King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 1

(1) Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
 (2) Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:
 (3) Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
 (4) I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;
 (5) That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;
 (6) Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
 (7) So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:
 (8) Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 (9) God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 1

(1) Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
 (2) To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified {made holy}^a in Christ Jesus, called to be saints {holy ones}^b, with all who in every place call upon the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:
 (3) Grace be to you, and peace^c from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
 (4) I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given to you by Jesus Christ;
 (5) That in everything you are enriched by Him, in all speech, and in all knowledge;
 (6) Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
 (7) So that you are lacking in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:
 (8) Who shall also confirm you to the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.^d
 (9) God is faithful, by Whom you were called to the fellowship of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

1:2a – sanctified – made pure, clean, without sin {because of Jesus sacrifice}

1:2b – saints – holy ones {holy because of Jesus}

1:3c – Grace and Peace – grace always precedes peace – Rom. 1:7; II Cor. 1:2; Gal. 1:3; Eph. 1:2; Phil. 1:2; Col. 1:2; I Thes. 1:1; II Thes. 1:2; I Tim. 1:2; II Tim. 1:2; Tit. 1:4; Philemon 1:3; I Pet. 1:2; II Pet. 1:2; II Jn. 1:3 – grace means receiving something as a free gift that is totally undeserved

1:8d - "the day of our Lord Jesus Christ" - i.e. the Rapture

Note: whenever Jesus' Name or "Christ" is used in reference to the coming of the Lord, it is always a day of joy for believers. Whenever Jesus' Name or "Christ" is not used in reference to the coming of the Lord, it is always a reference to the Second Coming at Armageddon, a day of darkness and judgment on ungodly men.

[Such as "the day of the Lord" or "the day of God"]

King James Paraphrase

(10) Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

(11) For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

(12) Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

(13) Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

(14) I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;

(15) Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

(16) And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

(17) For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

(18) For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

(19) For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

(20) Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

(10) Now I urge you, brothers, by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all be in agreement, and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

(11) Because it has been declared to me of you, my brothers, by those who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

(12) Now this I say, that everyone of you says, I am of Paul; and I am of Apollos; and I am of Cephas; and I am of Christ.

(13) Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

(14) I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius;

(15) Lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name.

(16) And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides these, I do not know whether I baptized any other.

(17) Because Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

(18) Because the preaching of the cross is to those who perish foolishness; but to us who are saved it is the power of God.

(19) Because it is written,
I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent {wise},^e

(20) Where are the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

King James Paraphrase

(21) For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.
(22) For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:
(23) But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;
(24) But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.
(25) Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
(26) For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
(27) But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;
(28) And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:
(29) That no flesh should glory in his presence.
(30) But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:
(31) That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

(21) Because in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe.
(22) Because the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:
(23) But we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block, and to the Greeks foolishness;
(24) But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God, and the wisdom of God.
(25) Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
(26) Because you see your calling, brothers, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
(27) But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;
(28) And base things of the world, and things which are despised, God has chosen, yes, and things which are not, to bring to nothing things that are:
(29) That no flesh should glory in His presence.
(30) But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, Who of God is made to us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:
(31) That, accordingly as it is written,
Let him who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.^f

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 2

(1) And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.
(2) For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
(3) And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
(4) And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:
(5) That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
(6) Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:
(7) But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:
(8) Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
(9) But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
(10) But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
(11) For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

Chapter 2

(1) And I, brothers, when I came to you, did not come with eloquence of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God.
(2) Because I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.
(3) And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
(4) And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:
(5) That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
(6) However we speak wisdom among those who are perfect {mature}: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nothing:
(7) But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world to our glory:
(8) Which none of the princes of this world knew: because had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
(9) But as it is written,
Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.^a
(10) But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit: because the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.
(11) Because what man knows the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God no man knows, except the Spirit of God.

2:9a - Is. 64:4

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(12) Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

(13) Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

(14) But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

(15) But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

(16) For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Chapter 3

(1) And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

(2) I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

(3) For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

(4) For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

(5) Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

(6) I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

(12) Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God.

(13) Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

(14) But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God: because they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

(15) But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged by no man.

(16) Because who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct Him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Chapter 3

(1) And I, brothers, could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to carnal, even as to babes in Christ.

(2) I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: because up to now you were not able to bear it, neither are you now yet able {to bear it}.

(3) Because you are still carnal: because whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are you not carnal, and walk as men?

(4) Because while one says, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are you not carnal?

(5) Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

(6) I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(7) So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.
(8) Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.
(9) For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.
(10) According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.
(11) For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
(12) Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
(13) Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
(14) If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.
(15) If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.
(16) Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?
(17) If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

(7) So then neither is he who plants anything, nor he who waters; but God Who gives the increase.
(8) Now he who plants and he who waters are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.
(9) Because we are laborers together with God: you are God's garden, you are God's building.
(10) According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another builds upon it. But let every man take heed how he builds upon it.
(11) Because no other foundation can man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
(12) Now if any man builds upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
(13) Every man's work shall be revealed: because the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
(14) If any man's work stands which he has built upon it, he shall receive a reward.
(15) If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.
(16) Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God lives in you?
(17) If any man defiles the temple of God, God shall destroy him; because the temple of God is holy, Whose temple you are.

King James Version

(18) Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
(19) For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.
(20) And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.
(21) Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;
(22) Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
(23) And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

(1) Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
(2) Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
(3) But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
(4) For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
(5) Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

King James Paraphrase

(18) Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
(19) Because the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. Because it is written, He takes the wise in their own Craftiness.^a
(20) And again, The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.^b
(21) Therefore let no man boast in men. Because all things are yours;
(22) Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
(23) And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

(1) Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
(2) Furthermore it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
(3) But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment: yes, I do not judge myself.
(4) Because I know nothing by myself; yet I am not justified because of it: but He Who judges me is the Lord.
(5) Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, Who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will reveal the counsels of the hearts: and then every man shall have praise from God.

King James Paraphrase

(6) And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

(7) For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

(8) Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

(9) For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

(10) We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

(11) Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

(12) And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

(13) Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

(14) I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

(6) And these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that you might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up against one another.

(7) Because who causes you to differ from another? and what do you have that you did not receive? now if you received it, why do you take pride in it, as if you had not received it?

(8) Now you are full, now you are rich, you have reigned as kings without us: and I wish to God you did reign, that we also might reign with you.

(9) Because I think that God has set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: because we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.

(10) We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honorable, but we are despised.

(11) Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are beaten, and have no certain place to live;

(12) And labor, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

(13) Being slandered, we ask that they be forgiven: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the scum of all things to this day.

