King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
Chapter 1                      1) Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.                      (2) But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.                      (3) And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.                      (4) The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.                      (5) Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.                      (6) For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish. Chapter 2                      (1) Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?                      (2) The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,                      (3) Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.                      (4) He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.	Chapter 1                      (1) Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful. King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(3) When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.
(4) For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.
(5) I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.
(6) For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.
(7) Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.
(8) I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.
(9) Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.
(10) Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.
(11) Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

(3) When I kept silence, my bones grew old through my groaning all the day long.
(4) Because day and night Your hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah {musical pause}.
(5) I acknowledged my sin to You, and my sin I have not hidden. I said, I will confess my sins to the LORD {Jehovah}; and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah {musical pause}.
(6) For this everyone who is godly will pray to You in a time when You may be found: surely in the floods of great waters they will not come near to him.
(7) You are my hiding place; You will preserve me from trouble; You will encircle me with songs of deliverance. Selah {musical pause}.
(8) I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you will go: I will guide you with my eye.
(9) Do not be as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near to you.
(10) Many sorrows will be to the wicked: but he who trusts in the LORD {Jehovah}, mercy will encircle him.

(9) I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? King James Version	King James Paraphrase
(20) Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? (21) Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel; (22) Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation: (23) Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, (24) And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. (25) Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. (26) He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind. (27) He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea: (28) And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations. (29) So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire; (30) They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths, (31) The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel. (32) For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works. (33) Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble. (34) When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.	(20) Indeed, He struck the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can He give bread also? can He provide meat for His people? King James Version

(10) Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

(11) Unto whom I sware in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

Chapter 96

(1) O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

(2) Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

(3) Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

(4) For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

(5) For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

(6) Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

(7) Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

(8) Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

(9) O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

King James Version

(4) All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.
(5) Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.
(6) Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.
(7) Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.
(8) The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

Chapter 139
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

(1) O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.
(2) Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.
(3) Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.
(4) For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.
(5) Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.
