, and remember me! (14) If a man dies, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time I will wait, until my change comes. (15) You shall call, and I will answer You: You will have a desire for the work of Your hands. (16) Because now You number my steps: do You not watch over my sin? (17) My sin is sealed up in a bag, and You sew up my sin. (18) And surely the falling mountain comes to nothing, and the rock is removed out of its place. (19) The waters wear down the stones: You wash away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and You destroy the hope of man. (20) You prevail forever against him, and he passes: You change his countenance {appearance; attitude}, and send him away. (21) His sons come to honor, and he does not know it; and they are brought low, but he does not perceive it of them. (22) But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

Chapter 15 (1) Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said, (2) Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? (3) Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good? (4) Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God. (5) For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty. (6) Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee. (7) Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills? (8) Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself? (11) Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee? (12) Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, (13) That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth? King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight. (16) How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water? (17) I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare; (18) Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it: (19) Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them. (20) The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor. (21) A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him. (22) He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword. (23) He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. (24) Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle. (25) For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty. (26) He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers: (27) Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.	(15) Indeed, He puts no trust in His saints; yes, the heavens are not clean in His sight. (16) How much more abominable and filthy is man, who drinks sin like water? (17) I will show you, listen to me; and that which I have seen I will declare; (18) Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it: (19) To whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them. (20) The wicked man labors in pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor. (21) A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him. (22) He does not believe that he shall return out of darkness, and the sword waits for him. (23) He wanders abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knows that the day of darkness is ready at hand. (24) Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready for the battle. (25) Because he stretches out his hand against God, and strengthens himself against the Almighty. (26) He runs at Him, even with his stubbornness, upon the thick layers of his shields: (27) Because he covers his face with his fatness, and puts fat on his waist.

(20) My friends scorn me: but my eye pours out tears to God. (21) O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his neighbor! (22) When a few years have come, then I shall go the way where I shall not return. Chapter 17 (1) My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me. (2) Are there not mockers with me? and does not my eye continue in their provocation? (3) Lay down now, make me a pledge with You; who is he who will shake hands with me? (4) Because You have hidden their hearts from understanding: therefore You shall not exalt them. (5) He who speaks flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail. (6) He has made me also a byword of the people; and formerly I was as a tambourine.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

(33) The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

(33) The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

(34) How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

(34) How then you comfort me in vain, since in your answers there remains falsehood?

Chapter 22

Chapter 22

(1) Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

(1) Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

(2) Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

(2) Can a man be profitable to God, as he who is wise may be profitable to himself?

(3) Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

(3) Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous? or is it gain to Him, that you make your ways perfect?

(4) Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

(4) Will He reprove you for fear of you? will He enter with you into judgment?

(5) Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

(5) Is not your wickedness great? and your sin infinite?

(6) For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

(6) Because you have taken a pledge from your brother for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

(7) Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

(7) You have not given water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.

(8) But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it.

(8) But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honorable man lived in it.

(9) Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

(9) You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

(10) Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

(10) Therefore snares are all around you, and sudden fear troubles you;

(11) Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

(11) Or darkness, that you cannot see; and abundance of waters cover you.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 25

- (1) Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
- (2) Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.
- (3) Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?
- (4) How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?
- (5) Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.
- (6) How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

Chapter 26

- (1) But Job answered and said,
- (2) How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?
- (3) How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?
- (4) To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?
- (5) Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.
- (6) Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.
- (7) He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

Chapter 25

- (1) Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, and said,
- (2) Dominion {rule; authority} and fear are with Him, He makes peace in His high places.
- (3) Is there any number of His armies? and upon whom does His light not arise?
- (4) How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean who is born of a woman?
- (5) Look even to the moon, and it does not shine; yes, the stars are not pure in His sight.
- (6) How much less man, who is a worm? and the son of man, who is a worm?

Chapter 26

- (1) But Job answered and said,
- (2) How have you helped him who is without power? how do you save the arm that has no strength?
- (3) How have you counseled him who has no wisdom? and how have you plentifully declared the thing as it is?
- (4) To whom have you spoken words? and whose spirit came from you?
- (5) Dead things are formed from under the waters, and those who live there.
- (6) Hell is naked before Him, and destruction has no covering.
- (7) He stretches out the north over the empty place, and hangs the earth upon nothing.^a

{18} Job
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion. (11) Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say. (12) Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words: (13) Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man. (14) Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches. (15) They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking. (16) When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;) (17) I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion. (18) For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me. (19) Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles. (20) I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer. (21) Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man. (22) For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.	(10) Therefore I said, Listen to me; I also will show my opinion. (11) Indeed, I waited for your words; I listened to your reasons, while you searched out what to say. (12) Yes, I listened to you, and, indeed, there was none of you who convinced Job, or who answered his words: (13) Lest you should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusts him down, not man. (14) Now he has not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches. (15) They were amazed, they answered no more: they quit speaking. (16) When I had waited, (because they did not speak, but stood still, and answered no more;) (17) I said, I will answer also my part, I also will show my opinion. (18) Because I am full of matter, the spirit within me constrains me. (19) Indeed, my belly is as wine which has no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles. (20) I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer. (21) I ask you to not let me, show partiality to anyone, neither let me give flattering titles to man. (22) Because I do not know to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would soon take me away.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 33 (1) Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words. (2) Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth. (3) My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly. (4) The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life. (5) If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up. (6) Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay. (7) Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee. (8) Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying, (9) I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me. (10) Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, (11) He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths. (12) Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man. (13) Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters. (14) For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.	Chapter 33 (1) Therefore, Job, I ask you, hear my speeches, and listen to all my words. (2) Indeed, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue has spoken in my mouth. (3) My words will be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips will clearly speak knowledge. (4) The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty has given me life. (5) If you can answer me, set your words in order before me, stand up. (6) Indeed, I am according to your wish in God's place: I also am formed out of the clay. (7) Indeed, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon you. (8) Surely you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the voice of your words, saying, (9) I am clean without sin, I am innocent; neither is there sin in me. (10) Indeed, He finds occasions against me, He counts me for His enemy, (11) He puts my feet in the stocks, He marks all my paths. (12) Indeed, in this you are not just: I will answer you, that God is greater than man. (13) Why do you strive against Him? because He does not give account of any of His matters. (14) Because God speaks once, yes twice, yet man does not perceive it.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed; (16) Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, (17) That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man. (18) He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. (19) He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain: (20) So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat. (21) His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out. (22) Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers. (23) If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness: (24) Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom. (25) His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth: (26) He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness. (27) He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;	(15) In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, in sleep upon the bed; (16) Then He opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction, (17) That He may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man. (18) He keeps back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. (19) He is disciplined also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain: (20) So that his life hates bread, and his soul dainty meat. (21) His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out. (22) Yes, his soul draws near to the grave, and his life to the destroyers. (23) If there is a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show to man his uprightness: (24) Then he is gracious to him, and says, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom. (25) His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth: (26) He shall pray to God, and He will be favorable to him: and he shall see His face with joy: because He will give to man His righteousness. (27) He looks upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it did not profit me;

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(28) He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. (29) Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man, (30) To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living. (31) Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak. (32) If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee. (33) If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.	(28) He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. (29) All these things God works often with man, (30) To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living. (31) Mark well, O Job, listen to me: hold your peace, and I will speak. (32) If you have anything to say, answer me: speak, because I desire to justify you. (33) If not, listen to me: hold your peace, and I shall teach you wisdom.
Chapter 34 (1) Furthermore Elihu answered and said, (2) Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge. (3) For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat. (4) Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good. (5) For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment. (6) Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression. (7) What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water? (8) Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.	Chapter 34 (1) Furthermore Elihu answered and said, (2) Hear my words, O you wise men; and give ear to me, you who have knowledge. (3) Because the ear tries words, as the mouth tastes meat. (4) Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good. (5) Because Job has said, I am righteous: and God has taken away my judgment. (6) Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without sin. (7) What man is like Job, who drinks up scorning like water? (8) Who goes in company with those who do deeds of sin, and walks with wicked men.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God. (10) Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity. (11) For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. (12) Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment. (13) Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world? (14) If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath; (15) All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust. (16) If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words. (17) Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just? (18) Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly? (19) How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.	(9) Because he has said, It does not profit a man that he should delight himself with God. (10) Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: far be it from God, that He should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that He should commit sin. (11) Because the work of a man He shall repay to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. (12) Yes, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment. (13) Who over the earth has given Him a charge? or who has disposed the whole world? (14) If He sets His heart upon man, if He gathers to Himself his spirit and his breath; (15) All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again to dust. (16) If now you have understanding, hear this: listen to the voice of my words. (17) Shall even he who hates right govern? and will you condemn Him Who is most just? (18) Is it fit to say to a king, You are wicked? and to princes, You are ungodly? (19) How much less to Him Who does not show partiality to princes, nor regards the rich more than the poor? because they all are the work of His hands.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand. (21) For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings. (22) There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. (23) For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God. (24) He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead. (25) Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed. (26) He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others; (27) Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways: (28) So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted. (29) When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only: (30) That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared. (31) Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:	(20) In a moment they shall die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand. (21) Because His eyes are upon the ways of man, and He sees all he does. (22) There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of sin may hide themselves. (23) Because He will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God. (24) He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their place. (25) Therefore He knows their works, and He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed. (26) He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others; (27) Because they turned back from Him, and would not consider any of His ways: (28) So that they cause the cry of the poor to come to Him, and He hears the cry of the afflicted. (29) When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble? and when He hides His face, who then can see Him? whether it is done against a nation, or against a man only: (30) That the hypocrite not reign, lest the people be ensnared. (31) Surely it is right to be said to God, I have endured discipline, I will not offend any more:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(32) That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more. (33) Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest. (34) Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me. (35) Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom. (36) My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men. (37) For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.	(32) That which I do not see teach me: if I have committed sin, I will do it no more. (33) Should it be according to your mind? King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand? (8) Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man. (9) By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty. (10) But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night; (11) Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven? (12) There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men. (13) Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it. (14) Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him. (15) But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity: (16) Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge. Chapter 36 (1) Elihu also proceeded, and said, (2) Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee that I have yet to speak on God's behalf. (3) I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.	(7) If you are righteous, what do you give Him? or what does He receive of your hand? (8) Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are; and your righteousness may profit the son of man. (9) Because of the multitude of oppressions they cause the oppressed to cry: they cry out because of the arm of the mighty. (10) But no one says, Where is God my Maker, Who gives songs in the night; (11) Who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of heaven? (12) There they cry, but no one gives answer, because of the pride of evil men. (13) Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it. (14) Although you say you shall not see Him, yet judgment is before Him; therefore trust in Him. (15) But now, because it is not so, He has visited in His anger; yet He does not know it in great extremity: (16) Therefore Job opens his mouth in vain; he multiplies words without knowledge. Chapter 36 (1) Elihu also proceeded, and said, (2) Allow me a little, and I will show you that I have yet to speak on God's behalf. (3) I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee. (5) Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom. (6) He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor. (7) He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted. (8) And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction; (9) Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded. (10) He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity. (11) If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures. (12) But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge. (13) But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them. (14) They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean. (15) He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression. (16) Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.	(4) Because truly my words shall not be false: He Who is perfect in knowledge is with you. (5) Indeed, God is mighty, and does not despise any: He is mighty in strength and wisdom. (6) He does not preserve the life of the wicked: but gives right to the poor. (7) He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous: but with kings they are on the throne; yes, He establishes them forever, and they are exalted. (8) And if they are bound in fetters, and are held in cords of affliction; (9) Then He shows them their work, and their sin that they have exceeded. (10) He opens also their ears to discipline, and commands that they turn away from sin. (11) If they obey and serve Him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures. (12) But if they do not obey, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge. (13) But the hypocrites in heart heap up anger: they do not cry when He binds them. (14) They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean. (15) He delivers the poor in his affliction, and opens their ears in oppression. (16) Even so He would have removed you out of the tight place into a broad place, where there is no constraint; and that which should be set on your table should be full of fatness.

(17) But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee. (18) Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee. (19) Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength. (20) Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place. (21) Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction. (22) Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him? (23) Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity? (24) Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold. (25) Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off. (26) Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his years be searched out. (27) For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof: (28) Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly. (29) Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle? (30) Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea. (31) For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.	(17) But you have fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on you. (18) Because there is anger, beware lest He takes you away with His stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver you. (19) Will He esteem your riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength. (20) Do not desire the night, when people are cut off in their place. (21) Take heed, do not regard sin: because this you have chosen rather than affliction. (22) Indeed, God exalts by His power: who teaches like Him? (23) Who has appointed to Him His way? or who can say, You have committed sin? (24) Remember that you magnify His work, which men see. (25) Every man may see it; man may see it from far off. (26) Indeed, God is great, and we do not know Him neither can the number of His years be searched out. (27) Because He makes small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to its vapor: (28) Which the clouds drop and distill upon man abundantly. (29) Also can any understand the spreading of the clouds, or the noise of His tabernacle? (30) Indeed, He spreads His light upon it, and covers the bottom of the sea. (31) Because by them He judges the people; He gives meat in abundance.

{18} Job
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(32) With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt. (33) The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour. Chapter 37 (1) At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place. (2) Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth. (3) He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth. (4) After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard. (5) God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend. (6) For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength. (7) He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work. (8) Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places. (9) Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north. (10) By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened. (11) Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud:	(32) With clouds He covers the light; and commands it not to shine by the cloud that comes between. (33) The thunder declares it, the cattle also concerning the vapor. Chapter 37 (1) At this also my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place. (2) Listen attentively to the sound of His voice, and the sound that goes out of His mouth. (3) He directs it under the whole heaven, and His lightning to the ends of the earth. (4) After it a voice roars: He thunders with the voice of His excellency; and He will not restrain them when His voice is heard. (5) God thunders marvelously with His voice; great things He does, which we cannot comprehend. (6) Because He says to the snow, Be on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of His strength. (7) He seals up the hand of every man; that all men may know His work. (8) Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places. (9) Out of the south comes the whirlwind: and cold out of the north. (10) By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is frozen. (11) Also by watering He wearies the thick cloud: He scatters His bright cloud:

(12) And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth. (13) He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy. (14) Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God. (15) Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine? (16) Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge? (17) How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind? (18) Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass? (19) Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness. (20) Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up. (21) And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them. (22) Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty. (23) Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.	(12) And it is turned around about by His counsels: that they may do whatever He commands them upon the face of the world in the earth. (13) He causes it to come, whether for correction, or for His land, or for mercy. (14) Listen to this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God. (15) Do you know when God disposed them, and caused the light of His cloud to shine? (16) Do you know the balance of the clouds, the wondrous works of Him Who is perfect in knowledge? (17) How your clothes are warm, when He quiets the earth by the south wind? (18) Have you with Him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass? (19) Teach us what we shall say to Him; because we cannot order our speech because of darkness. (20) Will it be told Him what I speak? if a man speaks, surely he will be swallowed up. (21) And now men do not see the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passes, and cleanses them. (22) Fair weather comes out of the north: with God is terrible majesty. (23) Concerning the Almighty, we cannot find Him out: He is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: He will not afflict.