(14) I write these things not to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(15) For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

(16) Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

(17) For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

(18) Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

(19) But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

(20) For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

(21) What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

Chapter 5

(1) It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

(2) And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

(3) For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

(15) Because though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers: because in Christ Jesus I have fathered you through the gospel.

(16) Therefore I urge you, be my followers.

(17) Because for this reason I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall remind you of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every church.

(18) Now some are puffed up {with pride}, as though I would not come to you.

(19) But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord wills, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up {with pride}, but the power.

(20) Because the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

(21) What do you want? shall I come to you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of humility?

Chapter 5

(1) It is reported commonly that there is fornication^a among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles {non-Jews}, that one should have his father's wife.^b

(2) And you are puffed up {with pride}, and have not rather mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you.

(4) In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
(5) To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
(6) Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?
(7) Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:
(8) Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
(9) I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:
(10) Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.
(11) But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.
(12) For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?
(13) But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

(8) Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
(9) I wrote to you in a letter not to keep company with fornicators^d:
(10) Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortionists, or with idolaters; because then you would need to go out of the world.
(11) But now I have written to you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother is a fornicator^d, or covetous^e, or an idolater, or one who rages against others, or a drunkard, or an extortionist; with such a one do not eat.
(12) Because what have I to do to judge those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside?
(13) But those who are outside God judges. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 6

(1) Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?
 (2) Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
 (3) Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?
 (4) If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.
 (5) I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?
 (6) But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.
 (7) Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?
 (8) Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.
 (9) Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

 (8) No, you do wrong, and defraud, and that to your brothers.
 (9) Do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate {homosexuals}, nor those who abuse themselves {their bodies} with mankind,

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

(10) Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
(11) And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
(12) All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient {beneficial}: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.
(13) Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.
(14) And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.
(15) Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.
(16) What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.
(17) But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.
(18) Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.
(19) What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?
(20) For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

King James Paraphrase

(10) Nor thieves, nor covetous {greedy}, nor drunkards, nor revilers {slanderers}, nor extortionists, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
(11) And such were some of you: but you are washed, but you are sanctified {made holy}, but you are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
(12) All things are lawful to me, but all things are not expedient {beneficial}: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.
(13) Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.
(14) And God has both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by His own power.
(15) Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a prostitute? God forbid.
(16) What? Do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body {with her}? Because He says, the two, shall become one flesh.^a
(17) But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit.
(18) Flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is outside the body; but he who commits fornication sins against his own body.
(19) What? Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit Who is in you, Whom you have from God, and you are not your own?
(20) Because you are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Chapter 7

(1) Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

(2) Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

(3) Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

(4) The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

(5) Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

(6) But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

(7) For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

(8) I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

(9) But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

(10) And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

(11) But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

Chapter 7

(1) Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

(2) Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

(3) Let the husband render to the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife to the husband.

(4) The wife does not have power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband does not have power over his own body, but the wife.

(5) Do not deprive one another, except by mutual consent for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

(6) But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

(7) Because I would desire that all men were even as I myself. But every man has his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

(8) I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they stay even as I.

(9) But if they cannot contain themselves, let them marry: because it is better to marry than to burn.

(10) And to the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Do not let the wife depart from her husband:

(11) But and if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and do not let the husband divorce his wife.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(12) But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.
(13) And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.
(14) For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.
(15) But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.
(16) For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
(17) But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.
(18) Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.
(19) Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.
(20) Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.
(21) Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

(12) But to the rest I speak, not the Lord: If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, let him not divorce her.
(13) And the woman who has a husband who does not believe, and if he is willing to live with her, let her not leave him.
(14) Because the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else your children would be unclean; but now are they holy.
(15) But if the unbelieving departs, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage^a in such cases: but God has called us to peace.
(16) Because how do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? or how do you know, O man, whether you shall save your wife?
(17) But as God has distributed to every man, as the Lord has called every one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all churches.
(18) Is any man called while being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.
(19) Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.
(20) Let every man live in the same calling in which he was called.
(21) Are you called while being a servant? do not worry about it: but if you may be made free, do so.

7:15a - not under bondage - i.e. if the unbeliever leaves the believer, the believer is free to remarry

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(22) For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

(23) Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

(24) Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

(25) Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

(26) I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

(27) Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

(28) But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

(29) But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

(30) And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

(31) And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

(22) Because he who is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he who is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

(23) You are bought with a price; do not be the servants of men.

(24) Brothers, let every man, in which he is called, live in that manner with God.

(25) Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one who has obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

(26) I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man to be so.

(27) Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

(28) But and if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I would spare you.

(29) But this I say, brothers, the time is short: it remains, that both those who have wives be as though they had none;

(30) And those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess;

(31) And those who use this world, as not abusing it: because the form of this world passes away.

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

(32) But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
(33) But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
(34) There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
(35) And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
(36) But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.
(37) Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.
(38) So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.
(39) The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.
(40) But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

King James Paraphrase

(32) But I would have you not be full of cares. He who is unmarried cares for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
(33) But he who is married cares for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
(34) There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she who is married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
(35) And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is becoming, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
(36) But if any man thinks that he behaves himself unbecoming toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and needs so require, let him do what he will, he does not sin: let them marry.
(37) Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, does well.
(38) So then he who gives her in marriage does well; but he who does not give her in marriage does better.
(39) The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wills; only in the Lord.^b
(40) But she is happier if she so lives, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

7:39b - marry in the Lord - i.e. a believer must never marry an unbeliever. The previous verses about believers married to unbelievers has to do with those who become believers but are still married to unbelievers. A believer must always be sure the person he or she is planning to marry is a believer. See II Cor. 6:14-15; Lev. 34:16; Ezr. 9:2,12; Neh. 13:25; Mal. 2:11

(1) Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.
(2) And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
(3) But if any man love God, the same is known of him.
(4) As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.
(5) For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)
(6) But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
(7) Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
(8) But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.
(9) But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

Chapter 8

(1) Now as concerning things offered to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but charity edifies.
(2) And if any man thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know.
(3) But if any man loves God, the same is known by Him.
(4) As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.
(5) Because though there are those that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there are many gods, and many lords,)
(6) But to us there is but one God, the Father, of Whom are all things, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom all things are, and we by Him.
(7) However not every man has that knowledge: because some with conscience of the idol to this hour eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
(8) But meat does not commend us to God: because neither, if we eat, are we the better; nor, if we do not eat, are we the worse.
(9) But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours becomes a stumbling block to those who are weak.

