

{42} Luke

(48) And did not know what to do: because all the people were very attentive to hear Him.

Chapter 20

(1) And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon Him with the elders,

(2) And spoke to Him, saying, Tell us, by what authority You do these things? or who is he who gave You this authority?^a

(3) And He answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing; and you answer Me:

(4) The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

(5) And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; He will say, Why then did you not believe him?

(6) But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: because they are persuaded that John was a prophet.

(7) And they answered, that they could not tell from where it was.

(8) And Jesus said to them, Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

(9) Then He began to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it out to gardeners, and went into a far country for a long time.^b

(10) And at the season he sent a servant to the gardeners, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the gardeners beat him, and sent him away empty.

(11) And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

(12) And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

(13) Then the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will respect him when they see him.

(14) But when the gardeners saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

(15) So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do to them?

(16) He shall come and destroy these gardeners, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

(17) And He saw them, and said, What is this then that is written,

The Stone which the builders rejected, the same has become the head of the corner?^c

(18) Whoever shall fall upon that Stone shall be broken; but on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

(19) And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on Him; but they feared the people: because they perceived that He had spoken this parable against them.