(8) The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing. (9) Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib? (10) Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee? (11) Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him? (12) Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn? (13) Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich? (14) Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust, (15) And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them. (16) She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear; (17) Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding. (18) What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider. (19) Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder? (20) Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.	(8) The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searches after every green thing. (9) Will the unicorn^a be willing to serve you, or stay by your feed bin? (10) Can you bind the unicorn^a with his band in the furrow {plowed ground}? or will he plow the valleys after you? (11) Will you trust him, because his strength is great? or will you leave your labor to him? (12) Will you believe him, that he will bring home your seed, and gather it into your barn? (13) Have you given the beautiful wings to the peacocks? or wings and feathers to the ostrich? (14) Who leaves her eggs in the earth, and warms them in dust, (15) And forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them. (16) She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labor is in vain without fear; (17) Because God has deprived her of wisdom, neither has He imparted to her understanding. (18) What time she lifts up herself on high, she scorns the horse and his rider. (19) Have you given the horse strength? have you clothed his neck with thunder? (20) Can you make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.
39:9,10a – unicorn – an extinct animal – there has been a lot of speculation as to what this animal is, but ancient drawings suggest a horse-like animal with a single horn in its forehead. Many animals have become extinct over the years which we have no definite information about. See Num. 23:22

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears? (8) Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more. (9) Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him? (10) None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me? (11) Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine. (12) I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion. (13) Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle? (14) Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about. (15) His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal. (16) One is so near to another, that no air can come between them. (17) They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered. (18) By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. (19) Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out. (20) Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron. (21) His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.	(7) Can you fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears? (8) Lay your hand upon him, remember the battle, never do it again. (9) The hope of controlling him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him? (10) None is so fierce as to dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before Me? (11) Who has preceded Me, that I should repay him? whatever is under the whole heaven is Mine. (12) I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his beauty proportion. (13) Who can discover the face of his clothing? or who can come to him with his double bridle? (14) Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible all around. (15) His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal. (16) One is so near to another, that no air can come between them. (17) They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be separated. (18) By his sneezes a light shines, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. (19) Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out. (20) Out of his nostrils goes smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron. (21) His breath kindles coals, and a flame goes out of his mouth.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(22) In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him. (23) The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved. (24) His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone. (25) When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves. (26) The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon. (27) He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood. (28) The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble. (29) Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear. (30) Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire. (31) He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment. (32) He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary. (33) Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear. (34) He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.	(22) In his neck remains strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him. (23) The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved. (24) His heart is as firm as a stone; yes, as hard as a piece of the opposing millstone. (25) When he raises up himself, the mighty are afraid: because of his destruction they purify themselves. (26) He who lays a sword on him cannot hold on: the spear, the dart, nor the spear. (27) He esteems iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood. (28) The arrow cannot make him flee: sling stones are turned into stubble by him . (29) Darts are counted as stubble: he laughs at the shaking of a spear. (30) Sharp stones are under him: he spreads sharp pointed things upon the mire {mud}. (31) He causes the deep to boil like a pot: he makes the sea like a pot of ointment. (32) He makes a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be gray. (33) Upon earth there is none like him, who is made without fear. (34) He sees all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 42 (1) Then Job answered the LORD, and said, (2) I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee. (3) Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not. (4) Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me. (5) I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee. (6) Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. (7) And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. (8) Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job. (9) So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.	Chapter 42 (1) Then Job answered the LORD {Jehovah}, and said, (2) I know that You can do everything, and that no thought can be withheld from You. (3) Who is he who hides counsel without knowledge? therefore I have spoken what I did not understand; things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. (4) Hear, I ask You, and I will speak: I will ask of You, and You declare to me. (5) I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear: but now my eye sees You. (6) Therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes. (7) And it was that after the LORD {Jehovah} had spoken these words to Job, the LORD {Jehovah} said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My anger is kindled against you, and against your two friends: because you have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Job has. (8) Therefore take to yourselves now seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job shall pray for you: because him I will accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that you have not spoken of Me the thing which is right, like My servant Job. (9) So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did as the LORD {Jehovah} commanded them: the LORD {Jehovah} also accepted Job.

{18} Job
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. (11) Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold. (12) So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. (13) He had also seven sons and three daughters. (14) And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch.	(10) And the LORD {Jehovah} turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD {Jehovah} gave Job twice as much as he had before. (11) Then all his brothers came to him, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house: and they consoled him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD {Jehovah} had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and everyone an earring of gold. (12) So the LORD {Jehovah} blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: because he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys.^a (13) He also had seven sons and three daughters.^b (14) And he called the name of the first, Jemima {Sunshine};^c and the name of the second, Kezia {sweet perfume};^d and the name of the third, Keren-happuch {horn of plenty}.^e
42:12a - twice as much as he had at the beginning - see Job 1:3 42:13b - note that he ended up with twice as many children also because the number of children he had after his affliction is the same as the number he had who died earlier -- whom he now sees again in heaven! 42:14c - Jemima {ימימה} - Day [Sunshine?] 42:14d - Kezia {קצייה} - cassia - a perfume or fragrance - see Ps. 45:8 42:14e - Keren-happuch {קרן הַפִּיךְ} - horn of stibium - a paint or die used by women on their eyelashes for beauty - also translated as 'horn of plenty'

{18} Job

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren. (16) After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. (17) So Job died, being old and full of days.	(15) And in all the land there were no women found so fair {beautiful} as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. (16) After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. (17) So Job died, being old and full of days.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks? (6) I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears. (7) Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies. (8) Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping. (9) The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer. (10) Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.	(5) Because in death there is no memory of You: in the grave who will give You thanks? (6) I am weary with my groaning; all the night I cause my bed to overflow; I water my couch with my tears. (7) My eye is consumed because of grief; it grows old because of all my enemies. (8) Depart from me, all you who do evil; because the LORD {Jehovah} has heard the voice of my weeping. (9) The LORD {Jehovah} has heard my request; the LORD {Jehovah} will receive my prayer. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah. (6) Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded. (7) So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high. (8) The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me. (9) Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins. (10) My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart. (11) God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day. (12) If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready. (13) He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors. (14) Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood. (15) He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.	(5) Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yes, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay my honor in the dust. (16) His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate. (17) I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high. Chapter 8 To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of David. (1) O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. (2) Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. (3) When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; (4) What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? (5) For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. (6) Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: (7) All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; (8) The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.	(16) His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own head. Chapter 18 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said, (1) I will love thee, O LORD, my strength. (2) The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. (3) I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies. (4) The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid. (5) The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me. (6) In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. (7) Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth. (8) There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.	Chapter 18 To the chief Musician, A Psalm {song} of David, the servant of the LORD {Jehovah}, who spoke to the LORD {Jehovah} the words of this song in the day that the LORD {Jehovah} delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said, (1) I will love You, O LORD {Jehovah}, my strength. Chapter 23 A Psalm of David. (1) The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. (2) He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. (3) He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. (4) Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. (5) Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. (6) Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever. Chapter 24 A Psalm of David. (1) The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. (2) For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. (3) Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? (4) He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.	Chapter 23 A Psalm {song} of David. Chapter 30 A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David. (1) I will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me. (2) O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. (3) O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. (4) Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. (5) For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. (6) And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved. (7) LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled. (8) I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication. (9) What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth? King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 37 A Psalm of David. (1) Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. (2) For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. (3) Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. (4) Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. (5) Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. (6) And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. (7) Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. (8) Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. (9) For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. (10) For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be. (11) But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.	Chapter 37 A Psalm {song} of David. (1) Do not fret yourself because of evildoers, neither be envious of those who are workers of sin. (2) Because they will soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. (3) Trust in the LORD {Jehovah}, and do good; so you will live in the land, and truly you will be fed. (4) Delight yourself also in the LORD {Jehovah}; and He will give you the desires of your heart. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. (5) Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered. (6) Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required. (7) Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, (8) I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. (9) I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest. (10) I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation. (11) Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me. (12) For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.	(4) Blessed is that man who makes the LORD {Jehovah} his trust, and does not respect the proud, nor those who turn aside to lies. (5) Many, O LORD {Jehovah} my God, are Your wonderful works which You have done, and Your thoughts which are towards us: they cannot be counted in order to You: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered. (6) Sacrifice and offering You did not desire; my ears You have opened: burnt offering and sin offering You have not required. (7) Then I said, Look, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, (8) I delight to do Your will, O my God: yes, Your law is within my heart. (9) I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: indeed, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD {Jehovah}, You know. (10) I have not hid Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation: I have not concealed Your loving kindness and Your truth from the great congregation. (11) Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, O LORD {Jehovah}: let Your loving kindness and Your truth continually preserve me. (12) Because uncountable evils have encircled me: my sins have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of my head: therefore my heart fails me.

Chapter 44 To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil. (1) We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. (2) How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out. (3) For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them. (4) Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob. (5) Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us. (6) For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me. (7) But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel. (7) Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face. (8) I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children. (9) For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me. (10) When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach. (11) I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them. (12) They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards. (13) But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation. (14) Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters. (15) Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.	(6) Do not let those who wait on You, O Lord GOD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies}, be ashamed for my sake: do not let those who seek You be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel. (7) Because for Your sake I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face. (8) I have become a stranger to my brothers, and an alien to my mother's children. (9) Because the zeal of Your house has consumed Me; and the reproaches of those who reproached You have fallen upon Me.^b (10) When I wept, and disciplined my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach. (11) I made sackcloth also my clothes; and I became a proverb to them. (12) Those who sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards. (13) But as for me, my prayer is to You, O LORD {Jehovah}, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of Your mercies hear me, in the truth of Your salvation. (14) Deliver me out of the mire {mud}, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters. (15) Do not let the flood waters overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and do not let the pit close her mouth upon me.

(9) They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth. (10) Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them. (11) And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High? (12) Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches. (13) Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency. (14) For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning. (15) If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children. (16) When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me; (17) Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end. (18) Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction. (19) How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors. (20) As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image. (21) Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins. (22) So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.	(9) They set their mouth against the heavens,^a and their tongue walks through the earth. (10) Therefore his people return here: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them. (11) And they say, How does God know? and is there knowledge in the most High? (12) Indeed, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches. (13) Truly I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence. (14) Because all the day long have I been plagued, and disciplined every morning. (15) If I say, I will speak this way; indeed, I should offend against the generation of Your children. (16) When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me; (17) Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I understood their end. (18) Surely You set them in slippery places: You cast them down into destruction. (19) How they are brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are completely consumed with terrors. (20) As a dream when one awakes; so, O Lord, when You awake, You will despise their image. (21) So my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my mind. (22) So foolish I was, and ignorant: I was as a beast before You.

Chapter 101 A Psalm of David. (1) I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing. (2) I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. (3) I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me. (4) A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person. (5) Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer. (6) Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me. (7) He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight. (8) I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD. Chapter 102 A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD. (18) But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD. Chapter 116 (1) I love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications. (2) Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live. (3) The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. (4) Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. (5) Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. (6) The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me (7) Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee. (8) For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. (9) I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living. (10) I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted: (11) I said in my haste, All men are liars. (12) What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me?	(18) But we will bless the LORD {Jehovah} from this time forth and forever. Praise the LORD {Jehovah}. Chapter 116 (1) I love the LORD {Jehovah}, because He has heard my voice and my requests. (2) Because He has inclined His ear to me, therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live. (3) The sorrows of death encircled me, and the pains of hell got hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. (4) Then I called upon the Name of the LORD {Jehovah}; O LORD {Jehovah}, I beg You, deliver my soul. (5) Gracious and righteous is the LORD {Jehovah}; yes, our God is merciful. (6) The LORD {Jehovah} preserves the simple: I was brought low, and He helped me. (7) Return to your rest, O my soul; because the LORD {Jehovah} has dealt bountifully with you. (4) Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those who are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud. Chapter 124 A Song of degrees {Encouragement} by David. (1) If it had not been the LORD {Jehovah} Who was on our side, now may Israel say; (2) If it had not been the LORD {Jehovah} Who was on our side, when men rose up against us: (3) Then they would have swallowed us up quick, when their wrath {anger; judgment} was kindled against us: (4) Then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream would have gone over our soul: (5) Then the proud waters would have gone over our soul. (6) Blessed is the LORD {Jehovah}, Who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.