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

(10) For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

(11) And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

(12) But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

(13) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

Chapter 9

(1) Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

(2) If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

(3) Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

(4) Have we not power to eat and to drink?

(5) Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

(6) Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

(7) Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

(8) Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

King James Paraphrase

(10) Because if any man sees you who has knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not his conscience which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

(11) And through your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

(12) But when you sin so against the brothers, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

(13) Therefore, if meat causes my brother to be offended, I will eat no meat while the world stands, lest I cause my brother to be offended.

Chapter 9

(1) Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are you not my work in the Lord?

(2) If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you: because you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

(4) Do we not have power to eat and to drink?

(5) Do we not have power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

(6) Or I only and Barnabas, do we not have power to forbear working?

(7) Who goes to war at any time at his own charges? who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? or who feeds a flock, and does not drink of the milk of the flock?

(8) Do I say these things as a man? or does the law not also say the same?

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

(9) For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

(10) Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

(11) If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

(12) If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

(13) Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

(14) Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

(15) But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

(16) For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

(17) For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

King James Paraphrase

(9) Because it is written in the law of Moses,
You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the corn.^a
Does God take care for oxen?

(10) Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he who plows should plow in hope; and that he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope.

(11) If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

(12) If others are partakers of this power over you, do we not have the same right? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

(13) Do you not know that those who minister about holy things live off the things of the temple? and those who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar^b?

(14) Even so has the Lord ordained that those who preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

(15) But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done to me: because it would be better for me to die, than that any man should make my boasting void.

(16) Because though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about: because necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me, if I do not preach the gospel!

(17) Because if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a stewardship of the gospel is committed to me.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(18) What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

(19) For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

(20) And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

(21) To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

(22) To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

(23) And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

(24) Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

(25) And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

(26) I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

(27) But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

(18) What is my reward then? Truly that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I do not abuse my power in the gospel.

(19) Because though I am free from all men, yet I have made myself servant to all, that I might gain the more.

(20) And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law;

(21) To those who are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain those who are without law.

(22) To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

(23) And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker with you.

(24) Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain.

(25) And every man who strives for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible {crown}.

(26) I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so I fight, not as one who beats the air:

(27) But I keep control over my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Chapter 10

(1) Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;
(2) And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
(3) And did all eat the same spiritual meat;
(4) And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.
(5) But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
(6) Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
(7) Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
(8) Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
(9) Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.
(10) Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

(8) Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day.
(9) Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by snakes.^b
(10) Nor murmur, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.^c

King James Paraphrase

(11) Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

(12) Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

(13) There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

(14) Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

(15) I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

(16) The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

(17) For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

(18) Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

(19) What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

(20) But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

(11) Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they are written for our warning, upon whom the ends of the world have come.

(12) Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall.

(13) There has no temptation overtaken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, Who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able to bear; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that you may be able to bear it.^d

(14) Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

(15) I speak as to wise men; you judge what I say.

(16) The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

(17) Because we being many are one bread, and one body: because we are all partakers of that one Bread.

(18) Consider Israel after the flesh: are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar^e?

(19) What do I say then? that the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything?

(20) But I say, that the things which the Gentiles {non-Jews} sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons.

King James Version

(21) Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.
(22) Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?
(23) All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
(24) Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.
(25) Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:
(26) For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.
(27) If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
(28) But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:
(29) Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?
(30) For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?
(31) Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
(32) Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:
(33) Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

(25) Whatsoever is sold in the market places, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:
(26) Because the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness.
(27) If any of those who do not believe bid you to a feast, and you are disposed to go; whatever is set before you, eat, asking no questions for conscience sake.

Chapter 11

- (1) Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.
- (2) Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.
- (3) But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.
- (4) Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.
- (5) But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.
- (6) For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
- (7) For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
- (8) For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
- (9) Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
- (10) For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.
- (11) Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

- (5) But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head: because that is the same as if she were shaved.
- (6) Because if the woman is not covered, let her also be shaved: but if it is a shame for a woman to be shaved, let her be covered.
- (7) Because a man indeed ought not to cover his head, inasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
- (8) Because the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
- (9) Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
- (10) Because for this reason the woman ought to have power on her head^a as a witness to the angels.
- (11) Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

11:10a - power on her head - literally a covering over her head as a sign of submission as a witness to the angels. - in 11:16 Paul makes it clear that this was the custom of the day.

King James Version

(23) For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

(24) And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

(25) After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

(26) For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

(27) Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

(28) But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

(29) For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

(30) For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

(31) For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

(32) But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

(33) Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

(34) And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

King James Paraphrase

(23) Because I have received of the Lord that which I also delivered to you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which He was betrayed took bread:

(24) And when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: do this in memory of Me.

(25) After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had eaten, saying, This cup is the new testament in My blood: do this, as often as you drink it, in memory of Me.

(26) Because as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you show the Lord's death until He comes.

(27) Therefore whoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.^b

(28) But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

(29) Because he who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

(30) For this reason many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

(31) Because if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

(32) But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

(33) Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

(34) And if any man is hungry, let him eat at home; that you not come together to condemnation. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

11:27b - see 11:21 - eat and drink "unworthily" - the issue here is not whether any of us are "worthy" to take of the Lord's supper, but that the Lord's supper should be taken in reverence and respect - apparently from verse 21 some were gorging themselves on the bread and getting drunk on the wine and as a result others did not get to participate in the Lord's supper. See verse 34. The instruction in verse 34 is for people to eat their meals at home and not gorge themselves on the Lord's supper.

Chapter 12

(1) Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.
 (2) Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.
 (3) Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.
 (4) Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.
 (5) And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.
 (6) And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.
 (7) But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.
 (8) For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;
 (9) To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
 (10) To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:
 (11) But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

King James Version

(12) For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

(13) For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

(14) For the body is not one member, but many.

(15) If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

(16) And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

(17) If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

(18) But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

(19) And if they were all one member, where were the body?

(20) But now are they many members, yet but one body.

(21) And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

(22) Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

King James Paraphrase

(12) Because as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

(13) Because by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether we are Jews or Gentiles {non-Jews}, whether we are slave or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

(14) Because the body is not one member, but many.

(15) If the foot should say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

(16) And if the ear should say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

(17) If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be?

(20) But now they are many members, yet but one body.

(21) And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

(22) No, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(23) And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

(24) For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

(25) That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

(26) And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

(27) Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

(28) And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

(29) Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

(30) Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

(31) But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

(23) And those members of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant beauty.^a

(24) Because our more beautiful parts have no need: but God has tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacks:

(25) That there should be no division in the body; but that the members should have the same care for one another.

