(15) And they came to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold and bought in the temple, and overturned the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of those who sold doves;

(16) And would not allow any man to carry any vessel through the temple.

(17) And He taught, saying to them, Is it not written,

My house shall be called the house of prayer;^c

but you have made it a den of thieves.^d

(18) And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy Him: because they were afraid of Him, because all the people were astonished at His teaching.

(19) And when evening had come, He went out of the city.

(20) And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

(21) And Peter remembering said to Him, Master, look, the fig tree which You cursed has withered away.

(22) And Jesus answering said to them, Have faith in God.

(23) Because truly I say to you, That whoever shall say to this mountain, Be removed, and be cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he says shall come to pass; he shall have whatever he says.

(24) Therefore I say to you, Whatever things you desire, when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.

(25) And when you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone: that your Father also Who is in heaven may forgive you your sins.

(26) But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father Who is in heaven forgive your sins.