(8) The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands. Chapter 139 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. (1) O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me. (2) Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. (3) Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. (4) For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. (5) Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. (6) Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. (7) Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? (8) If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. (9) If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; (10) Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.	(8) The LORD {Jehovah} will perfect that which concerns me: Your mercy, O LORD {Jehovah}, endures forever: Do not forsake the works of Your own hands. Chapter 139 To the chief Musician, A Psalm {song} of David. (1) O LORD {Jehovah}, You have searched me, and known me. (2) You know my sitting down and my rising up, You understand my thoughts from afar. (3) You encircle my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. (4) Because there is not a word in my tongue, but, indeed, O LORD {Jehovah}, You know it altogether. (5) You have protected me behind and before, and laid Your hand upon me. (6) Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot understand it. (7) Where will I go from Your Spirit? or where will I flee from Your presence? (5) I will speak of the glorious honor of Your majesty, and of Your wondrous works. (6) And men will speak of the might of Your terrible acts: and I will declare Your greatness. (7) They will abundantly speak the memory of Your great goodness, and will sing of Your righteousness. (8) The LORD {Jehovah} is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. (9) The LORD {Jehovah} is good to all: and His tender mercies are over all His works. (10) All Your works will praise You, O LORD {Jehovah}; and Your saints will bless You. (11) They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom, and talk of Your power; (12) To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of His kingdom.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. (11) My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction: (12) For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. (13) Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. (14) For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. (15) She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her. (16) Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour. (17) Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. (18) She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her. (19) The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens. (20) By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew. (21) My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:	(10) So your barns will be filled with plenty, and your wine presses will burst out with new wine. (11) My son, do not despise the discipline of the LORD {Jehovah}; neither be weary of His correction: (12) For those whom the LORD {Jehovah} loves He corrects;^a even as a father the son in whom he delights. (13) Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who obtains understanding. (14) Because its merchandise is better than the merchandise of silver, and its gain better than fine gold. (15) She is more precious than rubies: and all the things you can desire are not to be compared to her. (16) Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honor. (17) Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. (18) She is a tree of life to those who lay hold upon her: and happy is everyone who keeps her. (19) The LORD {Jehovah} by wisdom has founded the earth; by understanding He has established the heavens. (20) By His knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew. (21) My son, do not let them depart from your eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(22) So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck. (23) Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble. (24) When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet. (25) Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh. (26) For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken. (27) Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it. (28) Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee. (29) Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee. (30) Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm. (31) Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. (32) For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous. (33) The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just. (34) Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly. (35) The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools.	(22) So they will be life to your soul, and grace to your neck. (23) Then you will walk in your way safely, and your foot will not stumble. (24) When you lie down, you will not be afraid: yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet. (25) Do not be afraid of sudden fear, nor of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes. (26) Because the LORD {Jehovah} will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being taken. (27) Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it. (28) Do not say to your neighbor, Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give; when you have it with you now. (29) Do not devise {plan} evil against your neighbor, since he lives securely by you. (30) Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm. (31) Do not envy the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. (32) Because the perverse is abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}: but His secret is with the righteous. (33) The curse of the LORD {Jehovah} is in the house of the wicked: but He blesses the house of the just. (34) Surely He scorns the scorners: but He gives grace to the humble. (35) The wise will inherit glory: but shame will be the promotion of fools.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 4 (1) Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding. (2) For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law. (3) For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. (4) He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. (5) Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth. (6) Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. (7) Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. (8) Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. (9) She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee. (10) Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many. (11) I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths. (12) When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble. (13) Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.	Chapter 4 (1) Listen, you children, to the instruction of a father, and attend {pay attention} to know understanding. (2) Because I give you good instruction, do not forsake my law. (3) Because I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. (4) He taught me also, and said to me, Let your heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. (5) Obtain wisdom, get understanding: do not forget it; nor decline from the words of my mouth. (6) Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you: love her, and she will keep you. (7) Wisdom is the principal {most important} thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all you obtain get understanding. (8) Exalt her, and she will promote you: she will bring you to honor, when you embrace her. (9) She will give to your head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory she will deliver to you. (10) Listen, my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of your life will be many. (11) I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in right paths. (12) When you go, your steps will not be restrained; and when you run, you will not stumble. (13) Take fast hold of instruction; do not let her go: keep her; because she is your life.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. (15) Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away. (16) For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. (17) For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. (18) But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. (19) The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble. (20) My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings. (21) Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart. (22) For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh. (23) Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. (24) Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee. (25) Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee. (26) Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. (27) Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.	(14) Do not enter into the path of the wicked, and do not go in the way of evil men. (15) Avoid it, do not pass by it, turn from it, and pass away. (16) Because they do not sleep, unless they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. (17) Because they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. (18) But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shines more and more until the perfect day. (19) The way of the wicked is as darkness: they do not know why they stumble. (20) My son, pay attention to my words; incline your ear to my sayings. (21) Do not let them depart from your eyes; keep them in the midst of your heart. (22) Because they are life to those who find them, and health to all their flesh. (23) Keep your heart with all diligence; because out of it are the issues of life. (24) Put away from yourself a perverse mouth, and put perverse lips far from you. (25) Let your eyes look right on, and let your eyelids look straight before you. (26) Consider the path of your feet, and let all your ways be established. (27) Do not turn to the right hand nor to the left: remove your foot from evil.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 5 (1) My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding: (2) That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge. (3) For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: (4) But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a twoedged sword. (5) Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell. (6) Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them. (7) Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth. (8) Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house: (9) Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel: (10) Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger; (11) And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, (12) And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; (13) And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!	Chapter 5 (1) My son, pay attention to my wisdom, and bow your ear to my understanding: (2) That you may regard discretion, and that your lips may keep knowledge. {20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: (17) A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, (18) An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, (19) A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren. (20) My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother: (21) Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck. (22) When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. (23) For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: (24) To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. (25) Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids. (26) For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. (27) Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? (28) Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?	(16) These six things the LORD {Jehovah} hates: yes, seven are an abomination to Him: (17) A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, (18) A heart that devises {plans} wicked imaginations, feet that are swift in running to mischief, (19) A false witness who speaks lies, and he who sows discord among brothers. (20) My son, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake the law of your mother: (21) Bind them continually upon your heart, and tie them around your neck. (22) When you go, it will lead you; when you sleep, it will keep you; and when you awake, it will talk with you. (23) Because the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: (24) To keep you from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman {unbeliever; prostitute}. (25) Do not lust after her beauty in your heart; neither let her take you with her eyelids. (26) Because by means of a prostitute a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. (27) Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? (28) Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(29) So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. (30) Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; (31) But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. (32) But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding; he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. (33) A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away. (34) For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. (35) He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts. Chapter 7 (1) My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee. (2) Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye. (3) Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart. (4) Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman: (5) That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.	(29) So he who goes in to his neighbor's wife; whoever touches her will not be innocent. (30) Men do not despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;^b (31) But if he is found, he will restore sevenfold; he will give all the substance of his house. (32) But whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding; he who does it destroys his own soul. (33) A wound and dishonor he will receive; and his reproach will not be wiped away. (34) Because jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. (35) He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts. Chapter 7 (1) My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments within you. (2) Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of your eye. (3) Bind them upon your fingers, write them upon the tablet of your heart. (4) Say to wisdom, You are my sister; and call understanding your kinswoman: (5) That they may keep you from the strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever},^a from the stranger who flatters with her words.
6:30b – if a person steals to satisfy his hunger because he is hungry, do not despise him 7:5a - strange woman - unbeliever; a woman who is not your wife - a woman who tries to seduce you; a prostitute – see Prov. 7:5-27

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) For at the window of my house I looked through my casement, (7) And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding, (8) Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house, (9) In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night: (10) And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart. (11) (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house: (12) Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.) (13) So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him, (14) I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows. (15) Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee. (16) I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt. (17) I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. (18) Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves. (19) For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:	(6) Because at the window of my house I looked through my lattice, (7) And saw among the simple minded ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding, (8) Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house, (9) In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night: (10) And, there a woman with the attire of a prostitute and subtle of heart met him. (11) (She is loud and stubborn; her feet do not stay in her house: (12) Now she is outside, now in the streets, and lies in wait at every corner.) (13) So she caught him, and kissed him, and with a hardened face said to him, (14) I have peace offerings with me; today I have paid my vows. (15) Therefore I came forth to meet you, diligently to seek your face, and I have found you. (16) I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt. (17) I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. (18) Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us console ourselves with loves. (19) Because my husband is not at home, he has gone on a long journey:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps. (10) A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment. (11) A just weight and balance are the LORD'S: all the weights of the bag are his work. (12) It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness. (13) Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right. (14) The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it. (15) In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain. (16) How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver! (17) The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul. (18) Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall. (19) Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud. (20) He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.	(9) A man's heart devises {plans} his way: but the LORD {Jehovah} directs his steps. (10) A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth does not sin in judgment. (11) A just weight and balance are the LORD's {Jehovah's}: all the weights of the bag are His work. (12) It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: because the throne is established by righteousness. (13) Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him who speaks right. (14) The wrath {anger; judgment} of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it. (15) In the light of the king's countenance {facial expression; smile} is life; and his favor is as a cloud of the latter rain. (16) How much better it is to obtain wisdom than gold! and to obtain understanding rather to be chosen than silver! (17) The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he who keeps his way preserves his soul. (18) Pride goes before destruction, and an arrogant spirit before a fall. (19) It is better to be of an humble spirit with the humble, than to divide the spoil with the proud. (20) He who handles a matter wisely will find good: and happy is he who trusts in the LORD {Jehovah}.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning. (22) Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly. (23) The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips. (24) Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. (25) There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. (26) He that laboureth laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him. (27) An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire. (28) A froward man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends. (29) A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good. (30) He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass. (31) The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness. (32) He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city. (33) The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.	(21) The wise in heart will be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increases learning. (22) Understanding is a wellspring of life to him who has it: but the instruction of fools is folly. (23) The heart of the wise teaches his mouth, and adds learning to his lips. (24) Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. (25) There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end are the ways of death. (26) He who labors labors for himself; because his mouth craves it of him. (27) An ungodly man digs up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire. (28) A perverse man sows strife: and a gossip separates best friends. (29) A violent man entices his neighbor, and leads him into the way that is not good. (30) He shuts his eyes to devise {plan} perverse things: moving his lips he brings evil to pass. (31) The gray head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness. (32) He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city. (33) The lot {die; dice} is cast into the lap; but its answer is of the LORD {Jehovah}.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 17 (1) Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife. (2) A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren. (3) The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts. (4) A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue. (5) Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished. (6) Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers. (7) Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince. (8) A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth. (9) He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends. (10) A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool. (11) An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.	Chapter 17 (1) Better is a dry morsel, and quietness with it, than a house full of sacrifices with strife. (2) A wise servant will have rule over a son who causes shame, and will have part of the inheritance among the brothers. (3) The refining pot {crucible}^a is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD {Jehovah} tries the hearts. (4) A person who does wicked deeds gives heed to false lips; and a liar listens to a naughty tongue. (5) Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker: and he who is glad at calamities will not be unpunished. (6) Children's children {grandchildren} are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers. (7) Excellent speech does not become a fool: much less do lying lips a prince. (8) A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him who has it: wherever it turns, it prospers. (9) He who covers a sin seeks love; but he who repeats a matter separates best friends. (10) A reproof enters more into a wise man than a hundred stripes into a fool. (11) An evil man seeks only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. (13) Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house. (14) The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with. (15) He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD. (16) Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it? (17) A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. (18) A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend. (19) He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction. (20) He that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief. (21) He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy. (22) A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones. (23) A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment. (24) Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.	(12) Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. (13) Whoever rewards evil for good, evil will not depart from his house. (14) The beginning of strife is as when one lets out water: therefore leave off contention, before it is meddled with. (15) He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, even both of them are an abomination to the LORD {Jehovah}. (16) Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to obtain wisdom, since he has no heart for it? (17) A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. (18) A man void of understanding shakes hands, and becomes surety in the presence of his friend. (19) He loves sin who loves strife: and he who exalts his gate seeks destruction. (20) He who has a perverse heart finds no good: and he who has a perverse tongue falls into mischief. (21) He who fathers a fool does it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool has no joy. (22) A merry heart does good like a medicine: but a broken spirit dries the bones. (23) A wicked man takes a bribe out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment. (24) Wisdom is before him who has understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(25) A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him. (26) Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity. (27) He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit. (28) Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding. Chapter 18 (1) Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom. (2) A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself. (3) When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach. (4) The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook. (5) It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment. (6) A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes. (7) A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul. (8) The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.	(25) A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him. (26) Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity {fairness}. (27) He who has knowledge spares his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit. (28) Even a fool, when he holds his peace, is considered wise: and he who shuts his lips is esteemed a man of understanding. Chapter 18 (1) Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeks and shares with all wisdom. (2) A fool has no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself. (3) When the wicked comes, then comes also contempt, and with shame reproach. (4) The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook. (5) It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment. (6) A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calls for strokes. (7) A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul. (8) The words of a gossipier are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster. (10) The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe. (11) The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit. (12) Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility. (13) He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him. (14) The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear? (15) The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge. (16) A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men. (17) He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him. (18) The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty. (19) A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. (20) A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.	(9) He also who is lazy in his work is brother to him who is a great waster. (10) The Name of the LORD {Jehovah} is a strong tower: the righteous runs into it, and is safe. (11) The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own conceit. (12) Before destruction the heart of man is arrogant, and before honor is humility. (13) He who answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly and shame to him. (14) The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity {weakness; illness}; but a wounded spirit who can bear? (15) The heart of the prudent obtains knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge. (16) A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men. (17) He who is first in his own cause seems just; but his neighbor comes and searches him. (18) The lot {die; dice}^a causes contentions to cease, and parts between the mighty. (19) A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. (20) A man's belly will be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips he will be filled.
18:18a – the lot causes contentions to cease – Biblically, nothing happens by pure chance – even the casting of lots {throwing of dice} is controlled by the Lord.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(21) Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. (22) Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD. (23) The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly. (24) A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.	(21) Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and those who love it will eat its fruit. (22) Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor of the LORD {Jehovah}. (23) The poor uses humble words; but the rich answer roughly. (24) A man who has friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
Chapter 19 (1) Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. (2) Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth. (3) The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD. (4) Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour. (5) A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape. (6) Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts. (7) All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him. (8) He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.	Chapter 19 (1) Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. (2) Also, if the soul is without knowledge, it is not good; and he who hurries with his feet sins. (3) The foolishness of man perverts his way: and his heart frets against the LORD {Jehovah}. (4) Wealth makes many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor. (5) A false witness will not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies will not escape. (6) Many will seek the favor of the prince: and every man is a friend to him who gives gifts. (7) All the brothers of the poor hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursues them with words, yet they leave him. (8) He who obtains wisdom loves his own soul: he who keeps understanding will find good.