(26) And when one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

(27) Now you are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

(28) And God has set some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, varieties of tongues.

(29) Are all apostles {no}^b? are all prophets {no}^b? are all teachers {no}^b? are all workers of miracles {no}^b?

(30) Have all the gifts of healing {no}^b? do all speak with tongues {no}^b? do all interpret {no}^b?

(31) But earnestly desire the best gifts: and yet show I to you a more excellent way.

12:23-24a - less honorable .. we bestow more honor, unpresentable parts . - i.e. we are careful to cover our private parts so that they are not seen, but our face and more presentable parts of our body do not require such coverings. Each part of the body has its own purpose which God has provided for the benefit of the entire body.

12:29-30b - the wording requires a "no" answer to each of the questions

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 13

(1) Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
 (2) And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
 (3) And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.
 (4) Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
 (5) Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
 (6) Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
 (7) Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
 (8) Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.
 (9) For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
 (10) But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
 (11) When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
 (12) For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

Chapter 13

(1) Though I speak with the languages of men and of angels, and do not have charity {love}^a, I have become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
 (2) And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and do not have charity {love}, I am nothing.
 (3) And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and do not have charity {love}, it does not profit me anything.
 (4) Charity {love} suffers long, and is kind; charity {love} does not envy; charity {love} does not flaunt itself, is not puffed up {with pride},
 (5) Does not behave itself unseemly, does not seek her own benefit, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil;
 (6) Does not rejoice in sin, but rejoices in the truth;
 (7) Bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
 (8) Charity {love} never fails: but where there are prophecies, they shall fail; where there are languages they shall cease; where there is knowledge, it shall vanish away.
 (9) Because we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
 (10) But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
 (11) When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
 (12) Because now we see through a glass, dimly {as a blur}; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then I shall know even as also I am known.

13:1a - charity - agape love {ἀγάπη}- love that moves to action in helping others. The King James usually translates agape as charity because godly love is not an emotion, but an attitude of service to others.

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

(13) And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Chapter 14

(1) Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

(2) For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

(3) But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

(4) He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

(5) I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

(6) Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

(7) And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

(8) For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

(9) So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

King James Paraphrase

(13) And now these three faith, hope, charity {love} remain; but the greatest of these is charity {love}.

Chapter 14

(1) Seek after charity {love}, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.

(2) Because he who speaks in an unknown language speaks not to men, but to God: because no man understands him; even so in the spirit he speaks mysteries.

(3) But he who prophesies speaks to men to encouragement, and exhortation, and comfort.

(4) He who speaks in an unknown language uplifts himself; but he who prophesies uplifts the church.

(5) I desire that you all spoke with {spiritual} languages, but even more that you prophesied: because greater is he who prophesies than he who speaks with {spiritual} languages, unless he interprets, that the church may receive encouragement.

(6) Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with {spiritual} languages, what shall I profit you, unless I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by teaching?

(7) And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, unless they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

(8) Because if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

(9) So likewise you, unless you speak by the {spiritual} language words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? because you shall speak into the air.

King James Version

(10) There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

(11) Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

(12) Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

(13) Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

(14) For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

(15) What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

(16) Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

(17) For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

(18) I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

(19) Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

(20) Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

King James Paraphrase

(10) There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without significance.

(11) Therefore if I do not know the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him who speaks a barbarian, and he who speaks shall be a barbarian to me.

(12) Even so you, inasmuch as you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that you may excel to the encouragement of the church.

(13) Therefore let him who speaks in an unknown language pray that he may interpret.

(14) Because if I pray in an unknown language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

(15) What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

(16) Else when you shall bless with the spirit, how shall he who occupies the room of the unlearned say Amen at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say?

(17) Because you truly give thanks well, but the other is not encouraged.

(18) I thank my God, I speak with {spiritual} languages more than you all:

(19) Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

(20) Brothers, do not be children in understanding: let it be that you are in malice children, but in understanding be men.

King James Version

(21) In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

(22) Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

(23) If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

(24) But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

(25) And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

(26) How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

(27) If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

(28) But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

(29) Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

King James Paraphrase

(21) In the law it is written,
With men of other languages and other lips I will speak to this people; and yet for all that will they not listen to Me, says the Lord.^a

(22) Therefore {spiritual} languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to those who do not believe: but prophesying does not serve those who do not believe, but those who believe.

(23) If therefore the whole church comes together into one place, and all speak with {unknown} languages, and there comes in those who are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that you are mad?

(24) But if all prophesy, and there comes in one who does not believe, or one unlearned, he is convicted of all, he is judged of all:

(25) And so the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is truly in you.

(26) How is it then, brothers? when you come together, every one of you has a song, has a teaching, has a {spiritual} language, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to the up-building {of the church}.

(27) If any man speaks in an unknown language, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

(28) But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.^b

(29) Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the others judge.

14:21a - Is. 28:11

14:28b – If there is no one to interpret – tongues {unknown} languages are not allowed in the church!

King James Version

(30) If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.
(31) For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
(32) And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
(33) For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.
(34) Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.
(35) And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.
(36) What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?
(37) If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.
(38) But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
(39) Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
(40) Let all things be done decently and in order.

Chapter 15

(1) Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

King James Paraphrase

(30) If anything is revealed to another who sits by, let the first hold his peace.
(31) Because you may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
(32) And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
(33) Because God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.
(34) Let your women keep silence in the churches: because it is not permitted for them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also the law says.^c
(35) And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: because it is a shame for women to speak in the church.
(36) What? Did the word of God come out from you? or did it come to you only?
(37) If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord.
(38) But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.
(39) Therefore, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with {spiritual} languages.^d
(40) Let all things be done decently and in order.

Chapter 15

(1) Furthermore, brothers, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand;

14:34c - Gen. 3:16 - i.e. women are not to speak out in church [this was the custom of the Jews in the synagogues which Paul carries over to the modern church - see chapter 11] - This also suggests that women {and men} should not be talking about other things when they should be listening to what is being said.

