

{43} John

(16) They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
 (17) Sanctify {make holy} them through Your truth: Your word is truth.
 (18) As You have sent Me into the world, even so I have also sent them into the world.
 (19) And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.
 (20) Neither do I pray for these alone, but for those also who shall believe on Me through their word;
 (21) That they all may be one; as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You, that they also may be one in Us: that the world may believe that You have sent Me.
 (22) And the glory which You gave to Me I have given to them; that they may be one, even as We are One:
 (23) I in them, and You in Me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them, as You have loved Me.
 (24) Father, I will that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am; that they may see My glory, which You have given Me: because You loved Me before the foundation of the world.
 (25) O righteous Father, the world has not known You: but I have known You, and these have known that You have sent Me.

(26) And I have declared to them Your Name, and will declare it: that the love with which You have loved Me may be in them, and I in them.

Chapter 18

(1) When Jesus had spoken these words, He went forth with His disciples over the brook Cedron, where there was a garden, into which He and His disciples entered.
 (2) And Judas also, who betrayed Him, knew the place: because Jesus often times went there with His disciples.
 (3) Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.
 (4) Jesus therefore, knowing all things that would come upon Him, went forth, and said to them, Whom do you seek?
 (5) They answered Him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus said to them, I Am He. And Judas also, who betrayed Him, stood with them.
 (6) As soon then as He had said to them, I Am He,^a they went backward, and fell to the ground.
 (7) Then He asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.
 (8) Jesus answered, I have told you that I Am He: if therefore you seek Me, let these go their way:

{43} John

(9) That the saying might be fulfilled, which He spoke, Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none.

(10) Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear.^b The servant's name was Malchus.

(11) Then Jesus said to Peter, Put up your sword into the sheath: shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?

(12) Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound Him,

(13) And led Him away to Annas first; because he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year.^c

(14) Now Caiaphas was he, who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.^d

(15) And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.^e

(16) But Peter stood outside the door. Then that other disciple went out, who was known to the high priest, and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter.

(17) Then the young woman who kept the door said to Peter, Are you not also one of this Man's disciples? He said, I am not.

(18) And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; because it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

(19) The high priest then asked Jesus of His disciples, and of His teaching.

(20) Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I continually taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always resort; and I have said nothing in secret.

(21) Why do you ask Me? ask those who heard Me, what I have said to them: see, they know what I said.

(22) And when He had said this, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Do You answer the high priest^f in this way?

(23) Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why do you strike Me?

(24) Now Annas had sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

(25) And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. Therefore they said to him, Are you not also one of His disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

(26) One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, said, Did I not see you in the garden with Him?