(28) Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy. (29) The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head. (30) The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly. Chapter 21 (1) The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will. (2) Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts. (3) To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice. (4) An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin. (5) The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want. (6) The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death. (7) The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment. (8) The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right. (9) It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.	(28) Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upheld by mercy. (29) The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head. (30) The blueness of a wound cleanses away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly. Chapter 21 (1) The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD {Jehovah}, as the rivers of water: He turns it wherever He wills. (2) Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD {Jehovah} considers the hearts. (3) To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD {Jehovah} than sacrifice. (4) A high look {arrogance}, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin. (5) The thoughts of the diligent tend only to abundance; but of every one who is hasty only to want. (6) The obtaining of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed back and forth by those who seek death. (7) The robbery of the wicked will destroy them; because they refuse to do what is right. (8) The way of man is perverse and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right. (9) It is better to live in a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes. (11) When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge. (12) The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness. (13) Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. (14) A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath. (15) It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity. (16) The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead. (17) He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich. (18) The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright. (19) It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman. (20) There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up. (21) He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.	(10) The soul of the wicked desires evil: his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes. (11) When the scorner is punished, the simple minded is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge. (12) The righteous man wisely considers the house of the wicked: but God overthrows the wicked because of their wickedness. (13) Whoever closes his ears to the cry of the poor, he himself will also cry, and will not be heard. (14) A gift in secret pacifies anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath {anger; judgment}. (15) It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction will be to the workers of sin. (16) The man who wanders out of the way of understanding will remain in the congregation of the dead. (17) He who loves pleasure will be a poor man: he who loves wine and oil will not be rich. (18) The wicked will be a ransom for the righteous, and the sinner for the upright. (19) It is better to live in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman. (20) There is treasure to be desired and oil in the house of the wise; but a foolish man spends it up. (21) He who follows after righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness, and honor.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(22) A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof. (23) Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles. (24) Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath. (25) The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour. (26) He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not. (27) The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind? (28) A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly. (29) A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way. (30) There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD. (31) The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD.	(22) A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and castes down the strength of its confidence. (23) Whoever keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles. (24) Proud and arrogant scorner is his name, who deals in proud anger. (25) The desire of the lazy kills him; because his hands refuse to labor. (26) He covets greedily all the day long: but the righteous gives and does not spare. (27) The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind? (28) A false witness will perish: but the man who hears speaks constantly. (29) A wicked man hardens his face: but as for the upright, he directs his way. (30) There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD {Jehovah}. (31) The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety {victory; deliverance} is of the LORD {Jehovah}.
Chapter 22 (1) A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold. (2) The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all. (3) A prudent man foreseeeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.	Chapter 22 (1) A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold. (2) The rich and poor meet together: the LORD {Jehovah} is the maker of them all. (3) A prudent man foresees the evil, and hides himself: but the simple minded pass on, and are punished.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches, and honour, and life. (5) Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them. (6) Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. (7) The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender. (8) He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail. (9) He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor. (10) Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease. (11) He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend. (12) The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor. (13) The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets. (14) The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein. (15) Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. (16) He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.	(4) By humility and the fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah} are riches, and honor, and life. (5) Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse: he who keeps his soul will be far from them. (6) Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. (7) The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender. (8) He who sows sin will reap vanity: and the rod of his anger will fail. (9) He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed; because he gives of his bread to the poor. (10) Cast out the scorner, and contention will go out; yes, strife and reproach will cease. (11) He who loves pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend. (12) The eyes of the LORD {Jehovah} preserve knowledge, and He overthrows the words of the sinner. (13) The lazy man says, There is a lion outside, I will be killed in the streets. (14) The mouth of strange women {prostitute; unbeliever}^a is a deep pit: he who is despised by the LORD {Jehovah} will fall into it. (15) Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction will drive it far from him. (16) He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches, and he who gives to the rich, will surely come to want.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine. (16) Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things. (17) Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long. (18) For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off. (19) Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way. (20) Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh: (21) For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags. (22) Harken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old. (23) Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. (24) The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him. (25) Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice. (26) My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways. (27) For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit. (28) She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.	(15) My son, if your heart is wise, my heart will rejoice, even mine. (16) Yes, my reins {heart} will rejoice, when your lips speak right things. (17) Do not let your heart envy sinners: but be in the fear {reverence} of the LORD {Jehovah} all the day long. (18) Because surely there is an end; and your hope will not be cut off. (19) Listen, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the way. (20) Do not be among drunkards; among riotous eaters of food {gluttons}: (21) Because the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty: and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags. (22) Listen to your father who fathered you, and do not despise your mother when she is old. (23) Buy the truth, and do not sell it; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. (24) The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice: and he who fathers a wise child will have his joy . (25) Your father and your mother will be glad, and she who bore you will rejoice. (26) My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways. (27) Because a prostitute is a deep ditch; and a strange woman {prostitute; unbeliever} is a narrow pit. (28) She also lies in wait as for a prey, and increases the sinners among men.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(29) Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? (30) They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. (31) Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. (32) At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. (33) Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things. (34) Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. (35) They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.	(29) Who has woe? who has sorrow? who has contentions? who has babbling? who has wounds without cause? who has redness of eyes? (30) Those who tarry long at the wine; those who go to seek mixed wine. (31) Do not look upon the wine when it is red, when it gives its color in the cup, when it goes down smoothly. (32) At the last it bites like a snake, and strikes like a viper. (33) Your eyes will see strange women, and your heart will speak perverse things. (34) Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea, or as he who lies upon the top of a mast. (35) They have stricken me, you will say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I did not feel it: when will I awake? I will seek it yet again.
Chapter 24 (1) Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them. (2) For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. (3) Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established: (4) And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. (5) A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.	Chapter 24 (1) Do not be envious of evil men, and have no desire to be with them. (2) Because their heart studies destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. (3) Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established: (4) And by knowledge the chambers will be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. (5) A wise man is strong; yes, a man of knowledge increases strength.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety. (7) Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate. (8) He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. (9) The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. (10) If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small. (11) If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain; (12) If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? (13) My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste: (14) So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off. (15) Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place: (16) For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief. (17) Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:	(6) Because by wise counsel you will make your war: and in multitude of counselors there is safety. (7) Wisdom is too high for a fool: he does not open his mouth in the gate. (8) He who devises {plans} to do evil will be called a mischievous person. (9) The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. (10) If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small. (11) If you forbear to deliver those who are drawn to death, and those that are ready to be killed; (12) If you say, Surely, we did not know it; does He Who ponders the heart not consider it? and He who keeps your soul, does He not know it? and will He not render to every man according to his works? (13) My son, eat honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste: (14) So will the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul: when you have found it, then there will be a reward, and your hope will not be cut off. (15) Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the house of the righteous; do not spoil his resting place: (16) Because a just man falls seven times, and rises up again: but the wicked will fall into mischief. (17) Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles:

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him. (19) Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked; (20) For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out. (21) My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change: (22) For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both? (23) These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment. (24) He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him: (25) But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them. (26) Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer. (27) Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house. (28) Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips. (29) Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. (30) I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;	(18) Lest the LORD {Jehovah} see it, and it displeases Him, and He turns away His wrath {anger; judgment} from him. (19) Do not fret yourself because of evil men, neither be envious of the wicked; (20) Because there will be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked will be put out. (21) My son, fear {revere} the LORD {Jehovah} and the king: and do not meddle with them who are given to change: (22) Because their calamity will rise suddenly; and who knows the ruin of them both? (23) These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment. (24) He who says to the wicked, you are righteous; him the people will curse, nations will despise him: (25) But to those who rebuke him will be delight, and a good blessing will come upon them. (26) Every man will kiss his lips who gives a right answer. (27) Prepare your work outside, and make it fit for yourself in the field; and afterward build your house. (28) Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause; and do not deceive with your lips. (29) Do not say, I will do so to him as he has done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. (30) I went by the field of the lazy, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(31) And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down. (32) Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction. (33) Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: (34) So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.	(31) And, indeed, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered its face, and its stone wall was broken down. (32) Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction. (33) Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: (34) So your poverty will come as one who travels; and your want as an armed man.
Chapter 25 (1) These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. (2) It is the glory of God to conceal a thing; but the honour of kings is to search out a matter. (3) The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable. (4) Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer. (5) Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness. (6) Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men: (7) For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.	Chapter 25 (1) These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. (2) It is the glory of God to conceal a thing; but the honor of kings is to search out a matter. (3) The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable. (4) Take away the dross from the silver, and there will come forth a vessel for the finer. (5) Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness. (6) Do not put forth yourself in the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of great men: (7) Because it is better that it be said to you, Come up here; than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince whom your eyes have seen.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame. (9) Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and discover not a secret to another: (10) Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away. (11) A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver. (12) As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprovcr upon an obedient ear. (13) As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters. (14) Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain. (15) By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone. (16) Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it. (17) Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee. (18) A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.	(8) Do not go quickly to strive, lest you not know what to do in its end, when your neighbor has put you to shame. (9) Debate your cause with your neighbor himself; and do not disclose a secret to another: (10) Lest he who hears it puts you to shame, and your infamy not turn away. (11) A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver. (12) As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise person who reproves an obedient ear. (13) As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him: because he refreshes the soul of his masters. (14) Whoever boasts himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain. (15) By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaks the bone. (16) Have you found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for you, lest you be filled with it, and vomit it. (17) Withdraw your foot from your neighbor's house; lest he be weary of you, and so hate you. (18) A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is a maul {sledge hammer}, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint. (20) As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart. (21) If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink: (22) For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee. (23) The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue. (24) It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house. (25) As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. (26) A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring. (27) It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory. (28) He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.	(19) Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint. (20) As he who takes away clothes in cold weather, and as vinegar upon potash, so is he who sings songs to a sorrowful heart. (21) If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink: (22) Because you will heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD {Jehovah} will reward you. (23) The north wind drives away rain: so does an angry countenance {face} a backbiting {back talking} tongue. (24) It is better to live in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house. (25) As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. (26) A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring. (27) It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory. (28) He who has no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.
Chapter 26 (1) As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool. (2) As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.	Chapter 26 (1) As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not becoming for a fool. (2) As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse without cause will not come.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back. (4) Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. (5) Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. (6) He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage. (7) The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (8) As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool. (9) As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (10) The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors. (11) As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly. (12) Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him. (13) The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. (14) As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed. (15) The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth. (16) The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.	(3) A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the fool's back. (4) Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him. (5) Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. (6) He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off the feet, and drinks damage. (7) The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (8) As he who binds a stone in a sling, so is he that gives honor to a fool. (9) As a thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. (10) The great God Who formed all things both rewards the fool, and rewards sinners. (11) As a dog returns to his vomit, so a fool returns to his folly. (12) Do you see a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope for a fool than of him. (13) The lazy man says, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. (14) As the door turns upon its hinges, so does the lazy one upon his bed. (15) The lazy hides his hand in his bosom; it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth. (16) The lazy one is wiser in his own conceit than seven men who can render a reason.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears. (18) As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death, (19) So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport? (20) Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth. (21) As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife. (22) The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. (23) Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross. (24) He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; (25) When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart. (26) Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation. (27) Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him. (28) A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.	(17) He who passes by, and meddles with strife that does not belong to him, is like one who takes a dog by the ears. (18) As a mad man who casts firebrands, arrows, and death, (19) So is the man who deceives his neighbor, and says, Am I not joking? (20) Where no wood is, there the fire goes out: so where there is no gossipier, the strife ceases. (21) As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife. (22) The words of a gossipier are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. (23) Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a pot covered with silver dross. (24) He who hates pretends with his lips, and lays up deceit within him; (25) When he speaks fair, do not believe him: because there are seven abominations in his heart. (26) Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness will be shown before the whole congregation. (27) Whoever digs a pit will fall into it: and he who rolls a stone, it will return upon him. (28) A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth works ruin.

{20} Proverbs

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 27 (1) Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. (2) Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips. (3) A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both. (4) Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy? (5) Open rebuke is better than secret love. (6) Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. (7) The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. (8) As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place. (9) Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. (10) Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off. (11) My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.	Chapter 27 (1) Do not boast of tomorrow; because you do not know what a day may bring forth. (2) Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips. (3) A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's anger is heavier than them both. (4) Wrath {anger; judgment} is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy? (5) Open rebuke is better than secret love. (6) Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. (7) The full soul hates honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. (8) As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his place. (9) Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so does the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. (10) Your own friend, and your father's friend, do not forsake; neither go into your brother's house in the day of your calamity: because better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far off. (11) My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. (13) And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith. (14) I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. (15) That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered. (16) I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. (17) And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit. (18) For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.	(12) I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. (13) And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this hard labor God has given to the sons of man to be exercised by it. (14) I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, indeed, all is vanity and futility of spirit. (15) That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is lacking cannot be numbered. (16) I communed with my own heart, saying, Look, I have come to a great estate, and have obtained more wisdom than all those who have been before me in Jerusalem: yes, my heart has great experience of wisdom and knowledge. (17) And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is futility of spirit. (18) Because in much wisdom is much grief: and he who increases in knowledge increases in sorrow.
Chapter 2 (1) I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity. (2) I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?	Chapter 2 (1) I said in my heart, Go now, I will prove you with joy, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, indeed, this also is vanity. (2) I said of laughter, It is mad: and of joy, What does it accomplish?

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life. (4) I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards: (5) I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits: (6) I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees: (7) I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me: (8) I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts. (9) So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me. (10) And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.	(3) I sought in my heart to give myself to wine, yet acquainting my heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, until I might see what good that was for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their lives. (4) I made for myself great works; I built for myself houses; I planted for myself vineyards: (5) I made for myself gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruits: (6) I made for myself pools of water, to water with the wood that brings forth trees: (7) I obtained for myself servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all who were in Jerusalem before me: (8) I gathered for myself also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I got for myself men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts. (9) So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem: my wisdom also remained with me. (10) And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them, I did not withhold my heart from any joy; because my heart rejoiced in all my labor: and this was my portion of all my labor.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun. (12) And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done. (13) Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness. (14) The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all. (15) Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. (16) For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool. (17) Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit. (18) Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.	(11) Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and, indeed, all was vanity {worthless; futile} and trouble of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun. (12) And I turned myself to look at wisdom, and madness, and folly: because what can the man do who comes after the king? even that which has been already done. (13) Then I saw that wisdom is greater than folly, as far as light is greater than darkness. (14) The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walks in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happens to them all. (15) Then I said in my heart, As it happens to the fool, so it happens even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. (16) Because there is no memory of the wise more than of the fool forever; since that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how does the wise man die? just as the fool. (17) Therefore I hated life; because the work that is done under the sun is grievous to me: because all is vanity and trouble of spirit. (18) Yes, I hated all my labor which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it to the man who will come after me.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. (20) Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun. (21) For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. (22) For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun? (23) For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity. (24) There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. (25) For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I? (26) For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.	(19) And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? yet he will have rule over all my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. (20) Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labor which I took under the sun. (21) Because there is a man whose labor is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in fairness; yet to a man who has not labored in it he will leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. (22) Because what has man of all his labor, and of the trouble of his heart, in which he has labored under the sun? (23) Because all his days are sorrows, and his labor grief; yes, his heart does not take rest in the night. This is also vanity. (24) There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. (25) Because who can eat, or who else can hurry to it, more than I? (26) Because God gives to a man what is good in His sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner He gives trouble, to gather and to heap up, that He may give to him what is good before God. This also is vanity and trouble of spirit.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 3 (1) To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: (2) A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; (3) A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; (4) A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; (5) A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; (6) A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; (7) A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; (8) A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. (9) What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? (10) I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. (11) He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. (12) I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.	Chapter 3 (1) To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: (2) A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to reap that which is planted; (3) A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; (4) A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; (5) A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; (6) A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; (7) A time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; (8) A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. (9) What profit does he have who works in that in which he labors? (10) I have seen the trouble, which God has given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. (11) He has made everything beautiful in His time: He has also set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God makes from the beginning to the end. (12) I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God. (14) I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. (15) That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past. (16) And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. (17) I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. (18) I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. (19) For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity. (20) All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. (21) Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?	(13) And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God. (14) I know that, whatever God does, it will be forever: nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it: and God does it, that men should fear {reverence} Him. (15) That which has been is now; and that which is to be has already been; and God requires that which is past. (16) And furthermore I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that sin was there. (17) I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked: because there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. (18) I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might reveal them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. (19) Because that which happens to the sons of men happens to beasts; even one thing happens to them: as the one dies, so dies the other; yes, they have all one breath; so that a man has no prominence above a beast: because all is vanity. (20) All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. (21) Who knows the spirit of man that goes upward, and the spirit of the beast that goes downward to the earth?