14:39d - we are not to forbid the use of tongues in church - however, there must be an interpreter present to translate the message - see 14:28

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(2) By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
(3) For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
(4) And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:
(5) And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:
(6) After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.
(7) After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.
(8) And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.
(9) For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
(10) But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
(11) Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
(12) Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
(13) But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:
(14) And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

(2) By which also you are saved, if you keep in memory what I preached to you, unless you have believed in vain.
(3) Because I delivered to you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
(4) And that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the scriptures:
(5) And that He was seen by Cephas {Peter}, then by the twelve:
(6) After that, He was seen by more than five hundred brothers at once; of whom the greater part remain to this present {day}^a, but some are fallen asleep.
(7) After that, He was seen by James; then by all the apostles.
(8) And last of all He was seen by me also, as of one born out of due time.
(9) Because I am the least of the apostles, that am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
(10) But by the grace of God I am what I am: and His grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
(11) Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.
(12) Now if Christ is preached that He rose from the dead, how is it that some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
(13) But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not risen:
(14) And if Christ has not risen, then our preaching is vain, and your faith is also vain.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 20

(1) The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.
 (2) Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.
 (3) Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.
 (4) So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.
 (5) And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.
 (6) Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,
 (7) And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.
 (8) Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.
 (9) For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.
 (10) Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(15) Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.
 (16) For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:
 (17) And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
 (18) Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
 (19) If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
 (20) But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.
 (21) For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
 (22) For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
 (23) But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.
 (24) Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
 (25) For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
 (26) The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
 (27) For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

(15) Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that He raised up Christ: Whom He did not raise up, if it is that the dead do not rise.
 (16) Because if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not raised:
 (17) And if Christ is not raised, your faith is vain; you are yet in your sins.
 (18) Then they also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.
 (19) If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
 (20) But now Christ has risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of those who slept.
 (21) Because since by man death came, by Man the resurrection of the dead came also.
 (22) Because as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
 (23) But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward those who are Christ's at His coming.^b
 (24) Then comes the end, when He shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when He shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
 (25) Because He must reign, until He has put all enemies under His feet.
 (26) The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
 (27) Because He has put all things under His feet. But when He says all things are put under Him, it is revealed that He is excepted, Who put all things under Him.

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(28) And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
(29) Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
(30) And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
(31) I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
(32) If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.
(33) Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.
(34) Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.
(35) But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?
(36) Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:
(37) And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:
(38) But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

(28) And when all things shall be subdued to Him, then the Son shall also Himself be subject to Him Who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.
(29) Else what shall they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?^c
(30) And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour?
(31) I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
(32) If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me, if the dead do not rise? let us eat and drink; because tomorrow we die.
(33) Do not be deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.
(34) Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; because some do not have the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.
(35) But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?
(36) You fool, that which you sow does not come alive, unless it dies:
(37) And that which you sow, is not sown in that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:
(38) But God gives it a body as it has pleased Him, and to every seed its own body.

15:29c - baptized for the dead - literally baptized on behalf of the dead - apparently some practiced baptizing by proxy, where someone is baptized for someone who is already dead. Interestingly, Paul not only does not criticize this practice, but uses it as an argument for the resurrection of the dead.

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(39) All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

(40) There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

(41) There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

(42) So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

(43) It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

(44) It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

(45) And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

(46) Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

(47) The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

(48) As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

(49) And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

(50) Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

(51) Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

(39) All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fish, and another of birds.^d

(40) There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

(41) There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: because one star differs from another star in glory.

(42) So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

(43) It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

(44) It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

(45) And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a life giving Spirit.

(46) So it is that which is spiritual was not first, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

(47) The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second Man is the Lord from heaven.

(48) As is the earthy, such are they also who are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are those also who are heavenly.

(49) And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

(50) Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

(51) Look, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

15:39d - the flesh of man, or of animals, or of fish, or of birds is not the same - anyone who eats meat knows that the meat of cattle is not the same as the meat of fish, or of birds - it doesn't look the same, it doesn't smell the same, it doesn't taste the same.

{46} I Corinthians

King James Version

(52) In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

(53) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

(54) So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

(55) O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

(56) The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

(57) But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

(58) Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

(1) Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

(2) Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

(3) And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

King James Paraphrase

(52) In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: because the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

(53) Because this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

(54) So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written,

Death is swallowed up in victory.^e

(55) O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory?

(56) The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

(57) But thanks be to God, Who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

(58) Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, inasmuch as you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

(1) Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so you do the same.

(2) Upon the first day of the week {Sunday},^a let everyone of you lay by in store, as God has prospered him, that there be no collections when I come.

(3) And when I come, whomever you shall approve by your letters, them I will send to bring your generous offerings^b to Jerusalem.

- (4) And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.
- (5) Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.
- (6) And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.
- (7) For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

- (10) Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.
- (11) Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.
- (12) As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.
- (13) Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.
- (14) Let all your things be done with charity.

- (6) And it may be that I will stay, yes, and winter with you, that you may bring me on my journey wherever I go.
- (7) Because I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits.
- (8) But I will remain at Ephesus until Pentecost.
- (9) Because a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

King James Paraphrase

(15) I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
(16) That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.
(17) I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.
(18) For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.
(19) The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
(20) All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.
(21) The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
(22) If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.
(23) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
(24) My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

(15) I urge you, brothers, (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have dedicated themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
(16) That you submit yourselves to such, and to everyone who helps with us, and labors.
(17) I am glad for the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: because that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.
(18) Because they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge them who are such.
(19) The churches of Asia Minor salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
(20) All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
(21) The salutation is mine, Paul, with my own hand.
(22) If any man does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be cursed, Maranatha {Come, Lord}.^d
(23) The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
(24) My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen {let it be}.

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 1

(1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:
 (2) Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
 (3) Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;
 (4) Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.
 (5) For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.
 (6) And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
 (7) And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.
 (8) For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:
 (9) But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:
 (10) Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

Chapter 1

(1) Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy^a our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

 (3) Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

 (6) And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, which is effective in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation.
 (7) And our hope in you is steadfast, knowing, that as you share in the sufferings, so shall you also share in the comfort.
 (8) Because we do not want, brothers, to have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia {Minor}^c, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, so much so that we despaired even of life:
 (9) But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God Who raises the dead:
 (10) Who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver: in Whom we trust that He will yet deliver us;

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(11) Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.
(12) For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.
(13) For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;
(14) As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.
(15) And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;
(16) And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.
(17) When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?
(18) But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.
(19) For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.
(20) For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

(11) You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.
(12) Because our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly towards you.
(13) Because we write no other things to you, than what you read or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end;
(14) As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus^d.
(15) And in this confidence I decided to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit;
(16) And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia to you, and by you to be brought on my way towards Judaea.
(17) When I was therefore so minded, did I make this decision lightly? or the things that I decide, do I decide according to the flesh, that with me there should be yes yes, and no no?
(18) But as God is true, our word towards you was not yes and no.
(19) Because the Son of God, Jesus Christ, Who was preached among you by us, even by myself and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yes and no, but in Him was yes.
(20) Because all the promises of God in Him are yes, and in Him Amen {let it be}, to the glory of God by us.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(21) Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;
(22) Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
(23) Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.
(24) Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

Chapter 2

(1) But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.
(2) For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?
(3) And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.
(4) For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.
(5) But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
(6) Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.
(7) So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

(21) Now He Who established us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God;
(22) Who has also sealed us, and given the guarantee^e of the Spirit in our hearts.
(23) Moreover I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I have not come as yet to Corinth.
(24) Not because we have rule over your faith, but are helpers for your joy: because by faith you stand.

