King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase {updated 9/03/14*}

Chapter 1

(1) God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

(2) Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

(3) Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

(4) Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

(5) For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

(6) And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

(7) And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

(8) But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

(9) Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

Chapter 1

(1) God Who at various times and in various ways spoke in times past to the forefathers by the prophets,

(2) Has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, Whom He has appointed heir of all things, by Whom also He made the worlds;

(3) Who being the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

(4) Being made so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent Name than they.

(5) To which of the angels has He said at any time,

You are My Son, today I have fathered You?^a

And again,

I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son?^b

(6) And again, when He brings in the First Born into the world, He says,

And let all the angels of God worship Him.^c

(7) And of the angels He says,

Who makes His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.^d

(8) But to the Son He says,

Your throne, O God, is forever and ever: a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.

(9) You have loved righteousness, and hated sin; therefore God, *even

Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above your companions.^e

The letter to Hebrews does not state in the text who wrote it. According to tradition it was written by Paul. Mathematical analysis of the book verifies that Paul did in fact write the letter. King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(10) And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:
(11) They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
(12) And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.
(13) But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?
(14) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

Chapter 2

(1) Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.
(2) For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;
(3) How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;
(4) God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?
(5) For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

(10) And, You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of Your hands:^f
(11) They shall perish; but You remain; and they all shall grow old as clothing;
(12) And as clothing You shall fold them up, and they shall be changed: but You are the same, and Your years shall not fail.^g
(13) But to which of the angels did He say at any time,
Sit on My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool?^h
(14) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation?

Chapter 2

(1) Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.
(2) Because if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every sin and disobedience received a just punishment;
(3) How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him;
(4) God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will?
(5) Because He has not put the world to come in subjection to the angels, of which we speak.

1:12g - 2 Peter 3:10-13

1:13h - Ps. 110:1

{58} Hebrews

King James Version

(6) But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
(7) Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:
(8) Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.
(9) But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
(10) For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
(11) For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,
(12) Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

King James Paraphrase

(6) But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that You are mindful of him? or the son of man, that You visit him?
(7) You made him a little lower than the angels; You crowned him with glory and honor, and did set him over the works of Your hands:
(8) You have put all things in subjection under his feet.^a
Since He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. But now we do not yet see all things put under him.
(9) But we see Jesus, Who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that He by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
(10) Because it became Him, for Whom all things are, and by Whom all things are, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
(11) Because both He Who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all of one: for this reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers,
(12) Saying,
I will declare Your Name to My brothers, in the midst of the church I will sing praise to You.^b

{58} Hebrews

King James Version

(13) And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

(14) Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

(15) And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

(16) For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

(17) Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

(18) For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

Chapter 3

(1) Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

(2) Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

(3) For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

King James Paraphrase

(13) And again,

I will put My trust in Him.^c

And again,

Look, I and the children whom God has given Me.^d

-----September 21, 2014

(14) Inasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He Himself also likewise took part of the same; that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil;

(15) And deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

(16) Because truly He did not take upon Himself the nature of angels; but He took upon Himself the offspring of Abraham.

(17) Therefore in all things He obligated Himself to be made like His brothers, that He might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

(18) Since He Himself has suffered being tempted, He is able to support those who are tempted.

Chapter 3

(1) Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

(2) Who was faithful to Him Who appointed Him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

(3) Because this Man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, just as he who has built the house has more honor than the house.

{58} Hebrews

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(16) For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

(16) Because some, when they had heard, provoked God: Though not all who came out of Egypt by Moses.

(17) But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

(17) But with whom was He grieved forty years? was it not with those who had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

(18) And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

(18) And to whom He swore that they should not enter into His rest, but to those who did not believe?

(19) So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

(19) So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Chapter 4

Chapter 4

(1) Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

(1) Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into His rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

(2) For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

(2) Because to us the gospel was preached, as well as to them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.

(3) For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

(3) Because we who have believed will enter into rest, as He said,

As I have sworn in My wrath, lest they should enter into My rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.^a

(4) For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

(4) Because He spoke in a certain place of the seventh day {Saturday} in this way,

And God did rest the seventh day {Saturday} from all His works.^b

(5) And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

(5) And in this place again, If they shall enter into My rest.

(6) Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

(6) Since therefore it remains that some must enter therein, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter in because of unbelief:

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 5

(1) For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

(2) Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

(3) And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

(4) And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

(5) So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

(6) As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

(7) Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

(8) Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

(9) And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

(10) Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

Chapter 5

(1) Because every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

(2) Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on those who are out of the way; because he himself also is surrounded with infirmity.

(3) And because of this he must, also offer for his own sins as well as for the people.

(4) And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called of God, as was Aaron.

(5) So also Christ did not glorify Himself to be made a high priest; but He Who said to Him,

You are My Son, today I have fathered You^a.

(6) As He says also in another place,
You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek^b.