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(22) Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him? Chapter 4 (1) So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. (2) Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive. (3) Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. (4) Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. (5) The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh. (6) Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit. (7) Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.	(22) Therefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; because that is his portion: because who will bring him to see what will be after him? Chapter 4 (1) So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and indeed the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. (2) Therefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive. (3) Yes, better is he than both they, which have not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. (4) Again, I considered all trouble, and every right work, for which a man is envied by his neighbor. {21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? {21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 5 (1) Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. (2) Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. (3) For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. (4) When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. (5) Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. (6) Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands? (7) For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God. (8) If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.	Chapter 5 (1) Watch your step when you go to the house {temple} of God, and be more ready to listen, than to give the sacrifice of fools: because they do not consider that they are doing evil. (2) Do not be quick to speak, and do not let your heart be quick to speak anything before God: because God is in heaven, and you are upon earth: therefore let your words be few. (3) Because a dream comes through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. (4) When you vow a vow to God, do not delay to pay it; because He has no pleasure in fools: pay that which you have vowed. (5) It is better that you not make a vow, than that you should make a vow and not pay. (6) Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin; neither say before the angel, that it was a mistake: why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? (7) Because in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also various vanities: but fear {revere} God. (8) If you see the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, do not marvel at the matter: because He Who is higher than the highest is watching; and there are those higher than they.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field. (10) He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity. (11) When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? (12) The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. (13) There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt. (14) But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand. (15) As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. (16) And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind? (17) All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.	(9) Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field. (10) He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance with increase: this is also vanity. (11) When goods increase, those who eat them are increased: and what good is there to its owners, except seeing them with their eyes? (12) The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep. (13) There is a great evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for its owners to their own hurt. (14) But those riches perish by evil trouble and he fathers a son, and there is nothing in his hand. (15) As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked he will return to go as he came, and will take nothing of his labor, which he may carry way in his hand. (16) And this also is a great evil, that in all points as he came, so will he go: and what profit does he have who has labored for the wind? (17) Also, all his days he eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and anger with his sickness.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his portion. (19) Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God. (20) For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.	(18) Indeed that which I have seen: it is good and beautiful for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor that he takes under the sun all the days of his life, which God gives him: because it is his portion. (19) Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor; this is the gift of God. (20) Because he will not long remember the days of his life; because God answers him in the joy of his heart.
Chapter 6 (1) There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: (2) A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. (3) If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he. (4) For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness. (5) Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.	Chapter 6 (1) There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: (2) A man to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a stranger eats it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. (3) If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, and his soul is not filled with good, and that he also has no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he. (4) Because he comes in with vanity, and departs in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness. (5) Furthermore he has not seen the sun, nor known anything: this has more rest than the other.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place? (7) All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. (8) For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living? (9) Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit. (10) That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he. (11) Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better? (12) For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?	(6) Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet he has seen no good: do not all go to one place? (7) All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. (8) Because what does the wise man have more than the fool? what does the poor have, who knows to walk before the living? (9) Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and turmoil of spirit. (10) That which has been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with one who is mightier than he. (11) Since there are many things that increase vanity, what is man the better? (12) Because who knows what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spends as a shadow? because who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?
Chapter 7 (1) A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. (2) It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. (3) Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.	Chapter 7 (1) A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. {21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. (5) It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. (6) For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. (7) Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart. (8) Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. (9) Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools. (10) Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this. (11) Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun. (12) For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it. (13) Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked? (14) In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.	(4) The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure. (5) It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. (6) Because as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. (7) Surely oppression makes a wise man mad; and a bribe destroys the heart. (8) Better is the end of a thing than its beginning: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. (9) Do not be quick in your spirit to be angry: because anger rests in the bosom of fools. (10) Do not say, Why is it that the former days were better than these? because you do not inquire wisely concerning this. (11) Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to those who see the sun. (12) Because wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom gives life to those who have it. (13) Consider the work of God: because who can make that straight, which He has made crooked? (14) In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also has set the one opposite the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness. (16) Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldst thou destroy thyself? (17) Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldst thou die before thy time? (18) It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all. (19) Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city. (20) For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. (21) Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: (22) For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others. (23) All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. (24) That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out? (25) I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:	(15) All things I have seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness. (16) Do not be overly righteous; neither make yourself overly wise: why should you destroy yourself? (17) Do not be overly wicked, neither be foolish: why should you die before your time? (18) It is good that you should take hold of this; yes, also from this do not withdraw your hand: because he who fears {reverences} God will come forth from them all. (19) Wisdom strengthens the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city. (20) Because there is not a just man upon earth, who does good, and does not sin. (21) Also take no heed to all words that are spoken; lest you hear your servant curse you: (22) Because also your own heart knows that often times you yourself likewise have cursed others. (23) All this I have proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. (24) That which is far off, and exceedingly deep, who can find it out? (25) I applied my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. (27) Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account: (28) Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. (29) Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. Chapter 8 (1) Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed. (2) I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God. (3) Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him. (4) Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou? (5) Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.	(26) And I find the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, more bitter than death and her hands as bands: whoever pleases God will escape from her; but the sinner will be taken by her. (27) Indeed, this I have found, says the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account: (28) Which my soul seeks yet, but I do not find it: one man among a thousand I have found; but a woman among all those I have not found. (29) Look, this only I have found, that God has made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. Chapter 8 (1) Who is as the wise man? and who knows the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom causes his face to shine, and the boldness of his face will be changed. (2) I counsel you to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard to the oath of God. (3) Do not be quick to go out of his sight: do not stand in an evil thing; because he does whatever pleases him. (4) Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say to him, What are you doing? (5) Whoever keeps the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerns both time and judgment.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. (7) For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be? (8) There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it. (9) All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt. (10) And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity. (11) Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. (12) Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: (13) But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.	(6) Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. (7) Because he does not know that which will be: because who can tell him when it will be? (8) There is no man who has power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither does he have power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither will wickedness deliver those who are given to it. (9) All this have I seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: there is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt. (10) And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity. (11) Because sentence is not executed speedily against an evil work, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. (12) Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with those who fear {reverence} God, who fear before Him: (13) But it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he does not fear {reverence} God.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. (15) Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun. (16) When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:) (17) Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.	(14) There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there are just men, to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men, to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. (15) Then I commended joy, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: because his labor the days of his life will stay with him, which God gives him under the sun. (16) When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (because also there is that one who neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes:) (17) Then I saw all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labors to seek it out, yet he will not find it; yes further; though a wise man thinks to know it, yet he will not be able to find it.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 9 (1) For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. (2) All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. (3) This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. (4) For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. (5) For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. (6) Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun. (7) Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.	Chapter 9 (1) For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hands of God: no man knows either love or hatred by all that is before them. (2) All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him who sacrifices, and to him who does not sacrifice: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he who swears, as he who fears an oath. (3) This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. (4) Because to him who is joined to all the living there is hope: because a living dog is better than a dead lion. (5) Because the living know that they will die: but the dead do not know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; because the memory of them is forgotten. (6) Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither do they have any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun. (7) Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; because God now accepts your works.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment. (9) Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun. (10) Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. (11) I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. (12) For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them. (13) This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me: (14) There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it: (15) Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.	(8) Let your clothes be always white; and let your head lack no ointment. (9) Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of the life of your vanity, which He has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity: because that is your portion in this life, and in your labor which you take under the sun. (10) Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; because there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, where you go. (11) I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happens to them all. (12) Because man also does not know his time: as the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it comes suddenly upon them. (13) This wisdom I have seen also under the sun, and it seemed great to me: (14) There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it: (15) Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(16) Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. (17) The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools. (18) Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good. Chapter 10 (1) Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour. (2) A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left. (3) Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool. (4) If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences. (5) There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler: (6) Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. (7) I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.	(16) Then I said, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. (17) The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him who rules among fools. (18) Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroys much good. Chapter 10 (1) Dead flies cause the ointment of the perfume to send forth a stinking aroma: so does a little folly to him who has a reputation for wisdom and honor. (2) A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left. (3) Yes also, when he who is a fool walks by the way, his wisdom fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. (4) If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; because yielding pacifies great offenses. (5) There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceeds from the ruler: (6) Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. (7) I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him. (9) Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby. (10) If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. (11) Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better. (12) The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. (13) The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. (14) A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? (15) The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city. (16) Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning! (17) Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! (18) By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.	(8) He who digs a pit will fall into it; and whoever breaks a hedge, a snake will bite him. (9) Whoever removes stones will be hurt by it; and he who splits wood will be endangered by it. (10) If the iron is blunt, and he does not sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. (11) Surely the snake will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better. (12) The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. (13) The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. (14) A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what will be; and what will be after him, who can tell him? (15) The labor of the foolish wearies everyone of them, because he does not know how to go to the city. (16) Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning! (17) Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! (18) By much laziness the building decays; and through idleness of the hands the house drops through.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things. (20) Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter. Chapter 11 (1) Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days. (2) Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth. (3) If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be. (4) He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. (5) As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all. (6) In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.	(19) A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes merry: but money answers all things. (20) Do not curse the king, no not even in your thoughts; and do not curse the rich in your bedroom: because a bird of the air will carry the voice, and that which has wings will tell the matter. Chapter 11 (1) Cast your bread upon the waters: because you will find it after many days. (2) Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; because you do not know what evil will be upon the earth. (3) If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree falls towards the south, or towards the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will remain. (4) He who observes the wind will not sow; and he who regards the clouds will not reap. (5) As you do not know what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her who is with child: even so you do not know the works of God Who makes all. (6) In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand: because you do not know whether either this or that will prosper, or whether they both will be alike good.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun: (8) But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity. (9) Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment. (10) Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.	(7) Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun: (8) But if a man lives many years, and rejoices in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; because they will be many. {21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low; (5) Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: (6) Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. (7) Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. (8) Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity. (9) And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. (10) The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth. (11) The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.	(4) And the doors will be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he will rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music will be brought low; (5) Also when they will be afraid of that which is high, and fears will be in the way, and the almond tree will flourish, and the grasshopper will be a burden, and desire will fail: because man goes to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: (6) Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. (7) Then the dust will return to the earth as it was: and the spirit will return to God Who gave it. (8) Vanity of vanities, says the preacher; all is vanity. (9) And furthermore, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. (10) The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth. (11) The words of the wise are as goads {pointed sticks; cattle prods}, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

{21} Ecclesiastes

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. (13) Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. (14) For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.	(12) And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. (13) Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear {reverence} God, and keep His commandments: because this is the whole duty of man. (14) Because God will bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1 (1) The song of songs, which is Solomon's. (2) Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine. (3) Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee. (4) Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee. (5) I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon. (6) Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.	Chapter 1 (1) The song of songs, which is Solomon's. (2) Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: because your love is better than wine. (3) Because of the aroma of your good perfume your name is as perfume poured forth, therefore the virgins love you. (4) Draw me, we will run after you: the king has brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in you, we will remember your love more than wine: the upright love you. (5) I am black, but beautiful, O you daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon. (6) Do not look upon me, because I am black, because the sun has looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard I have not kept.

* The song of songs is from Solomon himself. An attempt has been made here to distinguish between the words of Solomon's wife (4:6,9-12; 5:1) and Solomon himself, with Solomon's words in bold print. In some cases it is easy to tell which one is speaking, in other cases it is not as clear. Since the wife speaks the most in the text, where there is some question who is speaking, I have assumed the wife is doing the talking. Solomon had many wives {at the time Solomon wrote this he had sixty wives, eighty concubines, and many virgins -- see 6:8 -- later he would have 700 wives and 300 concubines - see I Ki. 11:3}. This particular wife is black (v. 1:5,6) and probably from Ethiopia or some other African country. Her name is given in 6:13 as "Shulamite" meaning "peaceful". The text also can be interpreted symbolically as an expression of God's love for His people. Many interpret "black" as being God's people in their sin apart from Him -- however, throughout scripture sin is always referred to as scarlet or crimson red {the color of blood} [Is. 1:18] - never as black!!

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions? (8) If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents. (9) I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots. (10) Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold. (11) We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver. (12) While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof. (13) A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts. (14) My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi. (15) Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes. (16) Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green. (17) The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.	(7) Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, where you feed, where you cause your flock to rest at noon: because why should I be as one who turns aside by the flocks of your companions? (8) If you do not know, O you fairest among women, go your way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed your young goats beside the shepherds' tents. (9) I have compared you, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots. (10) Your cheeks are beautiful with rows of jewels, your neck with chains of gold. (11) We will make for you borders of gold with studs of silver. (12) While the king sits at his table, my perfume sends forth its smell. (13) A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved to me; he shall lie all night between my breasts. (14) My beloved is to me as a bouquet of henna flowers in the vineyards of En-gedi. (15) Indeed, you are fair {beautiful}, my love; indeed, you are fair {beautiful}; you have doves' eyes. (16) Indeed, you are fair {beautiful}, my beloved, yes, pleasant: also our bed is green. (17) The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

{22} Song of Solomon
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please. (6) Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? (7) Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel. (8) They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night. (9) King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon. (10) He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. (11) Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart. Chapter 4 (1) Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead. (2) Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.	(5) I charge you, O you daughters of Jerusalem, by the does, and by the deer of the field, that you not stir up, nor awake my love, until he pleases. (6) Who is this who comes out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? (7) Look at Solomon's bed; sixty valiant men are around it, of the most valiant of Israel. (8) They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man has his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night. (9) King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon. (10) He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its covering of purple, the middle of it being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. (11) Go forth, O you daughters of Zion, and look at king Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him in the day of his weddings, and in the day of the gladness of his heart. Chapter 4 (1) Indeed, you are fair {beautiful}, my love; indeed, you are fair; you have doves' eyes within your locks: your hair is as a flock of goats, that appears from mount Gilead. (2) Your teeth are like a flock of sheep that are evenly sheared, which came up from the washing; of which everyone bears twins, and none is barren among them.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks. (4) Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men. (5) Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies. (6) Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense. (7) Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee. (8) Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. (9) Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck. (10) How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!	(3) Your lips are like a thread of scarlet, and your speech is beautiful: your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within your locks. (4) Your neck is like the tower of David built for an armoury, upon which there hang a thousand shields, all shields of mighty men. (5) Your two breasts are like two fawns that are twins, which feed among the lilies. (6) Until the day breaks, and the shadows flee away, I will go up to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense. (7) You are without blemish, my love; there is no spot in you. (8) Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. (9) You have ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; you have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. (10) How fair your love is, my sister, my spouse! how much better is your love than wine! and the smell of your perfume than all spices!