Chapter 2

(1) But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.
(2) Because if I make you sorry, who is he then who makes me glad, but the same who is made sorry by me?
(3) And I wrote this same to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from those of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

(5) But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
(6) Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted by many.
(7) So that on the contrary you ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with too much sorrow.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(8) Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.
(9) For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.
(10) To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;
(11) Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.
(12) Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,
(13) I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.
(14) Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.
(15) For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:
(16) To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?
(17) For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

King James Paraphrase

(8) Therefore I urge you that you would confirm your love towards him.
(9) Because for this purpose I also wrote, that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things.
(10) To whom you forgive anything, I forgive also: because if I forgave anything, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes I forgave it in the person of Christ;
(11) Lest Satan should get an advantage over us: because we are not ignorant of his devices.
(12) Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord,
(13) I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia.
(14) Now thanks be to God, Who always causes us to triumph in Christ, and reveals the aroma of His knowledge by us in every place.
(15) Because we are to God a sweet smell of Christ, in those who are saved, and in those who perish:
(16) To the one we are the smell of death to death; and to the other the smell of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things?
(17) Because we are not as many, who corrupt the word of God: but of sincerity, and of God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 3

(1) Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?
(2) Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:
(3) Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.
(4) And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
(5) Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
(6) Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.
(7) But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:
(8) How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?
(9) For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
(10) For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

Chapter 3

(1) Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or do we need, as some others, letters of recommendation to you, or letters of recommendation from you?
(2) You are our letter written in our hearts, known and read by all men:
(3) Inasmuch as you are declared to be the letter of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in fleshy tablets of the heart.
(4) And we have such trust through Christ towards God:
(5) Not that we are sufficient by ourselves to think anything of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
(6) Who also has made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: because the letter kills, but the spirit gives life.
(7) But if the ministry of death, written and engraved in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look upon the face of Moses because the glory of his appearance^a; a glory which was to be done away with:
(8) How shall the ministry of the spirit not be rather glorious?
(9) Because if the ministry of condemnation is glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness exceed in glory.
(10) Because even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels.

3:7a – Ex. 34:30, 35

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(11) For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
(12) Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
(13) And not as Moses, which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
(14) But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
(15) But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.
(16) Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.
(17) Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
(18) But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Chapter 4

(1) Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;
(2) But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
(3) But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

(11) Because if that which is done away with was glorious, much more that which remains is glorious.
(12) Since we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
(13) And not as Moses, who put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look upon to the end of that which is abolished^b:
(14) But their minds were blinded: because until this day the same veil remains untaken away in the reading of the old testament; that veil is done away in Christ.
(15) But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their hearts.
(16) Nevertheless when a heart shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.
(17) Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
(18) But we all, with an unveiled face seeing as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Chapter 4

(1) Therefore since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not faint;
(2) But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by revelation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
(3) But if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are lost:

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(4) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

(5) For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

(6) For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

(7) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

(8) We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

(9) Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

(10) Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

(11) For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

(12) So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

(13) We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

(14) Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

(4) In whom the god of this world has blinded their minds who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine upon them.

(5) Because we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

(6) Because God, Who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts, to the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

(7) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

(8) We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

(9) Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

(10) Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be revealed in our body.

(11) Because we who live are constantly delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that Jesus' life also might be revealed in our mortal flesh.

(12) So then death works in us, but life in you.

(13) We having the same spirit of faith, accordingly as it is written,
I believed, and therefore I have spoken;^a
we also believe, and therefore speak;

(14) Knowing that He Who raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

4:13a - Ps. 116:10

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(15) For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.
(16) For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.
(17) For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;
(18) While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Chapter 5

(1) For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
(2) For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:
(3) If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.
(4) For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.
(5) Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
(6) Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

King James Paraphrase

(15) Because all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many abound to the glory of God.
(16) For this cause we do not faint; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.
(17) Because our light affliction, which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceedingly and eternal abundance of glory;
(18) While we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: because the things which are seen are temporary; but the things which are not seen are eternal.^b

Chapter 5

(1) Because we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle {our body} is dissolved, we have a building {body} made by God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
(2) Because in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed^a with our house which is from heaven:
(3) If so being clothed we shall not be found naked.
(4) Because we who are in this tabernacle {body} groan, being burdened: not because we want to be unclothed, but clothed, that mortality might be swallowed up by life.
(5) Now He Who has made us for this very thing is God, Who also has given to us the guarantee^b of the Spirit.
(6) Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

4:18b – What we see is temporary; what we can't see is eternal - the very object of magic is to convince people that what they see is real – but we all know that no magician can actually cut a person in half and put them back together again

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(7) (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)
(8) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
(9) Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.
(10) For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.
(11) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.
(12) For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.
(13) For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.
(14) For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:
(15) And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.
(16) Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

King James Paraphrase

(7) (Because we walk by faith, not by sight:)
(8) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
(9) Therefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted by Him.
(10) Because we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to what he has done, whether it is good or bad.
(11) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made known to God; and I trust also are made known in your consciences.
(12) Because we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to boast on our behalf, that you may have something to answer for those who boast in appearances, and not in heart.
(13) Because whether we are beside ourselves, it is for God: or whether we are sober, it is for your cause.
(14) Because the love of Christ constrains us; because we so judge, that if one died for all, then all were dead:
(15) And that He died for all, that those who live should not from this time forth live to themselves, but to Him Who died for them, and rose again.
(16) Therefore from now on we do not know any man after the flesh: yes, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now from now on we do not know Him any more in that way.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(17) Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.
(18) And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;
(19) To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.
(20) Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.
(21) For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Chapter 6

(1) We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.
(2) (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)
(3) Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:
(4) But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

King James Paraphrase

(17) Therefore if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away; indeed, all things have become new.
(18) And all things are of God, Who has reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation;
(19) To this end, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not holding their sins against them; and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.
(20) Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God urged you by us: we in Christ's place urge you, be reconciled to God.
(21) Because He has made Him to be sin for us, Who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

