{41} Mark

King James Version	King James Paraphrase
(6) For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid. (7) And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. (8) And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves. (9) And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead. (10) And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean. (11) And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come? (12) And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. (13) But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him. (14) And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. (15) And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. (16) And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?	(6) Because he did not know what to say; because they were greatly afraid. (7) And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My beloved Son: listen to Him. (8) And suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no man any more, except Jesus alone with themselves. (9) And as they came down from the mountain, He charged them that they should tell no man the things they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. (10) And they kept that saying within themselves, questioning with one another what the rising from the dead should mean. (11) And they asked Him, saying, Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first? (12) And He answered and told them, Elijah truly does come first, and restores all things; and how it is written of the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things, and be set at nothing. (13) But I say to you, That Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they wanted, as it is written of him. (14) And when He came to His disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and the scribes questioning them. (15) And immediately all the people, when they saw Him, were greatly amazed, and running to Him greeted Him. (16) And He asked the scribes, What are you questioning them about?

King James Version	King James Paraphrase
(17) And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; (18) And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. (19) He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. (20) And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. (21) And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child. (22) And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. (23) Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. (24) And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. (25) When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.	(17) And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought to You my son, who has a dumb spirit; (18) And wherever he takes him, he tears him: and he foams, and gnashes with his teeth, and cries away: and I spoke to your disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. (19) He answered him, and said, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him to Me. (20) And they brought him to Him: and when he saw Him, immediately the spirit tore him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed around foaming {at the mouth}. (21) And He asked his father, How long ago has it been since this came into him? And he said, Since childhood. (22) And often it has cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if You can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. (23) Jesus said to him, If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes. (24) And immediately the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help my unbelief. (25) When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the foul spirit, saying to him, You dumb and deaf spirit, I charge you, come out of him, and do not enter into him again.