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon. (12) A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed. (13) Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard, (14) Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices: (15) A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. (16) Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits. Chapter 5 (1) I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.	(11) Your lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under your tongue; and the smell of your clothes is like the smell of Lebanon. (12) My sister is an enclosed garden, my spouse; a spring closed up, a fountain sealed. (13) Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard, (14) Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices: (15) A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. (16) Awake, O north wind; and come, you south wind; blow upon my garden, that its spices may flow out. {22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night. (3) I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them? (4) My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him. (5) I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. (6) I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer. (7) The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me. (8) I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love. (9) What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us? (10) My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand. (11) His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.	(2) I sleep, but my heart awakes: it is the voice of my beloved that knocks, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: because my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night. (3) I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? {22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame. (7) Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned. (8) We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? (9) If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar. (10) I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour. (11) Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver. (12) My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred. (13) Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it. (14) Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.	(6) Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm: because love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: its coals are coals of fire, which have a most violent flame. (7) Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would be completely consumed. (8) We have a little sister, and she has no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? (9) If she was a wall, we would build upon her a palace of silver: and if she was a door, we would enclose her with boards of cedar. (10) I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then I was in his eyes as one who had found favor. (11) Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard to keepers; everyone for its fruit was to bring a thousand pieces of silver. (12) My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: you, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those who keep its fruit two hundred. (13) You who live in the gardens, the companions listen to your voice: cause me to hear it. (14) Come quickly, my beloved, and be like a deer or a young fawn upon the mountains of spices.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. (8) And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. (9) Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. (10) Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. (11) To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. (12) When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? (13) Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. (14) Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.	(7) Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: strangers devour your land, in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. (8) And the daughter of Zion {Jerusalem} is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. (9) Unless the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}^c had left us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom, and we would have been like Gomorrah.^d (10) Hear the word of the LORD {Jehovah}, you rulers of Sodom; give ear to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah. (11) To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to Me? says the LORD {Jehovah}: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of male goats. (12) When you come to appear before Me, who has required this at your hand, to tread My courts? (13) Do not bring any more vain sacrifices; incense is an abomination to Me; the new moons and sabbaths {Saturdays}, the calling of assemblies, I cannot stand; even the solemn meeting is sin. (14) My soul hates your new moons and your appointed feasts: they are a trouble to Me; I am weary to bear them.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. (16) Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; (17) Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. (18) Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (19) If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: (20) But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. (21) How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. (22) Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water: (23) Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. (24) Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:	(15) And when you spread forth your hands, I will hide My eyes from you: yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. (16) Wash yourself, make yourself clean; put away the evil of your deeds from before My eyes; cease to do evil; (17) Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. (18) Come now, and let us reason together, says the LORD {Jehovah}: though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (19) If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land: (20) But if you refuse and rebel, you will be devoured with the sword: because the mouth of the LORD {Jehovah} has spoken it. (21) How the faithful city has become a prostitute! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. (22) Your silver has become dross {waste}, your wine is watered down: (23) Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards: they do not judge in behalf of the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come before them. (24) Therefore the Lord, the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}, the mighty One of Israel, says, Ah, I will ease Myself of My adversaries, and avenge Myself of My enemies:

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(25) And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin: (26) And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city. (27) Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness. (28) And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed. (29) For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen. (30) For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water. (31) And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them. Chapter 2 (1) The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. (4) And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. (5) O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD. (6) Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers. (7) Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots: (8) Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made: (9) And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.	(3) And many people will go and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD {Jehovah}, to the house {temple} of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us His ways, and we will walk in His paths: because the law will go forth out of Zion {Jerusalem}, and the word of the LORD {Jehovah} from Jerusalem.^a (4) And He will judge among the nations, and will rebuke many people: and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.^b (5) O house of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of the LORD {Jehovah}. (6) Therefore You have forsaken Your people the house of Jacob, because they are full of the ways from the east, and are soothsayers {fortune tellers} like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers. (7) Their land also is full of silver and gold, there is no end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots: (8) Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made: (9) And the mean man bows down, and the great man humbles himself: therefore do not forgive them.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(8) Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! (9) In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant. (10) Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah. (11) Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! (12) And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands. (13) Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. (14) Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.	(8) Woe to those who join house to house, who lay field to field, until there is no room, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! (9) In My hearing the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} says, Certainly many great and fair houses will be desolate, without anyone living in them. (10) Yes, ten acres of vineyard shall yield only one bath^b {about 5.8 gal.; 22 L.}, and one homer of seed^c {about 58 gal. or 6.25 bushels; 222 L.} shall yield only an ephah^d {about 6 gal. or 1 bushel; 22.2 L.}. (11) Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; who continue until night, until wine intoxicates them! (12) And the harp, and the lyre, the tambourine, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they do not regard the work of the LORD {Jehovah}, nor consider the works of His hands. (13) Therefore My people have gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honorable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. (14) Therefore hell has enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he who rejoices, will descend into it.

5:10b - 1 bath - about 5.8 gallons or about 22 liters – liquid measure
5:10c - 1 homer - about 6.25 bushels - 222 liters – about 58 gallons – dry measure

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(25) Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. (26) And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: (27) None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken: (28) Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind: (29) Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. (30) And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.	(25) Therefore the anger of the LORD {Jehovah} is kindled against His people, and He has stretched forth His hand against them, and has stricken them: and the hills trembled, and their dead bodies were torn in the midst of the streets. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. {23} Isaiah
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(10) Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, (11) Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. (12) But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. (13) And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? (14) Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (15) Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. (16) For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings. (17) The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.	(10) Furthermore the LORD {Jehovah} spoke again to Ahaz, saying, (11) Ask a sign of the LORD {Jehovah} your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. (12) But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD {Jehovah}. (13) And He said, Hear now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? (14) Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign; Indeed, a {the} virgin^b will conceive, and give birth to a Son, and will call His Name Immanuel {God With Us}.^c (15) Butter and honey He will eat, that He may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. (16) Because before the child {Isaiah's child}^d will know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that you despise will be forsaken of both her kings. (17) The LORD {Jehovah} will bring upon you, and upon your people, and upon your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.
7:14b - a virgin - literally - the virgin {העלמה} - see Appendix H: Does Isaiah 7:14 Refer to A Virgin? - Yes!!!; Mat. 1:22-23 7:14c - Immanuel {עִמָּנוּ אֵל} - God with us 7:16d - the child - Isaiah's son - whom he brought with him - Is. 7:3 - Isaiah was specifically told to take his young son with him to meet Ahaz - Isaiah in this verse is probably pointing to his young son and it is probably for that specific reason the Lord told Isaiah to bring his son with him. Note: we are not told how old Isaiah's son was at this point. See Is. 8:3-4 yet another son will be born to Isaiah and before he is able to cry 'my father or my mother' the prophecy concerning the two nations will be fulfilled. See note on Is. 1:1 – fulfilled II Ki. 15:30; 16:9

(18) And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. (19) And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. (20) In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard. (21) And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep; (22) And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land. (23) And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns. (24) With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns. (25) And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.	(18) And it will come to pass in that day, that the LORD {Jehovah} will hiss for the fly that is in the further most part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. (19) And they will come, and will rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. (20) In the same day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by those beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it will also consume the beard. (21) And it will come to pass in that day, that a man will feed a young cow, and two sheep; (22) And it will come to pass, because of the abundance of milk that they will give he will eat butter: because butter and honey everyone will eat who is left in the land. (23) And it will come to pass in that day, that every place will be, where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand silver coins,^e it will even be for briers and thorns. (24) With arrows and with bows men will come there; because all the land will become briers and thorns. (25) And on all hills that will be dug with the hoe, you will not come there because of fear of briers and thorns: but it will be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.
7:23e - silverlings - silver coins - shekels? - the usual word for shekel is not used here - {a shekel is about 0.4 ounces or 11.3 grams} - a thousand shekels would be about 25 pounds; 11.3 kilograms of silver - see Appendix J: Bible Weights and Measures

(16) Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. (17) And I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. (18) Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion. (19) And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? (20) To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. (21) And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. (22) And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness. Chapter 9 (1) Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.	(16) Bind up the testimony, seal the law among My disciples. (17) And I will wait upon the LORD {Jehovah}, Who hides His face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for Him. (18) Indeed, I and the children whom the LORD {Jehovah} has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies},^f Who lives in mount Zion. (19) And when they will say to you, Seek from those who have familiar spirits, and from wizards who whisper, and who mutter: should not a people seek their God? rather than the living seek after the dead? (20) To the law and to the testimony: if they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. (21) And they will pass through it, hard pressed and hungry: and it will come to pass, that when they become hungry, they will fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. (22) And they will look to the earth; and see only trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they will be driven to darkness. Chapter 9 (1) Nevertheless the dimness will not be as it was in her trouble, when at the first He lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterwards more grievously afflicted her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man: (14) And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. (15) Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood. (16) Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. (17) And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; (18) And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth. (19) And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.	(13) Because he says, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; because I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down those who live there like a valiant man: (14) And my hand has found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathers eggs that are left, I have gathered all the earth; and there was no one who moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or whispered. (15) Shall the axe boast itself against him who cuts with it? or shall the saw magnify itself against him who saws with it? as if the rod should shake itself against those who lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood. (16) Therefore the Lord, the Lord of hosts {armies; multitudes}, will send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory He will kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. (17) And the light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; (18) And will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they will be as when a standard-bearer faints. (19) And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

{23} Isaiah
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 13 (1) The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see. (2) Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. (3) I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness. (4) The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle. (5) They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. (6) Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. (7) Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt: (8) And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. (9) Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.	Chapter 13 (1) The vision concerning Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw. (2) Lift up a banner upon the high mountain, lift up the voice to them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. (3) I have commanded My holy ones,^a I have also called My mighty ones because of My anger, even those who rejoice in My highness. (4) The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} musters the host {army} for the battle. (5) They come from a far country, from the ends of heaven, even the LORD {Jehovah}, and the weapons of His indignation, to destroy the whole land. (6) Howl; because the day of the LORD^b {Jehovah} is at hand; it will come as a destruction from the Almighty. (7) Therefore all hands will be faint, and every man's heart will melt: (8) And they will be afraid: pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; they will be in pain as a woman in child birth: they will be amazed at one another; their faces will be as flames. (9) Indeed, the day of the LORD {Jehovah} comes, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and He will destroy its sinners out of it.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean. (5) And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim. (6) Yet gleanings grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel. (7) At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel. (8) And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images. (9) In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation. (10) Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips: (11) In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.	(4) And in that day it will come to pass, that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will grow lean. (5) And it will be as when the harvester gathers the corn, and reaps the ears with his arm; and it will be as he who gathers ears in the valley of Rephaim. (6) Yet gleanings grapes will be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost branch, four or five in its outermost fruitful branches, says the LORD {Jehovah} God of Israel. (7) In that day a man will look to his Maker, and his eyes will have respect to the Holy One of Israel. (8) And he will not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither will he respect that which his fingers have made, nor the groves, or the images. (9) In that day his strong cities will be as a forsaken branch, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there will be desolation. (10) Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not been mindful of the rock of your strength, therefore you will plant pleasant plants, and will set it with strange slips: (11) In the day you will cause your plant to grow, and in the morning you will cause your offspring to flourish: but the harvest will be a pile of trash in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters! (13) The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. (14) And behold at eveningtide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us. Chapter 18 (1) Woe to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia: (2) That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled! (3) All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye. (4) For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.	(12) Woe to the multitude of many people, who make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, who make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters! (13) The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but God will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a tumble weed before the whirlwind. (14) And at evening trouble; and before the morning he is no more. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches. (6) They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them. (7) In that time shall the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion. Chapter 19 (1) The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. (2) And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.	(5) Because before the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he will both cut off the sprouts with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches. (6) They will be left together to the birds of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the birds will summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth will winter upon them. (7) In that time the offering will be brought to the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} from a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning until now; a nation meted out {divided} and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the Name of the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}, the mount Zion. Chapter 19 (1) The vision concerning Egypt. Look, the LORD {Jehovah} rides upon a swift cloud, and will come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt will be moved at His presence, and the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst. (2) And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and everyone will fight against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. (4) And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts. (5) And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up. (6) And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither. (7) The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more. (8) The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish. (9) Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded. (10) And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish. (11) Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?	(3) And the spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst; and I will destroy its counsel: and they will seek after the idols, and the charmers, and to those who have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. (4) And the Egyptians I will give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king will rule over them, says the Lord, the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}. (5) And the waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and dried up. (6) And they will turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defense will be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags will wither. (7) The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and everything sown by the brooks, will wither, be driven away, and be no more. (8) The fishermen also will mourn, and all those who cast hooks into the brooks will cry aloud, and those who spread nets upon the waters will have nothing. (9) Furthermore those who work in fine flax, and those who weave cloth, will be confounded. (10) And they will be broken in its foundations, all who make ponds for fish and make wages from them. (11) Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counselors of Pharaoh have become as wild men: how can you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. (15) Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, (16) What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock? (17) Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. (18) He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house. (19) And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down. (20) And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: (21) And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. (22) And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.	(14) And it was revealed in my ears by the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies}, Surely this sin will not be purged from you until you die, says the Lord GOD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}. (15) This is what the Lord GOD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} says, Go, to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house {temple}, and say, (16) What have you here? and whom have you here, that you have cut out for yourself a tomb here, as he who cuts out for himself a tomb on high, and who carves a house for himself in a rock? (17) Indeed, the LORD {Jehovah} will carry you away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover you. (18) He will surely violently turn and toss you like a ball into a large country: there you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be the shame of your master's house. (19) And I will drive you from your station, and from your state he will pull you down. (20) And it will come to pass in that day, that I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: (21) And I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt, and I will commit your government into his hand: and he will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. (22) And the key of the house of David I will lay upon his shoulder; so he will open, and none will shut; and he will shut, and none will open.^b

