Chapter 31 (1) The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him. (2) What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows? (3) Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings. (4) It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink: (5) Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. (6) Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts. (7) Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more. (8) Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction. (9) Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy. (10) Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. (11) The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. (12) She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. (13) She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. (14) She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. (15) She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. (16) She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.	Chapter 31 (1) The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him. (2) What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows? (3) Do not give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings. (4) It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink: (5) Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. (6) Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish, and wine to those who are full of sorrow. (7) Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more. (8) Open your mouth for the dumb {those who cannot speak} in the cause of all who are appointed to destruction. (9) Open your mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy. (10) Who can find a virtuous woman? because her price is far above rubies. (11) The heart of her husband safely trusts in her, so that he will have no need of spoil. (12) She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. (13) She seeks wool, and flax, and works willingly with her hands. (14) She is like the merchants' ships; she brings her food from afar. (15) She rises also while it is yet night, and gives food to her household, and a portion to her maidens. (16) She considers a field, and buys it: with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

{20} Proverbs

King James Version

(17) She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
(18) She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
(19) She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
(20) She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
(21) She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
(22) She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
(23) Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
(24) She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.
(25) Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
(26) She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
(27) She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
(28) Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
(29) Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
(30) Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.
(31) Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

King James Paraphrase

(17) She ties her belt^a with strength, and strengthens her arms.^b
(18) She perceives that her merchandise is good: her candle does not go out by night.^c
(19) She lays her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.^d
(20) She stretches out her hand to the poor; yes, she reaches forth her hands to the needy.
(21) She is not afraid of the snow for her household: because all of her household are clothed with scarlet.
(22) She makes herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
(23) Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land.
(24) She makes fine linen, and sells it; and delivers belts to the merchant.
(25) Strength and honor are her clothing; and she will rejoice in time to come.
(26) She opens her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
(27) She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.
(28) Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her.
(29) Many daughters have done virtuously, but you excel them all.
(30) Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman who fears {reverences} the LORD {Jehovah}, she will be praised.
(31) Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

31:17a – girds her loins – fastens her belt with strength – she gets ready to do work without hesitation

31:17b – strengthens her arms – she does not hesitate to do hard work

31:18c – her candle does not go out by night – she works into the night to provide for her family

31:19d – spindle and distaff – tools used for spinning thread to be used for weaving cloth