(7) Who in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up prayers and requests with strong crying and tears to Him Who was able to save Him from death, and was heard because He feared;

(8) Though He was a Son, yet He learned obedience by the things which He suffered;

(9) And being made perfect, He became the Author of eternal salvation to all those who obey Him;

(10) Called by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

King James Version

(11) Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
 (12) For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
 (13) For every one that useth milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
 (14) But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Chapter 6

(1) Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,
 (2) Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
 (3) And this will we do, if God permit.
 (4) For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,
 (5) And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
 (6) If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

King James Paraphrase

(11) Of Whom we have many things to say, and hard to be spoken, since you are dull of hearing.
 (12) Because when by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need that someone teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and have become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
 (13) Because everyone who uses milk is unskillful in the word of righteousness: because he is a babe.
 (14) But strong meat belongs to those who are of full age, even those who because of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Chapter 6

(1) Therefore leaving the first principles of the teaching of Christ, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God,
 (2) Of the teaching of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(7) And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.
(8) And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.
(9) And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
(10) For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.
(11) If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
(12) For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
(13) For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
(14) For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.
(15) And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest,
(16) Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
(17) For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
(18) For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

(7) And without any question the lesser is blessed by the greater.
(8) And here men who die receive tithes; but there he received them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives.
(9) And as I may so say, Levi also, who received tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.
(10) Because he was yet in the body of his father, when Melchizedek met him.
(11) If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (because under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
(12) Because the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
(13) Because he of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
(14) Because it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.
(15) And it is yet far more evident: because after the similarity of Melchizedek there arises another priest,
(16) Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
(17) Because He testifies,
You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek^c.
(18) Because there is truly a putting aside of the commandment going before because of its weakness and unprofitableness.

(19) For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. (20) And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: (21) (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:) (22) By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. (23) And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: (24) But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. (25) Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. (26) For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; (27) Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. (28) For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.	(19) Because the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by which we draw near to God. (20) And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath: (21) (Because those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by Him Who said to him, The Lord swore and will not repent, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek^d:) (22) By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. (23) And they truly were many priests, because they were not allowed to continue because of death: (24) But this Man, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. (25) Therefore He is able also to save those completely who come to God by Him, since He ever lives to make intercession for them. (26) Because such a high priest did become us, Who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; (27) Who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: because this He did once, when He offered up Himself. (28) Because the law makes men high priests who have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, makes the Son, Who is consecrated forevermore.

(9) Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

(10) For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

(11) And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

(12) For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

(13) In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

Chapter 9

(1) Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

(2) For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

(3) And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

Chapter 9

(1) Then truly the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

(2) Because there was a tabernacle made; the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, and the holy bread; which is called the sanctuary.

(3) And after the second curtain, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all {Holy of Holies};

(4) Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

(5) And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

(6) Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

(7) But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

(8) The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

(9) Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

(10) Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

(11) But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

(4) Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid all around with gold, in which the golden pot was that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant;

(5) And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy seat; of which we cannot now speak in detail.

(6) Now when these things were so ordained, the priests always went to the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

(7) But into the second the high priest went alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

(8) The Holy Spirit was by this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet revealed, while the first tabernacle was yet standing:

(9) Which was a symbol for that present time, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him who did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

(10) Which stood only in meats and drinks, and various washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

(11) But Christ having come as a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(2) For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

(3) But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

(4) For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

(5) Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

(6) In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

(7) Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

(8) Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

(9) Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

(10) By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

(11) And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

(12) But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

(2) Because would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshipers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

(3) But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

(4) Because it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

(5) Therefore when He comes into the world, He says,

Sacrifice and offerings You do not desire, but a body You have prepared for Me:

(6) In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You have had no pleasure.

(7) Then I, said, Look, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do Your will, O God^a.

(8) When He said above, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin You did not desire, neither had pleasure in them; which are offered by the law;

(9) Then He said, Look, I come to do Your will, O God. He takes away the first, that He may establish the second.

(10) Through Who's will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

(11) And every priest stands daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

King James Paraphrase

(34) For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

(35) Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

(36) For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

(37) For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

(38) Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

(39) But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

Chapter 11

(1) Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

(2) For by it the elders obtained a good report.

(3) Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

(4) By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

(34) Because you had compassion on me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that you have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

(35) Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great payment of reward.

(36) Because you have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise.

(37) Because yet, in a little while, and He Who shall come will come, and will not delay.

(38) Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draws back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

(39) But we are not of those who draw back to perdition; but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

(2) Because by it the elders obtained a good report.

(4) By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain^a, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaks.

(5) By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

(6) But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

(7) By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

(8) By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should afterwards receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

(9) By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

(10) For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

(11) Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

(5) By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death^b; and was not found, because God had translated him: because before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

(12) Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

(13) These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

(14) For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

(15) And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

(16) But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

(17) By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

(18) Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

(19) Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

(20) By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

(21) By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

(12) Therefore there sprang even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

(28) Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

(29) For our God is a consuming fire.

Chapter 13

(1) Let brotherly love continue.

(2) Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

(3) Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

(4) Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

(5) Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

(6) So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

(7) Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

(8) Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

(9) Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

(10) We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

(11) For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

(12) Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

(18) Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.