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(23) And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. (24) And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. (25) In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it. Chapter 23 (1) The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. (2) Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. (3) And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. (4) Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins. (5) As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.	(23) And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he will be for a glorious throne to his father's house. (24) And they will hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. (25) In that day, says the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}, the nail that is fastened in the sure place will be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it will be cut off: because the LORD {Jehovah} has spoken it. Chapter 23 (1) The vision concerning Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish; because it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. (2) Be still, you who live in the island; you whom the merchants of Zidon, who pass over the sea, have replenished. (3) And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a market of nations. (4) Be ashamed, O Zidon: because the sea has spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I do not experience birth pains, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins. (5) As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king; after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot. (16) Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered. (17) And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. (18) And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.	(15) And it will come to pass in that day, that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king; after the end of seventy years Tyre will sing as a prostitute. (16) Take a harp, go about the city, you prostitute who have been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered. (17) And it will come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD {Jehovah} will visit Tyre, and she will turn to her hire, and will commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. (18) And her merchandise and her hire will be holiness to the LORD {Jehovah}: it will not be treasured nor laid up; because her merchandise will be for those who live before the LORD {Jehovah}, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.
Chapter 24 (1) Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof. (2) And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.	Chapter 24 (1) Indeed, the LORD {Jehovah} makes the earth empty, and makes it waste, and turns it upside down, and scatters abroad those who live in it. (2) And it will be with the priest as with the people; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the one who takes interest, so with the one who pays interest to him.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word. (4) The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish. (5) The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. (6) Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. (7) The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh. (8) The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth. (9) They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. (10) The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in. (11) There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. (12) In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction. (13) When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.	(3) The land will be completely emptied, and completely spoiled: because the LORD {Jehovah} has spoken this word. (4) The earth mourns and fades away, the world wears out and fades away, the arrogant people of the earth perish. (5) The earth also is defiled under those who live in it; because they have sinned against the laws, changed the ordinances, broken the everlasting covenant. (6) Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who live in it are desolate: therefore those who live in the earth are burned, and few men left. (7) The new wine mourns, the vine dries up, all the merry hearted sigh. (8) The joy of tambourines ceases, the noise of those who rejoice ends, the joy of the harp ceases. (9) They will not drink wine with a song; strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. (10) The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in. (11) There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the joy of the land is gone. (12) In the city is left desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. (13) When it will be so in the midst of the land among the people, there will be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea. (15) Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea. (16) From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously. (17) Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth. (18) And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake. (19) The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly. (20) The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again. (21) And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.	(14) They will lift up their voice, they will sing for the majesty of the LORD {Jehovah}, they will cry aloud from the sea. (15) Therefore glorify the LORD {Jehovah} in the fires, even the Name of the LORD {Jehovah} God of Israel in the islands of the sea. (16) From the uttermost parts of the earth we have heard songs, even glory to the righteous. King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(18) We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. (19) Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. (20) Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast. (21) For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain. Chapter 27 (1) In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea. (2) In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine.	(18) We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have those who live in the world fallen. (19) Your dead men will live, together with My dead body they will arise.^a Awake and sing, you who live in dust: because your dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast out the dead.^b (20) Come, My people, enter into your rooms, and close your doors around you: hide yourselves as it were for a little moment, until the indignation has passed over.^c (21) Because, look, the LORD {Jehovah} comes out of His place to punish those who live on the earth for their sin: the earth also will reveal her blood, and will no more cover her dead. Chapter 27 (1) In that day the LORD {Jehovah} with His terrible, large and strong sword will punish the leviathan the piercing snake, even leviathan that crooked snake {constellation- Draco};^a and He will kill the dragon that is in the sea. (2) In that day sing to her, A vineyard of red wine.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. (4) Fury is not in me: who would set the briars and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. (5) Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me. (6) He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. (7) Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him? (8) In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. (9) By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. (10) Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.	(3) I the LORD {Jehovah} keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. (4) Fury is not in Me: who would set the briars and thorns against Me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. (5) Or let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he will make peace with Me. (6) He will cause those who are descendants of Jacob to take root: Israel will blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. (7) Has He stricken him {Israel}, as He struck those who struck him? or has He killed according to the slaughter of those who are killed by him? (8) In measure, when it shoots forth, You will debate with it: He stays His rough wind in the day of the east wind. (9) By this therefore the sin of Jacob will be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when He makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, the groves and images will not stand up. (10) Yet the defensed city will be desolate, and the houses forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there the calf will feed, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour. (12) And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel. (13) And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.	(11) When its branches are withered, they will be broken off: the women will come, and set them on fire: because it is a people of no understanding: therefore He Who made them will not have mercy on them, and He Who formed them will show them no favor. (12) And it will come to pass in that day, that the LORD {Jehovah} will beat off from the channel of the river to the stream of Egypt, and you will be gathered one by one, O you children of Israel. (13) And it will come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet will be blown, and those will come who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and will worship the LORD {Jehovah} in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up. (5) In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people, (6) And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate. (7) But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. (8) For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean. (9) Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. (10) For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: (11) For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.	(4) And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, will be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he who looks upon it sees, while it is yet in his hand he eats it up. (5) In that day the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} will be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem {kingly crown} of beauty, to the remnant of His people, (6) And for a spirit of judgment to him who sits in judgment, and for strength to those who turn the battle to the gate. (7) But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up by wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. (8) Because all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no clean place. (9) Who will He teach knowledge? and to whom will He cause to understand teachings? those who are weaned from the milk, and nursing children. (10) Because precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: (11) Because with stammering lips and another tongue He will speak to this people.

{23} Isaiah
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(12) To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. (13) But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. (14) Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. (15) Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: (16) Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. (17) Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. (18) And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.	(12) To whom He said, This is the rest with which You may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not listen. (13) But the word of the LORD {Jehovah} was to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. (14) Therefore hear the word of the LORD {Jehovah}, you scornful men, who rule this people who are in Jerusalem. (15) Because you have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell we are in agreement; when the overflowing scourge passes through, it will not come to us: because we have lies as our refuge, and under falsehood we have hidden ourselves: (16) Therefore this is what the Lord GOD {Jehovah} says, Look, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he who believes will not make haste. (17) I will also lay judgment to the line, and righteousness to the plumb line:^a and the hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. (18) And your covenant with death will be disannulled, and your agreement with hell will not stand; when the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trodden down by it.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report. (20) For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. (21) For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act. (22) Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth. (23) Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech. (24) Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground? (25) When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rie in their place? (26) For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.	(19) From the time that it goes forth it will take you: because morning by morning it will pass over, by day and by night: and it will be a trouble only to understand the report. (20) Because the bed is shorter than a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than he can wrap himself in it. (21) Because the LORD {Jehovah} will rise up as in mount Perazim, He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon, that He may do His work, His strange work; and bring to pass His act, His strange act. (22) Now therefore do not be mockers, lest your bands be made strong: because I have heard from the Lord GOD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} a consumption is determined upon the whole earth. (23) Listen, and hear My voice; pay attention, and hear My speech. (24) Does the plowman plow all day to sow? does he open and break the clods of his ground? (25) When he has made plain its face, does he not sow abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and sow in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rye in their place? (26) Because his God instructs him to discretion, and teaches him.

{23} Isaiah
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(27) For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod. (28) Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen. (29) This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working. Chapter 29 (1) Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices. (2) Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel. (3) And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee. (4) And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust. (5) Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.	(27) Because the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod. (28) Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen. (29) This also comes forth from the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}, Who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working. Chapter 29 (1) Woe to Ariel {lion of God}, to Ariel, the city where David lived {Jerusalem}!^a add year to year; let them kill sacrifices. (2) Yet I will distress Ariel {lion of God; Jerusalem}, and there will be heaviness and sorrow: and it will be to Me as Ariel {lion of God; Jerusalem}. (3) And I will camp against you all around, and will lay siege against you with a mount, and I will raise forts against you. (4) And you will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground, and your speech will be low out of the dust, and your voice will be, as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. (5) Furthermore the multitude of your strangers will be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones will be as chaff that passes away: yes, it will be at an instant suddenly.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. (7) And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision. (8) It shall even be as when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion. (9) Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. (10) For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. (11) And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed: (12) And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.	(6) You will be visited by the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. (7) And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel {lion of God; Jerusalem}, even all who fight against her and her snare, and who distress her, will be as a dream of a night vision. (8) It will even be as when a hungry man dreams he eats; but he awakens, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreams he drinks; but he awakens, and he is faint, and his soul has appetite: so will the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion. (9) Stand still, and wonder; cry out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. (10) Because the LORD {Jehovah} has poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers He has blinded. (11) And the vision of all has become to you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, I ask you to read this: and he said, I cannot; because it is sealed: (12) And the book is delivered to him who is not educated, saying, I ask you to read this: and he said, I am not educated.

(5) They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. (6) The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them. (7) For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still. (8) Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever: (9) That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD: (10) Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: (11) Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. (12) Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:	(5) They were all ashamed of a people who could not profit them, nor be a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. (6) The vision of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from where the young and old lion come, the viper and fiery flying snake, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures upon the humps of camels, to a people who will not profit them. (7) Because the Egyptians will help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore I have cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still. (8) Now go, write it before them in a tablet, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever: (9) That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of the LORD {Jehovah}: (10) Who say to the seers, Do not see; and to the prophets, Do not prophesy to us right things, speak to us pleasing things, prophesy deceits: (11) Get out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. (12) Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says, Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay there:

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(13) Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. (14) And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit. (15) For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not. (16) But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. (17) One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. (18) And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.	(13) Therefore this sin will be to you as a break in a wall ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly at an instant. (14) And He will break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; He will not spare: so that there will not be found in it even a pot to take fire from the hearth, or to take water out of the pit. (15) Because this is what the Lord GOD {Jehovah} says, the Holy One of Israel; In returning {to Me} and rest you will be saved; in quietness and in confidence will be your strength: but you would not receive it. (16) But you said, No; because we will flee upon horses; therefore you will flee: and, We will ride upon the swift {horses}; therefore those who pursue you will also be swift. (17) One thousand will flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five you will flee: until you are left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign {banner; flag} on a hill. (18) And therefore the LORD {Jehovah} will wait, that He may be gracious to you, and therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy upon you: because the LORD {Jehovah} is a God of judgment: blessed are all those who wait for Him.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. (20) And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers: (21) And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. (22) Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence. (23) Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures. (24) The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. (25) And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.	(19) Because the people will live in Zion at Jerusalem: you will weep no more: He will be very gracious to you at the voice of your cry; when He will hear it, He will answer you. (20) And though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet your teachers will not be removed into a corner any more, but your eyes will see your teachers: (21) And your ears will hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left. (22) You will defile also the covering of your graven images of silver, and the ornament of your molten images of gold: you will cast them away as a menstrual cloth; you will say to it, Get away from here. (23) Then He will give the rain of your seed, that you will sow the ground with it; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it will be fat and plenteous: in that day your cattle will feed in large pastures. (24) The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that plow the ground will eat clean feed, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the winnowing fan. (25) And there will be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound. (27) Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: (28) And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. (29) Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. (30) And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. (31) For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod. (32) And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.	(26) Furthermore the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD {Jehovah} binds up the wounds of His people, and heals the stroke of their wounds. (27) Indeed, the Name of the LORD {Jehovah} comes from afar, burning with His anger, and its vision is heavy: His lips are full of indignation, and His tongue as a devouring fire: (28) And His breath, as an overflowing stream, will reach to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the strainer of vanity: and there will be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. (29) You will have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come into the mountain of the LORD {Jehovah}, to the mighty One of Israel. (30) And the LORD {Jehovah} will cause His glorious voice to be heard, and will show the strength of His arm, with the indignation of His anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. (31) Because through the voice of the LORD {Jehovah} the Assyrian will be beaten down, who struck with a rod. (32) And in every place where the grounded staff will pass, which the LORD {Jehovah} will lay upon him, it will be with tambourines and harps: and in battles of tumult He will fight with it.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(33) For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it. Chapter 31 (1) Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD! (2) Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity. (3) Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together. (4) For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.	(33) Because Tophet {place of burning; hell}^a was ordained from old; yes, it is prepared for the king; he has made it deep and large: its pile is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD {Jehovah}, like a stream of molten sulfur, sets it afire. Chapter 31 (1) Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help; and trust in horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD {Jehovah}! (2) Yet He also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not take back His words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who sin. (3) Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD {Jehovah} stretches out His hand, both he who helps will fall, and he who is helped will fall down, and they all will fail together. (4) Because the LORD {Jehovah} has so spoken to me, Just as the lion and the young lion roaring over his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself because of their noise: so will the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} come down to fight for mount Zion, and for its hill.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it. (6) Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. (7) For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin. (8) Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited. (9) And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.	(5) As birds flying, so will the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes} defend Jerusalem; also defending He will deliver it; and passing over He will preserve it. (6) Turn to Him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. (7) Because in that day every man will cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made for you for a sin. (8) Then the Assyrian will fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, will devour him: but he will flee from the sword, and his young men will be discomfited {embarrassed; uneasy}. (9) And he will pass over to his stronghold because of fear, and his princes will be afraid of the ensign {banner; flag}, says the LORD {Jehovah}, Whose fire is in Zion, and His furnace in Jerusalem.
Chapter 32 (1) Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. (2) And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. (3) And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken. (4) The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.	Chapter 32 (1) Indeed, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in judgment. (2) And a man will be as a hiding place from the wind, and a shelter from the storm; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. (3) And the eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will listen. (4) The heart also of the rash {foolish} will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stutterers will be ready to speak plainly.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(5) The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful. (6) For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. (7) The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right. (8) But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand. (9) Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech. (10) Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come. (11) Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins. (12) They shall lament for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. (13) Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:	(5) The fool will no more be called noble, nor the miser said to be bountiful. (6) Because the fool will speak foolishness, and his heart will commit sin, to practice hypocrisy, and to speak error against the LORD {Jehovah}, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. (7) The instruments also of the miser are evil: he devises wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speak what is right. (8) But the noble {man} devises {plans} noble things; and by noble things he will stand. (9) Rise up, you women who are at ease; hear My voice, you careless daughters; listen to My speech. (10) You will be troubled many days and years, you careless women: because the vintage will fail, the harvest will not come. (11) Tremble, you women who are at ease; be troubled, you careless ones: strip yourselves, and make yourselves bare, and put sackcloth upon your waist. (12) They will mourn for the breasts, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. (13) Upon the land of My people thorns and briers will come up; yes, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(14) Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks; (15) Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest. (16) Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. (17) And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever. (18) And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places; (19) When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place. (20) Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.	(14) Because the palaces will be forsaken; the multitude of the city will be left; the forts and towers will be for dens {for wild animals} forever, a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks; (15) Until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field becomes counted for a forest. (16) Then judgment will live in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. (17) And the work of righteousness will be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance forever. (18) And My people will live in a peaceable house, and in sure houses, and in quiet resting places; (19) When it will hail, coming down on the forest; and the city will be low in a low place. (20) Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send forth to there the feet of the ox and the donkey.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyselves the nations were scattered. (4) And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them. (5) The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. (6) And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure. (7) Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly. (8) The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man. (9) The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits. (10) Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself. (11) Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you. (12) And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire. (13) Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might.	(3) At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at Your rising up the nations were scattered. (4) And Your spoil will be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: He will run upon them as the running to and fro of locusts. (5) The LORD {Jehovah} is exalted; because He lives on high: He has filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. (6) And wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of Your times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD {Jehovah} is His treasure. (7) Their valiant ones will cry outside: the ambassadors of peace will weep bitterly. (8) The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceases: he has broken the covenant, he has despised the cities, he regards no man. (9) The earth mourns and withers away: Lebanon is ashamed and cut down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits. (10) Now I will rise, says the LORD {Jehovah}; now I will be exalted; now I will lift up Myself. (11) You will conceive chaff, you will bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, will devour you. (12) And the people will be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up they will be burned in the fire. (13) Listen, you who are far off, what I have done; and, you who are near, acknowledge My might.