Chapter 6

(1) We then, as workers together with Him, urge you also that you not receive the grace of God in vain.
(2) (Because He says, I have heard you in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation I have nursed you:^a indeed, now is the accepted time; indeed, now is the day of salvation.)
(3) Giving no offence in anything, that the ministry not be blamed:
(4) But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

(5) In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;
 (6) By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,
 (7) By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
 (8) By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;
 (9) As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;
 (10) As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
 (11) O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.
 (12) Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.
 (13) Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.
 (14) Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?
 (15) And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

(5) In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings;
 (6) By pureness, by knowledge, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by un pretended love,
 (7) By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
 (8) By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;
 (9) As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, indeed, we live; as disciplined, and not killed;
 (10) As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
 (11) O you Corinthians, our mouths are open to you, our hearts are enlarged.
 (12) You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained by your own {worldly} affections.
 (13) Now for a reward in the same, (I speak as to my children,) be also enlarged {continue to grow [spiritually]}.
 (14) Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers: because what fellowship does righteousness have with unrighteousness? and what communion does light have with darkness?^b
 (15) And what agreement does Christ have with Belial {Satan}?^c or what part does he who believes have with an infidel {unbeliever}?^d

6:14b – believers are never allowed to marry unbelievers – see I Cor. 7:39; Lev. 34:16; Ezr. 9:2,12; Neh. 13:25; Mal. 2:11

6:15c - Belial - worthlessness - another name of Satan

6:15d - infidel - an unbeliever - one who willfully rejects the Lord

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(16) And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
(17) Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,
(18) And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

(1) Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
(2) Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.
(3) I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.
(4) Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.
(5) For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

King James Paraphrase

(16) And what agreement does the temple of God have with idols? because you are the temple of the living God; as God has said, I will live in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.^e
(17) Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and do not touch any unclean thing; and I will receive you,
(18) And will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

(1) Therefore having these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear {reverence} of God.
(2) Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.
(3) I do not speak this to condemn you: because I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.
(4) Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my boasting for you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.
(5) Because, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; outside were fightings, inside were fears.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(6) Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

(7) And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

(8) For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

(9) Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

(10) For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

(11) For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

(12) Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

(6) Nevertheless God, Who comforts those who are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

(7) And not by his coming only, but by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent {zealous} mind towards me; so that I rejoiced all the more.

(8) Because though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: because I perceive that the same letter has made you sorry, though it was but for a season.

(9) Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance: because you were made sorry after a godly manner, that you might not be harmed by us in any way.

(10) Because godly sorrow works repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world works death.

(11) Because see this same thing, that you sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it brought about in you, yes, what clearing of yourselves, yes, what indignation, yes, what fear, yes, what vigorous desire, yes, what zeal, yes, what revenge! In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

(12) Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did not do it for the one who had done the wrong, nor for the cause of the one who was wronged, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(13) Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
(14) For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.
(15) And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.
(16) I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Chapter 8

(1) Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;
(2) How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.
(3) For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;
(4) Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.
(5) And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.
(6) Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

King James Paraphrase

(13) Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yes, and we are exceedingly all the more joyful because of the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
(14) Because if I have boasted anything to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found to be truth.
(15) And his inward affection is more abundant towards you, while he remembers your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him.
(16) I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Chapter 8

(1) Furthermore, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;
(2) How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity.
(3) Because to their ability, I bear record, yes, and beyond their ability they were willing to give of themselves;
(4) Begging us with much urging that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.^a
(5) And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God.
(6) So much so that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

8:4a – of the ministering to the saints – the churches took up collections and gave generously begging Paul to give it to those who had need – especially to those in the Jerusalem area who were in great need – see Acts 24:17; Gal. 2:10

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(7) Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

(8) I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

(9) For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

(10) And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

(11) Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

(12) For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

(13) For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

(14) But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

(15) As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

(16) But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

(7) Therefore, as you abound in everything, in faith, and speech, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love towards us, see that you abound in this grace also.

(8) I do not speak by commandment, but because of the earnestness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

(9) Because you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might be rich.

(10) And in this I give my advice: because this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also willingly a year ago.

(11) Now therefore perform its works; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

(12) Because if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man has, and not according to that he does not have.

(13) Because I do not mean that other men be eased, and you burdened:

(14) But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their needs, that their abundance also may be a supply for your needs: that there may be equality:

(15) As it is written,

He who had gathered much had nothing left over; and he who had gathered little had no lack^b.

(16) But thanks be to God, Who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(17) For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

(18) And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

(19) And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

(20) Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

(21) Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

(22) And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

(23) Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

(24) Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

(17) Because indeed he accepted the encouragement; but being more sincere, of his own accord he went to you.

(18) And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

(19) And not only that, but who was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

(20) Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

(21) Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

(22) And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

(23) Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brothers be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

(24) Therefore show them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 9

(1) For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:
 (2) For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.
 (3) Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:
 (4) Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
 (5) Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.
 (6) But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.
 (7) Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
 (8) And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

Chapter 9

(1) Concerning the ministering to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you:
 (2) Because I know the sincerity of your mind, because of which I boast of you to those of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal has provoked very many.
 (3) Yet I have sent the brothers, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this matter; that, as I said, you may be ready:
 (4) Lest haply if those of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we not to say, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
 (5) Therefore I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers, that they would go before to you, and collect beforehand your bounty, of which you had notice beforehand, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness^a.
 (6) But this I say, He who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.
 (7) Every man accordingly as he determines in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: because God loves a cheerful giver.
 (8) And God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9:5a – Paul sent messengers ahead of time to the Corinthians to let them know that a collection would be collected to help those in need – see note on II Cor. 8:4

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(9) (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.
(10) Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)
(11) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.
(12) For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;
(13) Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;
(14) And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.
(15) Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

Chapter 10

(1) Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:
(2) But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

(9) (As it is written, He has dispersed abroad; He has given to the poor: His righteousness remains forever^b.
(10) Now he who ministers seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)
(11) Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which through us causes thanksgiving to God.
(12) Because the administration of this service not only supplies the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God;
(13) While by the experiment of this ministry they glorify God for your professed subjection to the gospel of Christ, and for your generous distribution to them, and to all men;
(14) And by their prayer for you, who long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.
(15) Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift.

