King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(38) And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

(39) And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

(40) But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

(1) And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

(2) And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

(3) And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

(4) And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

(5) And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

(6) And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

(38) And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

(39) And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. |

(40) But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

(1) And Saul, still breathing out threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

(2) And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

(3) And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shone around him a light from heaven:

(4) And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?<sup>a</sup>

(5) And he said, Who are You, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus Whom you persecute: it is hard for you to kick against the thorns.

(6) And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what will You have me to do? And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told to you what you must do.

King James Paraphrase

(7) And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.
(8) And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.
(9) And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.
(10) And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.
(11) And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth,
(12) And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.
(13) Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:
(14) And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.
(15) But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:
(16) For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

(7) And the men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man<sup>b</sup>.
(8) And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.
(9) And he was three days without sight, and neither did he eat nor drink.
(10) And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Look, I am here, Lord.
(11) And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: because, indeed, he is praying,
(12) And has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.
(13) Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he has done to Your saints at Jerusalem:
(14) And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your Name.
(15) But the Lord said to him, Go your way: because he is a chosen vessel to Me, to bear My Name before the Gentiles {non-Jews}<sup>c</sup> and kings, and the children of Israel:
(16) Because I will show him what great things that he must suffer for My Name's sake.

(17) And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

(18) And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

(19) And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

(20) And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

(21) But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

(22) But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

(23) And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

(24) But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

(25) Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

(26) And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

(17) And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, Who appeared to you on the road as you came, has sent me, that you might receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

(18) And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he immediately received sight, and arose, and was baptized.

(19) And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Saul was certain days with the disciples who were at Damascus.

(20) And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God.

(21) But all who heard him were amazed, and said; Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came here with that intent, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?

(22) But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this {Jesus} is truly Christ.

(23) And after many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

(24) But their laying in wait was made known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

(25) Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket<sup>d</sup>.

(26) And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he determined to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple.