(21) But there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams; wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby. (22) For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us. (23) Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast, they could not spread the sail: then is the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame take the prey. (24) And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity. Chapter 34 (1) Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it. (2) For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter. (3) Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. (4) And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.	(21) But there the glorious LORD {Jehovah} will be to us a place of broad rivers and streams; where no boat will go with oars, neither will gallant ships pass by. (22) Because the LORD {Jehovah} is our judge, the LORD {Jehovah} is our lawgiver, the LORD {Jehovah} is our King; He will save us. (23) Your ropes are loosed; they could not strengthen their mast, they could not spread the sail: then the prey of a great spoil is divided; the lame take the prey. (24) And those who live there will not say, I am sick: the people who live there will be forgiven their sin. Chapter 34 (1) Come near, you nations, to hear; and listen, you people: let the earth hear, and all that is in it; the world, and all things that come forth of it. (2) Because the indignation of the LORD {Jehovah} is upon all nations, and His fury upon all their armies: He has completely destroyed them, He has delivered them to the slaughter. (3) Their dead also will be cast out, and their stench will come up out of their dead bodies, and the mountains will be melted with their blood. (4) And all the host of heaven will be dissolved, and the heavens will be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host will fall down, as the leaf falls off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.^a

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(26) Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps. (27) Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. (28) But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. (29) Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. (30) And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof. (31) And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: (32) For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.	(26) Have you not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now I have brought it to pass, that you should lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps. (27) Therefore those who lived there were of little power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. (28) But I know where you live, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me. (29) Because you rage against Me, and your tumult, has come up into My ears, therefore I will put My hook into your nose, and My bridle into your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. (30) And this will be a sign to you, You will eat this year such as grows of itself; and the second year that which springs of the same: and in the third year you will sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat its fruit. (31) And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: (32) Because out of Jerusalem will go forth a remnant, and those who escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies} will do this.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(33) Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. (34) By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD. (35) For I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. (36) Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. (37) So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. (38) And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead. Chapter 38 (1) In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.	(33) Therefore this is what the LORD {Jehovah} says concerning the king of Assyria, He will not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. (34) By the way that he came, by the same he will return, and will not come into this city, says the LORD {Jehovah}. (35) Because I will defend this city to save it for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake. (36) Then the angel of the LORD {Jehovah} went forth, and struck in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty-five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, indeed, they were all dead bodies. (37) So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. (38) And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his place. Chapter 38 (1) In those days Hezekiah was deathly sick. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, This is what the LORD {Jehovah} says, Set your house in order: because you will die, and not live.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(2) Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, (3) And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. (4) Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, (5) Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. (6) And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. (7) And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken; (8) Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down. (9) The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness: (10) I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.	(2) Then Hezekiah turned his face towards the wall, and prayed to the LORD {Jehovah}, (3) And said, Remember now, O LORD {Jehovah}, I ask You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Your sight. And Hezekiah wept greatly. (4) Then the word of the LORD {Jehovah} came to Isaiah, saying, (5) Go, and say to Hezekiah, This is what the LORD {Jehovah} says, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: indeed, I will add to your days fifteen years. (6) And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. (7) And this will be a sign to you from the LORD {Jehovah}, that the LORD {Jehovah} will do this thing that He has spoken; (8) Look, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, the degrees it had gone down.^a (9) The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered from his sickness: (10) I said concerning the cutting off of my days, I will go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the remainder of my years.
38:8a - ten degrees on the sun dial - i.e. the sun went backwards 10 degrees in the sky which added 40 minutes the length of the day - II Ki. 20:11 [360°/24 hr.=15°/hr.], 10/15 = 2/3 hour, so 10 degrees of arc on the sun dial would be 40 minutes.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(11) I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world. (12) Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. (13) I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. (14) Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me. (15) What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. (16) O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live. (17) Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back. (18) For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.	(11) I said, I will not see the LORD {Jehovah}, even the LORD {Jehovah}, in the land of the living: I will not see man any more with those who live in the world. (12) My age has departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off my life like a weaver: He will cut me off with constant sickness: from day even to night You will make an end of me. (13) I reckoned until morning, that, as a lion, so He will break all my bones: from day even to night You will make an end of me. (14) Like a crane or a swallow, so I chattered: I mourned as a dove: my eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD {Jehovah}, I am oppressed; be my shelter. (15) What shall I say? He has both spoken to me, and He Himself has done it: I will go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. (16) O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so You will recover me, and cause me to live. (17) For peace I had great bitterness: but You have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: because You have cast all my sins behind Your back. (18) Because the grave cannot praise You, death cannot celebrate You: those who go down into the pit cannot hope for Your truth.

{23} Isaiah
King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(19) The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known thy truth. (20) The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD. (21) For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. (22) Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD? Chapter 39 (1) At that time Merodachbaladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. (2) And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not. (3) Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.	(19) The living, yes, the living, he will praise You, as I do this day: the father to the children will make known Your truth. (20) The LORD {Jehovah} was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our lives in the house {temple} of the LORD {Jehovah}. (21) Because Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he will recover. (22) Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I will go up to the house {temple} of the LORD {Jehovah}? Chapter 39 (1) At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: because he had heard that he had been sick, and had recovered.^a (2) And Hezekiah was glad because of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them. (3) Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and said to him, What did these men say? and from where did they come to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country to me, even from Babylon.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. (5) Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: (6) Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. (7) And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. (8) Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.	(4) Then he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house they have seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. (5) Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD {Jehovah} of hosts {armies; multitudes}: (6) Indeed, the days will come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, will be carried to Babylon: nothing will be left, says the LORD {Jehovah}. (7) And of your sons that will be born of you, which you will father, they will take away; and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. (8) Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of the LORD {Jehovah} is good which you have spoken. He also said this, because there will be peace and truth in my days.
Chapter 40 (1) Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. (2) Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD'S hand double for all her sins. (3) The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.	Chapter 40 (1) Comfort yourselves, comfort yourselves My people, says your God. (2) Speak comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry to her, that her warfare is completed, that her sin is pardoned: because she has received of the LORD's {Jehovah's} hand double for all her sins. (3) The voice of him who cries in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the LORD {Jehovah}, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.^a

(12) Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? (13) Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him? (14) With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding? (15) Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. (16) And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering. (17) All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity. (18) To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him? (19) The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains. (20) He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.	(12) Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, and measured out heaven with the span, and weighed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? (13) Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being His counselor has taught Him? (14) With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him in the path of judgment, and taught Him knowledge, and showed to Him the way of understanding? (15) Indeed, the nations are as a drop in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: indeed, He takes up the islands as a very little thing. (16) And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering. (17) All nations before Him are as nothing; and they are counted to Him less than nothing, and vanity. (18) To whom then will you compare God? or to what likeness will you compare to Him? (19) The workman melts a graven image, and the goldsmith over lays it over with gold, and casts silver chains. (20) He who is so impoverished that he has no offering chooses a tree that will not rot; he seeks for himself a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that will not be moved.

{23} Isaiah

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved. (8) But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend. (9) Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. (10) Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. (11) Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish. (12) Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. (13) For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. (14) Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.	(7) So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he who smoothed with the hammer encouraged him who struck the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering; and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved. (8) But you, Israel, are My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham My friend. (9) You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called you from the chief of men, and said to you, You are My servant; I have chosen you, and have not cast you away. (10) Do not be afraid; because I am with you: do not be dismayed; because I am your God: I will strengthen you; yes, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness. (11) Indeed, all those who were incensed against you will be ashamed and confounded: they will be as nothing; and those who strive with you will perish. (12) You will seek them, and will not find them, even those who contended with you: those who war against you will be as nothing, and as a thing of nothing. (13) Because I the LORD {Jehovah} your God will hold your right hand, saying to you, Do not be afraid; I will help you. (14) Do not be afraid, you worm Jacob, and you men of Israel; I will help you, says the LORD {Jehovah}, and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(15) Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. (16) Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel. (17) When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. (18) I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. (19) I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together: (20) That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it. (21) Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.	(15) Indeed, I will make you a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: you will thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and will make the hills as chaff. (16) You will fan them, and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind will scatter them: and you will rejoice in the LORD {Jehovah}, and will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. (17) When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue fails for thirst, I the LORD {Jehovah} will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. (18) I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. (19) I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together: (20) That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD {Jehovah} has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it. (21) Produce your cause, says the LORD {Jehovah}; bring forth your strong reasons, says the King of Jacob.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(22) Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come. (23) Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together. (24) Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you. (25) I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay. (26) Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words. (27) The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings. (28) For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word. (29) Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.	(22) Let them bring them forth, and show us what will happen: let them show the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare to us things yet to come. (23) Show the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods: yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and see it together. (24) Indeed, you are of nothing, and your work of nothing: an abomination is he who chooses you. (25) I have raised up one from the north, and he will come: from the rising of the sun he will call upon My Name: and he will come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treads clay. (26) Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know? and formerly, that we may say, He is righteous? yes, there is no one who shows, yes, there is no one who declares, yes, there is no one who hears your words. (27) The first will say to Zion, Look, see them: and I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good news. (28) Because I looked, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counselor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word. (29) Indeed, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods. (18) Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see. (19) Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD'S servant? (20) Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not. (21) The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable. (22) But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. (23) Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come? (24) Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law. (25) Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.	(17) Those who trust in graven images will be turned back, they will be greatly ashamed, those who say to the molten images, You are our gods. (18) Hear, you deaf; and look, you blind, that you may see. (19) Who is blind, but My servant? or deaf, as My messenger that I sent? who is blind as He Who is perfect, and blind as the LORD's {Jehovah's} servant? (20) Seeing many things, but you do not observe; opening the ears, but he does not hear. (21) The LORD {Jehovah} is well pleased for His righteousness' sake; He will magnify the law, and make it honorable. (22) But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and no one delivers; for a spoil, and no one says, Restore. (23) Who among you will listen to this? who will listen and hear for the time to come? (24) Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD {Jehovah}, He against Whom we have sinned? because they would not walk in His ways, neither were they obedient to His law. (25) Therefore He has poured upon him the fury of His anger, and the strength of battle: and it has set him on fire all around, yet he did not know; and it burned him, yet he did not lay it to heart.

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(7) And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them. (8) Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any. (9) They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. (10) Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing? (11) Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together. (12) The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint. (13) The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.	(7) And who, as I, will call, and will declare it, and set it in order for Me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and will come, let them show to them. (8) Do not fear, neither be afraid: have I not told you from that time, and have declared it? you are even My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me? indeed, there is no God; I do not know any. (9) Those who make a graven image are all of them vanity; and the things in which they delight will not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they do not see, nor know; that they may be ashamed. (10) Who has formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for anything? (11) Indeed, all his fellows will be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they will fear, and they will be ashamed together. (12) The blacksmith with the tongs both works in the coals, and fashions it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms: yes, he is hungry, and his strength fails: he drinks no water, and is faint. (13) The carpenter stretches out his rule; he marks it out with a line; he fits it with planes, and he marks it out with the compass, and makes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

(14) He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it. (15) Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. (16) He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: (17) And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. (18) They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand. (19) And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? (20) He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?	(14) He cuts down cedars, and takes the cypress and the oak, which he strengthens for himself among the trees of the forest: he plants an ash, and the rain nourishes it. (15) Then it will be for a man to burn: because he will take of it, and warm himself; yes, he kindles it, and bakes bread; yes, he makes a god, and worships it; he makes it a graven image, and falls down to it. (16) He burns part of it in the fire; with part of it he eats meat; he roasts roast, and is satisfied: yes, he warms himself, and says, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: (17) And of its remainder he makes a god, even his graven image: he falls down to it, and worships it, and prays to it, and says, Deliver me; because you are my god. (18) They have not known nor understood: because He has shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand. (19) And no one considers in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yes, also I have baked bread upon its coals; I have roasted meat, and eaten it: and shall I make the remainder of it an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? (20) He feeds on ashes: a deceived heart has turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

(14) Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God. (15) Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. (16) They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols. (17) But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. (18) For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else. (19) I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. (20) Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.	(14) This is what the LORD {Jehovah} says, The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you, and they will be yours: they will come after you; in chains they will come over, and they will fall down to you, they will make requests to you, saying, Surely God is in you; and there is no one else, there is no God. (15) Truly you are a God Who hides Yourself, O God of Israel, the Savior. (16) They will be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: those who make idols will go to confusion together. (17) But Israel will be saved in the LORD {Jehovah} with an everlasting salvation: you will not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. (18) Because this is what the LORD {Jehovah} says Who created the heavens; God Himself Who formed the earth and made it; He has established it, He did not create it in vain, He formed it to be lived in: I am the LORD {Jehovah}; and there is no one else. (19) I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I have not said to the offspring of Jacob, Seek Me in vain: I the LORD {Jehovah} speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. (20) Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations: they have no knowledge who set up the wood of their graven image, and pray to a god that cannot save.