Chapter 10

(1) Now I Paul myself urge you by the humility and gentleness of Christ, who in presence is lowly among you, but being absent am bold towards you:
(2) But I urge you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

9:9b – Ps. 112:9

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(3) For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:
(4) (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)
(5) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
(6) And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
(7) Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
(8) For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:
(9) That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
(10) For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.
(11) Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.
(12) For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

(3) Because though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:
(4) (Because the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)
(5) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
(6) And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
(7) Do you look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
(8) Because though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for encouragement, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:
(9) That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
(10) Because, they say, his letters, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.
(11) Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, so will we be also in deed when we are present.
(12) Because we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(13) But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.
(14) For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:
(15) Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,
(16) To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.
(17) But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.
(18) For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

Chapter 11

(1) Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.
(2) For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.
(3) But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

King James Paraphrase

(13) But we will not boast of things outside our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you.
(14) Because we do not stretch ourselves beyond our measure, as though we did not reach to you: because we have come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:
(15) Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,
(16) To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.
(17) But he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.
(18) Because it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Chapter 11

(1) I wish to God you could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.
(2) Because I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: because I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.
(3) But I fear, lest by any means, as the snake deceived Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(4) For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.
(5) For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.
(6) But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.
(7) Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?
(8) I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.
(9) And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.
(10) As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
(11) Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.
(12) But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.
(13) For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

(4) Because if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another gospel, which you have not accepted, you might well bear with him.
(5) Because I suppose I was not a least bit behind the very greatest of the apostles.
(6) But though I lack eloquence in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly revealed among you in all things.
(7) Have I committed an offense in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?
(8) I robbed other churches, taking wages from them, to do you service.^a
(9) And when I was present with you, and had need, I borrowed from no man: because that which was lacking to me the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself.
(10) As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
(11) Why? because I do not love you? God knows.
(12) But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; that in which they boast, they may be found even as we.
(13) Because such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

11:8a – Paul received financial support from other churches as he ministered to the Corinthians and did not ask for nor receive financial support from them although he had every right to do so.

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(14) And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
(15) Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
(16) I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
(17) That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
(18) Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.
(19) For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.
(20) For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.
(21) I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.
(22) Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.
(23) Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

King James Paraphrase

(14) And no wonder; because Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
(15) Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also are transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
(16) I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
(17) That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
(18) Since many boast after the flesh, I will boast also.
(19) Because you suffer fools gladly, since you yourselves are wise.
(20) Because you suffer, if a man brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man take from you, if a man exalts himself, if a man strikes you on the face.
(21) I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. However in whatever anyone is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.
(22) Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.
(23) Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often.

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(24) Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.
(25) Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;
(26) In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;
(27) In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
(28) Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.
(29) Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?
(30) If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.
(31) The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.
(32) In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:
(33) And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

(24) Of the Jews five times I received thirty nine stripes^b.
(25) Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;
(26) In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen {ungodly}, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;
(27) In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
(28) Beside those things that are outside, that which comes upon me daily, the cares of all the churches.
(29) Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I do not burn?
(30) If I need to boast, I will boast of the things which concern my weaknesses.
(31) The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie.
(32) In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desired to apprehend me:
(33) And through a window in a basket I was let down by the wall, and escaped his hands^c.

11:24b - 40 stripes less one - i.e. 39 lashes - it was believed that if someone received 40 lashes they would die, so 39 lashes were given to bring a person to the brink of death without killing them – the law of Moses set the maximum of 40 stripes – Deut. 25:3
11:33c – Acts 9:24-25

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 12

(1) It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
 (2) I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.
 (3) And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)
 (4) How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
 (5) Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.
 (6) For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.
 (7) And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
 (8) For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.
 (9) And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Chapter 12

(1) It is not expedient for me doubtless to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
 (2) I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;) such a one caught up to the third heaven^a.
 (3) And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;)
 (4) How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to speak.
 (5) Of such a one I will boast: yet of myself I will not boast^b, but in my weaknesses.
 (6) Because though I would desire to boast, I shall not be a fool; because I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears of me.
 (7) And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh^c, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
 (8) For this thing I asked the Lord three times, that it might depart from me.
 (9) But He said to me, My grace is sufficient for you: because My strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore I will rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

12:2a - the third heaven - the throne of God - see note on Gen. 1:8

12:5b - Of such a one I will boast: yet of myself I will not boast - contrary to modern pop theology, this verse rules out Paul as being the one caught up to the third heaven since he says: of such a man he will boast, but of himself he will not boast. It is possible that he was referring to the apostle John or some other saint.

12:7c - thorn in the flesh - usually refers to a person [Num. 33:55], but most believe Paul is referring to a medical problem, possibly his failing eyesight [Gal. 4:15; 6:11]

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(10) Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

(11) I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

(12) Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

(13) For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

(14) Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

(15) And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

(16) But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

(17) Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

(18) I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

King James Paraphrase

(10) Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: because when I am weak, then I am strong.

(11) I have become a fool in boasting; you have compelled me: because I ought to have been commended by you: because in nothing am I behind the very greatest of apostles, although I am nothing.

(12) Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

(13) Because what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

(14) Indeed, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: because I do not seek what is yours, but you: because the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

(15) And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.

(16) But so be it, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with trickery.

(17) Did I make a gain of you by any of those whom I sent to you?

(18) I desired Titus, and with him I sent a bother. Did Titus make a gain of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

{47} II Corinthians

King James Version

(19) Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

(20) For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

(21) And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

Chapter 13

(1) This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

(2) I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

(3) Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

(4) For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

(5) Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

King James Paraphrase

(19) Again, do you think that we excuse ourselves to you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your encouragement.

(20) Because I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would desire, and that I shall not be found by you such as you would want: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

(21) And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall grieve over many who have already sinned, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and sexual immorality which they have committed.

Chapter 13

(1) This is the third time I am coming to you.

In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.^a

(2) I told you before, and forewarn you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them who until now have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

(3) Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which towards you is not weak, but is mighty in you.

(4) Because though He was crucified through weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. Because we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God towards you.

(5) Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith; prove your own selves. Do you not know your own selves, how Jesus Christ is in you, unless you are castaways?

13:1a – two or three witnesses – Deut. 17:6

King James Version

King James Paraphrase

(6) But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.
(7) Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.
(8) For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
(9) For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.
(10) Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.
(11) Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.
(12) Greet one another with an holy kiss.
(13) All the saints salute you.
(14) The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

(6) But I trust that you shall know that we are not castaways.
(7) Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we are as castaways.
(8) Because we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
(9) Because we are glad, when we are weak, and you are strong: and this we also wish, even your perfection.

(12) Greet one another with a holy kiss.

(14) The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen {let it be}.
